- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision with respect to the appointment of persons to act as the authorised representatives of disabled persons, including provision—
- (a) for the manner in which the appointment of a person as an authorised representative is to be made; and
 - (b) for any such appointment to be notified to the relevant local authority (as defined in the regulations) if made otherwise than by that authority
- (3) Any such regulations—
- (a) may provide for the
 - ^{F1}(i) the parent of a disabled person under the age of sixteen, or
 - (ii) any other person who is not a parent of his but who has parental responsibility for him] to appoint himself or some other person as the authorised representative of the disabled person (but shall not permit a person under that age himself to appoint a person as his authorised representative);
 - (b) may provide for the appointment of a person as the authorised representative of a disabled person who is a child [^{F2}looked after by] a local authority to be made by that authority in such circumstances as may be specified in the regulations;
 - (c) may, in accordance with subsection (4), provide for the appointment of a person as the authorised representative of a disabled person to be made by, or under arrangements made by, a local authority in a case where the disabled person appears to the authority to be unable to appoint a person as his authorised representative by reason of any mental or physical incapacity;
 - (d) may contain such incidental or supplementary provisions as the Secretary of State thinks fit.
- (4) Regulations under paragraph (c) of subsection (3) may make provision—
- (a) for requiring a local authority, for the purpose of enabling them to determine whether a disabled person is unable to appoint a person as his authorised representative as mentioned in that paragraph, to obtain the opinion of a registered medical practitioner;
 - (b) for authorising a local authority, where they determine that a disabled person is so unable, either—
 - (i) themselves to appoint a person as the disabled person's authorised representative, or
 - (ii) to make with any voluntary organisation, person or persons approved by them for the purpose such arrangements as they think fit for such an appointment to be made by the organisation, person or persons concerned;
 - (c) for requiring or authorising a local authority, before determining the question specified in paragraph (a), or (as the case may be) before making any appointment of an authorised representative, or any arrangements, in pursuance of paragraph (b), to consult any of the following, namely—
 - (i) a person or persons appointed by them for the purpose, or
 - (ii) a person or persons falling within any class or description specified in the regulations;
 - (d) for requiring a local authority, in such circumstances as may be specified in the regulations, to review the case of a disabled person whose authorised representative has been appointed in pursuance of paragraph (b) (whether by 3 Assessment by local authorities of needs of disabled persons.

- (1) Where—
- (a) on any assessment carried out by them in pursuance of any provision of this Act, or
 - (b) on any other occasion,
- it falls to a local authority to decide whether the needs of a disabled person call for the provision by the authority (in accordance with any of the welfare enactments)

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Disabled Persons (Services, Consultation and Representation) Act 1986. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) of any statutory services for that person, the authority shall afford an opportunity to the disabled person or his authorised representative to make, within such reasonable period as the authority may allow for the purpose, representations to an officer of the authority as to any needs of the disabled person calling for the provision by the authority (in accordance with any of those enactments) of any statutory services for him.

- (2) Where any such representations have been made to a local authority in accordance with subsection (1) or the period mentioned in that subsection has expired without any such representations being made, and the authority have reached a decision on the question referred to in that subsection (having taken into account any representations made as mentioned above), the authority shall, if so requested by the disabled person or his authorised representative, supply the person making the request with a written statement—
 - (a) either specifying—
 - (i) any needs of the disabled person which in the opinion of the authority call for the provision by them of any statutory services, and
 - (ii) in the case of each such need, the statutory services that they propose to provide to meet that need,or stating that, in their opinion, the disabled person has no needs calling for the provision by them of any such services; and
 - (b) giving an explanation of their decision; and
 - (c) containing particulars of the right of the disabled person or his authorised representative to make representations with respect to the statement under subsection (4).
- (3) Where the local authority do not propose to provide any statutory services to meet a particular need identified in any representations under subsection (1), any statement supplied under subsection (2) must state that fact together with the reasons why the authority do not propose to provide any such services.
- (4) If the disabled person or his authorised representative is dissatisfied with any matter included in the statement supplied under subsection (2), that person may, within such reasonable period as the authority may allow for the purpose, make representations to an officer of the authority with respect to that matter.
- (5) Where any such representations have been made to the authority in accordance with subsection (4), the authority shall—
 - (a) consider (or, as the case may be, reconsider) whether any, and (if so) what, statutory services should be provided by them for the disabled person to meet any need identified in the representations; and
 - (b) inform the disabled person or his authorised representative in writing of their decision on that question and their reasons for that decision.
- (6) Where—
 - (a) the disabled person or his authorised representative is unable to communicate, or (as the case may be) be communicated with, orally or in writing (or in each of those ways) by reason of any mental or physical incapacity, or
 - (b) both of those persons are in that position (whether by reason of the same incapacity or not), the local authority shall provide such services as, in their opinion, are necessary to ensure that any such incapacity does not—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (i) prevent the authority from discharging their functions under this section in relation to the disabled person, or
 - (ii) prevent the making of representations under this section by or on behalf of that person.
- (7) In determining whether they are required to provide any services under subsection (6) to meet any need of the disabled person or his authorised representative, and (if so) what those services should be, the local authority shall have regard to any views expressed by either of those persons as to the necessity for any such services or (as appropriate) to any views so expressed as to the services which should be so provided.
- (8) In this section “representations” means representations made orally or in writing (or both).

