TRANSFER OF UNDERTAKING OF NATIONAL FREIGHT CORPORATION

Transfer of undertaking of National Freight Corporation to a company limited by shares

45 Transfer of undertaking of National Freight Corporation.

- (1) On the appointed day the whole of the undertaking of the National Freight Corporation (in this Part referred to as “the Corporation”) shall, subject to subsection (4), be transferred by virtue of this section and without further assurance to a company formed for the purposes of this section and nominated under subsection (5) (in this Part referred to as “the successor company”).
- (2) In this Part “the appointed day” means such day as the Minister, with the consent of the Treasury, may appoint for the purposes of this section by order made by statutory instrument.
- (3) References in this Part to the undertaking of the Corporation are references to all the property, rights, liabilities and obligations of the Corporation, whether or not of such a nature that they could be assigned by the Corporation.

^{F12}(4)

- (5) The Minister may by order made by statutory instrument nominate for the purposes of this section a company formed and registered under the ^{M3}Companies Act 1948 which on the appointed day satisfies the following requirements, that is to say—
 - (a) it is a company limited by shares; and
 - (b) all the issued shares of the company are held by the Minister or by nominees for him.

Funding of certain pension obligations

49 Funding of relevant pension obligations.

- (1) If it appears to the Minister, having determined that all or any of the securities of the successor company held by him or by nominees for him should be offered for sale, that on the date on which those securities are to be so offered the relevant pension obligations will not be completely funded, he may, with the consent of the Treasury, undertake to make to the persons administering the relevant pension schemes such payments towards the funding of those obligations as he may specify in the undertaking.
- (2) An undertaking under subsection (1)—
 - (a) shall specify the aggregate amount of the payments which the Minister proposes to make in pursuance of the undertaking; and
 - (b) shall be conditional on the amount received by the Minister in consideration for the disposal of the securities being not less than that amount.
- (3) If the Minister gives an undertaking under subsection (1) but the condition mentioned in subsection (2) is not fulfilled, he may nevertheless, with the consent of the Treasury, make to the persons administering the relevant pension schemes such payments towards the funding of the relevant pension obligations as he thinks fit.
- (4) If no undertaking is given under subsection (1) but it appears to the Minister that, on the date on which all or any of the securities of the successor company held by him or by nominees for him are offered for sale, the relevant pension obligations are not completely funded, he may, with the consent of the Treasury, make to the persons administering the relevant pension schemes such payments towards the funding of those obligations as he thinks fit.
- (5) The aggregate amount of any payments made under subsection (3) or (4) shall not exceed the amount received in consideration for the disposal of the securities of the successor company; and the sums required for making any such payments or any payments in pursuance of an undertaking under subsection (1) shall be paid out of that amount.
- (6) In this section—

“the relevant pension obligations” has the meaning given by section 50;

“the relevant pension schemes” means the National Freight Corporation (Salaried Staff) Pension Fund, the National Freight Corporation (Wages Grades) Pension Fund and the N.F.C. (1978) Pension Fund; and for the purposes of this section the N.F.C. (1978) Pension Fund shall be taken to comprise the pension schemes specified or described in the Schedule to the Central Trust deed within the meaning of the ^{M4}National Freight Corporation (Central Trust) Order 1978.

