

Fire Precautions Act 1971 (repealed)

1971 CHAPTER 40

Offences, penalties and legal proceedings

22 Falsification of documents, false statements etc.

(1) If a person—

- (a) with intent to deceive, [^{F1}forges a fire certificate or] makes or has in his possession a document so closely resembling a fire certificate as to be calculated to deceive; or
- (b) for the purpose of procuring the issue of a fire certificate, makes any statement or gives any information which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly makes any statement or gives any information which is so false; or
- (c) in purported compliance with any obligation to give information to which he is subject under or by virtue of this Act, or in response to any inquiry made by virtue of section 19(1)(b) of this Act, gives any information which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly gives any information which is so false; or
- (d) makes in any register, book, notice or other document required by or by virtue of regulations made under this Act to be kept, served or given, an entry which he knows to be false in a material particular, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F2}level 5 on the standard scale].

(2) If a person with intent to deceive pretends to be—

- (a) an inspector within the meaning of section 19 of this Act, or
- (b) a person by whom the powers conferred by that section on a fire inspector are exercisable by virtue of section 20 of this Act, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £100.

[^{F3}(3) In this section in its application to England and Wales the expression “forges” has the same meaning as in the ^{M1}Forgery Act 1913.]

28 Power of county court or sheriff, where notice under s. 3 is in force, to modify agreements and leases and apportion expenses.

- (1) Where there is in force a notice under section 3 of this Act relating to any premises (in this section referred to as “the relevant premises”), this section shall apply to any premises consisting of or comprised in the relevant building.
- (2) A person who, by reason of the terms and conditions of an agreement or lease relating to any premises to which this section applies, is prevented from carrying out or doing with respect to the premises any structural or other alterations or other thing whose carrying out or doing is requisite—
 - (a) as being a step mentioned in a notice served in connection with the relevant premises under any of the following provisions of this Act, namely sections 5(4), 8(4), 8(5) and 12(8)(b); or
 - (b) in order to secure compliance with a requirement imposed by a fire certificate issued with respect to the relevant premises; or
 - (c) in order to secure compliance with a provision of regulations under section 12 of this Act which is, or will become, applicable to the premises by virtue of there being in force a notice under section 3 of this Act relating to the relevant premises, may apply to the county court within whose jurisdiction the premises are situated, and the court may make such an order setting aside or modifying any of the terms and conditions of the agreement or lease as the court considers just and equitable in the circumstances of the case.

References in this subsection to the terms and conditions of an agreement or lease relating to any premises include references to the terms and conditions on or subject to which by virtue of [^{F7}section 3 of the ^{M4}Rent Act 1977] a statutory tenant retains possession of any premises.

- (3) Where, in the case of any premises to which this section applies, the carrying out or doing with respect to those premises of any structural or other alterations or other thing whose carrying out or doing is requisite as mentioned in subsection (2) above involves a person having an interest in the premises in expense or in increased expense, and he alleges that the whole or part of the expense or, as the case may be, the increase, ought to be borne by some other person having an interest in the premises, the first-mentioned person may apply to the county court within whose jurisdiction the premises are situated, and the court may by order give such directions—

- (a) with respect to the persons by whom the expense or increase is to be borne, and the proportions in which it is to be borne by them; and
 - (b) if need be, for modification of the terms of any agreement or lease relating to the premises so far as concerns rent payable in respect of the premises,
- as the court considers just and equitable in the circumstances of the case:

Provided that on an application under this subsection the court shall not direct the whole or any part of the expense or increase to be borne by a person other than the applicant by reason only of that other person being a statutory tenant of the premises or any part of the premises.

- (4) In this section “statutory tenant” has the same meaning as in [F8the M5Rent Act 1977.]
- (5) In the application of this section to Scotland—
 - (a) for references to the county court there shall be substituted references to the sheriff;
 - (b) in subsection (2), for the reference to [F7section 3 of the M6Rent Act 1977] there shall be substituted a reference to section [F915]of the M7Rent (Scotland) Act [F91984];
 - (c) “statutory tenant” has the same meaning as in section [F9115(1)] of the Rent (Scotland) Act [F91984];
 - (d) subsection (4) shall be omitted:
