provisions of that one of [^{F2}Schedules 1 to 5] to this Act which relates to vehicles of that description.

- (3) For the purposes of the said duty, in so far as chargeable in respect of the keeping of a vehicle on a road, a vehicle shall be deemed—
 - (a) to be chargeable with the like duty as on the occasion of the issue of the vehicle licence or last vehicle licence issued for the vehicle under this Act, and to be so chargeable by reference to the rate specified in the same Schedule to this Act as on that occasion, or
 - (b) if no vehicle licence has been issued for the vehicle under this Act, to be chargeable by reference to the rate applicable to it under Schedule 5 to this Act.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall operate so as to render lawful the keeping of a vehicle for any period, in any manner or at any place, if to do so would be unlawful apart from this section.

2 Commencement and duration of licences, and rate of duty.

- (1) A vehicle licence may be taken out—
 - (a) in the case of any vehicle, for any period of twelve months;
 - (b) in the case of any vehicle the annual rate of duty applicable to which exceeds [^{F3}£35], for any period of [^{F4}six months],
 - (c)^{F5}

and shall, subject to the provisions of section 13 of this Act, first have effect on the day specified by the applicant in the application for the licence.
- (2) A licence for a period of four months shall expire with such day in the fourth month after that in which the licence first has effect as corresponds to the day preceding that on which it first has effect, so however that a licence for that period shall—
 - (a) if it first has effect on the first day of a month, expire with the last day of the third month after that month; and
 - (b) if it first has effect on 30th or 31st October, expire with the last day of the following February.
- (3) A licence which first has effect before the day on which it is issued shall not affect any criminal liability incurred before that day.
- (4) The duty payable on a vehicle licence for a vehicle of any description shall—
 - (a) if the licence is taken out for a period of twelve months, be paid at the annual rate of duty applicable to vehicles of that description;
 - (b) if the licence is taken out for a period of [^{F4}six months, be paid at a rate equal to one half of the said annual rate plus ten per cent. of that amount];
 - (c)^{F6}

5 Exemptions from duty in connection with vehicle testing, etc.

- (1) A mechanically propelled vehicle shall not be chargeable with any duty under this Act by reason of its use on public roads—
- (a) solely for the purpose of submitting it by previous arrangement for a specified time on a specified date for, or bringing it away from, a compulsory test; or
 - (b) in the course of a compulsory test, solely for the purpose of taking it to, or bringing it away from, any place where a part of the test is to be or, as the case may be, has been carried out, or of carrying out any part of the test, the person so using it being an authorised person; or
 - (c) where the relevant certificate is refused on a compulsory test, solely for the purpose of delivering it by previous arrangement for a specified time on a specified date at a place where work is to be done on it to remedy the defects on the ground of which the certificate was refused, or bringing it away from a place where work has been done on it to remedy such defects.
- (2) In paragraph (c) above the reference to work done or to be done on the vehicle to remedy the defects there mentioned is, in a case where the relevant certificate which is refused is a test certificate, a reference to work done or to be done to remedy those defects for a further compulsory test and includes, in a case where the relevant certificate which is refused is a goods vehicle test certificate, type approval certificate or Minister’s approval certificate, a reference to work done or to be done to alter the vehicle in some aspect of design, construction, equipment or marking on account of which the certificate was refused.
- (3) In this section—
- “compulsory test” means an examination under [F24]section 45 of the Road Traffic Act 1988] with a view to obtaining a test certificate without which a vehicle licence cannot be granted for the vehicle under this Act or, in the case of a goods vehicle for which by virtue of [F25]section 66(3) of that Act] a vehicle licence cannot be so granted, an examination under regulations under [F26]section 49 or for the purposes of sections 54 to 58] of that Act (examinations as to a goods vehicle’s compliance with construction and use or 6 Exemptions from duty in respect of vehicles acquired by overseas residents.

[^{F34}(1) A mechanically propelled vehicle shall not be chargeable with any duty under this Act if it has been supplied to the person keeping it by a taxable person within the meaning of [^{F35}section 2C of the Value Added Tax Act 1983] and the supply has been zero-rated in pursuance of [^{F36}subsection (7) of section 16] of that Act; but if, at any time, the value added tax that would have been chargeable on the supply but for the zero-rating becomes payable under [^{F36}subsection (9)] of that section, or would have become so payable but for any authorisation or waiver under that subsection, then the provisions of subsection (3) below shall apply in relation to that vehicle.]

- (2) Where in the case of any mechanically propelled vehicle it is shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State—
- that the vehicle is not chargeable with purchase tax; and
 - that the vehicle is being acquired from a person who is for the time being registered as a manufacturer of such vehicles by the Secretary of State and who is the manufacturer of the vehicle for the purposes of that register; and
 - that the person so acquiring the vehicle would fall to be treated as an overseas resident for the purposes of the said section 23, the Secretary of State may exempt the vehicle from duty under this Act for a period of twelve months subject to specified conditions, being such conditions as the Secretary of State may from time to time think necessary for the protection of the revenue; but if at any time during those twelve months any of the conditions subject to which the exemption is granted is not complied with, the provisions of subsection (3) below shall apply in relation to the vehicle.

- (3) Where under subsection (1) or (2) above the provisions of this subsection are to apply in relation to a vehicle, the vehicle shall be deemed never to have been exempted from duty under the said subsection (1) or (2) and, without prejudice to the provisions of section 9 of this Act, unless, or except to the extent that, the Secretary of State sees fit to waive payment of the whole or part of the duty, there shall be recoverable by the Secretary of State as a debt due to him—
- from the person by whom the vehicle was acquired from its manufacturer, the duty in respect of the whole period since the registration of the vehicle; or
 - from any other person who is for the time being the keeper of the vehicle, the duty in respect of the period since the vehicle was first kept by that other person,

Liability to pay duty and consequences of non-payment thereof

8 Using and keeping vehicles without a licence.

- (1) If any person uses or keeps on a public road any mechanically propelled vehicle for which a licence is not in force, not being a vehicle exempted from duty under this Act by virtue of any enactment (including any provision of this Act), he shall be liable to the greater of the following penalties, namely—

- (a) an excise penalty of £50; or
 - (b) an excise penalty equal to five times the amount of the duty chargeable in respect of the vehicle.
- (2) In any proceedings for an offence under this section it shall be a defence to prove that—
- (a) while an expired vehicle licence for the vehicle was in force an application was duly made for a further vehicle licence for the vehicle to take effect from or before the expiration of the expired licence and for a period including the time in question; and
 - (b) the expired licence was at that time fixed to and exhibited on the vehicle in the manner prescribed in pursuance of section 12(4) of this Act; and
 - (c) the period between the expiration of the expired licence and that time did not exceed fourteen days.

For the purposes of paragraph (a) above an application for a further licence is made when the application is received by the Secretary of State.

- (3) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) where a vehicle for which a vehicle licence is in force is transferred by the holder of the licence to another person, the licence shall be treated as no longer in force unless it is delivered to that other person with the vehicle;
 - (b) the amount of the duty chargeable in respect of a vehicle shall be taken to be an amount equal to the annual rate of duty applicable to the vehicle at the date on which the offence was committed or, where in the case of a vehicle kept on a public road that rate differs from the annual rate by reference to which the vehicle was at that date chargeable under section 1 of this Act in respect of the keeping thereof, equal to the last mentioned rate.

For the purposes of paragraph (b) above the offence shall, in the case of a conviction for a continuing offence, be taken to have been committed on the date or latest date to which the conviction relates.

9 Additional liability for keeping unlicensed vehicle.

- (1) Where a person convicted of an offence under section 8 of this Act is the person by whom the vehicle in respect of which the offence was committed was kept at the time it was committed, the court shall, in addition to any penalty which it may impose under that section, order him to pay an amount calculated in accordance with subsections (2) to (4) below.
- (2) The said amount shall, subject to subsection (3) below, be an amount equal to one three-hundred-and-sixty-fifth of the annual rate of duty appropriate to the vehicle in question for each day in the relevant period, and the relevant period shall be one ending with the date of the offence and beginning—
- (a) if the person convicted has before that date notified the Secretary of State of his acquisition of the vehicle in accordance with regulations under this Act,

Status: Point in time view as at 08/11/1993.