50 Meaning of “the relevant pension obligations”.

- (1) In section 49 “the relevant pension obligations” means, subject to subsection (2)—
- (a) any obligations of the successor company or a relevant subsidiary which were owed on 1st April 1975 (“the operative date”) in connection with any of the relevant pension schemes; and
 - (b) where any such obligation is one to pay or secure the payment of pensions, any obligation of the successor company or a relevant subsidiary arising after the operative date to pay or secure the payment of increases of those pensions; and
 - (c) any obligation of the successor company or a relevant subsidiary arising after the operative date to pay or secure the payment of increases payable under any of the relevant pension schemes, being increases of pensions payable under any other pension scheme established before that date (whether one of the relevant pension schemes or not); and
 - (d) any obligation of the successor company or a relevant subsidiary which results from an amendment made to any of the relevant pension schemes by virtue of section 74 of the ^{M5}Transport Act 1962 after the operative date and before 1st January 1980.
- (2) The definition in subsection (1) does not include—
- (a) any obligation which, in relation to one of the relevant pension schemes, is a relevant pension obligation for the purposes of Part III;
 - (b) any obligation to pay or secure the payment of increases of pensions in excess of increases payable on official pensions under the ^{M6}Pensions (Increase) Act 1971 and section 59 of the ^{M7}Social Security Pensions Act 1975;
 - (c) any obligation to pay contributions in respect of current periods of employment of a member of a scheme;
 - (d) any obligation to pay expenses incurred in connection with a scheme which is specifically imposed on the body by which it is owed;
 - (e) any obligation owed by a body in their capacity as the trustees of a scheme or the persons administering a scheme; and
 - (f) any obligation in respect of which the body by which it is owed have a right to indemnified by any other body.
- (3) In this section—
- “pension”, in relation to any of the relevant pension schemes, has the same meaning as in Part III;
- “the relevant pension schemes” has the same meaning as in section 49;
- “relevant subsidiary” means any subsidiary of the successor company other than National Carriers Limited and any subsidiary of National Carriers Limited;
- “subsidiary” has the same meaning as in the ^{M8}Transport Act 1962.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) any increase in an obligation which results from an amendment made to a scheme after the operative date shall be treated as a separate obligation; and 52 Payments by Minister in respect of B.R. and N.F.C. pension schemes.

- (1) [^{F17}Subject to the provisions of this section and sections 52A to 52D and 58,] the Minister shall, in relation to each B.R. or N.F.C. pension scheme and for each financial year, make to the persons administering the scheme payments equal in aggregate to the product of—
- (a) the proportion determined under section 54(1) as the proportion of the relevant pension obligations which has not been funded;
 - (b) the proportion determined in relation to that year under section 55(1) as the proportion of the pensions, increases and expenses payable under or incurred in connection with the scheme which corresponds to those obligations; and
 - (c) the aggregate amount of the pensions, increases and expenses payable under or incurred in connection with the scheme for that year.
- (2) Where in the case of any such scheme the funding of the relevant pension obligations has, by virtue of subsection (3) of section 54, been left out of account in making a determination under subsection (1) of that section, the aggregate amount of the payments made under subsection (1) to the persons administering the scheme shall be reduced for each financial year—
- (a) by the amount of any income accruing to the scheme for that year which may be applied towards the payment of such of the pensions, increases and expenses payable under or incurred in connection with the scheme as correspond to the obligations; and
 - (b) in the case of the first financial year, by an amount equal to the value of the assets by which the obligations are funded.
- (3) Where, for any financial year, the aggregate amount of the payments made under subsection (1) to the persons administering any such scheme requires adjustment by reason of—
- (a) any variation between the proportion finally determined under section 55(1) in relation to that year and the proportion previously so determined; or
 - (b) any unforeseen increase or reduction in the aggregate amount of the pensions, increases and expenses payable under or incurred in connection with the scheme for that year,
- that adjustment shall be made by increasing or, as the case may require, reducing the aggregate amount of the payments made under subsection (1) for the following financial year.
- (4) Payments under subsection (1) shall be made, so far as practicable, not later than the day on which the pensions, increases and expenses to which they relate fall to be paid or incurred.
- (5) The making of any payment under subsection (1) shall be subject to compliance with such conditions as to the keeping of records, the issue of certificates and the auditing of accounts as the Minister may with the approval of the Treasury determine.

[^{F20}52B Power to substitute obligations under this section for liabilities under s.52(1).

