

Fair Employment (Northern Ireland) Act 1976

1976 CHAPTER 25

PART VI

MISCELLANEOUS

Restriction on proceedings

43 Restriction on proceedings for contravention of Act

- (1) Except as provided by this Act, no proceedings, whether civil or criminal, shall be brought against any person in respect of an act by reason that the act is unlawful by virtue of a provision of this Act.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) prevents the making of an application for an order of certiorari, mandamus or prohibition.

Supplementary provisions as to the county court

44 Jurisdiction as to acts done on ships, etc, 45. County court rules and orders

Without prejudice to any jurisdiction exercisable by the county court by virtue of section 45 or any other enactment, the county court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine an application, appeal or action under this Act with respect to an act done or to be done on a ship, aircraft or hovercraft outside the division for which the court sits, including such an act done or to be done outside Northern Ireland.

- 45 County court rules and county court orders made under section 146 of the County Courts Act (Northern Ireland) 1959 may make such provision as appears to the authority having for the time being power to make those rules and orders to be necessary for regulating the practice and procedure of county courts in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by this Act, and (without prejudice to the generality of any power to make such rules or orders) those rules or orders may in particular provide for—

- (a) an application made under section 15 to be made to a county court sitting for the division in which the person concerned carried on business or, as the case may be, had an office at the time when the undertaking sought to be enforced was given or the notice containing the direction sought to be enforced was served ;
- (b) an appeal under section 28 or an action under section 30 to be brought in a county court sitting for the division in which the person alleged to have been injured by the act of unlawful discrimination is resident, or was resident at the time when the act was done ;
- (c) the service of process on persons outside Northern Ireland.

46 Powers of county court as to injunctions

- (1) For the purposes of an order under section 15(3), section 31(3) or section 36 the county court shall have the like jurisdiction as the High Court to grant any mandatory or other injunction.
- (2) Section 141(4) of the County Courts Act (Northern Ireland) 1959 (enforcement by committal) applies to the enforcement of an order made in exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by any of the provisions mentioned in subsection (1) in conjunction with this section.
- (3) Where an application is made for such an order (including an application in the course of an action under section 30) the court may make the order in the terms applied for or in more limited terms.

47 Execution of order for damages or costs

Where in an action under section 30 the county court, in exercise of the jurisdiction conferred on it by virtue of this Act, makes an order for the payment of a sum in respect of damages or costs, or both damages and costs, by a person who was domiciled in England and Wales or in Scotland at the time of the commencement of the action, that sum shall be recoverable under the Inferior Courts Judgments Extension Act 1882 notwithstanding that the whole cause of action had not arisen, or the obligation to which the order relates had not been due to be fulfilled, within the division for which the court sits, or that the civil bill commencing the action had not been served upon the defendant personally within that division; and section 9 of that Act (saving as to limits of local jurisdiction) shall not apply to such an order.

48 Appeal from county court

Without prejudice to section 2 of the County Court Appeals Act (Northern Ireland) 1964 (appeal to Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland on point of law) and section 7 of that Act (different modes of appeal to be exclusive), the Agency or the respondent, if dissatisfied with a decree of the county court in an action under section 30, may appeal from that decree, notwithstanding that damages have been claimed or awarded in excess of the amount that could have been claimed or awarded apart from section 31(4), as if the decree had been made in exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by Part III of the County Courts Act (Northern Ireland) 1959 and the appeal were brought under section 1 of that Act of 1964.

Construction of references to employment or occupation in Northern Ireland

49 Meaning of " employment in Northern Ireland" and " occupation in Northern Ireland "

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, employment is to be regarded as being employment in Northern Ireland unless the employee does his work wholly or mainly outside Northern Ireland.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
 - (a) employment on board a ship registered at a port of registry in Northern Ireland, or
 - (b) employment on an aircraft or hovercraft operated by a person who has his principal place of business, or is ordinarily resident, in Northern Ireland ;but for the purposes of this Act such employment is to be regarded as being employment in Northern Ireland unless the employee does his work wholly outside Northern Ireland.
- (3) In relation to employment concerned with the exploration of the sea bed or subsoil or the exploitation of their natural resources, the Department may by order provide that subsections (1) and (2) shall each have effect as if the last reference to Northern Ireland included any area for the time being designated under section 1(7) of the Continental Shelf Act 1964, or any part of such an area, in which the law of Northern Ireland applies.
- (4) An order under subsection (3) may provide that, in relation to employment to which the order applies or any class of such employment, this Act is to have effect with such modifications as are specified in the order.
- (5) The power to make an order under subsection (3) includes power to vary or revoke the order.
- (6) The Department shall not make an order under subsection (3) unless a draft of the order has been laid before, and has been approved by, the Northern Ireland Assembly.
- (7) During the interim period subsection (6) shall not apply, but an order under subsection (3) shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament in like manner as a statutory instrument, and section 5 of the Statutory Instruments Act 1946 shall apply accordingly.
- (8) In this section references to the work an employee does include, in relation to a person who is seeking employment or a person who has ceased to be in employment, references to, respectively, the work he would do if employed or the work he did when employed.
- (9) This section has effect for construing references in this Act to a person's being engaged, or seeking to become engaged, in an occupation in Northern Ireland as if references in this section to employment were references to an occupation and references to an employee were to a person engaged, or seeking to become engaged, in an occupation.