- with the date on which the notification was received by the Secretary of State or, if later, with the expiry of the vehicle licence last in force for the vehicle, or
- (b) in any other case, with the expiry of the vehicle licence last in force for the vehicle before the date of the offence or, if there has not at any time before that date been a vehicle licence in force for the vehicle, with the date on which the vehicle was first kept by that person:

Provided that, where the person convicted has been ordered to pay an amount under this section on the occasion of a previous conviction in respect of the same vehicle, and the offence then charged was committed after the date specified above for the beginning of the relevant period, that period shall begin instead with the day following that on which the former offence was committed.

- (3) Where the person convicted proves—
- (a) that throughout any day comprised in the relevant period the vehicle in question was not kept by him, or
- (b)^{F53}
- (d) that he has paid duty in respect of the vehicle for any such day, whether or not on a licence, the said amount shall be calculated as if that day were not comprised in the relevant period.

[^{F54}(3A) Where an order has previously been made against a person under section 26A of this Act to pay an amount for a month or part of a month in the case of a vehicle, the amount which he is ordered to pay under this section in the case of the vehicle shall be calculated as if no part of that month were comprised in the relevant period.]

- (4) In relation to any day comprised in the relevant period, the reference in subsection (2) above to the annual rate of duty appropriate to the vehicle in question is a reference to the annual rate applicable to it on that day; and, except so far as it is proved to have fallen within some other description for the whole of any such day, a vehicle shall be taken for the purposes of this section to have belonged throughout the relevant period to that description of vehicle to which it belonged for the purposes of duty at the date of the offence or, if the prosecution so elect, the date when a vehicle licence for it was last issued.
- (5) Where, on a person's conviction of an offence under section 8 of this Act, an order is made under [^{F55}Section 1C of the ^{M8}Powers of Criminal Courts Act 1973][^{F56}or the Probation Act (Northern Ireland) 1950][^{F57}placing him on probation or] discharging him absolutely or conditionally, the foregoing provisions of this section shall apply as if the conviction were deemed to be a conviction for all purposes.
- (6) In the foregoing provisions of this section any reference to the expiry of a vehicle licence includes a reference to its surrender, and to its being treated as no longer in force for the purposes of section 8 of this Act by virtue of subsection (3)(a) of that section; and in the case of a conviction for a continuing offence, the offence shall be taken for the purposes of those provisions to have been committed on the date or latest date to which the conviction relates.
- (7) The foregoing provisions of this section shall have effect subject to the provisions (applying with the necessary modifications) of any enactment relating to the imposition of fines by magistrates' courts, other than one conferring a discretion as to their amount; and any sum payable by virtue of an order under this section shall be treated as a fine, and the order as a conviction, for the purposes of [^{F58}Part

III of the ^{M9}Magistrates' Courts Act 1980] (including any enactment having effect as if contained in that Part) and of any other enactment relating to the recovery or application of sums ordered to be paid by magistrates' courts.

- (8) In its application to Scotland, this section shall have effect as if for subsections (5) and (7) there were substituted the following subsections respectively:—

“(5) Where a person is [^{F59}convicted on indictment of, or is] charged before a court of summary jurisdiction with, an offence under section 8 of this Act, and an order is made under [^{F59}Part I or] Part II of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1975 discharging him absolutely or placing him on probation, the foregoing provisions of this section shall apply as if [^{F59}the conviction on indictment were a conviction for all purposes, or, as the case may be,] the making of the order by the court of summary jurisdiction were a conviction.”

“(7) The foregoing provisions of this section shall have effect subject to the provisions (applying with the necessary modifications) of any enactment relating to the imposition of fines by courts of summary jurisdiction, other than one conferring a discretion as to their amount; and any sum payable by virtue of an order under this section shall be treated as a fine, and the order as a conviction, for the purposes of any enactment relating to the recovery or application of sums ordered to be paid by courts of summary jurisdiction.”

- [^{F60}(9) In its application to Northern Ireland, this section shall have effect as if for subsection (7) there were substituted the following subsection—

“(7) A sum payable by virtue of any order made under this section by a court shall be recoverable as a sum adjudged to be paid by a conviction and treated for all purposes as a fine within the meaning of section 20 of the Administration of Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 1954.””]

10 Continuous liability for duty.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section and of section 11 of this Act, a person who for any period keeps a vehicle in respect of which duty under this Act has at any time become chargeable shall, whether or not it is still a mechanically propelled vehicle, be liable to pay duty under this Act in respect of the vehicle for that period.
- (2) Subject as aforesaid, a person shall not be liable by virtue of subsection (1) above to pay duty under this Act in respect of a vehicle—
 - (a) for any period for which duty under this Act in respect of the vehicle has been paid and has not been repaid in consequence of the surrender of a licence;
 - (b) for any period in respect of which he has, in accordance with regulations under section 11 of this Act, given notice to the Secretary of State that the vehicle will not be used or kept on a public road;
 - (c) for any period when the vehicle is not a mechanically propelled vehicle and a notice stating that it has ceased to be such a vehicle has, in accordance with regulations under section 11 of this Act, been given to the Secretary of State and not revoked in pursuance of subsection (2) of that section;
 - (d) for any period when the vehicle is exempt from duty by virtue of section 4 or 6 or section 7 (except subsection (3)) of this Act;
 - (e) for any period when he keeps the vehicle solely for the purpose of selling or supplying it in the course of his business as a motor dealer or using it under the authority of a trade licence in the course of his business as a motor trader within the meaning of section 16 of this Act;
 - (f)^{F61}
 - (g) for any period by reference to which there was calculated an amount ordered to be paid by him in respect of the vehicle in pursuance of section 9(1) of this Act.
- (3) A person shall not by virtue of subsection (2)(b) above be exempt from his liability for any period under subsection (1) above in respect of a vehicle if—
 - (a) at any time during that period he or any other person with his consent uses or keeps the vehicle on a public road and no vehicle licence is in force for the vehicle at that time; or
 - (b) after he has given notice under the said subsection (2)(b) in relation to the vehicle in respect of that period he applies for a vehicle licence for the vehicle to have effect on any day included in the first thirty days of that period; and for the purposes of paragraph (a) above the consent there mentioned shall be presumed to have been given unless the contrary is shown, but any use or keeping of the vehicle in question as respects which the vehicle is exempt by virtue of any enactment for the time being in force from duty under this Act shall be disregarded.

- (4) Sums payable in pursuance of this section by way of duty in respect of a vehicle shall accrue due from day to day at one three-hundred-and-sixty-fifth of the annual rate of duty applicable to the vehicle on that day.
- (5) Without prejudice to any other mode of recovering sums payable by virtue of this section, where an application for a vehicle licence for twelve months or four months for a vehicle is made by a person by whom such sums are payable in respect of the vehicle and a vehicle licence other than a temporary licence is to be issued in pursuance of the application, the licence shall, if the Secretary of State so directs but subject to subsection (6) below, be made to have effect for a shorter period specified in the direction, being a period which is not less than thirty days and is such that the difference between the amount tendered in connection with the application and the amount chargeable upon the licence for the specified period does not exceed the aggregate amount of the sums aforesaid; and the amount so chargeable shall be equal to the number of days in the specified period multiplied by—

- (a) where the application is for a licence for twelve months, one three-hundred-and-sixty-fifth of the annual rate of duty under this Act payable in respect of the vehicle on the date of the application; and
- (b) where the application is for a licence for four months, eleven three-thousand-six-hundred-and-fiftieths of that rate; and where a licence is made to have effect for a specified period in pursuance of this subsection the aggregate amount of the sums aforesaid shall be treated as reduced by the difference aforesaid.

