C2 Power to modify Pt. III (ss. 37–48) conferred by Social Security Act 1986 \(c. 50, SIF 113:1\), s. 17(1)

37 Sick pay to count as remuneration for principal Act.

(1) In section 3 of the principal Act (meaning of “earnings”) there are inserted, after subsection (1), the following subsections—

“(1A) For the purposes of this section there shall be treated as remuneration derived from an employed earner’s employment any sickness payment made—

- (a) to or for the benefit of the employed earner ; and
- (b) in accordance with the arrangements under which the person who is the secondary contributor in relation to the employment concerned has made or remains liable to make payments towards the provision of that sickness payment.

(1B) Where the funds for making sickness payments under arrangements of the kind mentioned in subsection (1A)(b) above are attributable in part to contributions to those funds made by the employed earner, regulations may make provision for disregarding, for the purposes of subsection (1A) above, the prescribed part of any sum paid as a result of the arrangements.

(1C) In this section—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security and Housing Benefits Act 1982, Part III. (See end of Document for details)

“sickness payment” means any payment made in respect of absence from work due to incapacity for work (within the meaning of section 17 of this Act) ; and “secondary contributor” has the meaning given by section 4 of this Act.”.

- (2) In Schedule 2 to the principal Act (supplementary provisions relating to contributions) the following paragraph is inserted at the end—

Sickness payments counting as remuneration

“9 (1) Regulations may make provisions as to the manner in which, and the person through whom, any sickness payment which, by virtue of section 3(1A) of this Act, is to be treated as remuneration derived from employed earner’s employment is to be made.

(2) In any case where regulations made under sub-paragraph (1) above have the effect of requiring a registered friendly society (within the meaning of the Friendly Societies Act 1974) to make amendments to its rules, the amendments to its rules, the amendments may, notwithstanding any provision of those rules, be made in accordance with the procedure prescribed by regulations made by the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies for the purposes of this paragraph.

(3) Regulations made under sub-paragraph (2) above shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C3 The text of ss. 37, 39(2)–(4), 40, 41(3), 43(1) and 48(6) is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

38 ..... F1

Textual Amendments

F1 Ss. 38, 41(1)(2), 42(1)(2) repealed by Social Security Act 1986 (c. 50, SIF 113:1), s. 86(2), Sch. 11

39 Industrial injuries.

(1) Injury benefit is hereby abolished; and accordingly sections 50(2)(a) and 56 of the principal Act (which make provision for injury benefit) are hereby repealed.

(2) In section 57 of the principal Act, for subsection (4) (period in respect of which disablement benefit is not payable) there is substituted the following subsection—

“(4) Disablement benefit shall not be available to a person until after the expiry of the period of ninety days (disregarding Sundays) beginning with the day of the relevant accident.”.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security and Housing Benefits Act 1982, Part III. (See end of Document for details)

(3) In section 14 of the principal Act (sickness benefit) the following subsection is inserted after subsection (2)—

“(2A) Subsection (1) above is subject to the provision made by section 50A of this Act in relation to entitlement to sickness benefit in case of industrial injury.”.

(4) After section 50 of the principal Act there is inserted the following section—

“50A Sickness benefit in respect of industrial injury.

(1) In any case where—

- (a) an employed earner is incapable of work as a result of a personal injury of the kind mentioned in section 50(1) of this Act ; and
  - (b) the contribution conditions are not satisfied in respect of him ;
- those conditions shall be taken to be satisfied for the purposes of paragraph (a) or, as the case may be, (b) of section 14(2) of this Act as that paragraph applies in relation to sickness benefit.

(2) in the case a person who—

- (a) is entitled, by virtue of this section, to sickness benefit under subsection (2)(b) of section 14 ; and
- (b) is not also entitled to sickness benefit under subsection (2)(c) of that section ;

the weekly rate at which sickness benefit is payable shall be determined in accordance with regulations.

(3) In subsection (1) above “contribution conditions” means—

- (a) in the case of a person who is under pensionable age, the contribution conditions specified for sickness benefit in Schedule 3, Part I, paragraph 1 ; and
- (b) in the case of a person who has attained pensionable age but has not retired from regular employment, the contribution conditions for Category A retirement pension specified in Schedule 3, Part I, paragraph 5.”

(5) Regulations may make such transitional or saving provision as the Secretary of State considers necessary or expedient in connection with the provisions of this section.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C4 The text of ss. 37, 39(2)–(4), 40, 41(3), 43(1) and 48(6) is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

40 Refusal and cancellation of contracting out certificates.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security and Housing Benefits Act 1982, Part III. (See end of Document for details)

---

“51A Refusal and cancellation of contracting out certificates.

