SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

COMPENSATION FOR CERTAIN DISMISSALS

Power of Secretary of State to make payments

- 1 The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, pay to a person who satisfies the conditions specified in paragraph 2 an amount not exceeding that specified in paragraph 3.

Conditions of eligibility

- 2 (1) A person may apply for compensation under this Schedule where—
- (a) he was dismissed from his employment on or after 16th September 1974 (when the 1974 closed shop provisions came into force) and before 15th August 1980 (when the 1980 amendments came into force);
 - (b) he did not bring, or brought but did not succeed in, a complaint of unfair dismissal; and
 - (c) if the 1980 amendments had been in force in relation to his dismissal (the law otherwise being as it was at the time), he would have been entitled by virtue of those amendments to succeed in a complaint of unfair dismissal.

- (2) In this paragraph—

“the 1974 closed shop provisions” means paragraph 6(5) of Schedule 1 to the 1974 Act, later amended by sections 1(e) and 3(5) of the 1976 Act and consolidated in subsection (3) of section 58 of the 1978 Act; and

“the 1980 amendments” means the amendments of section 58 of the 1978 Act made by section 7 of, and paragraph 12 of Schedule 1 to, the 1980 Act, except so far as relating to the approval of union membership agreements by ballot, or, in relation to a dismissal occurring before 1st November 1978 (when section 58 came into force), corresponding amendments of paragraph 6 of Schedule 1 to the 1974 Act.

Maximum amount of compensation

- 3 The maximum amount which the Secretary of State may pay to a person in respect of his dismissal is the amount which that person would have been awarded if he had brought a successful complaint of unfair dismissal—
- (a) disregarding any question of an order for reinstatement or re-engagement;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) assuming, in relation to a dismissal occurring before 1st June 1976, that the provisions of the 1975 Act were in force relating to the basic award of compensation; and
 - (c) taking into account the actual loss sustained by him rather than such loss as might have been foreseen at the time,
- together with interest from the date of the dismissal calculated at the rate from time to time in force under section 17 of the ^{M1}Judgments Act 1838.

Construction of references to date of dismissal

- 4 (1) Subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, references in paragraphs 2 and 3 to the date of a dismissal are to the effective date of termination in relation to that dismissal as defined in section 55(4) of the 1978 Act.
- (2) In ascertaining for the purposes of those paragraphs whether a dismissal occurred before the commencement of any provision of the 1975, 1978 or 1980 Acts, that is to say in ascertaining—
- (a) for the purpose of paragraph 2(1)(a) whether a person was dismissed before 15th August 1980,
 - (b) for the purpose of paragraph 2(2) whether a dismissal occurred before 1st November 1978, or
 - (c) for the purpose of paragraph 3(b) whether a dismissal occurred before 1st June 1976,
- references to the date of the dismissal shall be construed in accordance with sub-paragraph (3) in the cases where that sub-paragraph applies.
- (3) Where the notice required to be given by an employer by section 1(1) of the ^{M2}Contracts of Employment Act 1972 or section 49 of the 1978 Act (minimum period of notice) would, if duly given when notice of termination was given by the employer, or (where no notice was given) when the contract of employment was terminated by the employer, have expired on a date later than the effective date of termination as defined by section 55(4) of the 1978 Act, that later date shall be treated for the purposes mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) as the date of the dismissal.

Making an application

- 5 An application for compensation under this Schedule must be made in writing to the Secretary of State within twelve months from the passing of this Act or such further period as the Secretary of State may allow.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

Reference of questions to appointed person

- 6 (1) The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, before deciding an application for compensation under this Schedule, refer any question arising in connection with the application for inquiry and report by a person appointed by him under this paragraph.
- (2) In any such case the applicant shall be informed of the identity of the appointed person and of the question or questions referred and shall be given an opportunity to make representations to the appointed person including oral representations if he so wishes.
- (3) The Secretary of State may pay to any person attending at any place for the purpose of making such representations such travelling and other allowances as would be payable in connection with attendance at an industrial tribunal.
- (4) A person may be appointed by the Secretary of State under this paragraph either for the purposes of a particular reference or for the purpose of such references as may from time to time be made to him; and the Secretary of State may pay to a person so appointed such remuneration and such travelling and other allowances as he may determine with the approval of the Treasury.

Consideration of application

- 7 In considering an application for compensation under this Schedule, the Secretary of State shall have regard to, but shall not be bound by—
- (a) the findings of any industrial tribunal in proceedings arising out of the dismissal in question; and
 - (b) any report made in relation to the application by a person appointed under paragraph 6.

Notification of decision

- 8 (1) The Secretary of State shall notify the applicant in writing of his decision.
- (2) The notification shall be accompanied by a copy of any report made in relation to the application by a person appointed under paragraph 6.

