

Inheritance Tax Act 1984

1984 CHAPTER 51

PART III

SETTLED PROPERTY

CHAPTER IV

MISCELLANEOUS

86 Trusts for benefit of employees.

- (1) Where settled property is held on trusts which, either indefinitely or until the end of a period (whether defined by a date or in some other way) do not permit any of the settled property to be applied otherwise than for the benefit of—
 - (a) persons of a class defined by reference to employment in a particular trade or profession, or employment by, or office with, a body carrying on a trade, profession or undertaking, or
 - (b) persons of a class defined by reference to marriage [^{F1}to or civil partnership with,] or relationship to, or dependence on, persons of a class defined as mentioned in paragraph (a) above,then, subject to subsection (3) below, this section applies to that settled property or, as the case may be, applies to it during that period.
- (2) Where settled property is held on trusts permitting the property to be applied for the benefit of persons within paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) above, those trusts shall not be regarded as outside the description specified in that subsection by reason only that they also permit the settled property to be applied for charitable purposes.
- (3) Where any class mentioned in subsection (1) above is defined by reference to employment by or office with a particular body, this section applies to the settled property only if—
 - (a) the class comprises all or most of the persons employed by or holding office with the body concerned, or

- (b) the trusts on which the settled property is held are those of a profit sharing scheme approved in accordance with Schedule 9 to the ^{M1}[^{F2}Taxes Act 1988]. [^{F3}; or]
- [(c) the trusts on which the settled property is held are those of [^{F4}a share incentive plan approved under Schedule 2 to the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003] .]
- (4) Where this section applies to any settled property—
- (a) the property shall be treated as comprised in one settlement, whether or not it would fall to be so treated apart from this section, and
- (b) an interest in possession in any part of the settled property shall be disregarded for the purposes of this Act (except section 55) if that part is less than 5 per cent. of the whole.
- (5) Where any property to which this section applies ceases to be comprised in a settlement and, either immediately or not more than one month later, the whole of it becomes comprised in another settlement, then, if this section again applies to it when it becomes comprised in the second settlement, it shall be treated for all the purposes of this Act as if it had remained comprised in the first settlement.

87 Newspaper trusts.

- (1) In relation to property comprised in a settlement to which this section applies, section 86 above shall have effect as if newspaper publishing companies were included among the persons within paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of that section.
- (2) This section applies to a settlement if shares in a newspaper publishing company or a newspaper holding company are the only or principal property comprised in the settlement.
- (3) In this section—
- “newspaper publishing company” means a company whose business consists wholly or mainly in the publication of newspapers in the United Kingdom;
- “newspaper holding company” means a company which—
- (a) has as its only or principal asset shares in a newspaper publishing company, and

Status: Point in time view as at 17/07/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Inheritance Tax Act 1984, CHAPTER IV. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) has powers of voting on all or most questions affecting the publishing company as a whole which if exercised would yield a majority of the votes capable of being exercised on them;

and for the purposes of this section shares shall be treated as the principal property comprised in a settlement or the principal asset of a company if the remaining property comprised in the settlement or the remaining assets of the company are such as may be reasonably required to enable the trustees or the company to secure the operation of the newspaper publishing company concerned.

88 Protective trusts.

- (1) This section applies to settled property (other than property to which section 73 above applies) which is held on trusts to the like effect as those specified in section 33(1) of the ^{M2}Trustee Act 1925; and in this section “the principal beneficiary” and “the trust period” have the same meanings as in that section.

- (2) For the purposes of this Act—

- (a) there shall be disregarded the failure or determination, before the end of the trust period, of trusts to the like effect as those specified in paragraph (i) of the said section 33(1), and
- (b) the principal beneficiary shall be treated as beneficially entitled to an interest in possession in any property which is for the time being held on trusts to the like effect as those specified in paragraph (ii) of the said section 33(1).

- [^{F5}(3) Where—

- (a) settled property became held before 22nd March 2006 on trusts to the like effect as those specified in section 33(1)(i) of the Trustee Act 1925, and
- (b) as a result of the failure or determination of those trusts on or after 22nd March 2006, the principal beneficiary is treated by subsection (2)(b) above as beneficially entitled to an interest in possession, this Act shall apply in relation to that interest in possession as if the principal beneficiary became beneficially entitled to that interest in possession before 22nd March 2006.

- (4) Subsection (5) below applies where—

- (a) settled property becomes held on or after 22nd March 2006 on trusts to the like effect as those specified in section 33(1)(i) of the Trustee Act 1925,
- (b) the interest of the principal beneficiary under those trusts is—
 - (i) an immediate post-death interest,
 - (ii) a disabled person's interest within section 89B(1)(c) or (d) below, or
 - (iii) a transitional serial interest, and
- (c) as a result of the failure or determination of those trusts, the principal beneficiary is treated by subsection (2)(b) above as beneficially entitled to an interest in possession.

