

Rating and Valuation (Amendment) (Scotland) Act 1984

1984 CHAPTER 31

PART I

Rating and Local Government Finance

1 Basis of apportionment of needs element of rate support grants.

[<sup>F1</sup>(1) In Part I of Schedule 1 to the <sup>M1</sup>Local Government (Scotland) Act 1966 (which among other things relates to the apportionment of the needs element of rate support grants), after paragraph 3 there shall be inserted the following paragraph—

“3A Without prejudice to sections 5 and 5A of this Act or to the generality of paragraphs 1 and 3 above, the Secretary of State may, in prescribing a basis for apportionment under either of those paragraphs or in providing for apportionment under paragraph 3 above, have regard to the extent to which, in his opinion, either or both—

(a) the actual expenditure of an individual authority has conformed (whether or not in the year for which the amount of the needs element is payable),

(b) the estimated expenditure of such an authority conforms, with any guidance issued by him, before the start of the year to which the expenditure relates, as to what that expenditure ought to be.”.]

F2 Ss. 1–4 repealed by Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (c. 47, SIF 103:2), s. 34, Sch. 6 (the repeal being in force save as regards s. 1(1) the repeal of which comes into force 1.4.1994)

5 Premises qualifying for rates relief for institutions for the disabled.

(1) In section 5 of the <sup>M2</sup>Rating (Disabled Persons) Act 1978 (rate rebates for institutions for the disabled)—

(a) in subsection (1) for the words from “and are” onwards there shall be substituted the following—

“if half or more of the floor area of so much of any building or, where there are more than one, those buildings as is comprehended in the lands and heritages is used exclusively for one or more of the purposes specified in subsection (2) below or purposes ancillary thereto, or is available so to be used.”;

(b) for subsection (5) there shall be substituted the following subsections—

“(5) The rebate under this section in respect of any lands and heritages shall be so much of the rates chargeable on the lands and heritages as is attributable to so much of the lands and heritages as is used exclusively for one or more of the purposes specified in subsection (2) above or purposes ancillary thereto or is available so to be used; and, where the lands and heritages qualify for rebate for part of a rebate period, the rebate shall be proportionately reduced.

(5A) For the purposes of calculating the rebate under this section, the assessor shall certify what amount of rateable value is attributable to so much of the lands and heritages as is used as mentioned in subsection (5) above or is available so to be used and, subject to subsection (7) below, the assessor’s certificate shall be conclusive.”;

(c) after subsection (6) there shall be inserted the following subsection—

“(7) An appeal shall lie in respect of a certificate under subsection (5A) above and a complaint may be made about such a certificate in either case to the valuation appeal committee; and the provisions of the previous Valuation Acts relating to application to the assessor for redress, to appeals and complaints to the valuation appeal committee and to appeals from that committee to the Lands Valuation Appeal Court shall, with the necessary modifications, apply for the purposes of this subsection.”.

(2) In section 6 of the said Act of 1978 (administration and appeals)—

(a) after subsection (5) there shall be inserted the following subsection—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Rating and Valuation (Amendment) (Scotland) Act 1984, Part 1. (See end of Document for details)

- “(5A) A person who has been granted a rebate under section 5 of this Act but is nevertheless dissatisfied with the amount of rebate may appeal to the sheriff; and if the sheriff allows the appeal he may give the rating authority such direction as respects the matters mentioned in subsection (5) of that section as he thinks fit.”; and
- (b) in subsection (6) after the word “(5)” there shall be inserted the words “or (5A)”.

6 Relief of rates in respect of lands and heritages partly occupied for a short time.

After section 243 of the <sup>M3</sup>Local Government (Scotland) Act 1947 there shall be inserted the following section—

“243A Relief of rates in respect of lands and heritage partly occupied for a short time.

- (1) If it appears to the rating authority that part of any lands and heritages included in the valuation roll is unoccupied but will remain so for a short time only, the authority may request the assessor to apportion the rateable value between the occupied and unoccupied parts and on being thus requested the assessor shall apportion the rateable value accordingly.
- (2) As from whichever is the later of the following—
- the date upon which lands and heritages the rateable value of which has been apportioned under section (1) above became partly occupied;
  - the commencement of the financial year in which the request under that subsection relating to those lands and heritages was made,
- until whichever of the events specified in subsection (3) of this section first occurs, the value apportioned to the occupied part of the lands and heritages shall be treated for rating purposes as if it were the rateable value ascribed to the lands and heritages in the valuation roll.
- (3) The events mentioned in subsection (2) above are—
- the reoccupation of any of the unoccupied part;
  - the end of the financial year in which the request was made;
  - a further apportionment of the value of the lands and heritages taking effect under subsection (1) above.
- (4) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of subsection (3) above, if it appears to the rating authority that the part of the lands and heritages which was unoccupied at the date of an apportionment of the rateable value thereof under subsection (1) above has continued after the end of the financial year referred to in that paragraph to be unoccupied but will remain so for a short time only, the authority may direct that the apportionment shall continue to have effect for the next financial year; and subsections (2) and (3)(a) and (c) above shall have effect in relation to that year accordingly.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Rating and Valuation (Amendment) (Scotland) Act 1984, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

(5) In this section, “financial year” has the meaning assigned to it by section 96(5) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973.

(6) This section shall have effect as if it had come into force on 1st April 1984.”.

7 Relief of rates in respect of non-domestic lands and heritages not in active use.

After section 243 of the <sup>M4</sup>Local Government (Scotland) Act 1947 there shall be inserted the following section—

“243B Relief of rates in respect of non-domestic lands and heritages not in active use.

- (1) For the purposes of—
- (a) section 243 of this Act, lands and heritages to which this section applies shall be treated as unoccupied and unfurnished;
  - (b) section 243A of this Act and sections 24 to 27 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1966 (rating of unoccupied property), lands and heritages to which this section applies shall be treated as unoccupied, if, apart from this section, they would fall to be treated as occupied (or, as the case may be, occupied or furnished) by reason only of there being kept on the lands and heritages plant, machinery or equipment—
    - (i) which was last used on the lands and heritages when they were last in use; or
    - (ii) which is intended for use on the lands and heritages.
- (2) This section applies to lands and heritages which are not a dwelling-house, a private garage or private storage premises; and in this subsection—
- (a) “private garage” means a building having a floor area not exceeding 25 square metres which is used wholly or mainly for the accommodation of a motor vehicle; and
  - (b) “private storage premises” means lands and heritages which are used wholly in connection with a dwelling-house or dwelling-houses and wholly or mainly for the storage of articles of domestic use (including bicycles and similar vehicles) belonging to persons residing there.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) of this section lands and heritages that are not in use shall nevertheless be treated as a dwelling-house, a private garage or private storage premises if it appears that, when next in use, they will be lands and heritages of that description.”.
