- 3 The following subsections shall be inserted after the said subsection (1)—
- “(1A) Where—
- (a) on adjourning a case under section 5, 10(1) or 18(4) above the court proposes to remand or further remand a person in custody; and
  - (b) he is before the court; and
  - (c) he has attained the age of 17; and
  - (d) he is legally represented in that court,
- it shall be the duty of the court—
- (i) to explain the effect of subsections (3A) and (3B) below to him in ordinary language; and
  - (ii) to inform him in ordinary language that, notwithstanding the procedure for a remand without his being brought before a court, he would be brought before a court for the hearing and determination of at least every fourth application for his remand, and of every application for his remand heard at a time when it appeared to the court that he had no solicitor acting for him in the case.
- (1B) For the purposes of subsection (1A) above a person is to be treated as legally represented in a court if, but only if, he has the assistance of counsel or a solicitor to represent him in the proceedings in that court.
- (1C) After explaining to an accused as provided by sub-section (1A) above the court shall ask him whether he consents to the hearing and determination of such applications in his absence.”.
- 4 The following subsections shall be inserted after subsection (3) of that section—
- “(3A) Subject to subsection (3B) below, where a person has been remanded in custody, the court may further remand him on an adjournment under section 5, 10(1) or 18(4) above without his being brought before it if it is satisfied—
- (a) that he gave his consent, either in response to a question under subsection (1C) above or otherwise, to the hearing and determination in his absence of any application for his remand on an adjournment of the case under any of those provisions; and
  - (b) that he has not by virtue of this subsection been remanded without being brought before the court on more than two such applications immediately preceding the application which the court is hearing; and
  - (c) that he had attained the age of 17 years when he gave his consent to the hearing and determination of such applications in his absence; and
  - (d) that he has not withdrawn his consent to their being so heard and determined.

“ Powers of courts pending deportation

- 4 Where the release of a person recommended for deportation is directed by a court, he shall be subject to such restrictions as to residence and as to reporting to the police as the court may direct.
- 5 (1) On an application made—
- (a) by or on behalf of a person recommended for deportation whose release was so directed; or
  - (b) by a constable; or
  - (c) by an immigration officer,
- the appropriate court shall have the powers specified in sub-paragraph (2) below.
- (2) The powers mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) above are—
- (a) if the person to whom the application relates is not subject to any such restrictions imposed by a court as are mentioned in paragraph 4 above, to order that he shall be subject to any such restrictions as the court may direct; and
  - (b) if he is subject to such restrictions imposed by a court by virtue of that paragraph or this paragraph—
    - (i) to direct that any of them shall be varied or shall cease to have effect; or
    - (ii) to give further directions as to his residence and reporting.
- 6 (1) In this Schedule “the appropriate court” means, except in a case to which sub-paragraph (2) below applies, the court which directed release.
- (2) This sub-paragraph applies where the court which directed release was—
- (a) the Crown Court;
  - (b) the Court of Appeal;
  - (c) the High Court of Justiciary;
  - (d) the Crown Court in Northern Ireland; or
  - (e) the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland.
- (3) Where the Crown Court or the Crown Court in Northern Ireland directed release, the appropriate court is—
- (a) the court that directed release; or
  - (b) a magistrates’ court acting for the commission area or county court division where the person to whom the application relates resides.
- (4) Where the Court of Appeal or the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland gave the direction, the appropriate court is the Crown Court or the Crown Court in Northern Ireland, as the case may be.
- (5) Where the High Court of Justiciary directed release, the appropriate court is—
- (a) that court; or
  - (b) in a case where release was directed by that court on appeal, the court from which the appeal was made.

“4A Requirements in probation orders.

