

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

EMERGENCY PROHIBITIONS

PART I

ACTIVITIES THAT MAY BE PROHIBITED IN A DESIGNATED AREA

- 1 An emergency order may prohibit any of the following in the designated area—
- (a) agricultural activities;
 - (b) the gathering or picking of wild plants;
 - (c) the slaughter of creatures;
 - (d) fishing for and taking fish; and
 - (e) the preparation and processing for supply to purchasers or others of food and anything from which food could be derived.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Food and Environment Protection Act 1985, Part I.