- (5) This Act shall apply—

- (a) as if that interest in possession were a continuation of the immediate post-death interest, disabled person's interest or transitional serial interest, and

Status: Point in time view as at 17/07/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Inheritance Tax Act 1984, CHAPTER IV. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) as if the immediate post-death interest, or disabled person's interest or transitional serial interest, had not come to an end on the failure or determination of the trusts.
- (6) Subsection (2) above does not apply in a case where—
- (a) settled property becomes held on or after 22nd March 2006 on trusts to the like effect as those specified in section 33(1)(i) of the Trustee Act 1925, and
 - (b) the interest of the principal beneficiary under those trusts is—
 - (i) not an immediate post-death interest,
 - (ii) not a disabled person's interest within section 89B(1)(c) or (d) below, and
 - (iii) not a transitional serial interest.]

89 Trusts for disabled persons.

- (1) This section applies to settled property transferred into settlement after 9th March 1981 and held on trusts—
- (a) under which, during the life of a disabled person, no interest in possession in the settled property subsists, and
 - [^{F6}(b) which secure that, if any of the settled property or income arising from it is applied during the disabled person's life for the benefit of a beneficiary, it is applied for the benefit of the disabled person.]
- (2) For the purposes of this Act the person mentioned in subsection (1) above shall be treated as beneficially entitled to an interest in possession in the settled property.
- [^{F7}(3) The trusts on which the settled property is held are not to be treated as falling outside subsection (1) by reason only of—
- (a) the trustees' having powers that enable them to apply otherwise than for the benefit of the disabled person amounts (whether consisting of income or capital, or both) not exceeding the annual limit,
 - (b) the trustees' having the powers conferred by section 32 of the Trustee Act 1925 (powers of advancement),
 - (c) the trustees' having those powers but free from, or subject to a less restrictive limitation than, the limitation imposed by proviso (a) of subsection (1) of that section,
 - (d) the trustees' having the powers conferred by section 33 of the Trustee Act (Northern Ireland) 1958 (corresponding provision for Northern Ireland),
 - (e) the trustees' having those powers but free from, or subject to a less restrictive limitation than, the limitation imposed by subsection (1)(a) of that section, or
 - (f) the trustees' having powers to the like effect as the powers mentioned in any of paragraphs (b) to (e).

Status: Point in time view as at 17/07/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Inheritance Tax Act 1984, CHAPTER IV. (See end of Document for details)

- (3A) For the purposes of this section, the “annual limit” is whichever is the lower of the following amounts—
- (a) £3,000, and
 - (b) 3% of the amount that is the maximum value of the settled property during the period in question.
- (3B) For those purposes the annual limit applies in relation to each period of 12 months that begins on 6 April.
- (3C) The Treasury may by order made by statutory instrument—
- (a) specify circumstances in which subsection (3)(a) is, or is not, to apply in relation to a trust, and
 - (b) amend the definition of “the annual limit” in subsection (3A).
- (3D) An order under subsection (3C) may—
- (a) make different provision for different cases, and
 - (b) contain transitional and saving provision.
- (3E) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (3C) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the House of Commons.]
- (4) The reference in subsection (1) above to a disabled person is, in relation to any settled property, a reference to a person who, when the property was transferred into settlement, [^{F8}was a disabled person].
- [^{F9}(4A) In this section “disabled person” has the meaning given by Schedule 1A to the Finance Act 2005.]

[^{F10}89A Self-settlement by person [^{F11}expected to fall within the definition of “disabled person”]

- (1) This section applies to property transferred by a person (“A”) into settlement on or after 22nd March 2006 if—
- (a) A was beneficially entitled to the property immediately before transferring it into settlement,
 - (b) A satisfies the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs that, when the property was transferred into settlement, A had a condition that it was at that time reasonable to expect would have such effects on A as to lead to A becoming [^{F12}a person falling within any paragraph of the definition of “disabled person” in paragraph 1 of Schedule 1A to the Finance Act 2005].

