

Judicial Pensions Act 1981

1981 CHAPTER 20

PART I

RATE OF PENSION

CHAPTER II

OTHER JUDICIAL OFFICES

5 Circuit judge in England or Wales

- (1) A Circuit judge may on the recommendation of the Lord Chancellor be granted a pension—
  - (a) if he retires after 15 years service and at the time of his retirement he has attained the age of 65 years, or
  - (b) if he vacates his office in accordance with section 17 of the Courts Act 1971 (age limit and removal on ground of incapacity or misbehaviour), or
  - (c) if the Lord Chancellor is satisfied by means of a medical certificate that, by reason of infirmity of mind or body, he is incapable of discharging the duties of his office, and that the incapacity is likely to be permanent.
- (2) The annual rate of a pension payable under this section to a person retiring after not less than 15 years service shall be one half of his last annual salary.
- (3) The annual rate of a pension payable under this section to a person retiring after less than 15 years service shall be—
  - (a) if the period of service does not amount to 5 years, 6/40ths of his last annual salary,
  - (b) if the period of service amounts to 5 years or more, one quarter of that salary plus 1/40th for each completed year of service exceeding 5.
- (4) If a person to whom a pension has been granted under this section (before he has attained the age of 72) in consequence of any such incapacity as is referred to in subsection (1)(c) above resumes the duty of a Circuit judge, the payment of the pension shall be suspended during the period of his resumed service, but at the end of that period the pension shall again be payable and be recalculated in accordance with subsections (2) and (3) above, and for that purpose the period of his resumed service shall be added to the period of his former service.

- (5) In this section " service " means service as a Circuit judge.
- (6) A pension under this section shall be payable at such intervals, not exceeding three months, as the Minister may determine.

6 Sheriffs in Scotland

For sheriffs in Scotland pensions shall be payable in accordance with the Sheriffs' Pensions (Scotland) Act 1961.

7 Stipendiary magistrates in England and Wales

- (1) A stipendiary magistrate in England or Wales may on the recommendation of the Lord Chancellor be granted a pension if he retires after not less than 5 years service, and—
  - (a) at the time of his retirement he has attained the age of 65, or
  - (b) the Lord Chancellor is satisfied by means of a medical certificate that by reason of infirmity of mind or body he is incapable of discharging the duties of his office, and that the incapacity is likely to be permanent.
- (2) The annual rate of a pension payable under this section to a person retiring after not less than 20 years service shall not exceed one half of his last annual salary.
- (3) The annual rate of a pension payable under this section to a person retiring after less than 20 years service shall not exceed—
  - (a) if the period of service amounts to less than 10 years (but not less than 5), 15/80ths of his last annual salary plus 1/80th for each completed year of service exceeding 5,
  - (b) if the period of service amounts to not less than 10 years (but less than 20), one quarter of that salary plus 2/80ths for each completed year of service after the first 10 years.
- (4) A person to whom a pension is granted under this section on retirement on a medical certificate shall, until he attains the age of 65, be liable to be called upon to fill any public office or situation under the Crown in the United Kingdom for which his previous public services may render him eligible; and if he declines, when called upon to do so, to take upon him such office or situation, or declines or neglects to execute the duties thereof satisfactorily, being in a competent state of health, he shall forfeit his right to the pension which has been granted to him.
- (5) Any sums payable on account of a pension under this section shall be paid at such times in each year as the Minister may determine.
- (6) In this section " service " means service as a stipendiary magistrate in England or Wales.

8 Judge Advocate General: choice between civil service scheme and special provision

- (1) Section 9 below shall apply to a person holding the office of Judge Advocate General if within 3 months after appointment to that office he gives notice in writing to the Minister that he elects that section 9 shall apply to him.
- (2) In the case of a person who holds the office of Judge Advocate General, but to whom section 9 below does not apply, the principal civil service pension scheme shall have effect as if service in that office were employment in the civil service of the State.

