Persons employed in the civil service, etc.

1 Superannuation schemes as respects civil servants, etc.

- (1) The Minister for the Civil Service (in this Act referred to as “the Minister”)—
- (a) may make, maintain, and administer schemes (whether contributory or not) whereby provision is made with respect to the pensions, allowances or gratuities which, subject to the fulfilment of such requirements and conditions as may be prescribed by the scheme, are to be paid, or may be paid, by the Minister to or in respect of such of the persons to whom this section applies as he may determine;

Status: Point in time view as at 10/03/1991.

Changes to legislation: Superannuation Act 1972 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) may, in relation to such persons as any such scheme may provide, pay or receive transfer values;
 - (c) may make, in such circumstances as any such scheme may provide, payments by way of a return of contributions, with or without interest; and
 - (d) may make such payments as he thinks fit towards the provision, otherwise than by virtue of such a scheme, of superannuation benefits for or in respect of such of the persons to whom this section applies as he may determine.
- (2) The Minister may, to such extent and subject to such conditions as he thinks fit, delegate to any other Minister or officer of the Crown any functions exercisable by him by virtue of this section or any scheme made thereunder.
- [^{F1}(2A) Where a money purchase scheme under this section includes provision enabling a member to elect for the benefits which are to be provided to or in respect of him to be purchased from any authorised provider whom he may specify, then—
- (a) notwithstanding subsection (1)(a) above, the scheme may make provision for the making of such an election to have the effect, in such cases as the scheme may specify, of discharging any liability of the Treasury to pay those benefits to or in respect of that member; but
 - (b) the scheme shall not be so framed as to have the effect that benefits under it may only be provided in a manner which discharges that liability of the Treasury.]
- (3) Before making any scheme under this section the Minister, or, if the Minister so directs in relation to a particular scheme, another Minister of the Crown specified in the direction, shall consult with persons appearing to the Minister or that other Minister, as the case may be, to represent persons likely to be affected by the proposed scheme or with the last-mentioned persons.
- (4) This section applies to persons serving—
- (a) in employment in the civil service of the State; or
 - (b) in employment of any of the kinds listed in Schedule 1 to this Act; or
 - (c) in an office so listed.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6) below, the Minister may by order—
- (a) add any employment to those listed in the said Schedule 1, being employment by a body or in an institution specified in the order,
 - (b) add any office so specified to the offices so listed, or
 - (c) remove any employment or office from the employments or offices so listed.
- (6) No employment or office shall be added to those listed in the said Schedule 1 unless the remuneration of persons serving in that employment or office is paid out of moneys provided by Parliament or the Consolidated Fund.
- (7) Notwithstanding subsection (6) above, the Minister may by order provide that this section shall apply to persons serving in employment which is remunerated out of a fund specified in the order, being a fund established by or under an Act of Parliament.
- (8) An order under subsection (5) or (7) above—
- (a) may be made so as to have effect as from a date before the making of the order;
 - (b) may include transitional and other supplemental provisions;
 - (c) may vary or revoke a previous order made under that subsection; and

Status: Point in time view as at 10/03/1991.

Changes to legislation: Superannuation Act 1972 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) shall be made by statutory instrument, which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

[^{F2}(9) In this section—

“authorised provider”, in relation to any benefit, means a person authorised under Chapter III of Part I of the Financial Services Act ^{M1}1986 to provide that benefit;

“money purchase scheme” means a scheme under which all the benefits that may be provided are money purchase benefits, as defined in section 84(1) of the Social Security Act ^{M2}1986.]

