1 Borrowing powers of National Coal Board.

(1) For section 1(3) and (4) of the Act of 1965 (subsection (3) of which limits the sums borrowed by the Board and their wholly owned subsidiaries to £1,100 million or such greater sum not exceeding £1,400 million as the Secretary of State may by order specify) substitute the following subsections—

“(3) Without prejudice to subsection (4) of this section, the aggregate amount outstanding in respect of the principal of—

- (a) sums borrowed by the Board otherwise than from any of their wholly owned subsidiaries (including any sum which under section 1(4) of the Coal Industry Act 1973 is deemed to have been so borrowed), and
- (b) sums borrowed by any wholly owned subsidiary of the Board otherwise than from the Board or from another such subsidiary,

shall not exceed the limit of £1,800 million, but the Secretary of State may with the approval of the Treasury, on not more than two occasions, by order made by statutory instrument increase or further increase that limit by £400 million (so that the limit becomes £2,200 million or on the second occasion £2,600 million).

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coal Industry Act 1977. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The aggregate of the amounts outstanding in respect of sums borrowed temporarily by the Board under subsection (1) and subsection (2A) of this section—
 - (a) shall not at any time exceed such limit as the Secretary of State may from time to time direct, and
 - (b) at the end of any financial year of the Board shall not be such as to permit any accumulated deficit on the Board’s revenue account to exceed £50 million or such lesser or greater sum, but not exceeding £100 million, as the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury may specify by order made by statutory instrument.”

- (2) In Part I of Schedule 1 to this Act the provisions of the said section 1 of the Act of 1965, and of section 2 of the Act of 1973 (which also relates to the borrowing powers of the Board and its subsidiaries), are set out as amended by the enactments specified in Part II of that Schedule.

Other provisions

9 Activities relating to petroleum,

- (1) The [^{F15}Corporation] shall have power to carry on any activities consisting of—
- (a) the acquisition and treatment of petroleum.
 - (b) the manufacture and sale of products of petroleum, or
 - (c) the treatment of products of petroleum for the purpose of rendering them saleable, if it appears to the [^{F15}Corporation] that those activities will or may ultimately provide an outlet for coal or products of coal, or may lead to the development of chemical processes or methods, or acquisition of commercial, industrial or technological experience or knowledge which may lead to new or improved uses of coal or products of coal.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coal Industry Act 1977. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The functions of the [F¹⁵Corporation] shall include the carrying on of such activities as it may appear to the [F¹⁵Corporation] to be requisite, advantageous or convenient for them to carry on for or in connection with the exercise of their powers under subsection (1) above.
- (3) The [F¹⁵Corporation] shall have power to do anything and to enter into any transaction (whether or not involving expenditure, borrowing or lending, or the acquisition of any property or rights) which in the opinion of the [F¹⁵Corporation] is calculated to facilitate the proper exercise of their powers under this section, or is incidental or conducive to the exercise of those powers.
- (4) The provisions of this section are without prejudice to the duties and powers conferred on the [F¹⁵Corporation] by section 1 of the Act of 1946.
- (5) In this section and section 10 below “petroleum” means any of the following (other than coal) namely—
 - (a) mineral oil, natural gas and bituminous shales;
 - (b) deposits not mentioned in the preceding paragraph from which oil can be extracted by destructive distillation; and
 - (c) hydrocarbons which are related to mineral oil and are not mentioned in the preceding paragraphs.

11 Overseas activities.

- (1) Section 1 of the Act of 1946 (which states the [^{F17}Corporation's] duties and powers) shall not be limited by section 63(3) of that Act (references in that Act to activities to be limited to activities in Great Britain).
- (2) Without prejudice to the effect of subsection (1) above, the [^{F17}Corporation] shall have power to do anything outside Great Britain—
 - (a) which appears to the [^{F17}Corporation] requisite, advantageous or convenient, and
 - (b) which the [^{F17}Corporation] are required or authorised to do in Great Britain, whether or not what is done under this subsection is related to the working and getting of coal in Great Britain.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that subsection (2) above authorises the [^{F17}Corporation] to work and get coal outside Great Britain.
- (4) The [^{F17}Corporation] shall not do anything outside Great Britain except—
 - (a) with the consent in writing of the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) if it involves capital expenditure by the [^{F17}Corporation], or the guaranteeing by the [^{F17}Corporation] of any liability, with the consent of the Secretary of State given with the approval of the Treasury.
- (5) Subsection (4) above shall not apply to—
 - (a) selling or supplying for export,
 - (b) supplying imported goods in Great Britain.
- ^{F18}(6) Subsection (4) above shall not apply to anything done with consent given under section 2(2) of the Overseas Development and Co-operation Act 1980 (powers of statutory bodies in relation to furnishing of assistance to, or for the benefit of, overseas countries).]
- (7) This section shall not affect the ^{M1}National Coal Board (Additional Powers) Act 1966 (petroleum and natural gas) and no account shall be taken of that Act for the purposes of subsection (2) above.
- (8) Section 2 of the ^{M2}Coal Industry Act 1949, which is superseded by this section, shall cease to have effect.