9 Judge Advocate General: special provision

- (1) A person to whom this section applies may be granted a pension if he retires after not less than 5 years service and at the time of his retirement—
  - (a) he has attained the age of 60, or
  - (b) he is disabled by a permanent infirmity from performing the functions of his office.
- (2) The annual rate of a pension payable under this section to a person retiring after not less than 15 years service shall be one half of his last annual salary.
- (3) The annual rate of a pension payable under this section to a person retiring after less than 15 years service (but not less than 5) shall be one quarter of his last annual salary plus 1/40th for each completed year of service exceeding 5.
- (4) Part III of Schedule 1 to this Act (injury or disease sustained in course of duty) shall have effect—
  - (a) as if references to an officer to whom that Schedule applies included references to a person to whom this section applies, and
  - (b) as if, in relation to an allowance granted under the said Part III to a person to whom this section applies paragraph 16(1)(a) referred to a pension under this section.
- (5) In this section " service " means service as Judge Advocate General.

10 President or other member of either Lands Tribunal

- (1) There may be paid to persons who have been members of the Lands Tribunal, or the Lands Tribunal for Scotland, such superannuation allowances as the appropriate Minister may, with the approval of the Minister for the Civil Service, determine.
- (2) In this section " the appropriate Minister " means—
  - (a) in relation to the Lands Tribunal, the Lord Chancellor,
  - (b) in relation to the Lands Tribunal for Scotland, the Secretary of State.

11 President of pensions appeals tribunals

In the case of any person appointed as president of the pension appeal tribunals established under the Pensions Appeal Tribunals Act 1943—

- (a) the Lord Chancellor may pay such pension, allowances or gratuity to or in respect of him on his retirement or death, or make such payments towards the provision of such a pension, allowance or gratuity, as the Lord Chancellor with the approval of the Minister may determine, and

- (b) if, on his ceasing to hold office as president of the pensions appeal tribunals, it appears to the Lord Chancellor that there are special circumstances which make it right that he should receive compensation, the Lord Chancellor may, with the approval of the Minister, pay to him a sum of such amount as the Lord Chancellor may, with the like approval, determine.

12 President or chairman of industrial tribunals

- (1) This section applies to any holder on a full-time basis of any of the following offices established by regulations under section 128 of the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978, namely—
  - (a) President of the Industrial Tribunals (England and Wales),
  - (b) President of the Industrial Tribunals (Scotland),
  - (c) member of a panel of chairmen so established,
 if remunerated, apart from any allowances, on an annual basis.
- (2) A person to whom this section applies may on the recommendation of the Secretary of State be granted a pension—
  - (a) if he retires after 15 years relevant service and at the time of his retirement he has attained the age of 65, or
  - (b) if at the time of his retirement he has attained the age of 72, or
  - (c) if the Secretary of State is satisfied by means of a medical certificate that, at the time of his retirement, by reason of infirmity of mind or body, he is incapable of discharging the duties of his office and that the incapacity is likely to be permanent.
- (3) The annual rate of a pension payable under this section to a person retiring after not less than 15 years relevant service shall not exceed one half of his last annual salary.
- (4) The annual rate of a pension payable under this section to a person retiring after less than 15 years relevant service shall not exceed—
  - (a) if the period of relevant service is less than 5 years, 6/40ths of his last annual salary,
  - (b) if the period of relevant service is not less than 5 years (but less than 15 years), one quarter of his last annual salary plus 1/40th for each completed year of relevant service exceeding 5.
- (5) In this section the expression " relevant service " means service on a full-time basis as holder of any of the offices referred to in subsection (1) above (including such service remunerated otherwise than on an annual basis) or service in any such other capacity under the Crown as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Minister ; and regulations under this subsection shall be made by statutory instrument and—
  - (a) may be made generally or subject to specified exceptions or in relation to specified cases or classes of case,
  - (b) may provide that in calculating relevant service either the whole of a person's prescribed service of any description shall be taken into account or such part thereof only as may be determined by or under the regulations,
  - (c) may make different provision for different cases or classes of case, and
  - (d) shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

- (6) In this section "last annual salary" means last annual remuneration apart from any allowances.

13 Social Security Commissioner

- (1) A Social Security Commissioner may on the recommendation of the Secretary of State be granted a pension—
- (a) if he retires after 15 years service and at the time of his retirement he has attained the age of 65, or
  - (b) if at the time of his retirement he has attained the age of 72, or
  - (c) if the Secretary of State is satisfied by means of a medical certificate that at the time of his retirement, by reason of infirmity of mind or body, he is incapable of discharging the duties of his office and that the incapacity is likely to be permanent.
- (2) The annual rate of a pension payable under this section to a person retiring after not less than 15 years service shall not exceed one half of his last annual salary.