- (2) Any scheme under the said section 1 may make provision for the payment by the Minister of pensions, allowances or gratuities by way of compensation to or in respect of persons—
- (a) to whom that section applies; and
 - (b) who suffer loss of office or employment, or loss or diminution of emoluments, in such circumstances, or by reason of the happening of such an event, as may be prescribed by the scheme.
- [^{F3}(3) No scheme under the said section 1 shall make any provision which would have the effect of reducing the amount of any pension, allowance or gratuity, in so far as that amount is directly or indirectly referable to rights which have accrued (whether by virtue of service rendered, contributions paid or any other thing done) before the coming into operation of the scheme, unless the persons consulted in accordance with section 1(3) of this Act have agreed to the inclusion of that provision.]
- (4) Subject to subsection (3) above, any scheme under the said section 1, or any provision thereof, may be framed—
- (a) so as to have effect as from a date earlier than the date on which the scheme is made; or
 - (b) so as to apply in relation to the pensions, allowances or gratuities paid or payable to or in respect of persons who, having been persons to whom the said section 1 applies, have died or ceased to be persons to whom that section applies before the scheme comes into operation; or
 - (c) so as to require or authorise the payment of pensions, allowances or gratuities to or in respect of such persons.
- (5) Where an order has been made under section 1(7) of this Act, any scheme under that section may provide for the payment to the Minister out of the fund specified in the order of benefits or other sums paid by him in accordance with the scheme to or in respect of persons to whom that section applies by virtue of the order, together with any administrative expenses incurred in connection with the payment of those sums, and for the payment into that fund of contributions paid in accordance with the scheme by or in respect of those persons and of any transfer values received in respect of them.
- (6) Any scheme under the said section 1 may provide for the determination by the Minister of questions arising under the scheme and may provide that the decision of the Minister on any such question shall be final.
- (7) Where under any such scheme any question falls to be determined by the Minister, then, at any time before the question is determined, the Minister may (and if so directed by any of the Courts hereinafter mentioned shall) state in the form of a special case for determination by the High Court, the Court of Session or the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland any question of law arising out of the question which falls to be determined by him.
- (8) Where such a case is stated for determination by the High Court, an appeal to the Court of Appeal from the determination by the High Court shall lie only with the leave of the High Court or of the Court of Appeal; and where such a case is stated for determination by the Court of Session then, subject to any rules of court, the Minister shall be entitled to appear and be heard when the case is being considered by that Court.
- (9) Any scheme under the said section 1 may amend or revoke any previous scheme made thereunder.

Status: Point in time view as at 10/03/1991.

- (10) Different schemes may be made under the said section 1 in relation to different classes of persons to whom that section applies, and in this section “the principal civil service pension scheme” means the principal scheme so made relating to persons serving in employment in the home civil service or the diplomatic service.
- (11) Before a scheme made under the said section 1, being the principal civil service pension scheme or a scheme amending or revoking that scheme, comes into operation the Minister shall lay a copy of the scheme before Parliament.
- (12) Notwithstanding any repeal made by this Act, the existing civil service superannuation provisions, that is to say, the enactments and instruments listed in Schedule 2 to this Act, shall, with the necessary adaptations and modifications, have effect as from the commencement of this Act as if they constituted a scheme made under the said section 1 in relation to the persons to whom that section applies, being the principal civil service pension scheme, and coming into operation on the said commencement and may be revoked or amended accordingly.

3 Recovery in certain circumstances of payments by way of injury allowances.

- (1) The following provisions of this section shall have effect where a scheme under section 1 of this Act provides for the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity to or in respect of a person who is incapacitated or dies as a result of an injury sustained or disease contracted in circumstances prescribed by the scheme, and a pension, allowance or gratuity is paid in accordance with the scheme to or in respect of a person in consequence of an injury or disease so sustained or contracted or of a death resulting from such injury or disease.
- (2) If the scheme requires the Minister to take into account, as against any sums otherwise payable under the scheme, any damages which are recovered or recoverable by or on behalf of the recipient of the pension, allowance or gratuity granted in consequence of the injury, disease or death, being damages in respect of that injury, disease or death, and the Minister makes any payments without taking such damages into account, then if and when the Minister is satisfied that there are any damages to be so taken into account, he shall have the right to recover from the recipient—
 - (a) where the amount of the payments made by the Minister is less than the net amount of the damages, the amount of those payments;
 - (b) where the amount of those payments is not less than the net amount of the damages, such part of those payments as is equal to the net amount of the damages.

allowance shall be made in respect of the amount so deducted, and in this section “the net amount of the damages” means the amount of the damages after deducting any tax payable in the United Kingdom or elsewhere to which the damages are subject.