- (6) A person to whom a licence is issued for a period specified in a direction under subsection (5) above may appeal to the county court, or in Scotland by way of summary application to the sheriff, on the ground that the Secretary of State was not authorised by that subsection to give the direction.

Issue, exhibition, exchange, surrender, etc. of licences

12 Issue and exhibition of licences.

- (1) Every person applying for a vehicle licence shall make such a declaration and furnish such particulars with respect to the vehicle for which the licence is to be taken out or otherwise as may be prescribed.
- (2) Every vehicle licence shall be issued for the vehicle specified in the application for the licence and shall not entitle the person to whom it is issued to use or keep any other vehicle.
- (3) The Secretary of State shall not be required to issue any vehicle licence for which application is made unless he is satisfied—
 - (i) that the licence applied for is the appropriate licence for the vehicle specified in the application; and
 - (ii) in the case of an application for a licence for a vehicle purporting to be the first application for a licence for the vehicle, that a licence has not previously been issued for that vehicle.
- (4) Subject to the provisions of regulations under this Act, and without prejudice to section 8 thereof, any person who uses or keeps on a public road any mechanically propelled vehicle on which duty under this Act is chargeable without there being fixed to and exhibited on that vehicle in the prescribed manner a licence for, or in respect of the use of, that vehicle issued under this Act and for the time being in force shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F63}level 1 on the standard scale].
- (5) In any proceedings for an offence under subsection (4) above it shall be a defence to prove that—
 - (a) while an expired vehicle licence for the vehicle was in force an application was duly made for a further vehicle licence for the vehicle to take effect from or before the expiration of the expired licence and for a period including the time in question; and 13 Temporary licences.

- (1) Where an application is made for a vehicle licence for any period . . . ^{F64}, the Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, instead of issuing forthwith a vehicle licence for that period—
 - (a) issue a vehicle licence (in this Act referred to as a “temporary licence”) for fourteen days or such other period as may be prescribed and having effect from such day as may be prescribed; and
 - (b) issue from time to time a further temporary licence in respect of the vehicle to which a previous temporary licence relates.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall affect the amount of any duty payable in connection with an application for a vehicle licence.
- [^{F65}(2A) Where an application for a vehicle licence is made to a body [^{F66}(other than a Northern Ireland department)] authorised by the Secretary of State to act as his agent for the purpose of issuing licences, then, before the body issues a licence under subsection (1) (a) above, it may require the applicant to pay to it in connection with the issue a fee of £2 or such other sum as may be prescribed.]
- (3) Where an application is made for a vehicle licence for any period and a temporary licence is issued in pursuance of the application, subsection (3)(a) of section 8 of this Act shall not apply to the first-mentioned licence if on a transfer of the relevant vehicle during the currency of the temporary licence the temporary licence is delivered with the vehicle to the transferee.

14 Issue, etc. of temporary licences by motor dealers.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make such provision as he considers appropriate with respect to the allocation of temporary licences to motor dealers who apply for such allocations and appear to the Secretary of State suitable to receive them and with respect to the issue of the licences by motor dealers.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, regulations under this section may include provision—
 - (a) as to the mode of application for the allocation of licences and as to the fees payable in respect of allocations;
 - (b) specifying the categories of vehicles for which allocations of licences may be made;
 - (c) prohibiting the issue of temporary licences in pursuance of applications for trade licences . . . ^{F67};
 - (d) for requiring a motor dealer to pay to the Secretary of State, in respect of each licence allocated to the dealer, the excise duty chargeable in respect of the licence which will be specified in the application in consequence of which the allocated licence can be issued;
 - (e) as to the replacement of allocated licences which are lost, damaged or destroyed and as to the fees payable in connection with their replacement; and
 - (f) as to the transfer of licences allocated to a motor dealer in cases where the dealer dies or becomes incapacitated or bankrupt and in such other cases as may be prescribed.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, regulations under this section may also include provision for—
 - (a) requiring a motor dealer to whom an allocation of licences is made to keep a record in the prescribed form of the licences allocated to him and of the licences issued by him, and to permit the record to be inspected at all reasonable times by any officer of the Secretary of State and any constable;
 - (b) restricting the circumstances in which a motor dealer may issue licences;
 - (c) requiring a motor dealer, before he issues a temporary licence in respect of a vehicle—
 - (i) to obtain from the proposed holder of the licence an application for a vehicle licence in the prescribed form,
 - (ii) to ascertain that the prescribed requirements as to test certificates and insurance are satisfied in respect of the vehicle,
 - (iii) to ensure that the temporary licence is appropriate for the vehicle and takes effect on the prescribed date, and
 - (iv) to make on the temporary licence, and on any copy of it specified in the regulations, such entries as the Secretary of State may determine;
 - (d) requiring a motor dealer by whom a temporary licence is issued to deliver or despatch to the Secretary of State, within the prescribed period beginning with the day on which the dealer issues the licence, the prescribed particulars and documents relating to the licence and the vehicle for which it is issued; and
 - (e) securing that after any change takes effect in the rate of excise duty chargeable in respect of a vehicle licence of any description, a temporary licence previously allocated to a dealer is not issued by him in consequence of an application for a vehicle licence of that description, but that a temporary licence issued in contravention of regulations made in pursuance of the 15 Provisions supplementary to s. 14.

- (1) Any unissued licence allocated to a motor dealer in pursuance of section 14 of this Act may at any time be surrendered in the prescribed manner to the Secretary of State by the dealer or by any person to whom the licence has been transferred under regulations made in pursuance of subsection (2)(f) of that section.
- (2) A motor dealer and any other person having the custody of any unissued licence allocated to the dealer in pursuance of section 14 of this Act shall, if required to do so by the Secretary of State and subject to section 25(2) of this Act, forthwith surrender any such licence to the Secretary of State in such manner as the Secretary of State may direct; and a person who knowingly fails to comply with a requirement made by the Secretary of State under this subsection shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of [^{F68}level 3 on the standard scale].
- (3) On the surrender of a licence in pursuance of this section the dealer or other person in question shall be entitled to be paid by the Secretary of State the amount paid by the dealer in respect of the licence under regulations made in pursuance of section 14(2)(d) of this Act.
- (4) Where a licence is issued by a motor dealer in contravention of regulations made in pursuance of section 14(3)(e) of this Act, the dealer shall be liable to pay to the Secretary of State a sum equal to the amount (if any) by which the amount paid by the dealer as mentioned in subsection (3) above is exceeded by the amount which would have been so paid if the allocation of the licence to the dealer had taken place at the time when the licence was issued.

(iii) in the case of a motor trader who is a manufacturer of mechanically propelled vehicles, for all vehicles kept and used by him solely for purposes of conducting research and development in the course of his business as such a manufacturer ^{F70}and all vehicles which are from time to time submitted to him by other manufacturers for testing on roads in the course of that business], the Secretary of State may, subject to the prescribed conditions, issue to him a trade licence on payment of duty at the rate applicable to the licence in accordance with the following provisions of this section:

Provided that the holder of a trade licence shall not be entitled by virtue of that licence—

- (a) to use more than one mechanically propelled vehicle at any one time, . . . ^{F71}; or
- (b) to use any vehicle for any purpose other than such purposes as may be prescribed; or
- (c) [^{F72}except in such circumstances as may be prescribed] to keep any vehicle on a road if it is not being used thereon.

^{F73}(1A) Subsection (1) above has effect in relation to an application made by a person who satisfies the Secretary of State that he intends to commence business as a motor trader or vehicle tester as it has effect in relation to an application made by a motor trader or vehicle tester.]

(2) Regulations shall be made under this section prescribing the conditions subject to which trade licences are to be issued and the purposes for which the holder of a trade licence may use a vehicle under the licence.