Reconsideration of decision

- 9 (1) The Secretary of State may, of his own motion or on the request of the applicant, reconsider his decision on any application for compensation under this Schedule on the ground that the decision was made in ignorance of, or was based on a mistake as to, some material fact.
- (2) Where the Secretary of State decides of his own motion to reconsider a decision, he shall inform the applicant of that fact and of the grounds for reopening the case.
- (3) A request by the applicant for reconsideration of the decision on his application must be made in writing to the Secretary of State within three months from the date on which the decision was notified to him, or such further period as the Secretary of State may allow.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

- (4) The provisions of paragraphs 6 to 8 shall, with the necessary modifications, apply in relation to the reconsideration of an application as they apply in relation to the original consideration of an application.

Liability to repay in certain cases

- 10 (1) Where, for the purpose of obtaining compensation under this Schedule for himself or for another, any person misrepresents or fails to disclose any material fact, whether fraudulently or otherwise, the person to whom any such payment is in consequence made shall be liable to repay so much of it as the Secretary of State may direct, unless he can show that the misrepresentation or failure occurred without his connivance or consent.
- (2) Except as provided by this paragraph, the reconsideration of a decision under paragraph 9 shall not give rise to a liability to repay.
- (3) Any sum received by the Secretary of State by virtue of this paragraph shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

False statement of an offence

- 11 (1) It is an offence for a person to make, for the purpose of obtaining compensation under this Schedule for himself or for another, a statement which is false in a material particular and which he knows to be so false.
- (2) An offence under this paragraph is punishable on summary conviction with a fine not exceeding [^{F1}level 5 on the standard scale].

Textual Amendments

F2 Sch. 2 para. 6(3) repealed by Employment Act 1989 \(c. 38, SIF 43:1\), s. 29(4), Sch. 7 Pt. I

Computation of period of continuous employment

- 7 (1) For section 151 of the 1978 Act (continuous employment) there shall be substituted—

“151 Computation of period of continuous employment.

- (1) References in any provision of this Act to a period of continuous employment are, except where provision is expressly made to the contrary, to a period computed in accordance with the provisions of this section and Schedule 13 ; and in any such provision which refers to a period of continuous employment expressed in months or years a month means a calendar month and a year means a year of twelve calendar months.
- (2) In computing an employee’s period of continuous employment any question arising as to—
 - (a) whether the employee’s employment is of a kind counting towards a period of continuous employment, or
 - (b) whether periods (consecutive or otherwise) are to be treated as forming a single period of continuous employment, shall be determined in accordance with Schedule 13 (that is to say, week by week), but the length of an employee’s period of employment shall be computed in months and years of twelve months in accordance with the following rules.
- (3) Subject to the following provisions of this section, an employee’s period of continuous employment for the purposes of any provision of this Act begins with the day on which he starts work and ends with the day by reference to which the length of his period of continuous employment falls to be ascertained for the purposes of the provision in question.
- (4) For the purposes of section 81 and Schedule 4 an employee’s period of continuous employment shall be treated as beginning on his eighteenth birthday if that date is later than the starting date referred to in subsection (3).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (5) If an employee's period of continuous employment includes one or more periods which, by virtue of any provision of Schedule 13, do not count in computing the length of the period but do not break continuity, the beginning of the period shall be treated as postponed by the number of days falling within that intervening period or, as the case may be, by the aggregate number of days falling within those periods.
- (6) The number of days falling within such an intervening period is—
 - (a) in the case of a period to which paragraph 14(3) of Schedule 13 applies, seven days for each week within that sub-paragraph ;
 - (b) in the case of a period to which paragraph 15(2) or (4) of that Schedule applies, the number of days between the last working day before the strike or lock-out and the day on which work was resumed ;
 - (c) in the case of a period to which paragraph 16(1) of that Schedule applies, the number of days between the employee's last day of employment before service under Part I of the National Service Act 1948 and the day on which he resumed employment in accordance with Part II of that Act.”.
- (2) In Schedule 13 to that Act (computation of period of employment), for paragraphs 1 and 2 (preliminary provisions) there shall be substituted—

Preliminary

- “1 (1) Except so far as otherwise provided by the following provisions of this Schedule, a week which does not count under paragraphs 3 to 12 breaks the continuity of the period of employment.
- (2) The provisions of this Schedule apply, subject to paragraph 14, to a period of employment notwithstanding that during that period the employee was engaged in work wholly or mainly outside Great Britain, or was excluded by or under this Act from any right conferred by this Act.
- (3) A person's employment during any period shall, unless the contrary is shown, be presumed to have been continuous.”.
- (3) For paragraph 8 of that Schedule there shall be substituted—

Power to amend paragraphs 3 to 7 by order

- “8 (1) The Secretary of State may by order—
 - (a) amend paragraphs 3 to 7 so as to substitute for each of the references to sixteen hours a reference to such other number of hours less than sixteen as may be specified in the order ; and
 - (b) amend paragraphs 6 and 7 so as to substitute for each of the references to eight hours a reference to such other number of hours less than eight as may be specified in the order.
- (2) No order under this paragraph shall be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The provisions of any order under this paragraph shall apply to periods before the order takes effect as they apply to later periods.”.

