

Banking Act 1987 (repealed)

1987 CHAPTER 22

PART I

REGULATION OF DEPOSIT-TAKING BUSINESS

The Bank of England and the Board of Banking Supervision

1 Functions and duties of the Bank of England.

- (1) The Bank of England (in this Act referred to as “the Bank”) shall have the powers conferred on it by this Act and the duty generally to supervise the institutions authorised by it in the exercise of those powers.
- (2) It shall also be the duty of the Bank to keep under review the operation of this Act and developments in the field of banking which appear to it to be relevant to the exercise of its powers and the discharge of its duties.
- (3) The Bank shall, as soon as practicable after the end of each of its financial years, make to the Chancellor of the Exchequer and publish in such manner as it thinks appropriate a report on its activities under this Act in that year; and the Chancellor of the Exchequer shall lay copies of every such report before Parliament.
- (4) Neither the Bank nor any person who is a member of its Court of Directors or who is, or is acting as, an officer or servant of the Bank shall be liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of the functions of the Bank under this Act unless it is shown that the act or omission was in bad faith.

2 The Board of Banking Supervision.

- (1) As soon as practicable after the coming into force of this section the Bank shall establish a committee to be known as the Board of Banking Supervision.
- (2) The Board shall consist of—
 - (a) three ex officio members, namely, the Governor of the Bank for the time being, who shall be the chairman of the Board, the Deputy Governor of the Bank for the time being and the executive director of the Bank for the time being responsible for the supervision of institutions authorised under this Act; and
 - (b) six independent members, that is to say, members appointed jointly by the Chancellor of the Exchequer and the Governor, being persons having no executive responsibility in the Bank.
- (3) It shall be the duty of the independent members to give such advice as they think fit to the ex officio members—
 - (a) on the exercise by the Bank of its functions under this Act, either generally or in any particular respect or in relation to a particular institution or institutions; and
 - (b) on any matter relating to or arising out of the exercise of those functions.
- (4) The Bank shall make regular reports to the Board on matters which the Bank considers relevant to the discharge by the independent members of their duty under subsection (3) above and shall provide them with such other information as they may reasonably require.
- (5) The ex officio members shall give written notice to the Chancellor of the Exchequer in any case in which it is decided that the advice of the independent members should not be followed and the independent members shall be entitled to place before the Chancellor the reasons for their advice.
- (6) The Board shall prepare an annual report on its activities and that report shall be included in the report made by the Bank under section 1(3) above for the financial year in question.
- (7) Section 1(4) above shall apply to an act or omission by a member of the Board in the discharge or purported discharge of his functions under this section as it applies to an act or omission of a person there mentioned in the discharge or purported discharge of the functions of the Bank.
- (8) Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect with respect to the Board.

for the time being authorised by the Bank under the following provisions of this Part of this Act.

- (2) Any person who contravenes this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both.
- (3) The fact that a deposit has been taken in contravention of this section shall not affect any civil liability arising in respect of the deposit or the money deposited.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C3 S. 3 restricted (1.1.1993) by S.I. 1992/3218, reg. 5\(1\)\(a\).

4 Exempted persons and exempted transactions.

- (1) Section 3 above shall not apply to the acceptance of a deposit by the Bank or by a person for the time being specified in Schedule 2 to this Act.
- (2) The exemption of a person specified in that Schedule shall be subject to any restriction there specified in the case of that person.
- (3) The Treasury may after consultation with the Bank by order amend that Schedule—
 - (a) by adding any person or relaxing any restriction; or
 - (b) by removing any person for the time being specified in it or imposing or extending any restriction.
- (4) Section 3 above shall not apply to any transaction prescribed for the purposes of this subsection by regulations made by the Treasury.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (4) above may prescribe transactions by reference to any factors appearing to the Treasury to be appropriate and, in particular, by reference to all or any of the following—
 - (a) the amount of the deposit;
 - (b) the total liability of the person accepting the deposit to his depositors or to any other creditors;
 - (c) the circumstances in which or the purpose for which the deposit is made;
 - (d) the identity of the person by whom the deposit is made or accepted, including his membership of a class whose membership is determined otherwise than by the Treasury;
 - (e) the number of, or the amount involved in, transactions of any particular description carried out by the person accepting the deposit or the frequency with which he carries out transactions of any particular description.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (4) above may make any exemption for which they provide subject to compliance with specified conditions or requirements.
- (7) Any order under subsection (3)(a) above and any regulations under subsection (4) above shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament, and no order shall be made under subsection (3)(b) above unless a draft of it has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