- (4) No proceedings shall be brought to recover any amount under this section—
- (a) after the death of the recipient of the payments; or
 - (b) after the expiration of two years from the date on which the amount of the damages taken into account in arriving at the amount so recoverable is finally determined (whether in court proceedings or in arbitration proceedings or by agreement between the parties) or from the date on which the final determination of that amount first came to the knowledge of the Minister, whichever date is the later.
- (5) A certificate issued by the Minister and stating the date on which the final determination of any amount of damages first came to his knowledge shall be admissible in any proceedings as sufficient evidence of that date.
- (6) The provisions of this section are without prejudice to any right of the Minister under any such scheme to take damages into account by withholding or reducing any further sums otherwise payable to the recipient of the pension, allowance or gratuity.

4 Payments due to deceased persons.

- (1) Where on the death of any person there is due to the deceased or his personal representatives from a government department a sum, not exceeding [^{F4}£5,000], in respect of salary, wages or other emoluments or of superannuation benefits payable by virtue of a scheme made under section 1 of this Act, probate or other proof of the title of the personal representatives of the deceased may be dispensed with, and the appropriate authority may pay the whole or any part of that sum to those representatives or to the person, or to or among any one or more of any persons, appearing to that authority to be beneficially entitled to the personal or movable estate of the deceased; and any person to whom such a payment is made, and not the appropriate authority, shall thereafter be liable to account for the amount paid to him under this subsection.
- (2) Subsection (1) above shall be included among the provisions with respect to which the Treasury may make an order under section 6(1) of the ^{M3}Administration of Estates (Small Payments) Act 1965 substituting for references to £500 such higher amount as may be specified in the order.
- (3) The reference to a government department in subsection (1) above shall be construed as including a reference to a body or institution listed in Schedule 1 to this Act.
- (4) In this section “the appropriate authority”, in relation to any sum, means the Minister in charge of the government department, the body, or the trustees or other authority responsible for the institution, as the case may be, from whom that sum is due.

Persons employed in local government service, etc.

7 Superannuation of persons employed in local government service, etc.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision with respect to the pensions, allowances or gratuities which, subject to the fulfilment of such requirements and conditions as may be prescribed by the regulations, are to be, or may be, paid to or in respect of such persons, or classes of persons, as may be so prescribed, being—
 - (a) persons, or classes of persons, employed in local government service; and
 - (b) other persons, or classes of persons, for whom it is appropriate, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, to provide pensions, allowances or gratuities under the regulations.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, regulations under this section—
 - (a) may include all or any of the provisions referred to in Schedule 3 to this Act; and
 - (b) may make different provision as respects different classes of persons and different circumstances.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything in the ^{M5}Pensions (Increase) Act 1971, regulations under this section may provide—
 - (a) that increases under that Act of such of the pensions, allowances or gratuities payable under the regulations as may be prescribed by the regulations, or such part of those increases as may be so prescribed, shall be paid out of such of the superannuation funds established under the regulations as the regulations may provide; and
 - (b) that the cost of those increases or of that part thereof, as the case may be, shall be defrayed by contributions from the persons to whom any services in respect of which the pensions, allowances or gratuities are or may become payable were or are being rendered or by such of those persons as may be so prescribed;

and any provisions of the said Act of 1971, or of regulations made under section 5 thereof, relating to liability for the cost of increases under that Act of pensions, allowances or gratuities payable under the regulations shall have effect subject to the provisions of any regulations made by virtue of this subsection and for the time being in force.
- (4) Without prejudice to subsection (2) above, regulations made by virtue of subsection (3) above may make different provision as respects different classes of pensions, allowances or gratuities.
- (5) Before making any regulations under this section the Secretary of State shall consult with—
 - (a) such associations of local authorities as appear to him to be concerned;
 - (b) any local authority with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable; and
 - (c) such representatives of other persons likely to be affected by the proposed regulations as appear to him to be appropriate.