Application to the Crown, police and public bodies

50 Application of Act to the Crown

- (1) Subject to sections 51 to 54, this Act applies—
- (a) to an act done by or for purposes of a Minister of the Crown or a government department, or
 - (b) to an act done on behalf of the Crown by a statutory body or a person holding a statutory office, or
 - (c) to an act done by a member of Her Majesty's forces acting as such, as it applies to an act done by a private person.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), in this Act—
- (a) references to employment include references to—
 - (i) service for purposes of a Minister of the Crown or government department, other than service of a person holding a statutory office, and
 - (ii) service on behalf of the Crown for purposes of a person holding a statutory office or purposes of a statutory body, and
 - (iii) service as a member of Her Majesty's forces;
 - (b) references to a contract of employment include references to the terms of such service ;
 - (c) references to an employee include references to a person who is seeking to become engaged in such service, who is in such service or who has ceased to be in such service ; and
 - (d) references to an employer, in relation to an employee, include references to (as the case requires) the authority with power to appoint him, to fix his terms of service, to afford him any benefit, to dismiss him or to subject him to any detriment.
- (3) Subsection (2) of section 49 (or that subsection as it has effect by virtue of an order under subsection (3) of that section) shall have effect in relation to any ship, aircraft or hovercraft belonging to or possessed by Her Majesty in right of the Government of Northern Ireland as it has effect in relation to a ship, aircraft or hovercraft mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of that subsection ; and that subsection shall not have effect in relation to any ship, aircraft or hovercraft belonging to or possessed by Her Majesty in right of the Government of the United Kingdom.
- (4) In this section and sections 51, 52 and 54 references to the Crown include it both in right of the Government of the United Kingdom and in right of the Government of Northern Ireland; and—
- (a) in this section and section 54 references to Her Majesty's forces are references to—
 - (i) the naval, military or air forces of the Crown, and
 - (ii) any women's service administered by the Defence Council,but do not include references to any cadet training corps for the time being administered by the Ministry of Defence; and
 - (b) in this section service " for purposes of " a Minister of the Crown or government department does not include service in any office in Schedule 2 (Ministerial offices) to the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975 as for the time being in force.

51 Proceedings against Crown for unlawful discrimination

The provisions of Parts II to IV of the Crown Proceedings Act 1947 shall apply to proceedings against the Crown under section 30 as they apply to proceedings in Northern Ireland which by virtue of section 23 of that Act are treated for the purposes of Part II of that Act as civil proceedings by or against the Crown, except that in their application to proceedings under section 30—

- (a) section 20 of that Act (removal of proceedings from county court to High Court) shall not apply ; and
- (b) section 28 of that Act (discovery) shall have effect subject to section 52(2) of this Act.

52 Disclosure of information by Crown for purposes of investigation or proceedings

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), any obligation to maintain secrecy or other restriction upon the disclosure of information obtained by or furnished to persons in the service of the Crown, whether imposed by any enactment or by any rule of law, shall not apply to the disclosure of information for the purposes of any investigation, appeal or proceedings under this Act; and the Crown shall not be entitled in relation to any such investigation, appeal or proceedings to any such privilege in respect of the production of documents or the giving of evidence as is allowed to the Crown alone by law in legal proceedings.
- (2) A Minister of the Crown or the head of a Northern Ireland department may by a certificate in writing, with respect to any document or information specified in the certificate, or documents or information of any class so specified, certify that in his opinion the disclosure of that document or information or of documents or information of that class would be prejudicial to the safety of the United Kingdom or any part of it or otherwise contrary to the public interest; and where such a certificate is given nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorising or requiring the communication to any person or for any purpose of any document or information specified in the certificate, or any document or information of a class so specified.
- (3) A document purporting to be a certificate such as is mentioned in subsection (2) shall be received in evidence and, unless the contrary is proved, shall be deemed to be such a certificate.
- (4) Where, in consequence of the enactment of subsection (1), any information is disclosed to persons not in the service of the Crown, those persons shall, without prejudice to subsections (1) and (2) and subject to subsection (5), be subject to the same restrictions upon the disclosure of the information as if they were in that service, and, in particular, the Official Secrets Act 1911 shall have effect in relation to them as if they were persons holding office under Her Majesty.
- (5) Where a person to whom subsection (4) applies is a member, officer or servant of the Agency or of the Appeals Board, or a person whose services have been made available for purposes of the Appeals Board, that subsection shall not preclude his disclosing the information in question to any other person so far as such disclosure is necessary—
 - (a) for the purpose of communicating in accordance with the provisions of this Act—
 - (i) the Agency's finding following an investigation and the reasons for it, or
 - (ii) the Appeals Board's decision on an appeal and the reasons for it; or

- (b) for the purposes of any criminal proceedings or to comply with the order of a court.
- (6) Any reference in subsection (2) to a Minister of the Crown includes a reference to the Commissioners of Customs and Excise and the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

