Textual Amendments

F45 S. 23A omitted (3.12.2012) by virtue of Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (c. 10), s. 151(1), Sch. 12 para. 8; S.I. 2012/2906, art. 2(j) (with art. 7(2)(3))

[^{F46}23B Report by local authority in certain cases where person remanded on bail

- (1) Subsection (2) below applies where a court remands a person aged 10 or 11 on bail and either—
 - (a) the person is charged with or has been convicted of a serious offence, or
 - (b) in the opinion of the court the person is a persistent offender.
- (2) The court may order a local authority to make an oral or written report specifying where the person is likely to be placed or maintained if he is further remanded to local authority accommodation [^{F47}under section 91(3) of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012.]
- (3) An order under subsection (2) above must designate the local authority which is to make the report; and that authority must be the local authority which the court would have designated under [^{F48}section 92(2) of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012] if the person had been remanded to local authority accommodation.
- (4) An order under subsection (2) above must specify the period within which the local authority must comply with the order.
- (5) The maximum period that may be so specified is seven working days.
- (6) If the Secretary of State by order so provides, subsection (2) above also applies where—
 - (a) a court remands on bail any person who has attained the age of 12 and is under the age of [^{F49}18] ,
 - [^{F50}(b) the requirements in section 94(3) and (4) or 95(3) and (4) of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 would have been fulfilled if the person had not been remanded on bail, and]
 - (c) in a case where he is remanded after conviction, the court is satisfied that the behaviour which constituted the offence was due, to a significant extent, to the circumstances in which the offender was living.
- (7) In this section—

“serious offence” means [^{F51}(subject to subsection (8))] an offence punishable in the case of an adult with imprisonment for a term of two years or more.

“working day” means any day other than—

 - (a) a Saturday or a Sunday,
 - (b) Christmas day or Good Friday, or
 - (c) a bank holiday in England and Wales under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971.]

[^{F52}(8) For the purposes of the application of this section to a person remanded on bail in connection with proceedings under the Extradition Act 2003—

Status: This version of this part contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Children and Young Persons Act 1969, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) an offence is a “serious offence” if the conduct constituting the offence would, if committed in England and Wales, constitute an offence punishable in the case of an adult with imprisonment for a term of two years or more, and
- (b) the reference in subsection (1)(a) to a person being charged with a serious offence includes a reference to the person having been accused of such an offence.]

26Transfers between England or Wales and the Channel Islands or Isle of Man.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order designate for the purposes of this section an order of any description which—

(a) a court in the Isle of Man or any of the Channel Islands is authorised to make by the law for the time being in force in that country; and

(b) provides for the committal to the care of a public authority of a person who has not attained the age of eighteen; and

(c) appears to the Secretary of State to be of the same nature as a care order other than an interim order [F56 or as a [F57youth rehabilitation order imposing a local authority residence requirement]] ; and in this section “relevant order” means an order of a description for the time being so designated and “the relevant authority”, in relation to a relevant order, means the authority in the Isle of Man or any of the Channel Islands to whose care the person to whom the order relates is, under the law of that country, committed by the order [F58and ”care order” means an order made under section 31 of the Children Act 1989].

- (2) The Secretary of State may authorise a local authority to receive into their care any person named in the authorisation who is the subject of a relevant order; and while such an authorisation is in force in respect of any person he shall, subject to the following subsection [F59 be deemed to be the subject of a care order placing the child in the care of a named local authority or, where the relevant order was made as a criminal disposal in criminal proceedings, a [F60youth rehabilitation order imposing a local authority residence requirement] with a requirement that the child be accommodated by a designated local authority].

Status: This version of this part contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Children and Young Persons Act 1969, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) An authorisation given to a local authority under this section shall cease to have effect when—
- (a) the local authority is informed by the Secretary of State that he has revoked it; or
 - (b) the relevant order to which the authorisation relates ceases to have effect by the effluxion of time under the law of the place where the order was made or the local authority is informed by the relevant authority that the order has been discharged under that law; or
 - (c) the person to whom the relevant order relates is again received into the care of the relevant authority;
- and if a local authority having by virtue of this section the care of a person to whom a relevant order relates is requested by the relevant authority to make arrangements for him to be received again into the care of the relevant authority, it shall be the duty of the local authority to comply with the request.