- (4) Where regulations under this section provide for the establishment of a superannuation fund, the regulations may also provide for the payment by the Secretary of State—
- (a) of the administrative expenses of the persons by whom, in accordance with the regulations, the fund is to be administered; and
 - (b) of such travelling, subsistence and other allowances to those persons as the Secretary of State may, with the consent of the Minister, determine.
- (5) Before making any such regulations the Secretary of State shall consult with representatives of local education authorities and of teachers and with such representatives of other persons likely to be affected by the proposed regulations as appear to him to be appropriate.
- [^{F10}(5A) The powers exercisable by a local education authority or, in Scotland, an education authority, by virtue of—
- (a) section 111 of the Local Government Act ^{M7}1972 (subsidiary powers of local authorities), or
 - (b) section 69 of the ^{M8}Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 (similar provision for Scotland),
- shall be taken to include, and to have at all times included, power to pay, or arrange for the payment of, injury benefit to or in respect of teachers; but that section shall cease to confer any such power on an authority in either part of Great Britain as from the coming into force of the first regulations under this section which make provision for the payment of injury benefit by such an authority to or in respect of teachers in that part.]
- (6) In this section
- [^{F11}“authorised provider”, in relation to any benefit, means a person authorised under Chapter III of Part I of the Financial Services Act ^{M9}1986 to provide that benefit; [^{F12}“injury benefit” means a pension, allowance or gratuity payable under the regulations to or in respect of a teacher in consequence of any injury sustained, or disease contracted, by him in the course of his employment in that capacity;]
 - “money purchase benefits” has the meaning given by section 84(1) of the Social Security Act ^{M10}1986;]
 - “teachers” includes such persons as may be prescribed by regulations made under this section, being persons employed otherwise than as teachers—
- (a) in a capacity connected with education which to a substantial extent involves the control or supervision of teachers; or
 - (b) in employment which involves the performance of duties in connection with the provision of education or services ancillary to education.
- (7) In the application of this section to Scotland for the reference in subsection (5) to local education authorities there shall be substituted a reference to education authorities.

Persons engaged in health services, etc.

10 Superannuation of persons engaged in health services, etc.

- (1) The Secretary of State may, by regulations made with the consent of the Minister, make provision with respect to the pensions, allowances or gratuities which, subject to the fulfilment of such requirements and conditions as may be prescribed [^{F13}(in this section referred to as “health staff”)] by the regulations, are to be, or may be, paid by the Secretary of State to or in respect of such persons, or classes of persons, as may be so prescribed, being—
- (a) persons, or classes of persons, engaged in health services other than services provided by a . . . ^{F14} local authority; and
 - (b) other persons, or classes of persons, for whom it is appropriate, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, to provide pensions, allowances or gratuities under the regulations.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, regulations under this section—
- (a) may include all or any of the provisions referred to in Schedule 3 to this Act; and
 - (b) may make different provision as respects different classes of persons and different circumstances.
- [^{F15}(2A) Where regulations under this section make provision with respect to money purchase benefits, they may also—
- (a) include provision enabling a person to elect for such money purchase benefits as are to be provided to or in respect of him under the regulations to be purchased from any authorised provider whom he may specify; and
 - (b) notwithstanding subsection (1) above, provide that the making of such an election shall have the effect, in such cases as may be specified in the regulations, of discharging any liability of the Secretary of State to pay those benefits to or in respect of that person;
- but no regulations under this section shall be so framed as to have the effect that any money purchase benefits to be provided under them may only be provided in a manner which discharges that liability of the Secretary of State.]
- (3) Where the regulations provide for the making of any such payment as is referred to in paragraph 3, 5 or 6 of the said Schedule 3, they may also provide for the payment to be made by the Secretary of State.

