

Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978

1978 CHAPTER 44

PART IX

MISCELLANEOUS AND SUPPLEMENTAL

Supplementary provisions

148 Review of limits.

- (1) The Secretary of State shall in each calendar year review—
 - (a) the limits referred to in section 15;
 - (b) the limit referred to in section 122(5); and
 - (c) the limits imposed by paragraph 8(1) of Schedule 14 on the amount of a week's pay for the purposes of those provisions;and shall determine whether any of those limits should be varied.
- (2) In making a review under this section the Secretary of State shall consider—
 - (a) the general level of earnings obtaining in Great Britain at the time of the review;
 - (b) the national economic situation as a whole; and
 - (c) such other matters as he thinks relevant.
- (3) If on a review under this section the Secretary of State determines that, having regard to the considerations mentioned in subsection (2), any of those limits should be varied, he shall prepare and lay before each House of Parliament the draft of an order giving effect to his decision.
- (4) Where a draft of an order under this section is approved by resolution of each House of Parliament the Secretary of State shall make an order in the form of the draft.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978, Cross Heading: Supplementary provisions. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) If, following the completion of an annual review under this section, the Secretary of State determines that any of the limits referred to in subsection (1) shall not be varied, he shall lay before each House of Parliament a report containing a statement of his reasons for that determination.
- (6) The Secretary of State may at any time, in addition to the annual review provided for in subsection (1), conduct a further review of the limits mentioned in subsection (1) so as to determine whether any of those limits should be varied, and subsections (2) to (4) shall apply to such a review as if it were a review under subsection (1).

149 General power to amend Act.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the Secretary of State may by order—
- provide that any enactment contained in this Act which is specified in the order shall not apply to persons or to employments of such classes as may be prescribed in the order;
 - provide that any such enactment shall apply to persons or employments of such classes as may be prescribed in the order subject, except in relation to section 54 (but without prejudice to paragraph (a)), to such exceptions and modifications as may be so prescribed;
 - vary, or exclude the operation of, any of the following provisions of this Act, that is to say, sections [F1 13(2), 20(2), 49(4A),] [F2 53(2),] 64(1), [F3 64A(1)] 99, 141(2) and (5) F4 144(1), (2), (4) and (5), F5 and 146 F4(4) to (7);
 - [F6(d) add to, vary or delete any of the provisions of Schedule 5.]
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the following provisions of this Act, namely, sections F4, 52, 55, 57, 58, [F3 58A] 59, 62, 63, 65, 66, 67, [F7 73(4B), 75, 75A(7)], 80, 103 to 120, 128, 134, 141(1) [F8, 142(1) and 151] and Schedules 3, 9 and 13, and, in addition, paragraph (b) of subsection (1) does not apply to sections 1 to 6 and 49 to 51 F9
- (3) The provisions of this section are without prejudice to any other power of the Secretary of State to amend, vary or repeal any provision of this Act or to extend or restrict its operation in relation to any person or employment.
- (4) No order under subsection (1) shall be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

[^{F10F11}151] Computation of period of continuous employment.

- (1) References in any provision of this Act to a period of continuous employment are, except where provision is expressly made to the contrary, to a period computed in accordance with the provisions of this section and Schedule 13; and in any such provision which refers to a period of continuous employment expressed in months or years a month means a calendar month and a year means a year of twelve calendar months.
- (2) In computing an employee's period of continuous employment any question arising as to—
 - (a) whether the employee's employment is of a kind counting towards a period of continuous employment, or
 - (b) whether periods (consecutive or otherwise) are to be treated as forming a single period of continuous employment,shall be determined in accordance with Schedule 13 (that is to say, week by week), but the length of an employee's period of employment shall be computed in months and years of twelve months in accordance with the following rules.
- (3) Subject to the following provisions of this section, an employee's period of continuous employment for the purposes of any provision of this Act begins with the day on which he starts work and ends with the day by reference to which the length of his period of continuous employment falls to be ascertained for the purposes of the provision in question.
- (4) For the purposes of section 81 and Schedule 4 an employee's period of continuous employment shall be treated as beginning on his eighteenth birthday if that date is later than the starting date referred to in subsection (3).
- (5) If an employee's period of continuous employment includes one or more periods which, by virtue of any provision of Schedule 13, do not count in computing the length of the period but do not break continuity, the beginning of the period shall be treated as postponed by the number of days falling within that intervening period or, as the case may be, by the aggregate number of days falling within those periods.
- (6) The number of days falling within such an intervening period is—
 - (a) in the case of a period to which paragraph 14(3) of Schedule 13 applies, seven days for each week within that sub-paragraph;
 - (b) in the case of a period to which paragraph 15(2) or (4) of that Schedule applies, the number of days between the last working day before the strike or lock-out and the day on which work was resumed;

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978, Cross Heading: Supplementary provisions. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) in the case of a period to which paragraph 16(1) of that Schedule applies, the number of days between the employee's last day of employment before service under Part I of the ^{M1}National Service Act 1948 and the day on which he resumed employment in accordance with Part II of that Act.]

152 Calculation of normal working hours and a week's pay.

Schedule 14 shall have effect for the purposes of this Act for calculating the normal working hours and the amount of a week's pay of any employee.

