18 After section 63 there shall be inserted the following section—

“63A Appeals against waste land notices.

(1) A person on whom a waste land notice is served, or any other person having an interest in the land to which the notice relates, may at any time before the date specified in the notice as the date on which it is to take effect appeal to the Secretary of State against the notice, on any of the following grounds—

- (a) that there is no serious injury to the amenity of any part of the planning authority’s district or of any adjoining district ;
- (b) that the steps required by the notice to be taken exceed what is necessary to remedy any such injury ;
- (c) that the specified period for compliance with the notice falls short of what should reasonably be allowed ;
- (d) that the condition of the land is attributable to, and such as results in the ordinary course of events from, a continuing lawful use of the land or from continuing lawful operations carried out thereon ; or
- (e) that the notice was served other than in accordance with section 63 of this Act.

(2) An appeal under this section shall be made by notice in writing to the Secretary of State.

(3) The provisions of subsections (2A) to (2D) of section 85 of this Act shall apply to appeals under this section as they apply to appeals under that section.

(4) On an appeal under this section the Secretary of State—

- (a) may correct any informality, defect or technical error in the notice if he is satisfied that it is not material ; and
- (b) may disregard the failure of the planning authority to serve the notice upon a person upon whom it should have been served, if it appears to him that neither that person nor the appellant has been substantially prejudiced by that failure.

(5) Where an appeal is brought under this section, the waste land notice shall be of no effect pending the final determination, or the withdrawal, of the appeal.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government and Planning (Scotland) Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

(6) In determining an appeal under this section the Secretary of State shall give such directions as seem to him appropriate, and these may include directions for quashing the notice or for varying its terms in favour of the appellant.”.

“(5A) Service under subsection (5) above shall be effected by the service of a copy of the notice ; and references in this Act to service of enforcement notices shall be so construed.” ;

(c) for subsection (7) there shall be substituted the following subsections—

“(7) In an enforcement notice the planning authority shall specify the matters alleged to constitute a breach of planning control and the steps required to be taken to restore the land to its condition before the breach took place ; but may in addition specify, as an alternative, the steps required to be taken to bring the land to a condition acceptable to the planning authority, having regard to the development plan and any other material consideration.

(7A) The planning authority shall also specify in the enforcement notice—

(a) the period or periods within which any steps specified under subsection (7) above are to be carried out ; and any such period shall begin with the date when the notice is to take effect ; and

(b) such additional matters as may be prescribed under subsection (12) of this section.

(7B) Where a development in respect of which an enforcement notice has been served is altered in accordance with steps required by virtue of subsection (7) above, planning permission shall be deemed to have been granted in respect of the development as so altered.” ;

(d) for subsection (9) there shall be substituted the following subsection—

“(9) Subject to section 85 of this Act, an enforcement notice shall take effect on such date as may be specified in the notice, being a date not less than 28 days after the latest service thereof under subsection (5) above.” ; and

(e) at the end there shall be added the following subsection—

“(12) The Secretary of State may prescribe matters, additional to those mentioned in subsections (7) and (7A) above, to be specified by planning authorities in enforcement notices ; and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this subsection may require a planning authority to include in an enforcement notice—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government and Planning (Scotland) Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) a note, in such terms as may be prescribed, explaining the rights of persons to appeal against the notice ; and

- (b) for subsection (2) there shall be substituted the following subsections—
 - “(2) An appeal under this section shall be made by notice in writing to the Secretary of State.
 - (2A) A person who gives notice under subsection (2) of this section shall submit to the Secretary of State, either when giving the notice or within such time as may be prescribed under subsection (2B) of this section, a statement in writing—
 - (a) specifying the grounds on which he is appealing against the enforcement notice ; and
 - (b) giving such further information as may be so prescribed.
 - (2B) The Secretary of State may prescribe the procedure to be followed on appeals under this section, and (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this subsection) in so prescribing—
 - (a) may specify the time within which an appellant is to submit a statement under subsection (2A) of this section and the matters on which information is to be given in such a statement ;
 - (b) may require the planning authority to submit, within such time as may be specified, a statement indicating the submissions which they propose to put forward on the appeal ;
 - (c) may specify the matters to be included in such a statement ;
 - (d) may require the authority or the appellant to give such notice of an appeal under this section as may be specified, being notice which in the opinion of the Secretary of State is likely to bring the appeal to the attention of persons in the locality in which the land to which the enforcement notice relates is situated ;
 - (e) may require the authority to send to the Secretary of State, within such period from the date of the bringing of the appeal as may be specified, a copy of the enforcement notice and a list of the persons on whom the notice has been served.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government and Planning (Scotland) Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

(2C) The Secretary of State—

- (a) may dismiss an appeal if the appellant fails to comply with subsection (2A) above within the time prescribed under subsection (2B)(a) above ; and
- (b) may allow an appeal and quash the enforcement notice if the planning authority fail to comply with any requirement imposed by virtue of paragraph (b), (c) or (e) of subsection (2B) above.

