SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

Section 1(3).

BUILDING REGULATIONS

- 1 Building regulations may—
 - (a) provide for particular requirements of the regulations to be deemed to be complied with where prescribed methods of construction, prescribed types of materials or other prescribed means are used in or in connection with buildings
 - (b) be framed to any extent by reference to a document published by or on behalf of the Secretary of State or another person or a body, or by reference to the approval or satisfaction of a prescribed person or body.
- 2 Building regulations may include provision as to—
 - (a) the giving of notices,
 - (b) the deposit of plans of proposed work or work already executed (including provision as to the number of copies to be deposited),
 - (c) the retention by local authorities of copies of plans deposited with them in accordance with the regulations,
 - (d) the inspection and testing of work,
 - (e) the taking of samples.
- 3 Building regulations may provide for requiring local authorities and approved inspectors in prescribed circumstances to consult a prescribed person before taking a prescribed step in connection with any work or other matter to which building regulations are applicable.
- 4 Building regulations may—
 - (a) authorise local authorities to accept, as evidence that the requirements of building regulations as to matters of a prescribed description are or would be satisfied, certificates to that effect by persons of a class or description prescribed in relation to those matters or by a person nominated in writing by the Secretary of State in a particular case,
 - (b) provide for the issue by local authorities of certificates to the effect that, so far as the authority concerned have been able to ascertain after taking all reasonable steps in that behalf, the requirements of building regulations as to matters of a prescribed description are satisfied in a particular case, and for such certificates to be evidence (but not conclusive evidence) of compliance with the regulations,
 - (c) make provision—
 - (i) for prohibiting, in prescribed circumstances, the carrying out of proposed work of a prescribed class involving matters of a prescribed description unless there has been deposited with the prescribed authority as regards those matters a certificate such as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) above,

Status: Point in time view as at 11/09/1998.

- (ii) for enabling, in cases where such a certificate is required by virtue of paragraph (i) above, a dispute as to whether a certificate ought to be issued to be referred to the Secretary of State,
 - (iii) for enabling the Secretary of State, on such a reference, to give such directions as he thinks fit.
- 5 (1) Building regulations may authorise local authorities to charge prescribed fees for or in connection with the performance of prescribed functions of theirs relating to building regulations.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by order repeal this paragraph.
- 6 Building regulations may make a prescribed person or class of persons responsible (instead of local authorities) for performing prescribed functions of local authorities under or in connection with building regulations, and for that purpose may provide for a prescribed enactment relating to building regulations and a prescribed provision of such regulations to apply (with any prescribed modifications) in relation to a prescribed person or a person of a prescribed class as that enactment or provision applies in relation to a local authority.
- 7 Without prejudice to the generality of section 1(1) of this Act, building regulations may—
- (a) for any of the purposes mentioned in section 1(1) of this Act, make provision with respect to any of the following matters—
 - (i) preparation of sites,
 - (ii) suitability, durability and use of materials and components (including surface finishes),
 - (iii) structural strength and stability, including—
 - (a) precautions against overloading, impact and explosion,
 - (b) measures to safeguard adjacent buildings and services,
 - (c) underpinning,
 - (iv) fire precautions, including—
 - (a) structural measures to resist the outbreak and spread of fire and to mitigate its effects,
 - (b) services, fittings and equipment designed to mitigate the effects of fire or to facilitate fire-fighting,
 - (c) means of escape in case of fire and means for securing that such means of escape can be safely and effectively used at all material times,
 - (v) resistance to moisture and decay,
 - (vi) measures affecting the transmission of heat,
 - (vii) measures affecting the transmission of sound,
 - (viii) measures to prevent infestation,
 - (ix) measures affecting the emission of smoke, gases, fumes, grit or dust or other noxious or offensive substances,
 - (x) drainage (including waste disposal units),
 - (xi) cesspools and other means for the reception, treatment or disposal of foul matter,
 - (xii) storage, treatment and removal of waste,