153 Interpretation.

- (1) In this Act, except so far as the context otherwise requires—

“act” and “action” each includes omission and references to doing an act or taking action shall be construed accordingly;

“business” includes a trade or profession and includes any activity carried on by a body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate;

^{F12}“collective agreement” has the meaning given by section 30(1) of the ^{M2}Trade Union and Labour Relations Act 1974;

“confinement” means the birth of a living child or the birth of a child whether living or dead after twenty-eight weeks of pregnancy;

“contract of employment” means a contract of service or apprenticeship, whether express or implied, and (if it is express) whether it is oral or in writing;

“dismissal procedures agreement” means an agreement in writing with respect to procedures relating to dismissal made by or on behalf of one or more independent trade unions and one or more employers or employers' associations;

“effective date of termination” has the meaning given by section 55(4) [^{F13}to (6)];

“employee” means an individual who has entered into or works under (or, where the employment has ceased, worked under) a contract of employment;

“employer”, in relation to an employee, means the person by whom the employee is (or, in a case where the employment has ceased, was) employed;

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978, Cross Heading: Supplementary provisions. (See end of Document for details)

“employers’ association” has the same meaning as it has for the purposes of the ^{M3}Trade Union and Labour Relations Act 1974;

[^{F14}“employer’s payment” has the meaning given by section 106(1A) and (1B);]

“employment”, except for the purposes of sections 111 to 115, means employment under a contract of employment;

“expected week of confinement” means the week, beginning with midnight between Saturday and Sunday, in which it is expected that confinement will take place;

“government department”, except in section 138 and paragraph 19 of Schedule 13, includes a Minister of the Crown;

“guarantee payment” has the meaning given by section 12(1);

^{F15}“independent trade union” means a trade union which—

- (a) is not under the domination or control of an employer or a group of employers or of one or more employers’ associations; and
- (b) is not liable to interference by an employer or any such group or association (arising out of the provision of financial or material support or by any other means whatsoever) tending towards such control; and, in relation to a trade union, “independent” and “independence” shall be construed accordingly;

“job”, in relation to an employee, means the nature of the work which he is employed to do in accordance with his contract and the capacity and place in which he is so employed;

^{F16}^{F16}“notice of intention to claim” has the meaning given by section 88;

“notified day of return” has the meaning given by section 47(1) and (8);

“official”, in relation to a trade union, has the meaning given by section 30(1) of the ^{M4}Trade Union and Labour Relations Act 1974;

“original contract of employment”, in relation to an employee who is absent from work wholly or partly because of pregnancy or confinement, means the contract under which she worked immediately before the beginning of her absence or, if she entered into that contract during her pregnancy by virtue of section 60(2) or otherwise by reason of her pregnancy, the contract under which she was employed immediately before she entered into the later contract or, if there was more than one later contract, the first of the later contracts;

“position”, in relation to an employee, means the following matters taken as a whole, that is to say, his status as an employee, the nature of his work and his terms and conditions of employment;

^{F17}“redundancy payment” has the meaning given by section 81(1);

^{F18}“relevant date”, for the purposes of the provisions of this Act which relate to redundancy payments, has the meaning given by section 90;

“renewal” includes extension, and any reference to renewing a contract or a fixed term shall be construed accordingly;

“successor” has the meaning given by section 30(3) and (4) of the ^{M5}Trade Union and Labour Relations Act 1974;

“trade dispute” has the meaning given by section 29 of the said Act of 1974;

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978, Cross Heading: Supplementary provisions. (See end of Document for details)

“trade union” has the meaning given by section 28 of the said Act of 1974;
^{F19}“week” means, in relation to an employee whose remuneration is calculated weekly by a week ending with a day other than Saturday, a week ending with that other day, and in relation to any other employee, a week ending with Saturday.

- (2) References in this Act to dismissal by reason of redundancy, and to cognate expressions, shall be construed in accordance with section 81.
- (3) In sections 33, 47, 56, 61 and 86 and Schedule 2, except where the context otherwise requires, “to return to work” means to return to work in accordance with section 45(1), and cognate expressions shall be construed accordingly.
- (4) For the purposes of this Act, any two employers are to be treated as associated if one is a company of which the other (directly or indirectly) has control, or if both are companies of which a third person (directly or indirectly) has control; and the expression “associated employer” shall be construed accordingly.
- (5) For the purposes of this Act it is immaterial whether the law which (apart from this Act) governs any person’s employment is the law of the United Kingdom, or of a part of the United Kingdom, or not.
- (6) In this Act, except where otherwise indicated—
 - (a) a reference to a numbered Part, section or Schedule is a reference to the Part or section of, or the Schedule to, this Act so numbered, and
 - (b) a reference in a section to a numbered subsection is a reference to the subsection of that section so numbered, and
 - (c) a reference in a section, subsection or Schedule to a numbered paragraph is a reference to the paragraph of that section, subsection or Schedule so numbered, and
 - (d) a reference to any provision of an Act (including this Act) includes a Schedule incorporated in the Act by that provision.
- (7) Except so far as the context otherwise requires, any reference in this Act to an enactment shall be construed as a reference to that enactment as amended or extended by or under any other enactment, including this Act.
