1983 CHAPTER 47

Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England

32 Establishment of Commission.

- (1) There shall be a body known as the Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England.
- (2) Schedule 3 shall have effect with respect to the Commission.

33 The Commission's general functions.

- (1) It shall be the duty of the Commission (so far as practicable)—
  - (a) to secure the preservation of ancient monuments and historic buildings situated in England,
  - (b) to promote the preservation and enhancement of the character and appearance of conservation areas situated in England, and
  - (c) to promote the public's enjoyment of, and advance their knowledge of, ancient monuments and historic buildings situated in England and their preservation,in exercising the functions conferred on them by virtue of subsections (2) to (4) and section 34; but in the event of a conflict between those functions and that duty those functions shall prevail.
- (2) The Commission—
  - (a) shall (so far as practicable) provide educational facilities and services, instruction and information to the public in relation to ancient monuments and historic buildings, with particular reference to those in England, and in relation to conservation areas situated in England;
  - (b) may give advice to any person in relation to ancient monuments, historic buildings and conservation areas situated in England, whether or not they have been consulted;
  - (c) may, for the purpose of exercising their functions, carry out, or defray or contribute towards the cost of, research in relation to ancient monuments, historic buildings and conservation areas situated in England;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1997. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the National Heritage Act 1983, Cross Heading: Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) may, for the purpose of exercising their functions, make and maintain records in relation to ancient monuments and historic buildings situated in England.

- (a) prosecute any offence under Part I of the <sup>M1</sup>Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979 or under the <sup>M2</sup>Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, or
- (b) institute in their own name proceedings for an injunction to restrain any contravention of any provision of that Part or of that Act of 1990.]

[<sup>F2</sup>(2B) In relation to England, the Commission may make, or join in the making of, applications under section 73(1) of the Leasehold Reform, Housing and Urban Development Act 1993, and may exercise, or participate in the exercise of, any rights or powers conferred by a scheme approved under section 70 of that Act.]

[<sup>F3</sup>(2C) In subsection (2B), references to provisions of the <sup>M3</sup>Leasehold Reform, Housing and Urban Development Act 1993 include references to those provisions as they have effect by virtue of section 118(1) of the Housing Act 1996.]

(3) Schedule 4 shall have effect to amend the enactments there mentioned—

- (a) for the purpose of conferring functions on the Commission in relation to England (including functions of making grants in relation to historic buildings and conservation areas, acquiring historic buildings, acquiring or becoming guardian of ancient monuments, providing information and other services to the public in connection with affording them access to ancient monuments, and undertaking archaeological investigation and publishing the results), and
- (b) for connected purposes (which include allowing the Secretary of State to approve lists of historic buildings compiled by the Commission, and imposing requirements for him to consult with the Commission before he includes a monument in the schedule of monuments or grants scheduled monument consent or designates an area of archaeological importance).

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2)(b), the Commission may advise the Secretary of State with regard to the exercise of functions exercisable by him in relation to England under the <sup>M4</sup>Historic Buildings and Ancient Monuments Act 1953 and the <sup>M5</sup>Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979, whether or not they have been consulted.

(5) For the purpose of exercising their functions the Commission may, subject to the provisions of this and any other Act—

- (a) enter into contracts and other agreements;
- (b) acquire and dispose of property other than land;
- (c) with the consent of the Secretary of State, acquire land for providing the Commission with office or other accommodation and dispose of the land when no longer required for such accommodation;
- (d) do such other things as the Commission think necessary or expedient.

(6) The Commission may make such charges as they may from time to time determine in respect of anything provided under subsection (2)(a) or given under subsection (2)(b) to any person other than a Minister of the Crown.

(7) With the consent of the Secretary of State, the Commission may borrow temporarily by way of overdraft such sums as they may require for meeting their obligations and discharging their functions.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1997. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

34 Commission to exercise certain ministerial functions.

(1) Subject to subsection (4), this section applies to—

- (a) functions of management exercisable by the Secretary of State for the Environment (whether by virtue of an enactment or otherwise) in relation to any ancient monument or historic building situated in England;
- (b) functions of management exercisable by the Secretary of State for the Environment (whether by virtue of an enactment or otherwise), for purposes connected with such a monument or building, in relation to any land which is situated in England and which adjoins or is in the vicinity of the monument or building.

(2) If the Secretary of State for the Environment directs the Commission to exercise functions to which this section applies and which are specified in the direction, in relation to any monument, building or land so specified, the Commission shall exercise them on his behalf in such manner as he may from time to time direct.

(3) In subsection (1) “ancient monument” means any structure, work, site, garden or area which in the opinion of the Secretary of State for the Environment is of historic, architectural, traditional, artistic or archaeological interest and “historic building” means any building which in his opinion is of historic or architectural interest.

(4) This section does not apply to—

- (a) a function of making regulations or other instruments of a legislative character;
- (b) a function exercisable in relation to any royal palace or land adjoining it or in its vicinity.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1997. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the National Heritage Act 1983, Cross Heading: Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England. (See end of Document for details)

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

35 Power of Commission to form companies.

- (1) The Commission may form or take part in forming one or more bodies corporate which (or each of which) has as its main object or objects one or more of those mentioned in subsection (2).
- (2) The objects are—
  - (a) the production and publication in England of books, films or other informative material relating to ancient monuments or historic buildings,
  - (b) the production in England of souvenirs relating to ancient monuments or historic buildings,
  - (c) the sale in England of informative material relating to ancient monuments or historic buildings, or of souvenirs, and
  - (d) the provision in England of catering or car parking or other services or facilities for members of the public visiting ancient monuments or historic buildings.
- (3) The Commission may hold interests in any such body, exercise rights conferred by the holding of interests in it, and provide financial or other assistance to or in respect of it (including assistance by way of guarantee of its obligations).
- (4) In this section “ancient monument” and “historic building” have the same meanings as in section 33.
- (5) This section is without prejudice to any power of the Commission to undertake anything mentioned in subsection (2) by virtue of section 33.

36 Records: powers of entry.

- (1) Any person duly authorised in writing by the Commission may at any reasonable time enter any land in England for the purpose of inspecting it with a view to obtaining information for inclusion in the Commission’s records made under section 33(2)(d); and the following provisions of this section shall apply to any such power of entry.
- (2) The power includes power for any person entering any land in exercise of the power to take with him any assistance or equipment reasonably required for the purpose to which the entry relates and to do there anything reasonably necessary for carrying out the purpose.
- (3) The Commission may not authorise the power to be exercised in relation to any land unless they know or have reason to believe there is in, on or under the land an ancient monument or historic building; and in this subsection “ancient monument” and “historic building” have the meanings given by section 33(8).
- (4) A person may not in the exercise of the power—
  - (a) enter any building or part of a building occupied as a dwelling-house without the consent of the occupier;
