Supplementary reports

- 10 After section 61(4) of the said Act of 1980 there shall be inserted—
- “(4A) The Secretary of State shall not in a supplementary report vary a multiplier so far as previously determined for the purpose specified in section 2(2) of the Rate Support Grants Act 1986 (or previously determined or purported to be determined for the purpose specified in section 59(6Xa) above) unless he is satisfied that the variation is required in consequence of the principles specified by him in relation to the original determination not having been correctly applied to it on the basis of the information available to him when it was made.”

Adjustments for matching amount available for block grant

11 For section 62 of the said Act of 1980 there shall be substituted—

“62 Adjustments for matching amount available for block grant.

(1) Where at any time after a Rate Support Grant Report or supplementary report for any year has been approved by the House of Commons it appears to the Secretary of State from information as to the expenditure incurred or to be incurred by local authorities during that year that the aggregate amount of block grant to which local authorities would be entitled in accordance with the report, or any previous adjustment under this section, differs from the aggregate amount available for that grant in that year he may adjust the amount payable to each authority (whether by increasing or reducing it) so as to reconcile those aggregate amounts.

(2) An adjustment under this section may be made either—

- (a) so that the amount payable to an authority is adjusted in the same ratio as the aggregate amounts mentioned in subsection (1) above bear to one another ; or
- (b) in accordance with principles applicable to all local authorities or to all local authorities belonging to the appropriate class and specified in the report mentioned in that subsection.”

12 Paragraph 8(2) of Schedule 2 to the said Act of 1982 shall be omitted.