PART I

Section 1 of the Act of 1965 as amended

Borrowing by, and loans by Minister to, National Coal Board.

- 1 (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) of this section, the National Coal Board (hereafter in this Act referred to as “the Board”) may borrow temporarily, by way of overdraft or otherwise, either from the Secretary of State or, with the consent of the Secretary of State, from any other person, such sums in sterling as the Board may require for meeting their obligations and discharging their functions.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, the Board may borrow (otherwise than by way of temporary loan) from the Secretary of State such sums in sterling as the Board may require in connection with their functions for all or any of the following purposes, that is to say—
- (a) for meeting any expenses properly chargeable to capital, being expenses incurred in connection with the provision or improvement of assets ;
 - (b) for the provision of working capital ;
 - (c) for acquiring an undertaking or part of an undertaking ;
 - (d) for lending money to, or meeting a guarantee given for the benefit of, any person for the purpose of an undertaking carried on by him or, where that person is a body corporate, an undertaking carried on by a subsidiary of that body corporate within the meaning of section 154 of the ^{M8}Companies Act 1948 ;
 - (e) for subscribing for or acquiring shares, stock, debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of a like nature, of a body corporate, otherwise than by way of investment ; (f) to pay off any money borrowed by the Board ;
 - (g) for any purpose for which capital moneys are properly applicable (whether or not specified in the foregoing paragraphs of this subsection).

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coal Industry Act 1977. (See end of Document for details)

- (2A) The Board with the consent of the Secretary of State (which shall require the approval of the Treasury) may borrow in a currency other than sterling any sum which they have power to borrow in sterling from the Secretary of State.
- (3) Without prejudice to subsection (4) of this section, the aggregate amount outstanding in respect of the principal of—
- (a) sums borrowed by the Board otherwise than from any of their wholly owned subsidiaries (including any sum which under section 1(4) of the Coal Industry Act 1973 is deemed to have been so borrowed), and
 - (b) sums borrowed by any wholly owned subsidiary of the Board otherwise than from the Board or from another such subsidiary,
- shall not exceed the limit of £1,800 million, but the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury may, on not more than two occasions, by order made by statutory instrument increase or further increase that limit by £400 million (so that the limit becomes £2,200 million or on the second occasion £2,600 million).
- (4) The aggregate of the amounts outstanding in respect of sums borrowed temporarily by the Board under subsection (1) and subsection (2A) of this section—
- (a) shall not at any time exceed such limit as the Secretary of State may from time to time direct, and
 - (b) at the end of any financial year of the Board shall not be such as to permit any accumulated deficit on the Board’s revenue account to exceed £50 million or such lesser or greater sum, but not exceeding £100 million, as the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury may specify by order made by statutory instrument.
- (5) The Board shall not have power to borrow money except in accordance with this section or with section 2(3) of the ^{M9}Coal Industry Act 1973.
- (6) The Secretary of State may lend to the Board any sums which the Board have power to borrow under subsection (1) or (2) of this section.
- (7) [Paragraph (a) makes textual amendments in the Act of 1946, and defines the ^{M10}Coal Industry Nationalisation Act 1946 as “the Act of 1946”. The remaining provisions are repealed by this Act.]
- (8) Any power conferred by a provision of this section to make an order shall include power to vary or revoke the order by a subsequent order made under that provision ; but no such power shall be exercisable unless a draft of the order has been laid before the Commons House of Parliament and approved by a resolution of that House.