Minor and consequential amendments relating to sections 1 to 4 of the 1978 Act

- 8 (1) In section 1 of the 1978 Act (obligation to give written particulars of terms of employment)—
- (a) in subsection (1) (the basic obligation) for the words “the beginning of an employee’s period of employment” there shall be substituted “the beginning of an employee’s employment”; and
 - (b) in subsection (2) (matters to be included in the statement), for paragraph (c) there shall be substituted—
 - “(c) specify the date on which the employee’s period of continuous employment began (taking into account any employment with a previous employer which counts towards that period).”.
- (2) For section 2(4) of that Act (exclusion of obligation to give written statement where terms the same as those of previous employment) there shall be substituted—
- “(4) No statement need be given under section 1 where—
- (a) the employee’s terms of employment are the same as those of earlier employment with the same employer in respect of which a statement under that section and any information subsequently required under section 4 was duly given, and
 - (b) that earlier employment ended not more than six months before the beginning of the employment in question ;
- but without prejudice to the operation of subsection (1) of section 4 if there is subsequently a change in the terms of employment.”.
- (3) In section 4 of that Act (duty to inform of changes in terms of employment)—
- (a) in subsection (4)(b) (change of employer to be treated as change of terms where continuity of employment is not broken) the words from “in accordance with” to “Schedule 13” shall be omitted; and
 - (b) in subsection (5) (duty in such a case to specify date from which employment is continuous) for the words “continuous period of employment” there shall be substituted “period of continuous employment”.
- (4) After section 5 of that Act there shall be inserted—

“5A Employees becoming or ceasing to be excluded from ss. 1 to 4.

- (1) Sections 1 to 4 shall apply to an employee who at any time comes or ceases to come within the exceptions from those sections provided for by section 5, 141, 144, 145 or 146(4) to (7), or under section 149, as if his employment with his employer terminated or began at that time.
- (2) Subsection (1) of section 1 shall apply to an employee who ceases to come within the exception provided by section 5 with the substitution for the words “thirteen weeks” of the words “one month”.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The fact that section 1 is directed to apply to an employee as if his employment began on his ceasing to come within one of the exceptions referred to in subsection (1) shall not affect the obligation under subsection (2)(b) of that section to specify the date on which his employment actually began.”.
- (5) In section 146 of that Act (miscellaneous excluded classes of employment—
- (a) in subsection (4) (exclusion of part-time employees from rights which do not depend on a qualifying period of continuous employment), after “sections” there shall be inserted “1, 4,” ; and
 - (b) after subsection (7) there shall be added—
- “(8) References in subsections (4) to (7) to weeks are to weeks within the meaning of Schedule 13.”.

Other consequential amendments

- 9 (1) In section 149 of the 1978 Act (which confers a general power to amend the Act by order)—
- (a) in subsection (1)(c) (which lists provisions whose operation may be varied or excluded), after “sections” there shall be inserted “13(2), 20(2), 49(4A),” ; and
 - (b) in subsection (2) (provisions to which the power does not extend), for “and 142(1)” there shall be substituted “, 142(1) and 151”.
- (2) In section 157(1) of that Act (reciprocal arrangements with Northern Ireland) for “sections 1 to 7” there shall be substituted “sections 1 to 6”.

SCHEDULE 3

Section 21.

MINOR AND CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENTS

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C2 The text of Sch. 3(1)–(7)(9) is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and, except as specified, does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

PART I

MINOR AMENDMENTS

Unfair dismissal: effective date of termination

- 1 In section 55 of the 1978 Act (meaning of “dismissal”) for subsection (5) there shall be substituted the following—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

“(5) Where the contract of employment is terminated by the employer and the notice required by section 49 to be given by an employer would, if duly given on the material date, expire on a date later than the effective date of termination (as defined by subsection (4)) then, for the purposes of sections 53(2), 64(1)(a), 64A and 73(3) and paragraph 8(3) of Schedule 14, the later date shall be treated as the effective date of termination in relation to the dismissal.

(6) Where the contract of employment is terminated by the employee and—

- (a) the material date does not fall during a period of notice given by the employer to terminate that contract ; and
- (b) had the contract been terminated not by the employee but by notice given on the material date by the employer, that notice would have been required by section 49 to expire on a date later than the effective date of termination (as defined by subsection (4)), then, for the purposes of sections 64(1)(a), 64A and 73(3) and paragraph 8(3) of Schedule 14, the later date shall be treated as the effective date of termination in relation to the dismissal.