Provisions ancillary to sections 7 to 10

11 Statement of case by Secretary of State.

- (1) Where under any regulations made under section 7, 9 or 10 of this Act, in its application to England and Wales, any question falls to be determined by the Secretary of State, then, at any time before the question is determined, the Secretary of State may (and if so directed by the High Court shall) state in the form of a special case for determination by the High Court any question of law arising out of the question which falls to be determined by him; and where such a case is so stated, an appeal to the Court of Appeal from the determination by the High Court shall lie only with the leave of the High Court or of the Court of Appeal.
- (2) Where under any regulations made under section 7, 9 or 10 of this Act, in its application to Scotland, any question falls to be determined by the Secretary of State, then, at any time before the question is determined, the Secretary of State may (and if so directed by the Court of Session shall) state a case for the opinion of that Court on any question of law arising out of the question which falls to be determined by him; and subject to any rules of court, the Secretary of State shall be entitled to appear and be heard when the case is being considered by the Court.

12 Further provisions as to regulations.

- (1) Any regulations made under section 7, 8(2), 9 or 10 of this Act may be framed so as to have effect as from a date earlier than the making of the regulations.
- (2) Subject to subsection (4) below, any regulations made under section 7, 9 or 10 of this Act may be framed—
 - (a) so as to apply in relation to the pensions which are being paid or may become payable under the regulations to or in respect of persons who, having served in an employment or office service in which qualifies persons to participate in the benefits for which the regulations provide, have ceased to serve therein [^{F18}(whether or not they have subsequently recommenced any such service)] or died before the regulations come into operation; or

- (b) so as to require or authorise the payment of pensions to or in respect of such persons.
- (3) Subsection (2) above shall apply in relation to regulations under the said section 7, being regulations made by virtue of section 8(3) of this Act, as if for the first two references to those regulations in paragraph (a) there were substituted references to the local Act scheme affected by the regulations.
- (4) No provision shall be made by any regulations by virtue of subsection (2) above unless any person who is placed in a worse position than he would have been in if the provision had not applied in relation to any pension which is being paid or may become payable to him is by the regulations given an opportunity to elect that the provision shall not so apply [^{F19}in relation to that pension except as provided by subsection (4A) below.]
- [^{F20}(4A) If, at the coming into force of the provision mentioned in subsection (4) above, a person who makes such an election as is mentioned in that subsection is serving in an employment or office to which the regulations governing the pension apply, or if he subsequently recommences service in such an employment or office, then—
- (a) the election shall have effect in relation to the pension only to the extent that it accrues or has accrued—
- (i) by virtue of periods of service rendered before the cessation referred to in subsection (2) above (or, if there has been more than one such cessation, the last of them before the coming into force of the provision in question); or
- (ii) by virtue of contributions paid in respect of any such periods of service; and
- (b) in determining entitlement to, or the amount of, the pension to that extent, he shall (without prejudice to the application of this subsection) be treated as if he had never recommenced service in such an employment or office at any time after the cessation referred to in paragraph (a) above;
- and the provision in question shall apply accordingly.]
- (5) In the foregoing provisions of this section “pension” includes allowance and gratuity.
- (6) Regulations made under section 7, 8, 9 or 10 of this Act shall be made by statutory instrument, which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Provisions relating to superannuation of various other persons