53 Application of Act to the police

- (1) For the purposes of this Act the holding of the office of constable shall be treated as employment—
 - (a) by the chief officer of police as respects any act done by him in relation to a constable or that office ;
 - (b) by the police authority as respects any act done by them in relation to a constable or that office.
- (2) There shall be defrayed as expenses of the police authority—
 - (a) any damages or costs awarded against a chief officer of police in any proceedings under this Act, any costs incurred by him in any such proceedings so far as not recovered by him in the proceedings, and any costs incurred by him in connection with any investigation under this Act so far as not defrayed by sums paid by the Agency under Schedule 5, paragraph 11 ; and
 - (b) any sum required by a chief officer of police in connection with the settlement of any complaint made or action brought against him under this Act, if the settlement is approved by the police authority.
- (3) Any proceedings under this Act which, by virtue of subsection (1), would lie against a chief officer of police shall be brought against the chief officer of police for the time being or, in the case of a vacancy in that office, against the person for the time being performing the functions of that office; and references in subsections (2) and (4) to the chief officer of police shall be construed accordingly.
- (4) The police authority may make arrangements for the legal representation of the chief officer of police in any investigation or proceedings under this Act.
- (5) This section applies to a police cadet and appointment as a police cadet as it applies to a constable and the office of constable.
- (6) In this section—
 - " chief officer of police "—
 - (a) in relation to a person appointed, or an appointment falling to be made, to the police; force or as a police cadet in relation to that force, means the Chief Constable of the Royal Ulster Constabulary,
 - (b) in relation to any other person or appointment means the officer who has the direction and control of the body of constables or cadets in question;
 - " police authority "—
 - (a) in relation to a person appointed, or an appointment falling to be made, to the police force or as a police cadet in relation to that force, means the Police Authority for Northern Ireland,
 - (b) in relation to any other person or appointment, means the authority by whom the person in question is, or on appointment would be, paid ;
 - " police cadet " means any person appointed to undergo training with a view to becoming a constable ;

" police force " has the same meaning as in the Police Act (Northern Ireland) 1970.

54 Procedure following investigation under s. 12 of Minister, government department, certain statutory bodies or statutory officers and police

(1) This section applies where, following an investigation under section 12, the Agency is of the opinion that there has been a failure to afford equality of opportunity by any of the following authorities, namely.—

- (a) a Minister of the Crown or a government department or a person acting for purposes of such a Minister or department; or
- (b) a member of Her Majesty's forces acting as such ; or
- (c) any other person acting on behalf of the Crown, being a statutory body or a person holding a statutory office; or
- (d) the Police Authority for Northern Ireland or the Chief Constable of the Royal Ulster Constabulary ; and, accordingly, section 13(2) to (8) and sections 14 and 15 shall not have effect in relation to any such authority.

(2) Where the Agency asks for an undertaking such as is mentioned in section 13(1)(b), but—

- (a) the undertaking is not given, or
- (b) the undertaking, although given, is not complied with, the Agency shall, subject to subsection (4), send a report of the results of its investigation and of the opinion it has formed in relation to the subject-matter of the investigation (including any recommendations the Agency considers appropriate for action on the part of the authority concerned)—

- (i) where the investigation related to a Minister of the Crown, to that Minister ;
- (ii) where the investigation related to a government department, to the Minister of the Crown in charge of the department, or in the case of a Northern Ireland department to the head of the department, or
- (iii) where the investigation related to any other authority, to the Minister of the Crown or the head of the Northern Ireland department generally responsible for matters falling within the scope of the functions of that authority.

(3) Where the report is sent to a Minister of the Crown he shall lay it before Parliament; and where the report is sent to the head of a Northern Ireland department he shall lay it before the Northern Ireland Assembly.

(4) During the interim period any report which is required by subsections (2) and (3) to be sent to the head of a Northern Ireland department and laid before the Northern Ireland Assembly shall, instead, be sent to the Secretary of State and laid by him before Parliament.

(5) A person who is not in the service of the Crown shall not be regarded as within subsection (1)(a) by reason only of his acting in pursuance of a contract entered into with a Minister of the Crown or a government department.

General

55 Service of documents

- (1) Any notice or other document which is required or permitted by this Act to be served on a person may—
 - (a) if that person is an individual, be served on him—
 - (i) by delivering it to him, or
 - (ii) by sending it to him by post, addressed to him at his usual or last-known place of residence or business, or
 - (iii) by leaving it for him at that place ; or
 - (b) if that person is a body corporate or unincorporate, be served on the body—
 - (i) by sending it by post to the proper officer of the body at its registered or principal office, or at its principal office in Northern Ireland, or
 - (ii) by addressing it to the proper officer of the body and leaving it at any such office.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prejudice any other lawful method of service.

56 Orders and reports

- (1) Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under section 39(1) or section 59(5) shall be exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (2) An order made by the Department under section 49(3) shall be made by statutory rule for the purposes of the Statutory Rules Act (Northern Ireland) 1958.
- (3) For the purpose of laying before the Northern Ireland Assembly—
 - (a) a draft of an order under section 49(3); or
 - (b) a report under section 54(2); or
