

Judicial Pensions Act 1981

1981 CHAPTER 20

PART I

RATE OF PENSION

CHAPTER II

OTHER JUDICIAL OFFICES

5 Circuit judge in England or Wales.

- (1) A Circuit judge may on the recommendation of the Lord Chancellor be granted a pension—
- (a) if he retires after 15 years service and at the time of his retirement he has attained the age of 65 years, or
 - (b) if he vacates his office in accordance with section 17 of the ^{M1}Courts Act 1971 (age limit and removal on ground of incapacity or misbehaviour), or
 - (c) if the Lord Chancellor is satisfied by means of a medical certificate that, by reason of infirmity of mind or body, he is incapable of discharging the duties of his office, and that the incapacity is likely to be permanent.

[^{F1}(1A) The Lord Chancellor must consult the Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales before making a recommendation in a case that falls within subsection (1)(b) or (c).]

- (2) The annual rate of a pension payable under this section to a person retiring after not less than 15 years service shall be one half of his last annual salary.
- (3) The annual rate of a pension payable under this section to a person retiring after less than 15 years service shall be—
- (a) if the period of service does not amount to 5 years, 6/40ths of his last annual salary,
 - (b) if the period of service amounts to 5 years or more, one quarter of that salary plus 1/40th for each completed year of service exceeding 5.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Judicial Pensions Act 1981, Chapter II. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) If a person to whom a pension has been granted under this section (before he has attained the age of 72) in consequence of any such incapacity as is referred to in subsection (1)(c) above resumes the duty of a Circuit judge, the payment of the pension shall be suspended during the period of his resumed service, but at the end of that period the pension shall again be payable and be recalculated in accordance with subsections (2) and (3) above, and for that purpose the period of his resumed service shall be added to the period of his former service.
- (5) In this section “service” means service as a Circuit judge.
- (6) A pension under this section shall be payable at such intervals, not exceeding three months, as [^{F2}the Treasury] may determine.
- [^{F3}(7) The Lord Chief Justice may nominate a judicial office holder (as defined in section 109(4) of the Constitutional Reform Act 2005) to exercise his functions under this section.]

- (2) The annual rate of a pension payable under this section to a person retiring after not less than 20 years service shall not exceed one half of his last annual salary.
- (3) The annual rate of a pension payable under this section to a person retiring after less than 20 years service shall not exceed—
 - [^{F6}(a) if the period of service amounts to less than 5 (but not less than 2) years, 6/80ths of his last annual salary,
 - (aa) if the period of service amounts to less than 10 years (but not less than 5), 15/80ths of his last annual salary plus 1/80th for each completed year of service exceeding 5,
 - (b) if the period of service amounts to not less than 10 years (but less than 20), one quarter of that salary plus 2/80ths for each completed year of service after the first 10 years.
- (4) A person to whom a pension is granted under this section on retirement on a medical certificate shall, until he attains the age of 65, be liable to be called upon to fill any public office or situation under the Crown in the United Kingdom for which his previous public services may render him eligible: and if he declines, when called upon to do so, to take upon him such office or situation, or declines or neglects to execute the duties thereof satisfactorily, being in a competent state of health, he shall forfeit his right to the pension which has been granted to him.
- (5) Any sums payable on account of a pension under this section shall be paid at such times in each year as [^{F4}the Treasury] may determine.
- (6) In this section “service” means service as a stipendiary magistrate in England or Wales.
- [^{F7}(7) The Lord Chief Justice may nominate a judicial office holder (as defined in section 109(4) of the Constitutional Reform Act 2005) to exercise his functions under this section.]
