4 Furnishing by milk marketing boards of information derived from tests of milk.

(1) The relevant Minister may, by a direction in writing given to the board administering a scheme under the <sup>M2</sup> Agricultural Marketing Act 1958 for regulating the marketing of cows’ milk, require the board to furnish in writing to any [<sup>F2</sup>enforcement authority] specified in the direction information of a description so specified, being information which is derived from tests of cows’ milk carried out (whether before or after the giving of the direction) by or by agreement with the board and is of a kind appearing to the relevant Minister to be required by the appropriate authority for the purposes of any [<sup>F2</sup>regulations relating to milk, dairies or dairy farms which were made under, or have effect as if made under, section 16 of the Food Safety Act 1990]; and notwithstanding anything in section 47 of the said Act of 1958 (which restricts disclosure of information) it shall be the duty of the board to comply with the direction.

(2) In the preceding subsection—

[<sup>F3</sup>“enforcement authority” has the same meaning as in the Food Safety Act 1990;] and

“the relevant Minister” means the Secretary of State in relation to the board administering such a scheme as aforesaid for any area in Scotland and the Minister in relation to the board administering such a scheme for any other area;

and a direction under the preceding subsection may require different information to be furnished to different authorities and may be varied or revoked by a subsequent direction under that subsection.

- (3) The relevant Minister shall not make an order for the purposes of this section except after such consultation as he considers appropriate with such organisations as appear to him to represent the interests concerned and unless a draft of the order has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (4) Any order made for the purposes of this section may make different provision in relation to grey squirrels and in relation to coypus; and the power to make orders for the purposes of this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument and shall include power to vary or revoke a previous order.
- (5) In this section “the relevant Minister” means—
  - (a) in the case of an order which does not apply outside England, the Minister;
  - (b) in the case of an order which does not apply outside Scotland, the Secretary of State for Scotland;
  - (c) in the case of an order which applies both in England and in Scotland but not in Wales, the Minister and the Secretary of State for Scotland acting jointly;
  - (d) in the case of an order which applies in Wales or both in England and Wales but not (in either case) in Scotland, the Minister and the Secretary of State for Wales acting jointly; and
  - (e) in the case of an order which applies in England, Scotland and Wales, the Minister and those Secretaries of State acting jointly.

For the purposes of this subsection Monmouthshire shall be treated as part of Wales and not of England.

- (a) transactions for securing that agricultural land which is or forms part of an uncommercial unit, but which together with some other agricultural land could form an intermediate unit or commercial unit, shall be owned and occupied with that other land, and
- (b) transactions for securing that, where an intermediate unit or a commercial unit is not all in the same ownership, any part of it comes to be in the same ownership as the rest of that unit, or in the same ownership as some other part of that unit, but excluding transactions which bring into the same ownership and occupation two or more parts of the unit each of which could by itself form a commercial unit, and
- (bb) transactions for securing that, where the person occupying an intermediate unit or a commercial unit occupies any part or parts of it otherwise than as owner or as a tenant as defined in the <sup>M42</sup>Agricultural Holdings Act 1948 (or, in Scotland, the <sup>M43</sup>Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 1949), he comes to occupy that part or all those parts as owner or as such a tenant, and
- (c) transfers or exchanges of agricultural land (or estates or interests in agricultural land) for the purpose of giving more satisfactory boundaries to one or more agricultural units;

and for the purposes of paragraph (a) above, such assumptions as the appropriate Minister may consider reasonable may be made as to the works and facilities which will be carried out or provided for the benefit of the unit to be formed.

Transactions within paragraphs (a), (b) and (bb) above are in this Part of this Act referred to as “amalgamations”, and transactions within paragraph (c) are in this Part of this Act referred to as “boundary adjustments”.

- (2) A scheme under this section may restrict the amalgamations and boundary adjustments to which it applies in any way, and may in particular exclude amalgamations of land which has reverted from being in single ownership or occupation or, as respects transactions within subsection (1)(bb) of this section, cases where after the transaction has been effected the unit is not in single ownership.
- (4) A scheme under this section may make different provision for different circumstances.
- (6) Any approval in pursuance of a scheme under this section of an amalgamation or boundary adjustment—
  - (a) may be given either before or, in any case where the appropriate Minister thinks fit, after the amalgamation or boundary adjustment has been carried out;
  - (b) may be given subject to such conditions as the appropriate Minister may specify, and in particular subject to any condition as to the time within which the amalgamation or boundary adjustment is to be carried out or as to the carrying out or provision within a specified period of specified works or facilities appearing to the appropriate Minister to be necessary as a consequence of the amalgamation or boundary adjustment;
  - (c) may be varied or withdrawn by the appropriate Minister with the written consent of the person on whose application the approval was given;

and the appropriate Minister may, if he thinks fit, for the purposes of a claim for grant under section 29 of the <sup>M44</sup>Agriculture Act 1970 issue a certificate with respect to any work or facility that he considers it to be necessary or desirable as a consequence