(7) “Material date” means—

- (a) in subsection (5), the date when notice of termination was given by the employer or (where no notice was given) the date when the contract of employment was terminated by the employer; and
- (b) in subsection (6), the date when notice of termination was given by the employee or (where no notice was given) the date when the contract of employment was terminated by the employee.”.

Continuity of employment in certain schools

- 2 (1) In section 81 of the 1978 Act (general provisions as to right to redundancy payment) the following subsection shall be inserted after subsection (2)—

“(2A) For the purposes of subsection (2) the activities carried on by a local education authority with respect to the schools maintained by it and the activities carried on by the governors of those schools shall be treated as one business unless either of the conditions specified in subsection (2) would be satisfied without so treating them.”.

- (2) In paragraph 17(1) of Schedule 13 to the 1978 Act, for the words “paragraph 18” there shall be substituted the words “paragraphs 18 and 18A”.

- (3) After paragraph 18 of that Schedule there shall be inserted the following paragraph—

“18A (1) If an employee of one of the employers described in sub-paragraph (2) is taken into the employment of another of those employers, his period of employment at the time of the change of employer shall count as a period of employment with the second employer and the change shall not break the continuity of the period of employment.

- (2) The employers referred to in sub-paragraph (1) are the governors of the schools maintained by a local education authority and that authority.”.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

Textual Amendments
F3 Sch. 3 para. 3 repealed by Insolvency Act 1985 (c. 65, SIF 66), s. 235(3), Sch. 10 Pt. IV

- 4 (1) Section 122(3) of the 1978 Act (debts to which the provisions of section 122 about employees’ rights on insolvency of employers apply) shall be amended as follows.
- (2) For paragraph (a) there shall be substituted the following paragraph—
“(a) any arrears of pay in respect of one or more (but not more than eight) weeks ;”.
- (3) For paragraph (c) there shall be substituted the following paragraph—“(c) any holiday pay—
 (i) in respect of a period or periods of holiday not exceeding six weeks in all; and
 (ii) to which the employee became entitled during the twelve months ending with the relevant date;”.

5 F4

Textual Amendments
F4 Sch. 3 para. 5 repealed by Employment Act 1989 (c. 38, SIF 43:1), s.29(4), Sch. 7 Pt. II

Application of the 1978 Act to employed spouses

- 6 Section 146(1) of the 1978 Act (which provides that certain provisions of that Act do not apply to employment where the employer is the husband or wife of the employee) shall cease to have effect.

Interest on awards made by or on appeal from industrial tribunals

- 7 In Schedule 9 to the 1978 Act (industrial tribunals), after paragraph 6 there shall be inserted the following Paragraph—

Interest on sums awarded

- “6A (1) The Secretary of State may by order made with the approval of the Treasury provide that sums payable in pursuance of decisions of industrial tribunals shall carry interest at such rate and between such times as may be prescribed by the order.
- (2) Any interest due by virtue of such an order shall be recoverable as a sum payable in pursuance of the decision.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The power conferred by sub-paragraph (1) includes power—
- (a) to specify cases or circumstances in which interest shall not be payable;
 - (b) to provide that interest shall be payable only on sums exceeding a specified amount or falling between specified amounts ;
 - (c) to make provision for the manner in which and the periods by reference to which interest is to be calculated and paid;
 - (d) to provide that any enactment shall or shall not apply in relation to interest payable by virtue of an order under sub-paragraph (1) or shall apply to it with such modifications as may be specified in the order ;
 - (e) to make provision for cases where sums are payable in pursuance of decisions or awards made on appeal from industrial tribunals ;
 - (f) to make such incidental or supplemental provision as the Secretary of State considers necessary.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-paragraph (3), an order under sub-paragraph (1) may provide that the rate of interest shall be the rate specified in section 17 of the Judgments Act 1838 as that enactment has effect from time to time.”.

Employment Appeal Tribunal

- 8 (1) In paragraph 18 of Schedule 11 to the 1978 Act (rules governing proceedings before the Employment Appeal Tribunal), after paragraph (d) there shall be inserted the following paragraph—
- “(e) for interlocutory proceedings to be dealt with otherwise than in accordance with paragraph 16.”.
- (2) Where, before the commencement of any rules made by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) above, interlocutory proceedings before the Appeal Tribunal have been dealt with otherwise than in accordance with paragraph 16 of Schedule 11, those proceedings shall be taken to have been dealt with in accordance with the requirements of that paragraph.
- 9 In paragraph 21A of that Schedule (enforcement of awards of Employment Appeal Tribunal under section 5 of the 1980 Act) after sub-paragraph (2) there shall be added the following sub-paragraph—