- (1) The Minister may make a substitution order in relation to any occupational pension scheme—
 - (a) which is a new scheme, within the meaning of Schedule 11 to the Railways Act 1993;
 - (b) which is designated under paragraph 10(1) of that Schedule (designation of schemes which are to be treated as B.R. pension schemes for certain purposes of this Part); and
 - (c) in relation to which a guarantee has been given by the Secretary of State under paragraph 11 of that Schedule;and any reference in this section to a “ guaranteed pension scheme ” is a reference to such an occupational pension scheme.
- (2) The Minister may also make a substitution order in relation to any section of a new scheme, within the meaning of Schedule 11 to the Railways Act 1993, if the section is one—
 - (a) which is designated under paragraph 10(1) of that Schedule; and
 - (b) in relation to which a guarantee has been given by the Secretary of State under paragraph 11 of that Schedule;and the following provisions of this section (and sections 52C and 52D) shall apply in relation to any such section of a new scheme as if any reference to a guaranteed pension scheme included a reference to such a section.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, a “ substitution order ” is an order under this section the effect of which is—
 - (a) to terminate, from the termination date, the Minister’s liability to make to the persons administering the guaranteed pension scheme in question payments under section 52(1) in relation to the scheme; and
 - (b) to impose on the Minister, in substitution for that liability, an obligation to make to those persons, subject to and in accordance with the following provisions of this section, one or more other payments (the “ substitution payments ”) in relation to that scheme.
- (4) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the amount of the substitution payments to be made in the case of a guaranteed pension scheme shall be equal in the aggregate to the sum of—
 - (a) the amount specified pursuant to subsection (5)(a) as the capital value of the unfunded obligations in the case of the scheme; and
 - (b) the aggregate amount of any interest which is dealt with as mentioned in subsection (8)(b)(ii) in the case of the scheme.
- (5) A substitution order must specify—
 - (a) the capital value of the unfunded obligations in the case of the guaranteed pension scheme in question, as at the termination date; and
 - (b) the date which, for the purposes of this section, is to be the termination date in relation to that scheme, being a date not earlier than one month after the coming into force of the substitution order.
- (6) Any determination for the purposes of this section of the capital value of the unfunded obligations in the case of a guaranteed pension scheme shall either—

- (b) if the Minister so requires in the particular case, be made by the actuary to the guaranteed pension scheme in question and approved by the Minister.
- (7) A substitution order may specify—
- (a) the amount or amounts, or the method of determining the amount or amounts, of the substitution payments,
 - (b) the date or dates on which the substitution payments are to be made,
 - (c) circumstances (which may, if the Minister so desires, be defined by reference to the opinion of any person) in which substitution payments are to be made,
- and may provide for the obligation to make substitution payments to be discharged if the guaranteed pension scheme in question has, in the opinion of a person specified or described in, or nominated under, the order, been wound up.
- (8) A substitution order must provide—
- (a) for interest to accrue from the termination date on the outstanding balance of the capital value for the time being at such rate, and at such intervals, as may be specified in, or determined under or in accordance with, the order; and
 - (b) for any such interest which accrues—
 - (i) to be paid to the persons administering the guaranteed pension scheme in question, or
 - (ii) to be added to the outstanding balance of the capital value, (or to be dealt with partly in one of those ways and partly in the other);
- and the provision that may be made by virtue of paragraph (a) includes provision for the rate of interest to be calculated by reference to any variable or to be such rate as the Minister may from time to time determine and specify in a notice to the persons administering the scheme in question.
- (9) For the purposes of subsection (8), the “outstanding balance of the capital value”, in the case of a guaranteed pension scheme, means the capital value of the unfunded obligations in the case of the scheme, as specified pursuant to subsection (5)(a),—
- (a) reduced by the amount of any substitution payments made in relation to that scheme; and
 - (b) increased by any additions of accrued interest under or by virtue of subsection (8)(b)(ii) in relation to that scheme.

^{F22}52C Adjustments arising in connection with orders under s.52B.

- (1) As soon as practicable after the termination date in the case of any guaranteed pension scheme, there shall be determined, for the terminal period, what proportion of the pensions, increases and expenses payable under, or incurred in connection with, the scheme corresponds to the relevant pension obligations.
- (2) Any determination under subsection (1) shall either—
 - (a) be made by the Minister; or
 - (b) if the Minister so requires in the particular case, be made by the actuary or auditor to the guaranteed pension scheme in question and approved by the Minister.
- (3) The Minister may give a direction to the persons administering a guaranteed pension scheme requiring them to determine the aggregate amount of the pensions, increases and expenses payable under or incurred in connection with the scheme for the terminal period or the termination year and to notify him in writing of their determination.
- (4) As respects the termination year of a guaranteed pension scheme, the extent of the liability of the Minister to make payments under section 52(1) in relation to that scheme shall be restricted to a liability to make payments of an amount (the “termination year amount”) equal in the aggregate to the product of—
 - (a) the proportion determined under section 54(1) for that scheme;
 - (b) the proportion determined pursuant to subsection (1) in the case of that scheme; and
 - (c) the aggregate amount of the pensions, increases and expenses payable under or incurred in connection with that scheme in the terminal period;

and payments by way of adjustment shall be made by the Minister to the persons administering the scheme, or (as the case may be) by those persons to the Minister, before the expiration of the period of six months beginning with the date of the last of the determinations made under subsection (1) or (3) with respect to the scheme.