(2D) Subject to subsection (2C) above, the Secretary of State shall, if either the planning authority or the appellant so desire, afford to each of them an opportunity of appearing before, and being heard by, a person appointed by him for the purpose.” ; and

- (c) in subsection (5), after paragraph (a) there shall be added the following paragraph—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government and Planning (Scotland) Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

“179 Reference of applications to regional planning authority.

- (1) A regional planning authority may, in the circumstances specified in subsection (2) below but subject to any regulations made under subsection (7) below, or to any such development order as is referred to in the said subsection (7), give to any district planning authority within the district of the regional planning authority directions requiring any such application as is mentioned in section 23(2) of the Act of 1972 to be referred to them instead of being dealt with by the district planning authority.
- (2) The circumstances referred to in subsection (1) above are both that the application concerned is not subject to a direction given by the Secretary of State under section 32 of the Act of 1972 and that—
 - (a) the proposed development does not conform to a structure plan approved by the Secretary of State ; or
 - (b) the proposed development raises a major planning issue of general significance to the district of the regional planning authority.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, any application in respect of which directions under subsection (1) above have been given shall be referred to the regional planning authority accordingly.
- (4) A district planning authority may, subject to any regulations made under subsection (7) below, or to any such development order as is referred to in the said subsection (7), appeal to the Secretary of State against any directions given under subsection (1) above to them and the Secretary of State (whose decision shall be final) may, under section 177(4) of this Act, determine the appeal as if it were a matter arising under section 176(5) of this Act.
- (5) Where an application is referred to a regional planning authority under this section, sections 21(2)(b), 23(1)(f) and (h), 24(2B), (2C), (2D) and (4), 26, 27(1), 27A, 33, 35, 54(3) and (subject to subsection (6) below) 34 of the Act of 1972 shall apply, with any necessary modifications, as if the application had been made to the regional planning authority:
 Provided that, in the proviso to the said section 27(1) as so applied, the words “another planning authority” shall be construed as meaning a regional planning authority, a general planning authority and any district planning authority outwith the district of the regional planning authority to which the application has been referred.
- (6) In the application of the said section 34 provided for in subsection (5) above, for the reference in that section to such period as may be prescribed by the development order there shall be substituted a reference to a period of 3 months, or such other period as a development order may prescribe, from the date when the application is referred to a regional planning authority.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations made under this subsection, or may in a development order, prescribe the time limits within which—
 - (a) a regional planning authority may exercise their powers under subsection (1) above ;
 - (b) a district planning authority may appeal under subsection (4) above ;
or

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government and Planning (Scotland) Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) a district planning authority shall forward to the regional planning authority a copy of any application (together with copies of all the certificates, plans, and other supporting documents relating thereto) required by the latter authority by virtue of subsection (1) above.”.
- 25 In section 181(2) (which, among other things, empowers a regional planning authority to make an order revoking or modifying planning permission granted by a district planning authority where the regional planning authority are of the opinion that an approved structure plan would otherwise be materially prejudiced), for the words from “shall” to the end there shall be substituted the words—
- “and of section 153 or 159 of the Act of 1972 (compensation in respect of orders under section 42 or 49) shall, as the case may be and with any necessary modifications, apply to the regional planning authority in relation to such an order made by the regional planning authority as they would apply to the district planning authority in relation to such an order made by the district planning authority.”.
- 26 In Schedule 7 (which relates to meetings and proceedings of local authorities)—
- (a) for sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 3 there shall be substituted the following sub-paragraphs—
- “(2) If the chairman is absent from a meeting of the council, the vice-chairman shall preside.
- (3) If the chairman and vice-chairman are absent from a meeting of the council, another member of the council chosen by the members present shall preside.” ; and
- (b) in paragraph 10—
- (i) for sub-paragraph (1) there shall be substituted the following sub-paragraph—
- “(1) Paragraphs 5 to 9 above (except paragraph 7(2)) shall apply in relation to—
- (a) a committee (including a joint committee) of a council and that committee’s members ; or
- (b) a sub-committee of any such committee of a council and that sub-committee’s members,
- as those paragraphs apply in relation to a council and that council’s members.” ; and
- (ii) in sub-paragraph (2), after the word “members” there shall be inserted the words “recorded under paragraph 6 above as having been ”.
