

International Monetary Fund Act 1979

1979 CHAPTER 29

An Act to consolidate the enactments relating to the International Monetary Fund and to repeal, as obsolete, the European Monetary Agreement Act 1959 and the entries relating to it in Schedule 2 to the National Loans Act 1968. [4th April 1979]

1 Payments to International Monetary Fund.

- (1) All sums which the Government of the United Kingdom requires for the purpose of paying to the International Monetary Fund in accordance with the Fund's Articles of Agreement—
 - (a) subscriptions of such amounts as may from time to time be authorised by order of the Treasury in the event of proposals being made for increases in the United Kingdom's quota under section 3(a) of Article III;
 - (b) any sums payable under section 11 of Article V (maintenance of value of assets);
 - (c) any sums required for implementing the guarantee required by section 3 of Article XIII (guarantee against loss resulting from failure or default of designated depository); and
 - (d) any compensation required to be paid to the Fund or any member of it under Schedule J or K (withdrawal of members and liquidation),shall be paid out of the National Loans Fund.
- (2) The power of the Treasury to make orders under subsection (1)(a) above shall be exercisable by statutory instrument; and no such order shall be made until a draft of it has been laid before and approved by a resolution of the House of Commons.
- (3) All sums which the Government of the United Kingdom requires for the purpose of paying any charges payable to the International Monetary Fund under section 8 of Article V of the Fund's Articles of Agreement shall be paid out of the Exchange Equalisation Account.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the International Monetary Fund Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

2 Loans to Fund.

[^{F1}(1) The Treasury may make loans to the International Monetary Fund in accordance with the Fund's borrowing arrangements; but the aggregate amount outstanding in respect of the principal of loans under this section shall not exceed 1,700 million special drawing rights.

(1A) For the purposes of subsection (1) above, a loan under this section, or repayment of such a loan, in any currency shall be treated as a loan or, as the case may be, repayment of the amount of special drawing rights which for the purposes of those arrangements is the value of the loan or repayment.]

(2) The Treasury may by order raise or further raise the limit on lending imposed by subsection (1) above.

(3) The power of the Treasury to make orders under subsection (2) above shall be exercisable by statutory instrument; and no such order shall be made until a draft of it has been laid before and approved by a resolution of the House of Commons.

(4) Sums to be lent under this section shall be issued out of the National Loans Fund.

(5) In this section "the Fund's borrowing arrangements" means arrangements made by the International Monetary Fund for enabling it to borrow the currency of any member of the Fund taking part in the arrangements.

Amendments (Textual)

F1 S. 2(1) and (1A) substituted by International Monetary Arrangements Act 1983 \(c. 51, SIF 99:2\), s. 1

3 Receipts from Fund.

Sums received by the Government of the United Kingdom from the International Monetary Fund (other than sums received by reason of the operation of the Exchange Equalisation Account) shall be paid into the National Loans Fund.

4 Power of Treasury to create and issue notes and other obligations to Fund.

(1) The Treasury may, if they think fit so to do, create and issue to the International Monetary Fund, in such form as they think fit, any such non-interest-bearing and non-negotiable notes or other obligations as are provided for by section 4 of Article III of the Fund's Articles of Agreement.

(2) The sums payable under any such notes or other obligations shall be charged on the National Loans Fund with recourse to the Consolidated Fund.

5 Immunities and privileges etc.

(1) Without prejudice to the powers conferred by the ^{M1}International Organisations Act 1968 or any other Act, Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such provision as She may consider reasonably necessary for carrying into effect any of the provisions of the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund relating to the status, immunities and privileges of the Fund and its governors, executive directors, alternates, officers and employees, or as to the unenforceability of exchange contracts.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the International Monetary Fund Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, Orders in Council made under this section may be so made as to extend to any of the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, any colony and, to the extent that Her Majesty has jurisdiction there, to any country outside Her Majesty's dominions in which Her Majesty has jurisdiction in right of the Government of the United Kingdom.
- (3) If, whether before or after the coming into force of this Act, effect is given by or under the law of any part of Her Majesty's dominions or other territory to the provisions of the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund specified in subsection (1) above, no Order in Council made under this section shall extend to that part of Her Majesty's dominions or other territory as respects any period as respects which effect is so given to those provisions.