Status: Point in time view as at 17/07/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Inheritance Tax Act 1984, CHAPTER IV. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the property is held on trusts—
 - (i) under which, during the life of A, no interest in possession in the settled property subsists, and
 - (ii) which secure that Conditions 1 and 2 are met.
- (2) Condition 1 is that if any of the settled property [^{F13}or income arising from it] is applied during A's life for the benefit of a beneficiary, it is applied for the benefit of A.
- (3) Condition 2 is that any power to bring the trusts mentioned in subsection (1)(c) above to an end during A's life is such that, in the event of the power being exercised during A's life, either—
 - (a) A or another person will, on the trusts being brought to an end, be absolutely entitled to the settled property, or
 - (b) on the trusts being brought to an end, a disabled person's interest within section 89B(1)(a) or (c) below will subsist in the settled property.
- (4) If this section applies to settled property transferred into settlement by a person, the person shall be treated as beneficially entitled to an interest in possession in the settled property.
- [^{F14}(5) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), assume—
 - (a) that A will meet any conditions as to residence or presence that are required to establish entitlement to the allowance, payment or increased pension in question,
 - (b) that there will be no provision made by regulations under any of the following—
 - (i) sections 67(1) and (2), 72(8), 104(3) and 113(2) of SSCBA 1992,
 - (ii) sections 67(1) and (2), 72(8), 104(3) and 113(2) of SSCB(NI)A 1992, and
 - (iii) sections 85 and 86 of WRA 2012 and the corresponding provision having effect in Northern Ireland, and
 - (c) that A will not be prevented from receiving the allowance, payment or increased pension in question by any of the following—
 - (i) section 113(1) of SSCBA 1992,
 - (ii) section 113(1) of SSCB(NI)A 1992,
 - (iii) section 87 of WRA 2012 and the corresponding provision having effect in Northern Ireland,
 - (iv) articles 61 and 64 of the Personal Injuries (Civilians) Scheme 1983 (S.I. 1983/686),
 - (v) article 53 of the Naval, Military and Air Forces etc. (Disablement and Death) Service Pensions Order 2006 (S.I. 2006/606), and
 - (vi) article 42 of the Armed Forces and Reserve Forces (Compensation Scheme) Order 2011 (S.I. 2011/517).]

[The trusts on which the settled property is held are not to be treated as falling outside ^{F15}(6A) subsection (2) by reason only of—

- (a) the trustees' having powers that enable them to apply otherwise than for the benefit of the disabled person amounts (whether consisting of income or capital, or both) not exceeding the annual limit,
- (b) the trustees' having the powers conferred by section 32 of the Trustee Act 1925 (powers of advancement),

 - (d) the trustees' having the powers conferred by section 33 of the Trustee Act (Northern Ireland) 1958 (corresponding provision for Northern Ireland),
 - (e) the trustees' having those powers but free from, or subject to a less restrictive limitation than, the limitation imposed by subsection (1)(a) of that section, or
 - (f) the trustees' having powers to the like effect as the powers mentioned in any of paragraphs (b) to (e).
- (6B) For the purposes of this section, the “annual limit” is whichever is the lower of the following amounts—
- (a) £3,000, and
 - (b) 3% of the amount that is the maximum value of the settled property during the period in question.
- (6C) For those purposes the annual limit applies in relation to each period of 12 months that begins on 6 April.
- (6D) The Treasury may by order made by statutory instrument—
- (a) specify circumstances in which subsection (6A)(a) is, or is not, to apply in relation to a trust, and
 - (b) amend the definition of “the annual limit” in subsection (6B).
- (6E) An order under subsection (6D) may—
- (a) make different provision for different cases, and
 - (b) contain transitional and saving provision.
- (6F) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (6D) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the House of Commons.]
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (3) above, ignore—
- (a) power to give directions as to the settled property that is exercisable jointly by the persons who between them are entitled to the entire beneficial interest in the property, and
 - (b) anything that could occur as a result of exercise of any such power.
- [^{F16}(8) In this section—
- “SSCBA 1992” means the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992,
 - “SSCB(NI)A 1992” means the Social Security Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992, and

89B Meaning of “disabled person's interest”

(1) In this Act “disabled person's interest” means—

- (a) an interest in possession to which a person is under section 89(2) above treated as beneficially entitled,
- (b) an interest in possession to which a person is under section 89A(4) above treated as beneficially entitled,
- (c) an interest in possession in settled property (other than an interest within paragraph (a) or (b) above) to which a disabled person becomes beneficially entitled on or after 22nd March 2006 [^{F17}if the trusts on which the settled property is held secure that, if any of the settled property is applied during the disabled person's life for the benefit of a beneficiary, it is applied for the benefit of the disabled person], or
- (d) an interest in possession in settled property (other than an interest within paragraph (a) or (b) above) to which a person (“A”) is beneficially entitled if—
 - (i) A is the settlor,
 - (ii) A was beneficially entitled to the property immediately before transferring it into settlement,
 - (iii) A satisfies Her Majesty's Commissioners for Revenue and Customs as mentioned in section 89A(1)(b) above,
 - (iv) the settled property was transferred into settlement on or after 22nd March 2006, and
 - (v) the trusts on which the settled property is held secure that, if any of the settled property is applied during A's life for the benefit of a beneficiary, it is applied for the benefit of A.

[^{F18}(2) In subsection (1)(c) “disabled person” has the meaning given by Schedule 1A to the Finance Act 2005.]