5 Meaning of “deposit”.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, in this Act “deposit” means a sum of money paid on terms—
- (a) under which it will be repaid, with or without interest or a premium, and either on demand or at a time or in circumstances agreed by or on behalf of the person making the payment and the person receiving it; and
 - (b) which are not referable to the provision of property or services or the giving of security;
- and references in this Act to money deposited and to the making of a deposit shall be construed accordingly.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) above, money is paid on terms which are referable to the provision of property or services or to the giving of security if, and only if—
- (a) it is paid by way of advance or part payment under a contract for the sale, hire or other provision of property or services, and is repayable only in the event that the property or services is not or are not in fact sold, hired or otherwise provided;
 - (b) it is paid by way of security for the performance of a contract or by way of security in respect of loss which may result from the non-performance of a contract; or
 - (c) without prejudice to paragraph (b) above, it is paid by way of security for the delivery up or return of any property, whether in a particular state of repair or otherwise.
- (3) Except so far as any provision of this Act otherwise provides, in this Act “deposit” does not include—
- (a) a sum paid by the Bank or an authorised institution;
 - (b) a sum paid by a person for the time being specified in Schedule 2 to this Act;
 - (c) a sum paid by a person, other than a person within paragraph (a) or (b) above, in the course of carrying on a business consisting wholly or mainly of lending money;
 - (d) a sum which is paid by one company to another at a time when one is a subsidiary of the other or both are subsidiaries of another company or the same individual is a majority or principal shareholder controller of both of them; or
 - (e) a sum which is paid by a person who, at the time when it is paid, is a close relative of the person receiving it or who is, or is a close relative of, a director, controller or manager of that person.
- (4) In the application of paragraph (e) of subsection (3) above to a sum paid by a partnership that paragraph shall have effect as if for the reference to the person paying the sum there were substituted a reference to each of the partners.
- (5) In subsection (3)(e) above “close relative”, in relation to any person, means—
- (a) his spouse;
 - (b) his children and step-children, his parents and step-parents, his brothers and sisters and step-brothers and step-sisters; and
 - (c) the spouse of any person within paragraph (b) above.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C4 S. 5 modified (31.07.1991) by S.I. 1991/1776, art. 2(1)(2)
C5 S. 5 amended (1.1.1993) by S.I. 1992/3218, reg. 47, Sch. 8 para.4.

6 Meaning of “deposit-taking business”.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a business is a deposit-taking business for the purposes of this Act if—
 - (a) in the course of the business money received by way of deposit is lent to others; or
 - (b) any other activity of the business is financed, wholly or to any material extent, out of the capital of or the interest on money received by way of deposit.
- (2) Notwithstanding that paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) above applies to a business, it is not a deposit-taking business for the purposes of this Act if—
 - (a) the person carrying it on does not hold himself out as accepting deposits on a day to day basis; and
 - (b) any deposits which are accepted are accepted only on particular occasions, whether or not involving the issue of debentures or other securities.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) above all the activities which a person carries on by way of business shall be regarded as a single business carried on by him.
- (4) In determining for the purposes of subsection (2)(b) above whether deposits are accepted only on particular occasions regard shall be had to the frequency of those occasions and to any characteristics distinguishing them from each other.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (2) above there shall be disregarded any deposit in respect of the acceptance of which the person in question is exempt from the prohibition in section 3 above and any money received by way of deposit which is not used in the manner described in subsection (1) above.

7 Power to amend definitions.

- (1) The Treasury may after consultation with the Bank by order amend the meaning of deposit or deposit-taking business for the purposes of all or any provisions of this Act.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred by subsection (1) above, an order under that subsection amending the meaning of deposit-taking business may provide for taking into account as activities of an institution the activities of any person who is connected with it in such manner as is specified in the order.
- (3) Any order under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (4) An order under this section may contain such transitional provisions as the Treasury think necessary or expedient and may exclude or modify the effect of the order on any other enactment which is expressed to have effect in relation to a deposit or a deposit-taking business within the meaning of this Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

