2 Extension of 1968 Act to commodity organisations.

The following section is hereby inserted in the 1968 Act after section 4—

“4A International commodity organisations.

- (1) In this section, “international commodity organisation” means any such organisation as is mentioned in section 4 of this Act (international organisations of which the United Kingdom is not a member) which appears to Her Majesty to satisfy each of the following conditions—
 - (a) that the members of the organisation are States or the Governments of States in which a particular commodity is produced or consumed;
 - (b) that the exports or imports of that commodity from or to those States account (when taken together) for a significant volume of the total exports or imports of that commodity throughout the world; and
 - (c) that the purpose or principal purpose of the organisation is—
 - (i) to regulate trade in that commodity (whether as an import or an export or both) or to promote or study that trade; or
 - (ii) to promote research into that commodity or its uses or further development.
- (2) Subject to the following provisions of this section, an Order made under section 4 of this Act with respect to an international commodity organisation may, for the purpose there mentioned and to such extent as may be specified in the Order—
 - (a) provide that the organisation shall have the privileges and immunities set out in paragraphs 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7 of Schedule 1 to this Act;
 - (b) confer on persons of any such class as is mentioned in subsection (3) of this section the privileges and immunities set out in paragraphs 11 and 14 of that Schedule;
 - (c) provide that the official papers of such persons shall be inviolable; and
 - (d) confer on officers and servants of the organisation of any such class as may be specified in the Order the privileges and immunities set out in paragraphs 13, 15 and 16 of that Schedule.
- (3) The classes of persons referred to in subsection (2)(b) of this section are—
 - (a) persons who (whether they represent Governments or not) are representatives to the organisation or representatives on, or members of, any organ, committee or other subordinate body of the organisation (including any sub-committee or other subordinate body of a subordinate body of the organisation);
 - (b) persons who are members of the staff of any such representative and who are recognised by Her Majesty’s Government in the United Kingdom as holding a rank equivalent to that of a diplomatic agent.
- (4) An Order in Council made under section 4 of this Act shall not confer on any person of such class as is mentioned in subsection (3) of this section any immunity in respect of a civil action arising out of an accident caused by a motor vehicle or other means of transport belonging to or driven by such a person, or in respect of a traffic offence involving such a vehicle and committed by such a person.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the International Organisations Act 1981. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) In this section “commodity” means any produce of agriculture, forestry or fisheries, or any mineral, either in its natural state or having undergone only such processes as are necessary or customary to prepare the produce or mineral for the international market.”.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C2 The text of ss. 1–3, 5 and 6(4) is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

3 Conferences convened by international organisations.

The following section is hereby inserted in the 1968 Act after section 5—

“5A Orders under ss. 1 and 4 extending to U.K. conferences.

- (1) An Order in Council made under section 1 of this Act in respect of any organisation, or under section 4 of this Act in respect of an international commodity organisation, may to such extent as may be specified in the Order, and subject to the following provisions of this section,—
- (a) confer on persons of any such class as may be specified in the Order, being persons who are or are to be representatives (whether of Governments or not) at any conference which the organisation may convene in the United Kingdom—
- (i) in the case of an Order under section 1, the privileges and immunities set out in Part II of Schedule 1 to this Act;
- (ii) in the case of an Order under section 4, the privileges and immunities set out in paragraphs 11 and 14 of that Schedule; and
- (b) in the case of an Order under section 4, provide that the official papers of such persons shall be inviolable.
- (2) Where in the exercise of the power conferred by subsection (1)(a) of this section an Order confers privileges and immunities on persons of any such class as is mentioned in that paragraph, the provisions of paragraphs 19 to 22 of Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect in relation to the members of the official staffs of such persons as if in paragraph 19 of that Schedule “representative” were defined as a person of such a class.
- (3) The powers exercisable by virtue of this section may be exercised notwithstanding the provisions of any such agreement as is mentioned in section 1(6)(a) or 4 of this Act, but no privilege or immunity may thereby be conferred on any such representative, or member of his staff, as is mentioned in section 1(6)(b) of this Act.
- (4) In this section “international commodity organisation” has the meaning given by section 4A(1) of this Act.
- (5) This section is without prejudice to section 6 of this Act.”.
