

Isle of Man Act 1979

1979 CHAPTER 58

11 Transfer of functions to Isle of Man authorities.

- (1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such modifications in any provision contained in or having effect under any Act of Parliament extending to the Isle of Man as appear to Her Majesty to be appropriate for the purpose of transferring to any authority or person constituted by or having functions under the law of the Island—
 - (a) any functions under that provision of the Lieutenant Governor of the Isle of Man (whether referred to by that title or otherwise) or of a deputy governor of the Island;
 - (b) any functions under that provision, so far as exercisable in relation to the Island, of the Commissioners or an officer of the Commissioners.
- (2) Any statutory instrument made by virtue of this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
