 - (b) to the likelihood of the waste, or any container in which it is deposited, being tampered with by children or others.

 - (b) requiring the execution of such works, and the taking of such other steps, as many be necessary for the purpose of the notice or as may be specified in the notice;and the notice shall specify the time or times within which the requirements of the notice are to be complied with.
- (2) The notice shall be served on the person responsible for the nuisance or, if that person cannot be found or the nuisance has not yet occurred, on the owner or occupier of the premises from which the noise is emitted or would be emitted.
- (3) The person served with the notice may appeal against the notice to a magistrates' court within twenty- one days from service of the notice.
- (4) If the person on whom a notice is served under this section without reasonable excuse contravenes any requirements of the notice, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Part of this Act.
- (5) In proceedings for an offence under the preceding sub-section in respect of noise caused in the course of a trade or business, it shall be a defence to prove that the best practicable means have been used for preventing, or for counteracting the effect of, the noise.

 - (c) where the alleged offence was committed at a time when the premises were not subject to a notice under section 66 of this Act, and when a level fixed under section 67 of this Act applied to the premises, that the level of noise emanating from the premises at that time did not exceed that level. Paragraphs (b) and (c) above apply whether or not the relevant notice was subject of appeal at the time when the offence was alleged to have been committed