- (1) Without prejudice to the generality of section 2(3) above, the power conferred by that subsection includes power, subject to the provisions of this section, to require the probationer—
  - (a) to present himself to a person or persons specified in the order at a place or places so specified;
  - (b) to participate or refrain from participating in activities specified in the order—
    - (i) on a day or days so specified; or
    - (ii) during the probation period or such portion of it as may be so specified.
- (2) A court shall not include in a probation order a requirement such as is mentioned in subsection (1) above unless it has first consulted a probation officer as to—
  - (a) the offender’s circumstances; and
  - (b) the feasibility of securing compliance with the requirements, and is satisfied, having regard to the probation officer’s report, that it is feasible to secure compliance with them.
- (3) A court shall not include a requirement such as is mentioned in subsection (1)
  - (a) above or a requirement to participate in activities if it would involve the co-operation of a person other than the probationer and the probation officer responsible for his supervision, unless that other person consents to its inclusion.

- (4) A requirement such as is mentioned in subsection (1)(a) above shall operate to require the probationer—
  - (a) in accordance with instructions given by the probation officer responsible for his supervision, to present himself at a place for not more than 60 days; and
  - (b) while there, to comply with instructions given by, or under the authority of, the person in charge of the place.
- (5) A place specified in the order shall have been approved by the probation committee for the area in which the premises are situated as providing facilities suitable for persons subject to probation orders.
- (6) A requirement to participate in activities shall operate to require the probationer—
  - (a) in accordance with instructions given by the probation officer responsible for his supervision, to participate in the activities for not more than 60 days; and
  - (b) while participating, to comply with instructions given by, or under the authority of, the person in charge of the activities.
- (7) Instructions given by a probation officer under sub-section (4) or (6) above shall, as far as practicable, be such as to avoid any interference with the times, if any, at which the probationer normally works or attends a school or other educational establishment.

4B Probation orders requiring attendance at day centre.

- (1) Without prejudice to the generality of sections 2(3) and 4A above, the power conferred by section 2(3) above includes power, subject to the provisions of this section, to require the probationer during the probation period to attend at a day centre specified in the order.
- (2) A court shall not include such a requirement in a probation order unless—
  - (a) it has consulted a probation officer; and
  - (b) it is satisfied—
    - (i) that arrangements can be made for the probationer's attendance at a centre; and
    - (ii) that the person in charge of the centre consents to the inclusion of the requirement.
- (3) A requirement under subsection (1) above shall operate to require the probationer—
  - (a) in accordance with instructions given by the probation officer responsible for his supervision, to attend on not more than 60 days at the centre specified in the order; and
  - (b) while attending there to comply with instructions given by, or under the authority of, the person in charge of the centre.

which has effect in the part of the United Kingdom in which it has jurisdiction except—

- (a) a power to vary the order by substituting for the number of hours' work specified in it any greater number than the court which made the order could have specified;
  - (b) a power to revoke the order; and
  - (c) a power to revoke the order and deal with the offender for the offence in respect of which it was made in any manner in which he could have been dealt with for that offence by the court which made the order if the order had not been made.
- (6) If at any time while legislation relating to community service orders which has effect in one part of the United Kingdom applies by virtue of subsection (3) above to a community service order made in another part—
- (a) it appears to the home court—
    - (i) if that court is in Scotland, on evidence on oath from the local authority officer under the <sup>M19</sup>Community Service by Offenders (Scotland) Act 1978; and
    - (ii) if it is in Northern Ireland, upon a complaint being made to a justice of the peace acting for the petty sessions district for the time being specified in the order,that the offender has failed to comply with any of the requirements of the legislation applicable to the order; or
  - (b) it appears to the home court of the application of the offender or—
    - (i) if that court is in Scotland, of the local authority officer; and
    - (ii) if it is in Northern Ireland, of the relevant officer, as defined in the <sup>M18</sup>Treatment of Offenders (Northern Ireland) Order 1976,that it would be in the interests of justice to exercise a power mentioned in subsection (5)(b) or (c) above,
- the home court may require the offender to appear before the court by which the order was made.
- (7) Where an offender is required by virtue of subsection (6) above to appear before the court which made a community service order, that court—
- (a) may issue a warrant for his arrest; and
  - (b) may exercise any power which it could exercise in respect of the community service order if the offender resided in the part of the United Kingdom where the court has jurisdiction,
- and any enactment relating to the exercise of such powers shall have effect accordingly.”.