(3) The purposes which may be prescribed as those for which the holder of a trade licence may use a vehicle under the licence shall not include the conveyance of goods or burden of any description other than—

- (a) a load which is carried solely for the purpose of testing or demonstrating the vehicle or any of its accessories or equipment and which is returned to the place of loading without having been removed from the vehicle except for such purpose or in the case of accident; or
- (b) ^{F74}

^{F75}(bb) in the case of a vehicle which is being delivered or collected, a load consisting of another vehicle used or to be used for travel from or to the place of delivery or collection; or]

- (c) any load built in as part of the vehicle or permanently attached thereto; or
- (d) a load consisting of parts, accessories or equipment designed to be fitted to the vehicle and of tools for so fitting them; or
- (e) a load consisting of a trailer [^{F76}other than a trailer which is for the time being a disabled vehicle]; and, for the purposes of this subsection, where a vehicle is so constructed that a trailer may by partial superimposition be attached to the vehicle in such a manner as to cause a substantial part of the weight of the trailer to be borne by the vehicle, the vehicle and the trailer shall be deemed to constitute a single vehicle.

(4) [^{F77}Subject to subsections (4A) and (4B) below, a trade licence] may be taken out—

- (a) for a period of twelve months; or

^{F78}(b) for a period of six months];

and shall first have effect on the day specified by the applicant in the application for the licence.

[^{F79}(4A) A trade licence taken out by a person who is not a motor trader or vehicle tester (having satisfied the Secretary of State as mentioned in subsection (1A) above) shall be for a period of six months only.

(4B) The Secretary of State may require that a trade licence taken out by a motor trader or vehicle tester who does not hold any existing trade licence shall be for a period of six months only.]

(5) The rate of duty applicable to a trade licence taken out for a period of twelve months shall be [^{F80}the rate mentioned in subsection (5A)(a) below] or, if the licence is to be used only for vehicles to which Schedule 1 to this Act relates, [^{F81}the rate mentioned in subsection (5A)(b) below]; and the rate of duty applicable to a licence taken out for a period of [^{F82}six months] shall be [^{F82}eleven twentieths] of the rate applicable to the corresponding trade licence taken out for a period of twelve months, any fraction of 5p being treated as 5p if it exceeds 2.5p but otherwise being disregarded.

[^{F83}(5A) The rates referred to in subsection (5) above are—

- (a) the annual rate applicable to a vehicle falling within paragraph 2 of Part II of Schedule 5 to this Act in relation to a licence taken out when the trade licence is taken out;
- (b) the annual rate applicable to a vehicle falling within paragraph 3 of Part II of Schedule 1 to this Act in relation to a licence taken out when the trade licence is taken out.]

(6) Nothing in this section shall operate to prevent a person entitled to take out a trade licence from holding two or more trade licences.

(7) If any person holding a trade licence or trade licences issued under this section uses on a public road by virtue of that licence or those licences—

- (i) a greater number of vehicles at any one time than he is authorised to use by virtue of that licence or those licences; or
- (ii) any vehicle for any purpose other than such purposes as may have been prescribed under subsection (2) above; or if that person uses that licence or any of those licences for the purpose of keeping on a road [^{F84}in any circumstances other than such circumstances as may have been prescribed under paragraph (c) of the proviso to subsection (1) above] a vehicle which is not being used on that road, he shall be liable to the greater of the following penalties, namely—

- (a) an excise penalty of £50; or
- (b) an excise penalty equal to five times the amount of the duty chargeable in respect of the vehicle or vehicles.

The amount of the duty chargeable in respect of a vehicle shall be calculated for the purposes of this subsection in the same manner as it is calculated for the purposes of section 8 of this Act by virtue of subsection (3) thereof.

(8) In this section—

[^{F85}“disabled vehicle” includes a vehicle which has been abandoned or is scrap;]

“motor trader” [^{F86}means—

- (a) a manufacturer or repairer of, or dealer in, mechanically propelled vehicles, or
- (b) any person not falling within paragraph (a) above who carries on a business of such description as may be prescribed;

Status: Point in time view as at 08/11/1993.

17 Surrender of licences.

- (1) The holder of a licence (other than a licence for a tramcar)—
- (a) may at any time surrender the licence to the Secretary of State in the prescribed manner; and

Status: Point in time view as at 08/11/1993.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Vehicles (Excise) Act 1971 (Repealed 1.9.1994). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) shall on so surrendering the licence be entitled, if he satisfies the prescribed requirements and subject to the following provisions of this section, to receive from the Secretary of State, by way of rebate of duty paid upon the surrendered licence, a sum equal to the relevant amount multiplied by the number of days in the relevant period:

Provided that no sum shall be payable under this subsection in a case where the relevant period is less than thirty days.

- (2) In this section “the relevant amount”, in relation to a surrendered licence, means one three-hundred-and-sixty-fifth of the annual rate by reference to which duty was charged upon the licence and “the relevant period”, in relation to a surrendered licence, means the period beginning with the day following that on which the licence is received by the Secretary of State in pursuance of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) above and ending with the day on which the licence would have expired by the effluxion of time.

The Secretary of State may, for the purposes of this subsection, treat a surrendered licence delivered to him by post as received by him on the day on which it was posted.

- (3) If during the currency of a temporary licence issued in pursuance of an application for a vehicle licence for any period, the temporary licence is surrendered under this section, it shall be treated for the purposes of this section as issued for that period or, if the Secretary of State so directs but subject to subsection (4) below, for any other period specified in the direction being a period for which by virtue of section 10(5) of this Act a vehicle licence could be issued in pursuance of the application; and where a further vehicle licence issued in pursuance of the application is held by any person at the time of the surrender of the temporary licence or is received by him thereafter—
- (a) the further licence shall cease to be in force and he shall forthwith return it to the Secretary of State and shall, if he knowingly fails to do so, be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F88}level 3 on the standard scale]; and
- (b) if the Secretary of State considers that there has been undue delay in complying with paragraph (a) above he may, without prejudice to any liability under that paragraph, reduce the relevant period by such number of days as he thinks fit for the purpose of calculating the sum payable in pursuance of subsection (1) above in respect of the surrendered temporary licence.
- (4) A person who in pursuance of this section is paid a sum which was calculated by reference to a period specified in a direction under subsection (3) above may appeal to the county court, or in Scotland by way of summary application to the sheriff, on the ground that the Secretary of State was not authorised by that subsection to give the direction.

is in force used in an altered condition or in a manner or for a purpose which brings it within, or which if it was used solely in that condition or in that manner or for that purpose would bring it within, a description of vehicle to which a higher rate of duty is applicable under this Act, duty at that higher rate shall become chargeable in respect of the licence for the vehicle.