4 Services under s. 2 of the 1970 Act: duty to consider needs of disabled persons.

When requested to do so by—

- (a) a disabled person,
- (b) his authorised representative, or
- (c) any person who provides care for him in the circumstances mentioned in section 8, a local authority shall decide whether the needs of the disabled person call for the provision by the authority of any services in accordance with section 2(1) of the 1970 Act (provision of welfare services).

5 Disabled persons leaving special education.

(1) Where—

- (a) a local authority have made a statement under section 7 of the ^{M4}Education Act 1981 [^{F15}section 168 of the Education Act 1993 or section 324 of the Education Act 1996] (statement of child’s educational needs) in respect of a child ^{F16} . . . and
- (b) the statement is still maintained by the authority at whichever is the earlier of the following times, namely—
 - (i) the time when they institute [^{F17}a review of the statement prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph], and
 - (ii) any time falling after [^{F18}they have carried out the review prescribed for the purposes of sub-paragraph (i)] when they institute a re-assessment of his educational needs, the authority shall at that time require the appropriate officer to give to the authority his opinion as to whether the child is or is not a disabled person.

(2) Where—

- (a) a local education authority make any such statement in respect of a child after he has attained the age of 14, or
- (b) a local education authority maintain any such statement in respect of a child in whose case the appropriate officer has, in pursuance of subsection (1), given his opinion that the child is not a disabled person, but the authority have become aware of a significant change in the mental or physical condition of the child giving them reason to believe that he may now be a disabled person,

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Disabled Persons (Services, Consultation and Representation) Act 1986. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) the authority shall, at the time of making the statement or (as the case may be) of becoming aware of that change, require the appropriate officer to give to the authority his opinion as to whether the child is or is not a disabled person.

[^{F19}(3) In the following provisions of this section and in section 6 a person in respect of whom the appropriate officer has given his opinion that he is a disabled person is referred to as a “disabled student”.

(3A) The responsible authority shall give to the appropriate officer written notification for the purposes of subsection (5) of the date on which any disabled student will cease to be of compulsory school age, and the notification shall state—

- (a) his name and address; and
- (b) whether or not he intends to remain in full-time education and, if he does, the name of the school or other institution at which the education will be received;

and shall be given not earlier than twelve months, nor later than eight months, before that date.

(3B) Where, in the case of a disabled student over compulsory school age who is receiving relevant full-time education, that is—

- (a) full-time education at a school; or
- (b) full-time further or higher education at an institution other than a school;

it appears to the responsible authority that the student will cease to receive relevant full-time education on a date (“the leaving date”) on which he will be under the age of nineteen years and eight months, the responsible authority shall give written notification for the purposes of subsection (5) to the appropriate officer.

(3C) That notification shall state—

- (a) his name and address; and
- (b) the leaving date;

and shall be given not earlier than twelve months, nor later than eight months, before the leaving date.

(4) If at any time it appears to the responsible authority—

- (a) that a disabled student has ceased to receive relevant full-time education or will cease to do so on a date less than 8 months after that time, and
- (b) that no notification has been given under subsection (3B), but
- (c) that, had the responsible authority for the time being been aware of his intentions 8 months or more before that date, they would have been required to give notification under that subsection with respect to him, that authority shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable, give written notification for the purposes of subsection (5) to the appropriate officer of his name and address and of the date on which he ceased to receive, or will cease to receive, that education.]

(5) When the appropriate officer receives a notification given with respect to [^{F20}a student under subsection (3A) that he does not intend to remain in full-time education or under subsection (3B)] or (4), he shall (subject to subsections (6) and (7) make arrangements for the local authority of which he is an officer to carry out an assessment of the needs of that person with respect to the provision by that authority of any statutory services for that person in accordance with any of the welfare enactments, and any such assessment shall be carried out—

