

Countryside (Scotland) Act 1981

1981 CHAPTER 44

An Act to make further provision for the better enjoyment of the Scottish countryside, and as respects the Countryside Commission for Scotland; to amend the Countryside (Scotland) Act 1967; and for connected purposes. [27 July 1981]

1 Grants and loans.

For section 7 of the Act of 1967 (grants and loans to persons other than public bodies) there shall be substituted—

“7 Grants and loans.

- (1) In accordance with arrangements approved by the Secretary of State and the Treasury, the Commission shall have power to make grants, loans (or both) to any person, including a public body, in respect of expenditure incurred by him in doing anything which in the opinion of the Commission is conducive to the attainment of any of the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Grants or loans made in terms of subsection (1) above to local authorities shall be made only in respect of expenditure incurred by those authorities in relation to the countryside in or in connection with —
 - (a) the exercise of their powers under this Act;
 - (b) the exercise of their powers under section 24 of the Caravan Sites and Control of Development Act 1960 (which relates to the provision of caravan sites by local authorities);
 - (c) the exercise of their powers under section 2 (except subsection (1) (b) of the Local Government (Development and Finance) (Scotland) Act 1964 (which empowers local authorities to develop land in certain circumstances);
 - (d) the payment of compensation under section 159, or by virtue of section 163, of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1972 (which respectively relate to compensation in respect of the control of the use of land and to tree preservation orders);

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Countryside (Scotland) Act 1981. (See end of Document for details)

- (e) the exercise of their powers of acquiring land, whether by agreement or compulsorily, under or by virtue of any of the enactments referred to in the preceding paragraphs of this subsection.
- (3) On making a grant or a loan under this section the Commission may impose conditions including (in the case of a grant) conditions for repayment in specified circumstances.
- (4) The exercise of the Commission's power under this section shall be subject to any directions given to them by the Secretary of State."

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 The text of s. 1 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

2 Extension of definition of "open country".

In subsection 10(2) of the Act of 1967 (which defines "open country") for the words after "adjacent thereto" there shall be substituted the following words— "and any waterway;" and in this section "waterway" and "foreshore" shall include any bank, barrier, dune, beach, flat or other land adjacent to the waterway or foreshore."

3 Further provision in relation to access agreements.

- (1) At the end of section 13 of the Act of 1967 (which relates to access agreements) there shall be added the following subsection—

"(11) Payments made under subsection (2) above in consideration of the making of the agreement shall be made on the basis of an assessment of the capital value of the land arrived at in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 4 to this Act."

- (2) After Schedule 3 to the Act of 1967 there shall be inserted the following Schedule—

"SCHEDULE 4

PROVISIONS AS TO THE CALCULATION FOR FIXING CONSIDERATION IN RESPECT OF THE MAKING OF ACCESS AGREEMENTS.

- (1) The district valuer shall value the land covered by the access agreement, as at the first day of the twelve month period to which the consideration will relate, assuming—
- (a) a sale on the open market by a willing seller; and
 - (b) that the use of the land is unfettered by the access agreement.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Countryside (Scotland) Act 1981. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The planning authority shall, before or as soon as possible after the coming into operation of the access agreement, agree with the owner of the interest in the land what proportion of the figure set by the district valuer should be paid by the planning authority in respect of each twelve month period.
- (3) The first twelve month period shall begin on the day on which the public is first given access to the land under the agreement.”

form of such orders; and (without prejudice to the generality of this subsection) the regulations shall make provisions as follows:—

- (a) that before an order under subsection (2)(a) above is submitted to the Secretary of State for confirmation, notice of the terms of the order shall be given to the owners, lessees and occupiers of land within the area designated in the order, and to such other persons, if any, as may be specified in the regulations;
 - (b) that objections and representations with respect to the order, if duly made in accordance with the regulations, shall be considered by the Secretary of State before he confirms the order;
 - (c) that if no objections or representations are made in respect of any order, or if any objections or representations made are withdrawn, the order shall not be submitted to the Secretary of State for confirmation, but shall be confirmed without modifications as an unopposed order by the council or councils who made it; and
 - (d) that copies of confirmed orders shall be served on such person as may be specified in the regulations.
- (5) Any statutory instrument made in terms of subsection (4) above shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (6) Where a planning application is made in relation to lands which fall within an area designated as a regional park, the planning authority shall have regard to the fact that the area has been so designated in considering the application.”