Making and amendment of community service orders relating to persons residing in Scotland

- 8 (1) Where a court in Northern Ireland considering the making of a community service order is satisfied that the offender resides, or will be residing when the order comes into force, in Scotland, the <sup>M25</sup>Treatment of Offenders (Northern Ireland) Order 1976 shall have effect as if the following were substituted for Article 7(4)—

“(4) A court shall not make a community service order in respect of any offender unless the offender consents and—

- (a) the court has been notified by the Secretary of State that arrangements exist for persons who reside in the locality in Scotland in which the offender resides or will be residing when the order comes into force, to perform work under community service orders made under section 1 of the Community Service by Offenders (Scotland) Act 1978; and
- (b) the court is satisfied after considering a report by a probation officer about the offender and his circumstances and, if the court thinks it necessary, hearing a probation officer, that the offender is a suitable person to perform work under such an order; and
- (c) it appears to the court that provisions can be made for him to perform work under the arrangements mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) above.”.

- (2) Where a community service order has been made by a court in Northern Ireland and—

- (a) a court of summary jurisdiction acting for a petty sessions district in Northern Ireland for the time being specified in it is satisfied that the offender proposes to reside or is residing in Scotland;
- (b) that court has been notified by the Secretary of State that arrangements exist for persons who reside in the locality in Scotland in which the offender proposes to reside or is made under section 1 of the Community Service by Offenders (Scotland) Act 1978;
- (c) it appears to that court that provision can be made for him to perform work under the community service order under those arrangements, it may amend the order by specifying that the unpaid work required to be performed by the order be so performed.

Community service orders relating to persons residing in England and Wales or Scotland—General

- 9 (1) Where a community service order is made or amended in the circumstances specified in paragraph 7 or 8 above, the court which makes or amends the order shall send three copies of the order as made or amended to the home court, together with such documents and information relating to the case as it considers likely to be of assistance to that court.
- (2) In this paragraph—
- “home court” means—
- (a) if the offender resides in England or Wales, or will be residing in England or Wales at the relevant time, the magistrates’ court acting for the petty sessions area in which he resides or proposes to reside; and
  - (b) if he resides in Scotland, or will be residing in Scotland at the relevant time, the sheriff court having jurisdiction in the locality in which he resides or proposes to reside;
- “the relevant time” means the time when the order or the amendment to it comes into force.
- (3) A community service order made or amended in the circumstances specified in paragraph 7 or 8 above shall be treated, subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, as if it were a community service order made in the part of the United Kingdom in which the offender resides, or will be residing at the relevant time; and the legislation relating to community service orders which has effect in that part of the United Kingdom shall apply accordingly.
- (4) Before making or amending a community service order in the circumstances specified in paragraph 7 or 8 above the court shall explain to the offender in ordinary language—
- (a) the requirements of the legislation relating to community service orders which has effect in the part of the United Kingdom in which he resides or will be residing at the relevant time;
  - (b) the powers of the home court under that legislation, as modified by this Part of this Schedule; and
  - (c) its own powers under this Part of this Schedule,

Status: Point in time view as at 14/10/1991.

*Changes to legislation: Criminal Justice Act 1982 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 November 2023. and an explanation given in accordance with this sub-paragraph shall be sufficient without the addition of an explanation under Article 7(7) of the <sup>M27</sup>Treatment of Offenders (Northern Ireland) Order 1976.