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Disabled Persons (Services, Consultation and Representation) Act 1986. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) in the case of a [^{F21}notification under subsection (3A) or (3B)], not later than the end of the period of 5 months beginning with the date of receipt of the notification, or
- (b) in the case of a notification under subsection (4), before the date specified in the notification, if reasonably practicable, and in any event not later than the end of the period referred to in paragraph (a) above.
- (6) If—
- (a) a notification has been given to the appropriate officer with respect to any person under subsection [^{F22}(3A) that he does not intend to remain in full-time education or under subsection (3B)] or (4), but
- (b) it subsequently appears to [^{F23}the responsible authority that the person will be receiving relevant full-time education] at a time later than the date specified in the notification,
- the authority shall give written notification of the relevant facts to that officer as soon as is reasonably practicable; and on receiving any such notification that officer shall cease to be required under subsection (5) to make arrangements for the assessment of the needs of the person in question (but without prejudice to the operation of that subsection in relation to any further notification given with respect to that person under subsection [^{F22}(3A) that he does not intend to remain in full-time education or under subsection (3B)] or (4)).
- (7) Nothing in subsection (5) shall require the appropriate officer to make arrangements for the assessment of the needs of a person—
- (a) if, having attained the age of 16, he has requested that such arrangements should not be made under that subsection, or
- (b) if, being under that age, his parent or [^{F24}other person who is not a parent of his but who has parental responsibility for him] has made such a request.
- (8) Regulations under [^{F25}paragraph 7 of Schedule 27 to the Education Act 1996] (assessments and statements of special educational needs) may, in relation to the transfer of statements [^{F26}maintained under section 324] of that Act, make such provision as appears to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient in connection with the preceding provisions of this section.
- (9) In this section—
- “the appropriate officer”, in relation to the child or person referred to in the provision of this section in question, means such officer as may be appointed for the purposes of this section by the local authority for the area in which that child or person is for the time being ordinarily resident;
- “child” means a person of compulsory school age or a person who has attained that age but not the age of 19 and is registered as a pupil at a school or [^{F27}as a student at][^{F28}an establishment of higher or further education]; [^{F29}“establishment of higher or further education” means an institution which provides higher education or further education (or both);] and
- [^{F30}“prescribed” means prescribed in regulations made—
- (a) in relation to England, by the Secretary of State; and
- (b) in relation to Wales, by the National Assembly for Wales;]
- “the responsible authority”—
- (a) in relation to a child at school, means the local education authority who are responsible for the child for the purposes of [^{F31}Part IV of the Education Act 1996];

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

[^{F32}(b) in relation to a person receiving full-time further education or higher education at an institution within the further education sector or the higher education sector, means the governing body of the institution; and

(c) in relation to a person for whom [^{F33}the Leaning and Skills Council for England or the National Council for Education and Training for Wales] has secured full-time further education at an institution (other than a school) outside the further education sector or the higher education sector, the council] in each case whether any such opinion as is mentioned in subsection (3) was given to that authority or not;

and other expressions used in this section and in [^{F34}the Education Act 1996][^{F35}or the Further and Higher Education Act 1992] (and not defined in this Act) have the same meaning in this section as in [^{F36}those Acts] .

(10) This section applies to England and Wales only.

7 Persons discharged from hospital.

(1) When a person is to be discharged from a hospital after having received medical treatment for mental disorder as an in-patient for a continuous period of not less than 6 months ending with the date on which he is to be discharged, the managers of the hospital shall give written notification of that date—

- (a) to the health authority in whose ^{F38} . . . area it appears to the managers that that person is likely to reside after his discharge (unless the managers are that authority),
- (b) to the local authority in whose area it appears to them that the person is likely then to reside, and
- (c) in the case of a person under the relevant age on that date, to the appropriate officer [^{F39}of that local authority], as soon as it is reasonably practicable after that date is known to the managers.

(2) Where—

- (a) a person liable to be detained under the 1983 Act or the 1984 Act is discharged from a hospital in pursuance of an order for his immediate discharge made by a Mental Health Review Tribunal or, in Scotland, by the Mental Welfare Commission for Scotland or by the sheriff, and
- (b) he is so discharged after having received medical treatment for mental disorder as an in-patient for a continuous period of not less than 6 months ending with the date of his discharge, the managers of the hospital shall give written notification of that person's discharge in accordance with paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of subsection (1) above as soon as is reasonably practicable.

(3) Where—

- (a) a health authority receive a notification given with respect to a person under subsection (1) or (2), or
- (b) the managers of a hospital from which a person is to be, or is, discharged as mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) are the health authority referred to in subsection (1)(a),

that authority shall (subject to subsection (7)) make arrangements for an assessment of the needs of that person with respect to the provision of any services under the 1977 Act or 1978 Act which the Secretary of State is under a duty to provide; and in making any such arrangements a health authority falling within paragraph (a) above shall consult the managers of the hospital in question.

(4) Where a local authority receive a notification given with respect to a person under subsection (1) or (2), the authority shall (subject to subsection (7)) make arrangements for an assessment of the needs of that person with respect to the provision of any services under any of the welfare enactments.

(5) A health authority and a local authority who are by virtue of subsections (3) and (4) each required to make arrangements for an assessment of the needs of a particular person shall co-operate with each other in the making of those arrangements.
