PART I

ENGLAND AND WALES

- 1 Section 9(3) of the Legal Aid Act 1974 (recalculation of contribution to legal aid fund) shall cease to have effect.
- 2 The following section shall be substituted for section 12 of that Act (panels of solicitors and counsel):—

“12 Selection of solicitors and counsel.

- (1) A person entitled to receive advice or assistance or legal aid may select—
 - (a) the solicitor to advise or assist or act for him, and
 - (b) if the case requires counsel, his counsel,and he shall be entitled to make the selection himself.
- (2) Subsection (1) above shall not prejudice the law and practice relating to the conduct of proceedings by solicitor or counsel, or the circumstances in which a solicitor or counsel may refuse or give up a case or entrust it to another.
- (3) A scheme made under section 15 of this Act may provide for the exclusion (whether permanently or temporarily) of a solicitor or barrister from those who may be selected under subsection (1) of this section on the ground that there is good reason for excluding him arising out of—
 - (a) his conduct when giving or selected to give advice or assistance, his conduct when acting or selected to act for persons receiving legal aid, or his professional conduct generally, or
 - (b) in the case of a member of a firm of solicitors, such conduct on the part of any person who is for the time being a member of the firm.
- (4) Where a barrister or solicitor is aggrieved by any decision so excluding him, he may appeal against the decision to the High Court, and the High Court (whose decision shall be final) may confirm or quash the decision appealed against or may substitute such decision as the court thinks fit.
- (5) Provision shall be made by rules of court for regulating appeals to the High Court under subsection (4) above, and those rules shall provide for limiting the time within which appeals may be brought.
- (6) In the preceding provisions of this section references to acting for a person receiving legal aid shall, in relation to a solicitor, include acting indirectly