- (5) The home court may exercise in relation to the community service order any power which it could exercise in relation to a community service order made by a court in the part of the United Kingdom in which the home court exercises jurisdiction, by virtue of the legislation relating to such orders which has effect in the part of the United Kingdom in which it has jurisdiction except—
- (a) a power to vary the order by substituting for the number of hours' work specified in it any greater number than the court which made the order could have specified;
  - (b) a power to revoke the order; and
  - (c) a power to revoke the order and deal with the offender for the offence in respect of which it was made in any manner in which he could have been dealt with for that offence by the court which made the order if the order had not been made.
- (6) If at any time whilst legislation relating to community service orders which has effect in one part of the United Kingdom applies by virtue of sub-paragraph (3) above to a community service order made in another part—
- (a) it appears to the home court—
    - (i) if that court is in England or Wales, on information to a justice of the peace acting for the petty sessions area for the time being specified in the order;
    - (ii) if it is in Scotland, on evidence on oath from the local authority officer under the <sup>M28</sup>Community Service by Offenders (Scotland) Act 1978, that the offender has failed to comply with any of the requirements of the legislation applicable to the order; or
  - (b) it appears to the home court on the application of the offender or—
    - (i) if it is in England and Wales, of the relevant officer under the <sup>M29</sup>Powers of Criminal Courts Act 1973; and
    - (ii) if it is in Scotland, of the local authority officer, that it would be in the interests of justice to exercise a power mentioned in sub-paragraph (5)(b) or (c) above,
- the home court may require the offender to appear before the court by which the order was made.
- (7) Where an offender is required to appear before a court by virtue of sub-paragraph (6) above, that court—
- (a) may issue a warrant for his arrest; and
  - (b) may exercise any power which it could exercise in respect of the community service order if the offender resided in the part of the United Kingdom where the court has jurisdiction,
- and any enactment relating to the exercise of such powers shall have effect accordingly.

SCHEDULE 17

Section 79.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Young offenders

- 1 (1) Where an offender has before the commencement of sections 1 to 15 above been committed for sentence to the Crown Court under section 37 of the <sup>M37</sup>Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980 but has not been dealt with by the Crown Court before the commencement of those sections, he shall be deemed to have been committed for sentence under section 37 of that Act as amended by this Act.
- (2) A court to which it falls to determine for the purposes of any enactment how a previous court could or might have dealt with an offender, shall if the offender is under 21 years of age make that determination as if sections 1 to 15 above had been in force when the offender was dealt with by the previous court and the powers conferred by them had accordingly been available to that court when dealing with him instead of the powers which were in fact available to it.

- (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) below, where at the commencement of sections 1 to 15 above and offender is detained in a detention centre by reason of his having been recalled under paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to the <sup>M38</sup>Criminal Justice Act 1961 (recall for breach of supervision requirement), he shall be treated as if the order recalling him had been a detention centre order made on the same date for 30 days or, if the maximum period for which he was liable to recall was less than 30 days, for that period.
  - (2) If at the commencement of sections 1 to 15 above an offender has been in custody by virtue of an order under the said paragraph 2 for 30 days or more, he shall be released on the commencement of those sections.
  - (3) Nothing in this paragraph shall render an offender liable to a period of supervision on release from a detention centre additional to any such period to which he is liable by virtue of paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 to the Criminal Justice Act 1961 immediately before the commencement of sections 1 to 15 above.

- 4 An offender who was sentenced to Borstal training on a date before the commencement of sections 1 to 15 above and whose sentence has not expired at the commencement of those sections shall be treated for all purposes of detention, release and supervision as if his sentence had been a youth custody sentence for a term of 12 months.
- 5
- (1) A custodial order to which this sub-paragraph applies shall be treated as a youth custody sentence for all purposes of detention, release and supervision of the offender in respect of whom it was made.
  - (2) Sub-paragraph (1) above applies to a custodial order specifying a maximum period of detention which has not expired at the commencement of sections 1 to 15 above—
    - (a) if the maximum period of detention which it specifies is more than 4 months; or
    - (b) if—
      - (i) the maximum period is 4 months or less; and
      - (ii) the offender is female.
  - (3) A custodial order to which this sub-paragraph applies shall be treated as a detention centre order for all purposes of detention, release and supervision of the offender.
  - (4) Sub-paragraph (3) above applies to a custodial order made in respect of a male offender and specifying a maximum period of detention of 4 months or less which has not expired at the commencement of sections 1 to 15 above.
  - (5) In this paragraph “custodial order” means an order—
    - (a) under section 71AA of the <sup>M39</sup>Army Act 1955, section 71AA of the <sup>M40</sup>Air Force Act 1955 or section 43AA of the <sup>M41</sup>Naval Discipline Act 1957; or
    - (b) under paragraph 10 of Schedule 5A to the Army Act 1955, Schedule 5A to the Air Force Act 1955 or Schedule 4A to the Naval Discipline Act 1957.