13 The Comptroller and Auditor General.

- (1) A person appointed to be the Comptroller and Auditor General (in this section referred to as the Comptroller) may, within such period and in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations under this section, elect between the statutory scheme of pensions and other benefits applicable to the judicial offices listed in [^{F21}section 1 of the Judicial Pensions Act 1981] and the scheme of pensions and other benefits applicable by virtue of section 1 of this Act to the civil service of the State (in this section referred to respectively as the judicial scheme and the civil service scheme), and if he does not so elect shall be treated as having elected for the civil service scheme.
- (2) Where a person so appointed elects for the judicial scheme, a pension may be granted to him on ceasing to hold office as Comptroller if he has held that office for not less than five years and either—
- (a) has attained the age of sixty-five years; or
 - (b) is disabled by permanent infirmity for the performance of the duties of that office;
- and subject to regulations under this section, the provisions of [^{F22}Chapter I of Part I and sections 17 to 24 of the Judicial Pensions Act 1981]) shall apply in relation to him and his service as Comptroller as they apply in relation to the holders of judicial offices listed in [^{F22}section 1 of that Act and service in any such office].
- (3) Where a person so appointed elects for the civil service scheme, the principal civil service pension scheme within the meaning of section 2 of this Act and for the time being in force shall, subject to regulations under this section, apply as if his service as Comptroller were service in employment in the civil service of the State.
- (4) ^{F23}
- (5) The Minister may by statutory instrument make regulations for purposes supplementary to the foregoing provisions of this section; and such regulations may, without prejudice to section 38 of the ^{M16}Superannuation Act 1965 (employment in more than one public office), make special provision with respect to the pensions and other benefits payable to or in respect of persons to whom the judicial scheme or the civil service scheme has applied or applies in respect of any service other than service as Comptroller, including provision—
- (a) for aggregating other service falling within the judicial scheme with service as Comptroller, or service as Comptroller with such other service, for the purpose of determining qualification for or the amount of benefit under that scheme;
 - (b) for increasing the amount of the benefit payable under the judicial scheme, in the case of a person to whom that scheme applied in respect of an office held by him before appointment as Comptroller, up to the amount which would have been payable thereunder if he had retired from that office on the ground of permanent infirmity immediately before his appointment;
 - (c) for limiting the amount of benefit payable under the judicial scheme, in the case of a person to whom the civil service scheme applied in respect of service before his appointment as Comptroller, by reference to the difference between the amount of the benefit granted in his case under the civil service scheme and the amount which would be payable under the judicial scheme if that service had been service as Comptroller.

24 Compensation for loss of office, etc.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, the Secretary of State may, with the consent of the Minister, by regulations provide for the payment by such person as may be prescribed by or determined under the regulations of pensions, allowances or gratuities by way of compensation to or in respect of the following persons, that is to say, persons—
- (a) in relation to whom regulations may be made under section 7, section 9 or section 10 of this Act or section 1 of the [^{F34M29}Police Pensions Act 1976] or in relation to whom a Scheme may be made in accordance with section 26 of the ^{M30}Fire Services Act 1947 (Firemen's Pension Scheme); and
 - (b) who suffer loss of office or employment, or loss or diminution of emoluments, in such circumstances, or by reason of the happening of such an event, as may be prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) Regulations under this section relating to persons in relation to whom regulations may be made under section 7 of this Act may be made without the consent of the Minister.
- (3) Regulations under this section may—
- (a) include provision as to the manner in which and the person to whom any claim for compensation is to be made, and for the determination of all questions arising under the regulations;
 - (b) make different provision as respects different classes of persons and different circumstances and make or authorise the Secretary of State to make exceptions and conditions; and
 - (c) be framed so as to have effect from a date earlier than the making of the regulations,
- but so that regulations having effect from a date earlier than the date of their making shall not place any individual who is qualified to participate in the benefits for which the regulations provide in a worse position than he would have been in if the regulations had been so framed as to have effect only from the date of their making.
- (4) Regulations under this section may include all or any of the provisions referred to in paragraphs 8, 9 and 13 of Schedule 3 to this Act.
- (5) Regulations under this section shall be made by statutory instrument, which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