- (2) Where duty at a higher rate becomes chargeable under subsection (1) above in respect of any vehicle licence, the licence may be exchanged for a new vehicle licence, for the period beginning with the date on which the higher rate of duty becomes chargeable and expiring at the end of the period for which the original vehicle licence was issued, on payment of the appropriate proportion of the difference between—
 - (a) the amount payable under this Act on the original vehicle licence; and
 - (b) the amount payable under this Act on a vehicle licence taken out for the period for which the original licence was issued but at the higher rate of duty, that amount being calculated, if that rate has been changed since the issue of the original licence, as if that rate had been in force at all material times at the level at which it is in force when it becomes chargeable.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) above the appropriate proportion is the proportion which the number of days in the period beginning when the higher rate of duty becomes chargeable and ending with the end of the period for which the original licence was issued bears to the number of days in the whole of the last-mentioned period, that period being treated as 365 days in the case of a licence for twelve months and 120 days in the case of a licence for four months.
- (4) Where a vehicle licence has been taken out for a vehicle, and by reason of the vehicle being used as mentioned in subsection (1) above, a higher rate of duty becomes chargeable and duty at the higher rate was not paid before the vehicle was so used, the person so using the vehicle shall be liable to the greater of the following penalties, namely—
 - (a) an excise penalty of £50; or
 - (b) an excise penalty of an amount equal to five times the difference between the duty actually paid on the licence and the amount of the duty at that higher rate.
- (5) Where a vehicle licence has been taken out for a vehicle of a certain description, duty at a higher rate applicable to vehicles of some other description shall not become chargeable in respect of the vehicle by reason of the vehicle being used as mentioned in subsection (1) above, unless the vehicle as used while the said licence is in force satisfies all the conditions which must be satisfied in order to bring the vehicle for the purposes of the charge of duty under this Act into the said other description of vehicles.
- (6) Where duty has been paid in respect of a vehicle at a rate applicable under Schedule 4 to this Act, then, so long as the vehicle is to a substantial extent being used for the conveyance of goods or burden belonging to a particular person (whether the person keeping the vehicle or not), duty at a higher rate shall not become chargeable in respect of the vehicle by reason only that it is used for the conveyance without charge in the course of their employment of employees of the person aforesaid.
- (7) Where duty has been paid in respect of a vehicle at a rate applicable to farmers' goods vehicles under Schedule 4 to this Act, duty at a higher rate shall not become chargeable in respect of the vehicle by reason only that, on an occasion when the vehicle is being used by the person in whose name it is registered under this Act for the purpose of the conveyance of the produce of, or of articles required for the purposes of, the agricultural land which he occupies, it is also used for the conveyance for some other person engaged in agriculture of the produce of, or of articles required for the purposes of, the agricultural land occupied by that other person, if it is shown—

- (a) that the vehicle is so used only occasionally;
 - (b) that the goods conveyed for that other person represent only a small proportion of the total amount of goods which the vehicle is conveying on that occasion; and
 - (c) that no payment or reward of any kind is, or is agreed to be, made or given for the conveyance of the goods of that other person.
- (8) Where duty has been paid in respect of a vehicle at a rate applicable to farmers' goods vehicles under Schedule 4 to this Act, duty at a higher rate shall not become chargeable in respect of the vehicle by reason only that, during such periods and in such areas as may be specified by order of the Treasury made by statutory instrument, it is used, whether or not by the person in whose name it is registered under this Act, for any such purpose as is specified in the order.

An order under this subsection may be revoked or varied by a subsequent order of the Treasury.

- (9) Subsection (8) above shall continue in force until such date as Her Majesty may by Order in Council determine.

[^{F89}(10) In its application to Northern Ireland, this section shall have effect as if—

- (a) for subsection (8) there were substituted the following subsection—

“(8) Where duty has been paid under this Act in respect of a vehicle either—

- (a) as an agricultural tractor under Schedule 3, or
- (b) as a farmer's goods vehicle under Schedule 4, duty at a higher rate shall not become chargeable in respect of that vehicle by reason only that it is used by the person in whose name it is registered for conveying to or from any agricultural land in his occupation livestock owned by him in connection with the agricultural activities carried on by him on that land; but this subsection shall not have effect in relation to a vehicle used for conveying any livestock which for the time being is part of the stock in trade of a dealer in cattle and is conveyed in the course of his business as such dealer.”; and

- (b) subsection (9) were omitted.]

[^{F90}18A Additional liability in relation to alteration of vehicle or its use.

- (1) Where a person convicted of an offence under section 18 of this Act is the person by whom the vehicle in respect of which the offence was committed was kept at the time it was committed, the court shall, in addition to any penalty which it may impose under that section, order him to pay an amount (the “additional duty”) calculated in accordance with this section.
- (2) The additional duty shall, subject to subsections (7) and (8) below, be an amount equal to one three-hundred-and-sixty-fifth of the appropriate annual rate of duty for each day in the relevant period.
- (3) The following Cases are referred to in subsections (5) and (6) below—

CASE A

Where—

- (a) at the time of the offence the vehicle in question had a plated weight (the “higher plated weight”) which exceeds the plated weight (the “previous plated weight”) which it had when the current licence was taken out; and
- (b) the current licence was taken out at the rate of duty applicable to the previous plated weight.

CASE B

Where—

- (a) the vehicle in question is a tractor unit (within the meaning of paragraph 15 of Schedule 4 to this Act);
- (b) the current licence was taken out at a rate of duty applicable to the use of the vehicle only with semi-trailers having not less than two axles or, as the case may be, only with semi-trailers having not less than three axles; and
- (c) the offence consisted in using the vehicle with a semi-trailer with a smaller number of axles than that mentioned in paragraph (b) above,^{F91} . . .

CASE C

Where—

- (a) the current licence was taken out at the rate of duty applicable, by virtue of paragraph 8 of Schedule 4 to this Act, to a weight lower than the plated weight of the vehicle in question; and
- (b) the offence consisted in using the vehicle in contravention of a condition imposed by virtue of paragraph 8(3) of Schedule 4.

CASE D

Where the current licence was taken out at a rate of duty lower than that applicable to the vehicle in question by reference to its plated weight and the circumstances of the case do not bring it within Case A, B or C.

CASE E

Where the current licence was taken out at a rate of duty lower than that at which duty was chargeable in respect of that condition or manner of use of the vehicle which constituted the offence and the circumstances of the case do not bring it within Case A, B, C or D.

Status: Point in time view as at 08/11/1993.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Vehicles (Excise) Act 1971 (Repealed 1.9.1994). (See end of Document for details)

- (4) In this section “current licence” means the licence in relation to which the offence was committed.
- (5) In this section “appropriate annual rate of duty” means the difference between the rate of duty at which the current licence was taken out and—
- (a) in Case A, the rate which would have been applicable had the current licence been taken out by reference to the higher plated weight;
 - (b) in Case B, the rate which would have been applicable had the current licence been taken out by reference to that use of the vehicle which constituted the offence;
 - (c) in case C, the rate which would have been applicable had the current licence been taken out by reference to the plated weight of the vehicle;
 - (d) in Case D, the rate which would have been applicable had the current licence been taken out by reference to the plated weight of the vehicle; and
 - (e) in Case E, the rate which would have been applicable had the current licence been taken out by reference to that condition or use of the vehicle which constituted the offence.
- (6) In this section “relevant period” means the period ending with the day on which the offence was committed and beginning
- (a) in relation to Case A, with the day on which the vehicle in question was plated with the higher plated weight; and
 - (b) in relation to each of the other Cases, with the day on which the current licence first took effect.
- (7) Where the person convicted proves—
- (a) that throughout any day comprised in the relevant period he was not the keeper of the vehicle in question;
- [^{F92}or]
- (c) that he had, before his conviction, paid the higher of the two rates of duty referred to in the relevant paragraph of subsection (5) above in respect of the vehicle for any such day, whether or not on a licence; . . . ^{F93}
- the additional duty shall be calculated as if that day were not comprised in the relevant period.
- (8) Where a person is convicted of more than one contravention of section 18 of this Act in respect of the same vehicle (whether or not in the same proceedings) the court shall, in calculating the additional duty payable in respect of any one of those offences, reduce the amount calculated in accordance with the preceding provisions of this section in relation to a particular period by the amount of the additional duty ordered to be paid under this section in relation to that period in respect of the other offence or, as the case may be, offences.
- (9) Except so far as it is proved to have fallen within some other description for the whole of any day comprised in the relevant period, the vehicle in question shall be taken for the purposes of this section to have belonged throughout the relevant period to that description of vehicle to which it belonged for the purposes of duty at the date of the offence.
- (10) Where, on a person’s conviction of an offence under section 18 of this Act, an order is made under Part I of the Powers of Criminal Courts Act ^{M10} 1973 [^{F94}or the Probation Act (Northern Ireland) 1950] placing him on probation or discharging him absolutely or conditionally, this section shall apply as if the conviction were deemed to be a conviction for all purposes.

(11) This section shall have effect subject to the provisions (applying with the necessary modifications) of any enactment relating to the imposition of fines by magistrates' courts, other than one conferring a discretion as to their amount; and any sum payable by virtue of an order under this section shall be treated as a fine, and the order as a conviction, for the purposes of Part III of the Magistrates' Courts Act ^{M11} 1980 (including any enactment having effect as if contained in that Part) and of any other enactment relating to the recovery or application of sums ordered to be paid by magistrates' courts.

(12) In its application to Scotland, this section shall have effect as if for subsections (10) and (11) there were substituted the following subsections)—

“(10) Where a person is convicted on indictment of, or is charged before a court of summary jurisdiction with, an offence under section 18 of this Act, and an order is made under section 182 or 383 of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1975 discharging him absolutely, or under section 183 or 384 of that Act placing him on probation, this section shall apply as if the making of the order were a conviction for all purposes.

(11) Any sum payable by virtue of an order under this section shall be treated as a fine imposed by a court of summary jurisdiction.”

[^{F95}(12A) In its application to Northern Ireland, this section shall have effect as if—

- (a) in subsections (3) and (5) for “plated weight”, in each place, there were substituted “relevant maximum weight or, as the case may be, relevant maximum train weight”;
- (b) in subsection (6) for “plated with the higher plated weight” there were substituted “rated at the higher relevant maximum weight or, as the case may be, the higher relevant maximum train weight”; and
- (c) for subsection (11) there were substituted the following subsections—

“(11) A sum payable by virtue of any order made under this section by a court shall be recoverable as a sum adjudged to be paid by a conviction and treated for all purposes as a fine within the meaning of section 20 of the Administration of Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 1954.

(11A) In this section “relevant maximum weight” and “relevant maximum train weight” have the same meaning as in Schedule 4 to this Act.”]

(13) This section is subject to Schedule 7 to this Act.

F96 S.18B inserted (prosp.) by Finance Act 1991 (c.31, SIF 107:2), s. 9(2)(6)

^{F97}18B Combined transport of goods.

- (1) This section applies to any goods vehicle which—
 - (a) has a plated gross weight or a plated train weight which exceeds 3,500 kilograms, or
 - (b) has neither a plated gross weight nor a plated train weight, but has a design weight which exceeds 3,500 kilograms.
- (2) Where in the course of the transport of goods between member States by means of combined transport a goods vehicle to which this section applies is transported by rail in [^{F98}the United Kingdom] at a time when a vehicle licence for it is in force, the holder of the licence shall, on making a claim, be entitled to receive from the Secretary of State, by way of rebate of the duty paid upon the licence, a sum of an amount calculated in accordance with the method prescribed for the purpose by the Secretary of State.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations prescribe when and how a claim for a rebate under this section is to be made and the evidence to be provided in support of such a claim.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) goods are transported by means of combined transport where they are loaded on a goods vehicle which is transported by rail between the following points, namely the nearest suitable rail loading station to the point of loading and the nearest suitable rail unloading station to the point of unloading;
 - (b) “design weight” and “goods vehicle” have the same meanings as in Schedule 4 to this Act; and
 - (c) references to the plated gross weight or plated train weight of a goods vehicle shall be construed in accordance with paragraph 9 of that Schedule.
- [^{F99}(5) In its application to Northern Ireland, this section shall have effect as if—
 - (a) for “plated gross weight”, in each place, there were substituted “relevant maximum weight”; and
 - (b) for “plated train weight”, in each place, there were substituted “relevant maximum train weight”.]

Registration and registration marks, etc.

19 Registration and registration marks.

- (1) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State—
- (a) on the first issue by him of a vehicle licence for a vehicle; or
 - (b) where particulars in respect of the vehicle are furnished to him by a motor dealer in pursuance of section 20 of this Act before the Secretary of State first issues a vehicle licence for the vehicle, on receiving the said particulars,
- to register the vehicle in such manner as the Secretary of State thinks fit without any further application in that behalf by the person taking out the licence and, except where the Secretary of State registers the vehicle on receiving the said particulars, to assign to the vehicle a registration mark indicating the registered number of the vehicle.

[^{F100}(1A) The Secretary of State may, in such circumstances as he may determine—

- (a) assign a registration mark to a vehicle to which another registration mark has been previously assigned;
 - (b) assign to a vehicle (whether on its first registration or not) a registration mark previously assigned to another vehicle;
 - (c) (whether in connection with an assignment falling within either of the preceding paragraphs or not) withdraw any registration mark for the time being assigned to a vehicle;
 - (d) re-assign to a vehicle a registration mark previously assigned to it but subsequently withdrawn.]

- (b) specify the size, shape and character of the registration marks or the signs to be affixed to any such vehicle (including a vehicle used by virtue of a trade licence) and the manner in which the marks or signs are to be displayed and rendered easily distinguishable by day and by night;
- (c) make provision for the issue of trade plates to holders of trade licences and for the charging of a fee for the replacement of such plates by reason of damage to them or of their loss or destruction;
- (d) make provision with respect to the furnishing of information and production of certificates of insurance or security and test certificates relating to mechanically propelled vehicles in respect of which duty is not chargeable under this Act and with respect to the registration and identification of such vehicles (including vehicles belonging to the Crown);
- (e) make provision with respect to the inspection [^{F105}, transfer] and surrender of any registration document issued in respect of a vehicle and provide that, in a case where the surrender of such a document is required in connection with an application for a licence under this Act, the licence shall not be issued if the document is not surrendered;
- (f) make provision with respect to the replacement of any such document . . . ^{F106}, and
- (g) provide for information contained in any records maintained by the Secretary of State with respect to the marking, registration or keeping of vehicles to be made public or to be made available, either without payment or on payment of the prescribed fee, to such persons as may be determined by or under the regulations.

Regulations under this section which require a person to furnish information relating to vehicles exempted from duty by virtue of section 7(2) of this Act may require him to furnish in addition such evidence of the facts giving rise to the exemption as is prescribed by the regulations.

Miscellaneous

24 Marking of engines and bodies.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make such provision as he thinks appropriate with respect to the marking of the engines and bodies of mechanically propelled vehicles.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above regulations under this section may include provision—
 - (a) as to the persons by whom and the times at which engines and bodies of vehicles are to be marked;
 - (b) as to the form of any mark and the manner and position in which it is to be made; and
 - (c) for requiring particulars of marks made in pursuance of the regulations to be furnished to the Secretary of State.

25 Review of Secretary of State's decisions relating to motor traders, etc.

- (1) If the Secretary of State—
 - (a) rejects an application by a motor dealer for an allocation of temporary licences or registration marks in pursuance of this Act; or
 - (b) requires a motor dealer or any other person to surrender any unissued temporary licences allocated to the dealer in pursuance of this Act or cancels an allocation of registration marks made to a dealer in pursuance of this Act; or
 - (c) refuses an application for a trade licence made by a motor trader or vehicle tester within the meaning of section 16 of this Act, and the dealer, trader, tester or other person in question requests the Secretary of State within the prescribed period to review his decision, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to comply with the request and, in doing so, to consider any representations made to him in writing within the period aforesaid by the person who made the request.

- (2) Such a requirement or cancellation as is mentioned in subsection (1)(b) above shall not take effect before the expiration of the period aforesaid and, where during that period a request is made in pursuance of that subsection in respect of the requirement or cancellation, shall not take effect before the Secretary of State gives notice in writing of the result of the review to the person who made the request.

For the purposes of this subsection a notice may be given to any person by delivering it to him or by leaving it at his proper address or by sending it to him by post; and for the purposes of this subsection and [^{F107}section 7 of the ^{M12}Interpretation Act 1978] in its application to this subsection the proper address of any person shall be his latest address as known to the person giving the notice.

[^{F108}26A Dishonoured cheques: additional liability in certain cases.