- (5) Where, in the case of a guaranteed pension scheme, the funding of the relevant pension obligations has, by virtue of subsection (3) of section 54, been left out of account in making a determination under subsection (1) of that section, the termination year amount in the case of that scheme shall be the difference between—
- (a) what that amount would have been, apart from this subsection; and
 - (b) the amount of any income accruing for the terminal period which may be applied towards the payment of such of the pensions, increases and expenses payable under or incurred in connection with the scheme as correspond to those obligations.
- (6) The Minister may give a direction to the persons administering a guaranteed pension scheme requiring them to determine the amount mentioned in subsection (5)(b) and to notify him in writing of their determination.
- (7) Where payments by way of adjustment fall to be made, interest shall be payable, as from the termination date, by the person liable to make those payments, at the rates and intervals from time to time applicable for the purposes of section 52B(8)(a) in the case of the scheme in question, on so much of the aggregate amount of the payments in question as for the time being remains unpaid.

- (3) In subsection (2) “the relevant proportion”, in relation to any increases, means, subject to subsection (4), the proportion (if any) certified by the actuary to the basic scheme to be the proportion of those increases which, if payable under that scheme, could be funded by 75 per cent. of the amount by which the assets of that scheme exceed its liabilities.
- (4) Where any obligation arising after the date of a certificate under subsection (3) is an obligation to pay or secure the payment of a proportion only of any increases to which the certificate relates, then, in relation to that obligation, the relevant proportion for the purposes of subsection (2) shall be given by the formula—where A is the first mentioned proportion and B is the proportion certified by the actuary.

$$\frac{A + B - 1}{A}$$

- (5) The Minister may direct the persons administering the basic scheme—
- (a) to arrange for the actuary to the scheme to certify whether or not the assets of the scheme exceed its liabilities; and
 - (b) to send a copy of the actuary’s certificate to the Minister;
- but no direction shall be given under this subsection within the period of three years beginning with the giving by the actuary of such a certificate.
- (6) References in this section to the assets and liabilities of the basic scheme are references to the assets and liabilities of that scheme so far as it relates to the payment of pensions increases of which are or are likely to become payable under the supplementation scheme.

57 Exclusion of payments in respect of certain transfer values.

Where the whole or any part of a person’s accrued pension rights under a B.R. or N.F.C. pension scheme are transferred to any other pension scheme, being a scheme established by the Board or the successor company or any subsidiary of either of those bodies, the Minister may direct that for the purposes of—

- (a) any determination of the aggregate amount of the pensions, increases and expenses payable under or incurred in connection with the first-mentioned scheme; and
- (b) any determination under section 55(1) in relation to that scheme, it shall be assumed that the said rights had not been transferred and that the payment of any sum representing those rights had not been made.

- (a) which are made on or after 1st April 1980 and before the passing of this Act to the persons administering a scheme to which this subsection applies; and
 - (b) in respect of which the Minister reimburses the Board or, as the case may be, the Corporation,
- shall be deemed to be payments made to those persons in advance under section 52(1), and any money which is deemed to be money so paid, and any investments representing any such money, shall be left out of account in making any determination under section 54(1).
- (3) Subsection (2) applies to any B.R. or N.F.C. pension scheme other than one in the case of which the relevant pension obligations have been completely funded.
- (4) The Minister may discharge his liability to make any payment under section 52(1) to the persons administering a scheme to which subsection (2) applies by appropriating to that payment so much of any money which is deemed to be money paid to those persons in advance under section 52(1) as, with the appropriate interest thereon, is equal to the amount of that payment.
- (5) Any money which is deemed to be money paid in advance under section 52(1) shall carry interest for the period beginning with the date on which it was paid to the persons administering the scheme and ending with the date on which it is appropriated by the Minister at such rate as the Minister may with the consent of the Treasury determine.
