1976 CHAPTER 63

Incidents of bail in criminal proceedings

[^{F1}3AA [^{F2}Conditions for the imposition of electronic monitoring requirements: children and young persons]

[^{F3}(1) A court may not impose electronic monitoring requirements on a child or young person unless each of the following conditions is met.]

(2) The first condition is that the child or young person has attained the age of twelve years.

(3) The second condition is that—

(a) the child or young person is charged with or has been convicted of a violent or sexual offence, or an offence punishable in the case of an adult with imprisonment for a term of fourteen years or more; or

(b) he is charged with or has been convicted of one or more imprisonable offences which, together with any other imprisonable offences of which he has been convicted in any proceedings—

(i) amount, or

(ii) would, if he were convicted of the offences with which he is charged, amount, to a recent history of repeatedly committing imprisonable offences while remanded on bail or to local authority accommodation.

[^{F4}(4) The third condition is that the court is satisfied that the necessary provision for dealing with the person concerned can be made under arrangements for the electronic monitoring of persons released on bail that are currently available in each local justice area which is a relevant area.]

(5) The fourth condition is that a youth offending team has informed the court that in its opinion the imposition of [^{F5}electronic monitoring requirements] will be suitable in the case of the child or young person.