(1) Where a person has been convicted of an offence under section 102 of the Customs and Excise Management Act ^{M13}1979 (payment for licence by dishonoured cheque) in relation to a licence issued under this Act, the court shall, in addition to any penalty which it may impose under that section, order him to pay an amount equal to one twelfth of the appropriate annual rate of duty for each month or part of a month in the relevant period.

(2) The relevant period for the purposes of this section is the period which—

- (a) begins with the first day of the period for which the licence was applied for or, if it is later, the day on which the licence first was to have effect, and
- (b) ends with whichever is the earliest of the following, namely—
 - (i) the end of the month in which the order is made;
 - (ii) the date on which the licence was due to expire;
 - (iii) the end of the month during which the licence was delivered up; and
 - (iv) the end of the month preceding that in which a new licence for the licensed vehicle first had effect.

- (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

Status: Point in time view as at 08/11/1993.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Vehicles (Excise) Act 1971 (Repealed 1.9.1994). (See end of Document for details)

[^{F131}“community bus” means a vehicle used on public roads solely in accordance with a community bus permit (within the meaning of section 22 of the Transport Act ^{M23}1985), and not used for providing a service under an agreement providing for service subsidies (within the meaning of section 63(10)(b) of that Act);]

[^{F132}“conditional sale agreement” means an agreement for the sale of a vehicle under which the purchase price or part of it is payable by instalments, and the property in the vehicle is to remain in the seller (notwithstanding that the buyer is to be in possession of the vehicle) until such conditions as to the payment of instalments or otherwise as may be specified in the agreement are fulfilled;]

“gas” means any fuel which is wholly gaseous at a temperature of 60 degrees Fahrenheit under a pressure of 30 inches of mercury;

[^{F133}“hackney carriage” means a mechanically propelled vehicle standing or plying for hire and includes any mechanically propelled vehicle bailed or (in Scotland) hired under a hire agreement by a person whose trade it is to sell such vehicles or bail or hire them under hire agreements [^{F134}but does not include a community bus]];]

[^{F135}“hire agreement” means an agreement for the bailment or (in Scotland) the hiring of a vehicle which is not a hire-purchase agreement;

“hire-purchase agreement” means an agreement, other than a conditional sale agreement, under which—

- (a) a vehicle is bailed or (in Scotland) hired in return for periodical payments by the person to whom it is bailed or hired, and
- (b) the property in the vehicle will pass to that person if the terms of the agreement are complied with and one or more of the following occurs—
 - (i) the exercise of an option to purchase by that person,
 - (ii) the doing of any other specified act by any party to the agreement,
 - (iii) the happening of any other specified event;]

“licence” means a vehicle licence or a trade licence;

“motor dealer” means a person carrying on the business of selling or supplying mechanically propelled vehicles;

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State;

“public road” means a road which is repairable at the public expense [^{F136}except that in Scotland it has the same meaning as in the Roads (Scotland) Act 1984.];

F137

“temporary licence” has the meaning assigned to it by section 13(1) of this Act;

“trade licence” means a licence issued under section 16(1) of this Act; and

“transfer date” has the same meaning as in the ^{M24}Vehicle and Driving Licences Act 1969, that is to say, such date as the Secretary of State may by order appoint for the purposes of section 1(1) of that Act;

“vehicle licence” means a licence under this Act for a mechanically propelled vehicle.

- (2) For the purposes of any provision of this Act and any subsequent enactment relating to the keeping of mechanically propelled vehicles on public roads, a person keeps such 39 Transitional provisions, savings, repeals and revocation.

- (1) This Act shall have effect subject to the modifications specified in Part I of Schedule 7 thereto (being modifications required during the transition to the provisions of this Act from the law in force at the passing of this Act relating to the system of vehicle licensing and registration).
- (2) The modifications of this Act so specified shall cease to have effect on such day as the Secretary of State may appoint by order made by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament; and different days may be appointed under this subsection for different modifications so specified or for different modifications so far as they apply to such cases only as may be specified in the order.
- (3) Where during the period between the passing and the commencement of this Act any provision of the Vehicle and Driving Licences Act 1969 is brought into force and either—
- (a) this Act or any provision thereof is by virtue of subsection (1) above and any modifications specified in Part I of Schedule 7 thereto directed to have effect as if the corresponding provision of this Act were omitted; or

Farmers' goods vehicles and showmen's goods vehicles

- [^{F189}6 (1) The annual rate of duty applicable to a farmer's goods vehicle or a showman's goods vehicle—
- (a) which has a plated gross weight or plated train weight not exceeding 3,500 kilograms; or
 - (b) which has no such weight but has a design weight not exceeding 3, 500 kilograms,
- is £85.
- (2) The annual rate of duty applicable to a farmer's goods vehicle or a showman's goods vehicle—
- (a) which has a plated gross weight or plated train weight exceeding 3, 500 kilograms but not exceeding 7,500 kilograms; or

- (4) The assumptions referred to in sub-paragraph (3) above are—
- (a) that the rates of duty specified in the tables in paragraphs 2 and 4 above are—
 - (i) in the case of a farmer's goods vehicle, sixty per cent; and
 - (ii) in the case of a showman's goods vehicle, twenty-five per cent, of the rates actually specified in the tables (but subject to sub-paragraph (5) below); and
 - (b) that the amount of the trailer supplement under paragraph 3 above in the case of a showman's goods vehicle is £80.
- (5) Where a rate arrived at in accordance with sub-paragraph (4) above would be an amount which is not a multiple of £5, the rate shall—
- (a) where it would on division by five produce a remainder of £2.50 or more, be rounded up to the nearest amount which is such a multiple; and
 - (b) otherwise, be rounded down to the nearest amount which is such a multiple.
- (6) Notwithstanding sub-paragraphs (3) to (5) above—
- (a) the annual rate of duty applicable to a farmer's goods vehicle which is a rigid goods vehicle with two axles and has a plated gross weight exceeding 14,000 kilograms but not exceeding 15,000 kilograms is £490;
 - (b) the annual rate of duty applicable to a showman's goods vehicle which has a plated gross weight or plated train weight exceeding 7,500 kilograms but not exceeding 12,000 kilograms is £100;

Vehicles treated as having reduced plated weights

- 8
- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that, on an application made in accordance with the regulations, the goods vehicle to which the application relates shall be treated for the purposes of this Schedule as if its plated gross weight or plated train weight were the lower gross weight or train weight (the "operating weight") specified in the application.
 - (2) Where, following an application duly made in accordance with the regulations, a licence is issued for the vehicle concerned at the rate of duty applicable to the operating weight, that weight shall be shown on the licence.
 - (3) The regulations may provide that the use of any vehicle in respect of which a lower rate of duty is chargeable by virtue of this paragraph shall be subject to prescribed conditions and to such further conditions as the Secretary of State may think fit to impose in any particular case.
 - (4) In any case where a vehicle in respect of which a lower rate of duty has been charged by virtue of this paragraph is used in contravention of a condition imposed by virtue of sub-paragraph (3) above, then—
 - (a) the higher rate of duty applicable to its plated gross weight or plated train weight shall become chargeable as from the date of the contravention; and
 - (b) section 19 of this Act shall apply as if—
 - (i) that higher rate had become chargeable under subsection (1) of that section by reason of the vehicle being used as mentioned in that subsection; and
 - (ii) subsections (5) to (9) were omitted.

Status: Point in time view as at 08/11/1993.

