1978 CHAPTER 22

PART I

MATRIMONIAL PROCEEDINGS IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS

Variation, revocation and cessation of orders etc.

20 Variation, revival and revocation of orders for periodical payments.

- (1) Where [<sup>F1</sup>the family court] has made an order under section 2(1)(a) or (c) of this Act for the making of periodical payments the court shall have power, on an application made under this section, to vary or revoke that order and also to make an order under section 2(1)(b) or (d) of this Act.
- [<sup>F2</sup>(2) Where [<sup>F1</sup>the family court] has made an order under section 6 of this Act for the making of periodical payments by a party to a marriage the court shall have power, on an application made under this section, to vary or revoke that order and also to make an order for the payment of a lump sum by that party either—
  - (a) to the other party to the marriage, or
  - (b) to a child of the family or to that other party for the benefit of that child.]
- (3) Where [<sup>F1</sup>the family court] has made an order under section 7 of this Act for the making of periodical payments, the court shall have power, on an application made under this section, to vary or revoke that order.
- [<sup>F3</sup>(4) .....
- (5) Where [<sup>F4</sup>the family court] has made an interim maintenance order under section 19 of this Act, the court, on an application made under this section, shall have power to vary or revoke that order, except that the court shall not by virtue of this subsection extend the period for which the order is in force.

*Changes to legislation: Domestic Proceedings and Magistrates' Courts Act 1978, Cross Heading: Variation, revocation and cessation of orders etc. is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 18 April 2024. - (6) The power of the court under this section to vary an order for the making of periodical payments shall include power to suspend any provision thereof temporarily and to revive any provision so suspended.
- (7) Where the court has power by virtue of this section to make an order for the payment of a lump sum, the amount of the lump sum shall not exceed the maximum amount that may at that time be required to be paid under section 2(3) of this Act, but the court may make an order for the payment of a lump sum not exceeding that amount notwithstanding that the person required to pay the lump sum was required to pay a lump sum by a previous order under this Part of this Act.
- (8) Where the court has power by virtue of subsection (2) above to make an order for the payment of a lump sum and the respondent [<sup>F5</sup>or the applicant, as the case may be,] has agreed to pay a lump sum of an amount exceeding the maximum amount that may at that time be required to be paid under section 2(3) of this Act, the court may, notwithstanding anything in subsection (7) above, make an order for the payment of a lump sum of that amount.
- (9) An order made by virtue of this section which varies an order for the making of periodical payments may, <sup>F6</sup>... , provide that the payments as so varied shall be made from such date as the court may specify, [<sup>F7</sup>except that, subject to subsections (9A) and (9B) below, the date shall not be] earlier than the date of the making of the application under this section.

- (a) there is in force an order (“the order ”)—
  - (i) under section 2(1)(c) of this Act,
  - (ii) under section 6(1) of this Act making provision of a kind mentioned in paragraph (c) of section 6(2) of this Act (regardless of whether it makes provision of any other kind mentioned in that paragraph),
  - (iii) under section 7(2)(b) of this Act, or
  - (iv) which is an interim maintenance order under which the payments are to be made to a child or to the applicant for the benefit of a child;
- (b) the order requires payments specified in it to be made to or for the benefit of more than one child without apportioning those payments between them;
- (c) a [<sup>F9</sup>maintenance assessment][<sup>F9</sup>maintenance calculation] (“[<sup>F10</sup>the assessment][<sup>F10</sup>the calculation]”) is made with respect to one or more, but not all, of the children with respect to whom those payments are to be made; and
- (d) an application is made, before the end of the period of 6 months beginning with the date on which [<sup>F10</sup>the assessment][<sup>F10</sup>the calculation] was made, for the variation or revocation of the order, the court may, in exercise of its powers under this section to vary or revoke the order, direct that the variation or revocation shall take effect from the date on which [<sup>F10</sup>the assessment][<sup>F10</sup>the assessment] took effect or any later date.

(9B) Where—

- (a) an order (“the child order ”) of a kind prescribed for the purposes of section 10(1) of the Child Support Act 1991 is affected by a [<sup>F11</sup>maintenance assessment][<sup>F11</sup>maintenance calculation];
- (b) on the date on which the child order became so affected there was in force an order (“the spousal order ”)—
  - (i) under section 2(1)(a) of this Act,

Changes to legislation: *Domestic Proceedings and Magistrates' Courts Act 1978, Cross Heading: Variation, revocation and cessation of orders etc. is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 18 April 2024. - (ii) under section 6(1) of this Act making provision of a kind mentioned in section 6(2)(a) of this Act (regardless of whether it makes provision of any other kind mentioned in that paragraph),
  - (iii) under section 7(2)(a) of this Act, or
  - (iv) which is an interim maintenance order under which the payments are to be made to the applicant (otherwise than for the benefit of a child); and
- (c) an application is made, before the end of the period of 6 months beginning with the date on which the [F12maintenance assessment][F12maintenance calculation] was made, for the spousal order to be varied or revoked, the court may, in exercise of its powers under this section to vary or revoke the spousal order, direct that the variation or revocation shall take effect from the date on which the child order became so affected or any later date.
- (9C) For the purposes of subsection (9B) above, an order is affected if it ceases to have effect or is modified by or under section 10 of the Child Support Act 1991.]

F13(10) .....

(11) In exercising the powers conferred by this section the court shall, so far as it appears to the court just to do so, give effect to any agreement which has been reached between the parties in relation to the application and, if there is no such agreement or if the court decides not to give effect to the agreement, the court shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case, [F14first consideration being given to the welfare while a minor of any child of the family who has not attained the age of eighteen, and the circumstances of the case shall include any change] in any of the matters to which the court was required to have regard when making the order to which the application relates or, in the case of an application for the variation or revocation of an order made under section 6 of this Act or on an appeal under section 29 of this Act, to which the court would have been required to have regard if that order had been made under section 2 of this Act.

[F15(12) An application under this section may be made—

- (a) where it is for the variation or revocation of an order under section 2, 6, 7 or 19 of this Act for periodical payments, by either party to the marriage in question; and
- (b) where it is for the variation of an order under section 2(1)(c), 6 or 7 of this Act for periodical payments to or in respect of a child, also by the child himself, if he has attained the age of sixteen.]

25 Effect on certain orders of parties living together.

(1) Where—

- (a) periodical payments are required to be made to one of the parties to a marriage (whether for his own benefit or for the benefit of a child of the family) by an order made under section 2, [<sup>F35</sup>or 6] of this Act or by an interim maintenance order made under section 19 of this Act (otherwise than on an application under section 7 of this Act), <sup>F36</sup> . . .

the order shall be enforceable notwithstanding that the parties to the marriage are living with each other at the date of the making of the order or that, although they are not living with each other at that date, they subsequently resume living with each other; but the order shall cease to have effect if after that date the parties continue to live with each other, or resume living with each other, for a continuous period exceeding six months.

(2) Where any of the following orders is made under this Part of this Act, that is to say—

- (a) an order under section 2, [<sup>F37</sup>or 6] of this Act which requires periodical payments to be made to a child of the family, [<sup>F38</sup>or
- (b) an interim maintenance order under section 19 of this Act (otherwise than on an application under section 7 of this Act) which requires periodical payments to be made to a child of the family,

then, unless the court otherwise directs, the order shall continue to have effect and be enforceable notwithstanding that the parties to the marriage in question are living with each other at the date of the making of the order or that, although they are not living with each other at that date, they subsequently resume living with each other.
