

Disabled Persons (Services, Consultation and Representation) Act 1986

1986 CHAPTER 33

PART II

INFORMATION AND CONSULTATION

9 Information.

In subsection (2)(b) of section 1 of the 1970 Act—

- (a) for the words “any other of those services” there shall be substituted the words “any other service provided by the authority (whether under any such arrangements or not)”; and
- (b) at the end there shall be inserted the words “and of any service provided by any other authority or organisation which in the opinion of the authority is so relevant and of which particulars are in the authority’s possession”.

10 Co-option to committees etc. of persons representing interests of disabled persons.

Where any enactment provides for the appointment or co-option to any council, committee or body of one or more persons with special knowledge of the needs of disabled persons, such appointment or co-option shall only be made after consultation with such organisation or organisations of disabled people as may be appropriate in each case.

11 Reports to Parliament.

[^{F1}(1ZA) In this section, ^{F2}... subsection (1) extends to Scotland only.

^{F3}(1ZB).....]

- (1) The Secretary of State shall annually lay before Parliament a report containing the following information, namely—
- (a) such information as the Secretary of State considers appropriate with respect to the development of health and social services in the community for persons suffering from mental illness or mental handicap who are not resident in hospitals;
 - (b) information with respect to—
 - (i) the number of persons receiving treatment for mental illness as in-patients in health service hospitals, and
 - (ii) the number of persons receiving treatment for mental handicap as in-patients in such hospitals, in each case analysed by reference to age and length of stay; and
 - (c) such other information (if any) as the Secretary of State considers appropriate be included in the report.

[^{F4}(2) In this section—

“health service hospital” has the same meaning as in the 1978 Act, except that it does not include a State hospital;

“learning disability” means a state of arrested or incomplete development of mind which includes significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning.]