- (1) This subsection applies in any case where—
  - (a) a contracting-out certificate (the “first certificate”) has been surrendered by an employer or cancelled by the Occupational Pensions Board ; and
  - (b) at any time before the expiry of the period of twelve months beginning with the date of the surrender or cancellation, that or any connected employer, with a view to the issue of a further contracting-out certificate, makes an election in respect of any employment which was specified by virtue of section 31(1)(a) of this Act in the first certificate.
- (2) This subsection applies in any case where—
  - (a) a contracting-out certificate (the “first certificate”) has been surrendered by an employer or cancelled by the Board ;
  - (b) a further contracting-out certificate has been issued, after the surrender or cancellation of the first certificate but before the expiry of the period of twelve months beginning with the date of the surrender or cancellation, in respect of any employment which was specified by virtue of section 31(1)(a) of this Act in the first certificate ; and
  - (c) the Board have formed the opinion that had they been aware of all the circumstances of the case at the time when the further contracting-out certificate was issued they would have been prevented by subsection (4) below from issuing it.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) above apply whether or not the occupational pension scheme by reference to which the employment concerned was contracted-out employment by virtue of the first certificate is the same as the scheme by reference to which the employment—
  - (a) would be contracted-out employment if the further contracting-out certificate were issued ; or
  - (b) is contracted-out employment by virtue of the further contracting-out certificate.
- (4) In a case to which subsection (1) above applies, the Board shall not give effect to the election referred to in that subsection by issuing a further contracting-out certificate unless they consider that, in all the circumstances of the case, it would be reasonable to do so.
- (5) In a case to which subsection (2) above applies, the Board may, before the expiry of the period of twelve months beginning with the date on which the further contracting-out certificate was issued, cancel the further contracting-out certificate.
- (6) Where a contracting-out certificate is cancelled under subsection (5) above the provisions of this Act and of any regulations and orders made under it shall have effect as if the certificate had never been issued.
- (7) This section does not apply in any case where the surrender or cancellation of the first certificate occurred before 22nd July 1981.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security and Housing Benefits Act 1982, Part III. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) Where the further contracting-out certificate referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) above was issued before the commencement of this section, then—
- (a) paragraph (c) of that subsection shall have effect as if this section had been in force at the time when the further contracting-out certificate was issued ; and
  - (b) subsection (5) above shall have effect as if the reference to the date of issue of that certificate were a reference to the commencement of this section.
- (9) Regulations may make such supplemental provision in relation to cases falling within subsection (1) or (2) above as the Secretary of State considers necessary or expedient.
- (10) Without prejudice to subsection (9) above, regulations may make provision, in relation to any case in which the Board have cancelled a contracting-out certificate under subsection (5) above, preventing the recovery by the employer concerned (whether by deduction from the emoluments or otherwise) of such arrears which he is required to pay to the Secretary of State in respect of an earner's liability under section 4(3) of the principal Act as may be prescribed.
- (11) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) above an employment (the “second employment”) in respect of which—
- (a) an election of the kind referred to in subsection (1)(b) above has been made ; or
  - (b) a further contracting-out certificate of the kind referred to in subsection (2)(b) above has been issued ;
- and an employment (the “first employment”) which was specified by virtue of section 31(1)(a) of this Act in the first certificate shall be treated as one employment if, in the opinion of the Board,—
- (i) they are substantially the same, however described ; or
  - (ii) the first employment falls wholly or partly within the description of the second employment or the second employment falls wholly or partly within the description of the first employment.
- (12) Regulations shall prescribe the case in which employers are to be treated as connected for the purposes of this section.
- (13) Where the Secretary of State proposes to make regulations under subsection (10) above, section 10(1) of the Social Security Act 1980 (duty of Secretary of State to refer proposed regulations to the Social Security Advisory Committee) shall apply in relation to those proposals.”.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C5 The text of ss. 37, 39(2)–(4), 40, 41(3), 43(1) and 48(6) is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

43 War pensions.

- (1) In section 6 of the <sup>M5</sup>Pensions Appeal Tribunals Act 1943 (setting aside of Tribunal's decision and rehearing of appeal), after the words "Minister's decision" in subsection (2A) there are inserted the words " (the "original decision") " and after subsection (2B) there are inserted the following subsections—
- “(2C) Where a direction for a rehearing is given under subsection (2A) above, the Minister may, before the expiry of the period of two months beginning with the date of the direction, review the original decision.
- (2D) If, on any such review, the Minister is of the opinion that there are grounds for revising the original decision he shall—
- (a) notify the appellant of his opinion and of the revision which he proposes to make ; and
  - (b) if the appaellant withdraws his appeal against the original decision, revise it accordingly.”.

(2) In any case where, before the commencement of this section, an award has been made in respect of a claim for a war pension, the validity of that award shall not be called into question on the ground that it was made—

    - (a) in consequence of the review of a decision made in respect of the claim (whether or not following an appeal against that decision); and
    - (b) at a time when there was no provision in force authorising that review.

(3) The Secretary of State may by order make provision for determining the date from which any award made before the commencement of this section in respect of a claim for a war pension is to be taken to have had effect in a case where—

    - (a) at the time when the award was made there was no provision in force for determining that date; or
    - (b) the award was made following—
      - (i) an appeal to the High Court, Court of Session or Court of Appeal; or
      - (ii) the rehearing of any appeal;

and the date from which payment under the award was first made was later than the date from which payment was, by virtue of any provision in force at the time when the award was made, required to be first made.

(4) An order under subsection (3) above may provide that in any case where the date from which an award is, by virtue of the order, to be taken to have had effect is earlier than the date from which payment under the award was first made, any arrears due to a person in respect of the award shall be limited to those payable in respect of a specified period of not more than six years.

(5) In this section "war pension" means—

    - (a) such pensions and other benefits as are referred to in section 12 of the <sup>M6</sup>Social Security (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1977 (exercise by Order in Council of existing powers relating to benefits for death or disablement through service in the armed forces);
    - (b) any pension or benefit awarded under the <sup>M7</sup>Personal Injuries (Emergency Provisions) Act 1939, the <sup>M8</sup>Pensions (Navy, Army, Air Force and Mercantile Marine) Act 1939 or the <sup>M9</sup>Polish Resettlement Act 1947; and
    - (c) such other pensions and benefits as may be specified in an order made by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this section.
