

Education Act 1980

1980 CHAPTER 20

Admission to schools

9 Nursery schools and special schools

- (1) None of the provisions of sections 6, 7 and 8 above have effect in relation to nursery schools or to children who will not have attained the age of five years at the time of their proposed admission except that where the arrangements for the admission of pupils to a school maintained by a local education authority provide for the admission of children who will attain that age within six months after their admission those sections shall have effect in relation to the admission of such pupils to that school.
- (2) None of the provisions of those sections other than subsections (5) and (7) of section 8 have effect in relation to special schools or children in need of special educational treatment.