

Legitimacy Act 1976

1976 CHAPTER 31

E+W

An Act to consolidate certain enactments relating to legitimacy. [22nd July 1976]

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Words of enactment omitted under authority of Statute Law Revision Act 1948 \(c. 62\), s. 3

- (1) A child is legitimate by virtue of a civil partnership between the natural parents of the child if, had the civil partnership been a marriage (and all other circumstances were the same), the child would have been legitimate at common law by virtue of the marriage.
- (2) The presumption of common law that a child born to a woman during her marriage to a man is also the natural child of her spouse applies equally in relation to a child born to a woman during her civil partnership with a man.]

Textual Amendments

F1 S. A1 inserted (2.12.2019) by The Civil Partnership \(Opposite-sex Couples\) Regulations 2019 \(S.I. 2019/1458\), regs. 1(2), 12(2)

1 Legitimacy of children of certain void marriages [<sup>F2</sup>and civil partnerships]. E+W

- (1) The child of a void marriage [<sup>F3</sup>or a void civil partnership], whenever born, shall, subject to subsection (2) below and Schedule 1 to this Act, be treated as the legitimate child of his parents if at the time of [<sup>F4</sup>the insemination resulting in the birth or, where there was no such insemination, the child's conception](or at the time of the celebration of the marriage[<sup>F5</sup>, or the formation of the civil partnership,] if later) both or either of the parties reasonably believed that the marriage [<sup>F6</sup>or civil partnership] was valid.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Legitimacy Act 1976. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the father of the child was domiciled in England and Wales at the time of the birth, or if he died before the birth, was so domiciled immediately before his death, or
- (b) if a woman is treated as the female parent of a child by virtue of section 42 or 43 of the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 2008, that female parent was domiciled in England and Wales at the time of the birth, or if she died before the birth, was so domiciled immediately before her death.]

[<sup>F8</sup>(3) It is hereby declared for the avoidance of doubt that subsection (1) above applies notwithstanding that the belief that the marriage [<sup>F9</sup>or civil partnership] was valid was due to a mistake as to law.

(4) In relation to a child [<sup>F10</sup>of a void marriage] born after the coming into force of section 28 of the Family Law Reform Act 1987, [<sup>F11</sup>or a child of a void civil partnership (whenever born),] it shall be presumed for the purposes of subsection (1) above, unless the contrary is shown, that one of the parties to the void marriage [<sup>F12</sup>or civil partnership] reasonably believed at the time of the insemination resulting in the birth or, where there was no such insemination, the child's conception (or at the time of the celebration of the marriage [<sup>F13</sup>, or the formation of the civil partnership,] if later) that the marriage [<sup>F14</sup>or civil partnership] was valid.]

[<sup>F15</sup>(5) Subsections (1) and (4) are to be read, in relation to the child of a void marriage which has resulted from the purported conversion of a civil partnership under section 9 of the Marriage (Same Sex Couples) Act 2013 and regulations made under that section, as if the reference to the time of the celebration of the marriage was a reference to the date of the purported conversion of the civil partnership into a marriage.]

5 Rights of legitimated persons and others to take interests in property. E+W

- (1) Subject to any contrary indication, the rules of construction contained in this section apply to any instrument other than an existing instrument, so far as the instrument contains a disposition of property.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, provisions of the law of intestate succession applicable to the estate of a deceased person shall be treated as if contained in an instrument executed by him (while of full capacity) immediately before his death.
- (3) A legitimated person, and any other person, shall be entitled to take any interest as if the legitimated person had been born legitimate.
- (4) A disposition which depends on the date of birth of a child or children of the parent or parents shall be construed as if—
  - (a) a legitimated child had been born on the date of legitimation,
  - (b) two or more legitimated children legitimated on the same date had been born on that date in the order of their actual births, but this does not affect any reference to the age of a child.
- (5) Examples of phrases in wills on which subsection (4) above can operate are—
  - (1) Children of A “living at my death or born afterwards”.
  - (2) Children of A “living at my death or born afterwards before any one of such children for the time being in existence attains a vested interest, and who attain the age of 21 years”.
  - (3) As in example 1 or 2, but referring to grandchildren of A, instead of children of A.
  - (4) A for life “until he has a child” and then to his child or children.

Note. Subsection (4) above will not affect the reference to the age of 21 years in example 2.

- (6) If an illegitimate person or a person adopted by one of his natural parents dies, or has died before the commencement of this Act, and—
  - (a) after his death his parents marry or have married; and
  - (b) the deceased would, if living at the time of the marriage, have become a legitimated person, this section shall apply for the construction of the instrument so far as it relates to the taking of interests by, or in succession to, his spouse, children and remoter issue as if he had been legitimated by virtue of the marriage.

- (7) In this section “instrument” includes a private Act settling property, but not any other enactment.

6 Dispositions depending on date of birth. E+W

- (1) Where a disposition depends on the date of birth of a child who was born illegitimate and who is legitimated (or, if deceased, is treated as legitimated), section 5(4) above does not affect entitlement under Part II of the <sup>M1</sup>Family Law Reform Act 1969 (illegitimate children).
- (2) Where a disposition depends on the date of birth of an adopted child who is legitimated (or, if deceased, is treated as legitimated) section 5(4) above does not affect entitlement by virtue of [<sup>F47</sup>section 42(2) of the Adoption Act 1976][<sup>F48</sup>or section 69(2) of the Adoption and Children Act 2002].
- (3) This section applies for example where—
- (a) a testator dies in 1976 bequeathing a legacy to his eldest grandchild living at a specified time,
  - (b) his daughter has an illegitimate child in 1977 who is the first grandchild,
  - (c) his married son has a child in 1978,
  - (d) subsequently the illegitimate child is legitimated,
- and in all those cases the daughter’s child remains the eldest grandchild of the testator throughout.

7 Protection of trustees and personal representatives. E+W

- (1) A trustee or personal representative is not under a duty, by virtue of the law relating to trusts or the administration of estates, to enquire, before conveying or distributing any property, whether any person is illegitimate or has been adopted by one of his natural parents, and could be legitimated (or if deceased be treated as legitimated), if that fact could affect entitlement to the property.
- (2) A trustee or personal representative shall not be liable to any person by reason of a conveyance or distribution of the property made without regard to any such fact if he has not received notice of the fact before the conveyance or distribution.

9 Re-registration of birth of legitimated person. E+W

- (1) It shall be the duty of the parents of a legitimated person or, in cases where re-registration can be effected on information furnished by one parent and one of the parents is dead, of the surviving parent to furnish to the Registrar General information with a view to obtaining the re-registration of the birth of that person within 3 months after the date of the marriage [<sup>F49</sup> or of the formation of the civil partnership ] by virtue of which he was legitimated.
- (2) The failure of the parents or either of them to furnish information as required by subsection (1) above in respect of any legitimated person shall not affect the legitimation of that person.
- (3) This section does not apply in relation to a person who was legitimated otherwise than by virtue of the subsequent marriage [<sup>F50</sup> or civil partnership] of his parents.
- (4) Any parent who fails to give information as required by this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £2.