[Where the income arising from the settled property is held on trusts of the kind ^{F19}(2A) described in section 33 of the Trustee Act 1925 (protective trusts), subsection (1)(d) (v) has effect as if for “A's life” there were substituted “the period during which the income from the property is held on trust for A”.]

(3) Section 71D above does not apply to property in which there subsists a disabled person's interest within subsection (1)(c) above (but see also section 71D(5) above).]

[^{F20}89C Disabled person's interest: powers of advancement etc

- (1) The trusts on which settled property is held are not to be treated for the purposes of section 89B(1)(c) or (d) (meaning of “disabled person's interest”: cases involving an interest in possession) as failing to secure that the settled property is applied for the benefit of a beneficiary by reason only of—
- (a) the trustees' having powers that enable them to apply otherwise than for the benefit of the beneficiary amounts (whether consisting of income or capital, or both) not exceeding the annual limit,
 - (b) the trustees' having the powers conferred by section 32 of the Trustee Act 1925 (powers of advancement),
 - (c) the trustees' having those powers but free from, or subject to a less restrictive limitation than, the limitation imposed by proviso (a) of subsection (1) of that section,
 - (d) the trustees' having the powers conferred by section 33 of the Trustee Act (Northern Ireland) 1958 (corresponding provision for Northern Ireland),
 - (e) the trustees' having those powers but free from, or subject to a less restrictive limitation than, the limitation imposed by subsection (1)(a) of that section, or
 - (f) the trustees' having powers to the like effect as the powers mentioned in any of paragraphs (b) to (e).
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the “annual limit” is whichever is the lower of the following amounts—
- (a) £3,000, and
 - (b) 3% of the amount that is the maximum value of the settled property during the period in question.
- (3) For those purposes the annual limit applies in relation to each period of 12 months that begins on 6 April.
- (4) The Treasury may by order made by statutory instrument—
- (a) specify circumstances in which subsection (1)(a) is, or is not, to apply in relation to a trust, and
 - (b) amend the definition of “the annual limit” in subsection (2).
- (5) An order under subsection (4) may—
- (a) make different provision for different cases, and
 - (b) contain transitional and saving provision.

F20 S. 89C inserted (with effect in accordance with Sch. 44 para. 10(3)-(5) of the amending Act) by Finance Act 2013 (c. 29), Sch. 44 para. 10(2)

90 Trustees' annuities, etc.

Where under the terms of a settlement a person is entitled by way of remuneration for his services as trustee to an interest in possession in property comprised in the settlement, then, except to the extent that the interest represents more than a reasonable amount of remuneration,—

- (a) the interest shall be left out of account in determining for the purposes of this Act the value of his estate immediately before his death, and
- (b) tax shall not be charged under section 52 above when the interest comes to an end.

91 Administration period.

- (1) Where a person would have been entitled to an interest in possession in the whole or part of the residue of the estate of a deceased person had the administration of that estate been completed, the same consequences shall follow under this Act as if he had become entitled to an interest in possession in the unadministered estate and in the property (if any) representing ascertained residue, or in a corresponding part of it, on the date as from which the whole or part of the income of the residue would have been attributable to his interest had the residue been ascertained immediately after the death of the deceased person.
- (2) In this section—
 - (a) “unadministered estate” means all the property for the time being held by personal representatives as such, excluding property devolving on them otherwise than as assets for the payment of debts and excluding property that is the subject of a specific disposition, and making due allowance for outstanding charges on residue and for any adjustments between capital and income remaining to be made in due course of administration;
 - (b) “ascertained residue” means property which, having ceased to be held by the personal representatives as such, is held as part of the residue;
 - ^{F21}(c) subject to subsection (3) below, “charges on residue” means, in relation to the estate of a deceased person, the following liabilities properly payable out of the estate and interest payable in respect of those liabilities—
 - (i) funeral, testamentary and administration expenses and debts,
 - (ii) general legacies, demonstrative legacies, annuities and any sum payable out of the residue of the estate to which a person is entitled under the law of intestacy of any part of the United Kingdom or any other country, and
 - (iii) any other liabilities of the deceased person's personal representatives as such,
 - (d) “specific disposition” has the meaning given in section 947(6) of the Corporation Tax Act 2009, and
 - (e) the reference to the completion of the administration of the estate shall be construed as if it were in Chapter 3 of Part 10 of that Act.]

Status: Point in time view as at 17/07/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Inheritance Tax Act 1984, CHAPTER IV. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F22}(3) If, as between—

- (a) persons interested under a specific disposition or in a general or demonstrative legacy or in an annuity, and
- (b) persons interested in the residue of an estate, any such liabilities as are mentioned in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) above fall exclusively or primarily on the property that is the subject of the specific disposition or on the legacy or annuity, only such part (if any) of those liabilities as falls ultimately on the residue shall be treated as charges on residue.
