(4) An order under this section may describe a development area, intermediate area or, as the case may be, special development area by reference to employment office areas, that is to say, areas specified by the Manpower Services Commission as areas for each of which a specified office of the Commission exercises functions; and any reference in such an order to a named employment office area shall be construed as a reference to that area as it exists on the date on which the order comes into force.

(5) An order under this section may contain such transitional provisions as respects grant under Part II of this Act as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate in connection with any change effected by the order in the areas which are assisted areas of any particular category.

(6) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (5) above, the transitional provisions contained in any order under this section may, in the case of a building or any works begun before, but completed after, any such change, be provisions making different provision for the parts of the expenditure respectively attributable to the work carried out before the change, and to the work carried out after the change.

(7) An order under this section shall be contained in a statutory instrument which, subject to subsection (8) below, shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament, and an order made under subsection (2) above may contain such incidental and supplemental provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate.

(8) A statutory instrument shall not, by reason of its designating any area as a special development area, be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament if, by reason of its other provisions, a draft of the order contained in the instrument is required to be approved in pursuance of section 4(5)(a) below by a resolution of each House.

PART IIREGIONAL DEVELOPMENT GRANTS

Grants towards approved

- (a) if the larger part of the premises is in a development area, or if the qualifying activities there carried on are mainly carried on in a development area ; or
- (b) if the Secretary of State so directs in any case or class of case ;