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C9 The text of s. 8 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

9 Management agreements.

After section 49 of the Act of 1967 there shall be inserted the following section—

“49A Management agreements.

- (1) A planning authority or the Commission may enter into agreements (to be known as “management agreements”) with any person having an interest in land to do, or to secure the doing of, whatever in the opinion of the parties to the agreement may be necessary to preserve or enhance the natural beauty of the countryside or to promote the enjoyment of the countryside by the public.
- (2) Before entering into any management agreement, the Commission shall consult the relevant planning authorities.
- (3) In this section, “the relevant planning authorities” include any planning authority for an area within which any land liable to be affected by the management agreement is situated.
- (4) A planning authority or the Commission may make such payments in respect of such agreements as are specified in the agreement.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Countryside (Scotland) Act 1981. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Any person, being the liferenter of the heir of entail, in possession of any land shall have power to enter into management agreements relating to the land or any part thereof.
- (6) The Trusts (Scotland) Act 1921 shall have effect as if among the powers conferred on trustees by section 4 thereof (which relates to the general power of trustees) there were included a power to enter into management agreements relating to the trust estate or any part thereof.
- (7) Subsections (8) to (10) of section 13 of this Act shall apply to management agreements as they apply to access agreements.
- (8) Where any person having such an interest in any land as enables him to bind the land enters into any such agreement as aforesaid, the agreement may be registered either—
- (a) in a case where the land affected by the agreement is registered in that Register, in the Land Register of Scotland, or
 - (b) in any other case, in the appropriate Division of the General Register of Sasines.
- (9) Any agreement registered in terms of subsection (8) above shall be enforceable at the instance of the planning authority or of the Commission, as the case may be, against persons deriving title to the land from the person who entered into agreement; provided that any such agreement shall not be enforceable against a third party who shall have in good faith and for value acquired right (whether completed by infestment or not) to the land prior to the agreement being registered as aforesaid, or against any person deriving title from such third party.
- (10) Notwithstanding the terms of any management agreement, it shall be open at any time to the parties to the agreement, or to persons deriving title from the parties, as the case may be, to agree to terminate it; and where any management agreement has been registered in terms of subsection (8) above, the subsequent agreement to terminate it shall be registered in the like manner.”

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C10 The text of s. 9 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

10 Extension of power to make byelaws.

- (1) In section 54 of the Act of 1967 (which provides for the making of byelaws as respects country parks etc.), for subsection (1) there shall be substituted the following subsections—

- “(1) A local authority may, as respects land in their area belonging to them and situated in the countryside, and a planning authority may, as respects—
- (a) a public path created—
 - (i) in accordance with a public path creation agreement to which they are party;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Countryside (Scotland) Act 1981. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) by a public path creation order made by them and confirmed where necessary by the Secretary of State; or
- (iii) by a public path diversion order made by them and confirmed where necessary by the Secretary of State;
- (b) a long-distance route which passes through their area;
- (c) a public right of way in relation to which a duty is imposed on them by section 46(1) of this Act;
- (d) a country park provided by them under section 48 of this Act; or
- (e) land or a waterway—
 - (i) in relation to which an agreement or order has been made by them for the purpose of giving access to the public; or
 - (ii) to which the public are given access in consequence of acquisition by the authority, make byelaws for the preservation of order, for the prevention of damage to the land, pathroute, right of way, park or waterway or anything thereon, therein, or adjacent thereto, and for securing that persons resorting thereto will so behave themselves as to avoid undue interference with the enjoyment of the land, path, route, right of way, park or waterway by other persons.

- (1A) In subsection (1) above— “long-distance route” means a route in relation to which there are approved proposals under section 40 of this Act (or approved proposals having effect subject to the provisions of a report or direction under section 42 of this Act) and includes any road forming part of the route and any ferry, proposals for the provision and operation of which are included in the approved proposals; and “public path” has the meaning assigned to it in section 30 of this Act.”
- (2) In subsection (2) of the said section, after the word “land”, in both places where it occurs, there shall be inserted the words “path, route, right of way,”.
- (3) After subsection (5) of the said section there shall be added the following subsection—
- “(5A) Byelaws made under this section in relation long-distance routes shall not come into operation in relation to any part of the route until—
- (a) the Secretary of State’s approval of the route under section 40 of this Act has been notified to the local authority or planning authority as the case may be; and
 - (b) access over that part of the route is available to the public.”