Plated and unladen weights

- 9 (1) Any reference in this Schedule to the plated gross weight of a goods vehicle or trailer is a reference—
- (a) to that [^{F191}weight], which is the maximum gross weight which may not be exceeded in Great Britain for the vehicle or trailer in question; or [^{F192}as indicated on the appropriate plate]
 - (b) in the case of any trailer which may lawfully be used in Great Britain without [^{F193}such a plate], to the maximum laden weight at which the trailer may lawfully be used in Great Britain.
- (2) Any reference in this Schedule to the plated train weight of a vehicle is a reference to that [^{F194}weight], which is the maximum gross weight which may not be exceeded in Great Britain for an articulated vehicle consisting of the vehicle in question and any semi-trailer which may be drawn by it [^{F195}as indicated on the appropriate plate].
- ^{F196}(2A) In this paragraph “appropriate plate”, in relation to a vehicle or trailer, means—
- (a) where a Ministry plate (within the meaning of regulations made under [^{F197}section 41 or 49 of the Road Traffic Act 1988]) has been issued, or has effect as if issued, for the vehicle or trailer following the issue or amendment of a plating certificate (within the meaning of Part II of that Act), that plate;
 - (b) where paragraph (a) does not apply, but such a certificate is in force for the vehicle or trailer, that certificate; and
 - (c) where neither paragraph (a) nor paragraph (b) above applies but the vehicle or trailer has been equipped with a plate in accordance with regulations made under [^{F198}section 41 of the Act of 1988], that plate.]
- (3) A mechanically propelled vehicle which—
- (a) is constructed or adapted for use and used for the conveyance of a machine or contrivance and no other load except articles used in connection with the machine or contrivance; and
 - (b) is not a vehicle for which an annual rate of duty is specified in Schedule 3 to this Act; and
 - (c) has neither a plated gross weight nor a plated train weight,
- shall, notwithstanding that the machine or contrivance is built in as part of the vehicle, be chargeable with duty at the rate which would be applicable if the machine or contrivance were burden.

Interpretation

- 15 (1) In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires—
F204
- “axle” includes—
- (i) two or more stub axles which are fitted on opposite sides of the longitudinal axis of the vehicle so as to form—
 - (a) a pair in the case of two stub axles, and
 - (b) pairs in the case of more than two stub axles,
 - (ii) a single stub axle which is not one of a pair; and
 - (iii) a retractable axle;
- “basic rate of duty” has the meaning given by paragraph 1(2);
- “business” includes the performance by a local or public authority of its functions;
- [^{F205}“design weight” means the weight which a vehicle is designed or adapted not to exceed when in normal use and travelling on a road laden;]
- “farmer’s goods vehicle” means, subject to paragraph 10(2) above, a goods vehicle registered under this Act in the name of a person engaged in agriculture and used on public roads solely by him for the purpose of the conveyance of the produce of, or of articles required for the purposes of, the agricultural land which he occupies, and for no other purposes;

Status: Point in time view as at 08/11/1993.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Vehicles (Excise) Act 1971 (Repealed 1.9.1994). (See end of Document for details)

“goods vehicle” means [^{F206}subject to sub-paragraph (1A) below] a mechanically propelled vehicle (including a tricycle as defined in Schedule 1 to this Act and weighting more than 425 kilograms unladen) constructed or adapted for use and used for the conveyance of goods or burden of any description, whether in the course of trade or otherwise;

.....
F207

“rigid goods vehicle” means a goods vehicle which is not a tractor unit;
 “showman’s goods vehicle” means a showman’s vehicle which is a goods vehicle and is permanently fitted with a living van or some other special type of body or superstructure, forming part of the equipment of the show of the person in whose name the vehicle is registered under this Act;
 “showman’s vehicle” has the same meaning as in Schedule 3 to this Act;
 “stub axle” means an axle on which only one wheel is mounted;
 “tower wagon” means a goods vehicle—

- (a) into which there is built, as part of the vehicle, any expanding or extensible contrivance designed for facilitating the erection, inspection, repair or maintenance of overhead structures or equipment; and
- (b) which is neither constructed nor adapted for use nor used for the conveyance of any load, except such a contrivance and articles used in connection therewith;

“tractor unit” means a goods vehicle to which a semi-trailer may be so attached that part of the semi-trailer is super-imposed on part of the goods vehicle and that when the semi-trailer is uniformly loaded not less than 20 per cent. of the weight of its load is borne by the goods vehicle;

“trailer” shall be construed in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) below;

“unladen weight” has the same meaning as it has for the purposes of [^{F208}the Road Traffic Act 1988 by virtue of section 190 of that Act]; . . . ^{F209}

.....
F204

[^{F210}(1A) In this Schedule “goods vehicle” does not include a vehicle to which Schedule 4A to this Act applies.]

- (2) In this Schedule “trailer” does not include—
 - (a) an appliance constructed and used solely for the purpose of distributing on the road loose gritting material;
 - (b) a snow plough;
 - (c) a road construction vehicle as defined in section 4(2) of this Act;
 - (d) a farming implement not constructed or adapted for the conveyance of goods or burden of any description, when drawn by a farmer’s goods vehicle;
 - (e) a trailer used solely for the carriage of a container for holding gas for the propulsion of the vehicle by which it is drawn, or plant and materials for producing such gas.

[^{F211}16(1) This Schedule shall apply to Northern Ireland subject to the following modifications.

- (2) Any reference to a plated gross weight or a plated train weight shall be construed as if it were a reference to a relevant maximum weight or a relevant maximum train weight.
- (3) Paragraph 5 above shall have effect as if for sub-paragraph (1) there were substituted the following paragraph—
- (?) This paragraph applies to a goods vehicle—
- (a) which has a relevant maximum weight or a relevant maximum train weight exceeding 3,500 kilograms or, in the case of a vehicle which has neither a relevant maximum weight nor a relevant maximum train weight, a design weight exceeding 3,500 kilograms; and
- (b) which is for the time being authorised for use on roads by virtue of an order under Article 29(3) of the Road Traffic (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (authorisation of special vehicles).”
- (4) Paragraph 9 above shall have effect as if for sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) there were substituted the following sub-paragraphs—
- (?) Any reference in this Schedule to the relevant maximum weight of a goods vehicle or trailer is a reference—
- (a) where the vehicle or trailer is required by regulations under Article 28 of the Road Traffic (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 to have a maximum gross weight in Great Britain for the vehicle or trailer marked on a plate attached to the vehicle or trailer, to the maximum gross weight in Great Britain marked on such a plate;
- (b) where a vehicle or trailer on which the maximum gross weight in Great Britain is marked by the same means as would be required by regulations under the said Article 28 if those regulations applied to the vehicle or trailer, to the maximum gross weight in Great Britain so marked on the vehicle or trailer;
- (c) where a maximum gross weight is not marked on a vehicle or trailer as mentioned in paragraph (a) above, to the notional maximum gross weight of the vehicle or trailer ascertained in accordance with the Goods Vehicles (Ascertainment of Maximum Gross Weights) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1976 (or any regulations replacing those regulations, whether with or without amendments).

PART II

OTHER TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS AND SAVINGS

- 1 In so far as any regulation, order, licence or other instrument made or issued, or having effect as if made or issued, under any enactment repealed by this Act or any other thing done or deemed to have been done under any such enactment, could have been made, issued or done under a corresponding provision of this Act it shall not be invalidated by the repeals effected by section 39(5) of this Act, but shall have effect as if made, issued or done under that corresponding provision.

Provided that this paragraph shall not be construed as saving the order specified in Part II of Schedule 8 to this Act.

- 2 Without prejudice to paragraph 1 above, any provision of this Act relating to anything done or required or authorised to be done under, or by reference to, that provision, this Act or any other provision of this Act shall have effect as if any reference to that provision, to this Act or to that other provision, as the case may be, included a reference to the corresponding provision of the enactments repealed by this Act or to the Act containing the corresponding provision so repealed.

- 3 No licence or other instrument issued or made or having effect as if issued or made by a local authority under any enactment repealed by this Act and nothing done or deemed to have been done by or in relation to a local authority under any such enactment shall be prevented from being treated for the purposes of the foregoing paragraphs as a licence or other instrument or other thing which could have been issued, made or done under a corresponding provision of this Act by reason only that it could have been issued, made or done under that corresponding provision by or in relation to the Secretary of State and not by or in relation to a local authority.

In this paragraph “local authority” has the same meaning as it has in the ^{M27}Vehicle and Driving Licences Act 1969.