- (xiii) installations utilising solid fuel, oil, gas, electricity or any other fuel or power (including appliances, storage tanks, heat exchangers, ducts, fans and other equipment),
 - (xiv) water services (including wells and bore-holes for the supply of water) and fittings and fixed equipment associated therewith,
 - (xv) telecommunications services (including telephones and radio and television wiring installations),
 - (xvi) lifts, escalators, hoists, conveyors and moving footways,
 - (xvii) plant providing air under pressure,
 - (xviii) standards of heating, artificial lighting, mechanical ventilation and air-conditioning and provision of power outlets,
 - (xix) open space about buildings and the natural lighting and ventilation of buildings,
 - (xx) accommodation for specific purposes in or in connection with buildings, and the dimensions of rooms and other spaces within buildings,
 - (xxi) means of access to and egress from buildings and parts of buildings
 - (xxii) prevention of danger and obstruction to persons in and about buildings (including passers-by),
 - (xxiii) matters connected with or ancillary to any of the foregoing matters,
 - (b) require things to be provided or done in connection with buildings (as well as regulating the provision or doing of things in connection with buildings),
 - (c) prescribe the manner in which work is to be carried out.
- 8 (1) Building regulations may be made with respect to—
- (a) alterations and extensions of buildings and of services, fittings and equipment in or in connection with buildings,
 - (b) new services, fittings or equipment provided in or in connection with buildings,
 - (c) buildings and services, fittings and equipment in or in connection with buildings, so far as affected by—
 - (i) alterations or extensions of buildings, or
 - (ii) new, altered or extended services, fittings or equipment in or in connection with buildings,
 - (d) the whole of a building, together with any services, fittings or equipment provided in or in connection with it, in respect of which there are or are proposed to be carried out any operations that by virtue of section 123(1) of this Act constitute the construction of a building for the purposes of this paragraph,
 - (e) buildings or parts of buildings, together with any services, fittings or equipment provided in or in connection with them, in cases where the purposes for which or the manner or circumstances in which a building or part of a building is used change or changes in a way that constitutes a material change of use of the building or part within the meaning of the expression “material change of use” as defined for the purposes of this paragraph by building regulations.
- (2) So far as they relate to matters mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) above, building regulations may be made to apply to or in connection with buildings erected before

RELAXATION OF BUILDING REGULATIONS FOR EXISTING WORK

Application of schedule

- 1 This Schedule applies to a direction under section 8 of this Act that will affect the application of building regulations to work that has been carried out before the giving of the direction.

Cases where no direction may be given

- 2 Neither the Secretary of State nor a local authority shall give a direction to which this Schedule applies—
- (a) if the local authority have, before the making of the application for the direction, become entitled under section 36(3) of this Act to pull down, remove or alter the work to which the application relates, or
 - (b) if, when the application is made, there is in force an injunction or other direction given by a court that requires the work to be pulled down, removed or altered.

Suspension of certain provisions while application pending

- 3 (1) Subject to the following provisions of this Schedule, after the making of an application for a direction to which this Schedule applies, and until the application is withdrawn or finally disposed of, no section 36 notice shall be given as regards the work to which the application relates on the ground that it contravenes the requirement to which the application relates.
- (2) If an application for a direction to which this Schedule applies is made less than 12 months after the completion of the work to which the application relates, section 36(4) of this Act does not prevent the giving of a notice as regards that work at any time within a period of 3 months from the date on which the application is withdrawn or finally disposed of.
- (3) If an application for a direction to which this Schedule applies is made after a section 36 notice has been given on the ground that the work to which the application relates contravenes the requirement to which the application relates (not being an application prohibited by paragraph 2 of this Schedule), section 36(3) of this Act has effect in relation to that work as if for the reference to the period there mentioned there were substituted a reference to a period expiring 28 days after the application is withdrawn or finally disposed of, or such longer period as a magistrates' court may allow.
- (4) Subject to the following provisions of this Schedule, if an application for a direction to which this Schedule applies is made after any person has, in consequence of the carrying out of the work to which the application relates in contravention of building regulations, become liable to a penalty continuing from day to day, the daily penalty is not recoverable in respect of any day after the making of the application and before it is withdrawn or finally disposed of.
- (5) In a case where an application is withdrawn or is finally disposed of without any direction being given, the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the local authority may order that the daily penalty is not recoverable in respect of any day during such further period not exceeding 28 days as may be specified in the order.

- 4 Paragraph 3(1), (3) and (4) above do not apply to an application that is a repetition, or substantially a repetition, of a previous application under section 8 of this Act.

Saving for criminal liability incurred before making of application

- 5 The giving of a direction to which this Schedule applies does not affect the liability of a person for an offence committed before the giving of the direction, except so far as that liability depends on the continuation of the offence after the giving of the direction.

Termination of proceedings under section 36 on giving of direction

- 6 If, before the giving of a direction to which this Schedule applies, a section 36 notice has been given, and the contravention of building regulations by virtue of which the notice was given comes to an end when the direction is given, the local authority is not, after the giving of the direction, entitled to proceed under section 36(3) of this Act by virtue of that notice.

relevant provision to apply (with any prescribed modifications, and notwithstanding paragraph 1 above) in relation to any such authority, person or class of persons as that provision applies in relation to a local authority outside inner London.

- (2) In sub-paragraph (1) above, “relevant provision” means any of the following provisions of this Act that may be prescribed for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above: sections 4, 8 to 10, 16, 18(1), (4) and (5), 21 to 23, 24(1), (2) and (4), 26 to 29, 32, 36, 37, 39 and 40.

Repeal and modification of Acts.

- 3 Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 11(1) of Schedule 1 to this Act, building regulations may repeal or modify—
- (a) any provision of the London Building Acts 1930 to 1939,
 - (b) any provision of an Act passed before the 20th September 1974, in so far as that provision—
 - (i) applies to or to any part of inner London, and
 - (ii) relates to, or to the making of, byelaws for or for any part of inner London with respect to any matter for or in connection with which provision can be made by building regulations, or
 - (c) any provision of byelaws made or having effect under the said Acts or of any such byelaws as are mentioned in sub-paragraph (b)(ii) above,
- if it appears to the Secretary of State that the repeal or, as the case may be, the modification of that provision is expedient—
- (i) in consequence of the application of any of sections 61, 62 and 67 of the ^{M2}Public Health Act 1936, sections 4(2), (5), (6) and (7), 5 and 9 of the ^{M3}Public Health Act 1961 and sections 61 to 74 and 76 of the ^{M4}Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 to inner London by virtue of section 70(1) of the said Act of 1974 (which section is repealed by and incorporated in this Act),
 - (ii) in consequence of paragraph 2 or 14 of this Schedule, or
 - (iii) in connection with any provision contained in building regulations that apply to or to any part of inner London.

Section 54.

PROVISIONS CONSEQUENTIAL UPON PUBLIC BODY’S NOTICE

Duration of notice

- 1 (1) A public body’s notice comes into force when it is accepted by the local authority, either by notice given within the prescribed period to the public body by which it was given or by virtue of section 54(3) of this Act, and, subject to paragraph 3(3) below, continues in force until the occurrence of, or the expiry of a prescribed period of time beginning on the date of such event as may be prescribed.
- (2) Building regulations may empower a local authority to extend (whether before or after its expiry) any such period of time as is referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above.

Public body’s plans certificates

- 2 (1) Where a public body—
- (a) is satisfied that plans of the work specified in a public body’s notice given by it have been inspected by a servant or agent of the body who is competent to assess the plans,
 - (b) in the light of that inspection is satisfied that the plans neither are defective nor show that work carried out in accordance with them would contravene any provision of building regulations, and
 - (c) has complied with any prescribed requirements as to consultation or otherwise,
- the body may give to the local authority a certificate in the prescribed form (called a “public body’s plans certificate”).
- (2) Building regulations may authorise the giving of a public body’s notice combined with a public body’s plans certificate, and may prescribe a single form for such a combined notice and certificate; and where such a prescribed form is used—
- (a) a reference in this Schedule or in any other provision of Part II of this Act to a public body’s notice or to a public body’s plans certificate includes a reference to that form, but
 - (b) should the form cease to be in force as a public body’s notice by virtue of paragraph 1(1) above, nothing in that paragraph affects the continuing validity of the form as a public body’s plans certificate.
- (3) A public body’s plans certificate—

Status: Point in time view as at 11/09/1998.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Building Act 1984. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) may relate either to the whole or to part only of the work specified in the public body's notice concerned, and
 - (b) does not have effect unless it is accepted by the local authority to whom it is given.
- (4) A local authority to whom a public body's plans certificate is given—
- (a) may not reject the certificate except on prescribed grounds, and
 - (b) shall reject the certificate if any of the prescribed grounds exists.
- (5) Unless, within the prescribed period, the local authority to whom a public body's plans certificate is given give notice of rejection, specifying the ground or grounds in question, to the public body by which the certificate was given, the authority are conclusively presumed to have accepted the certificate.
- (6) If it appears to a local authority by whom a public body's plans certificate has been accepted that the work to which the certificate relates has not been commenced within the period of three years beginning on the date on which the certificate was accepted, the authority may rescind their acceptance of the certificate by notice, specifying the ground or grounds in question given to the public body.

Public body's final certificates

- (1) Where a public body is satisfied that any work specified in a public body's notice given by it has been completed, the body may give to the local authority such certificate with respect to the completion of the work and compliance with building regulations as may be prescribed (called a "public body's final certificate").
 - (2) Sub-paragraphs (3) to (5) of paragraph 2 above have effect in relation to a public body's final certificate as if any reference in those sub-paragraphs to a public body's plans certificate were a reference to a public body's final certificate.
 - (3) Where a public body's final certificate has been given with respect to any of the work specified in a public body's notice and that certificate has been accepted by the local authority concerned, the public body's notice ceases to apply to that work, but the provisions of section 48(1) of this Act, as applied by section 54(4), continue, by virtue of this sub-paragraph, to apply in relation to that work as if the public body's notice continued in force in relation to it.

Effects of public body's notice ceasing to be in force

- (1) This paragraph applies where a public body's notice ceases to be in force by virtue of paragraph 1 above.
 - (2) Building regulations may provide that if—
 - (a) a public body's plans certificate was given before the day on which the public body's notice ceased to be in force, and
 - (b) that certificate was accepted by the local authority (before, on or after that day), and
 - (c) before that day, that acceptance was not rescinded by a notice under paragraph 2(6) above,then, with respect to the work specified in the certificate, such of the functions of a local authority referred to in section 48(1) of this Act as may be prescribed for the purposes of this sub-paragraph either are not exercisable or are exercisable only in prescribed circumstances.

- (3) If, before the day on which the public body's notice ceased to be in force, a public body's final certificate was given in respect of part of the work specified in the notice and that certificate was accepted by the local authority (before, on or after that day), the fact that the public body's notice has ceased to be in force does not affect the continuing operation of paragraph 3(3) above in relation to that part of the work.
- (4) Notwithstanding anything in sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) above, for the purpose of enabling the local authority to perform the functions referred to in section 48(1) of this Act in relation to any part of the work not specified in a public body's plans certificate or final certificate, as the case may be, building regulations may require the local authority to be provided with plans that relate not only to that part but also to the part to which the certificate in question relates.
- (5) In any case where this paragraph applies, the reference in sub-section (4) of section 36 of this Act to the date of the completion of the work in question has effect, in relation to a notice under subsection (1) of that section, as if it were a reference to the date on which the public body's notice ceased to be in force.
- (6) Subject to any provision of building regulations made by virtue of sub-paragraph (2) above if, before the public body's notice ceased to be in force, an offence under section 35 of this Act was committed with respect to any of the work specified in that notice, summary proceedings for that offence may be commenced by the local authority at any time within six months beginning with the day on which the functions of the local authority referred to in section 48(1) of this Act became exercisable with respect to the provision of building regulations to which the offence relates.
- (7) Any reference in the preceding provisions of this paragraph to section 48(1) of this Act is a reference to that section as applied by section 54(4) of this Act.

Consultation

- 5 Building regulations may make provision for requiring, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, a public body that has given a public body's notice to consult any prescribed person before taking any prescribed step in connection with any work specified in the notice.

SCHEDULE 5

Section 132.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Joint application to the Secretary of State for the determination of certain questions relating to building regulations