Authorisations

8 Applications for authorisation.

- (1) Any institution may make an application for authorisation to the Bank [^{F1}other than—
 - (a) a credit institution incorporated in or formed under the law of any part of the United Kingdom whose principal place of business is outside the United Kingdom; and
 - (b) a credit institution incorporated in or formed under the law of another member State.]
- (2) Any such application—
 - (a) shall be made in such manner as the Bank may direct; and
 - (b) shall be accompanied by—
 - (i) a statement setting out the nature and scale of the deposit-taking business which the applicant intends to carry on, any plans of the applicant for the future development of that business and particulars of the applicant's arrangements for the management of that business; and
 - (ii) such other information or documents as the Bank may reasonably require for the purpose of determining the application.
- (3) At any time after receiving an application and before determining it the Bank may by written notice require the applicant or any person who is or is to be a director, controller or manager of the applicant to provide additional information or documents.
- (4) The directions and requirements given or imposed under subsections (2) and (3) above may differ as between different applications.
- (5) Any information or statement to be provided to the Bank under this section shall be in such form as the Bank may specify; and the Bank may by written notice require the applicant or any such person as is mentioned in subsection (3) above to provide a report by an accountant or other qualified person approved by the Bank on such aspects of that information as may be specified by the Bank.
- (6) An application may be withdrawn by written notice to the Bank at any time before it is granted or refused.

9 Grant and refusal of authorisation.

- (1) The Bank may, on an application duly made in accordance with section 8 above and after being provided with all such information, documents and reports as it may require under that section, grant or refuse the application.
- (2) The Bank shall not grant an application unless satisfied that the criteria specified in Schedule 3 to this Act are fulfilled with respect to the applicant.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (3) In the case of an application by an applicant whose principal place of business is in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom the Bank may regard itself as satisfied that the criteria specified in paragraphs 1, 4 and 5 of that Schedule are fulfilled if—
 - (a) the relevant supervisory authority in that country or territory informs the Bank that it is satisfied with respect to the prudent management and overall financial soundness of the applicant; and
 - (b) the Bank is satisfied as to the nature and scope of the supervision exercised by that authority.
- (4) In determining whether to grant or refuse an application the Bank may take into account any matters relating—
 - (a) to any person who is or will be employed by or associated with the applicant for the purposes of the applicant’s deposit-taking business; and
 - (b) if the applicant is a body corporate, to any other body corporate in the same group or to any director or controller of any such other body.
- (5) No authorisation shall be granted to a partnership or unincorporated association if the whole of the assets available to it are owned by a single individual.
- (6) An authorisation granted to a partnership shall be granted in the partnership name and, without prejudice to sections 11 and 12 below, shall not be affected by any change in the partners.
- [^{F2}(7) Before granting an authorisation to a credit institution incorporated in or formed under the law of any part of the United Kingdom which is—
 - (a) a subsidiary undertaking;
 - (b) a subsidiary undertaking of the parent undertaking; or
 - (c) controlled by the parent controller,of a credit institution which is for the time being authorised to act as such an institution by the relevant supervisory authority in another member State, the Bank shall consult that authority.]

10 Notice of grant or refusal.

- (1) Where the Bank grants an application for authorisation it shall give written notice of that fact to the applicant.
- (2) Where the Bank proposes to refuse an application for authorisation it shall give the applicant written notice of its intention to do so, stating the grounds on which it proposes to act and giving particulars of the applicant’s rights under subsection (4) below.
- (3) Where the ground or a ground for the proposed refusal is that the Bank is not satisfied that the criterion in paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 to this Act is fulfilled in the case of any such person as is there mentioned, the Bank shall give that person a copy of the notice mentioned in subsection (2) above, together with a statement of his rights under subsection (4) below.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (4) An applicant who is given a notice under subsection (2) above and a person who is given a copy of it under subsection (3) above may within such period (not being less than twenty-eight days) as is specified in the notice make written representations to the Bank; and where such representations are made the Bank shall take them into account before reaching a decision on the application.
- (5) Where the Bank refuses an application it shall give written notice of that fact to the applicant and to any such person as is mentioned in subsection (3) above, stating the reasons for the refusal and [F³(except in the case of a refusal in pursuance of a direction under section 26A below).] giving particulars of the rights conferred by section 27 below.
- (6) Any notice under subsection (5) above shall be given before the end of the period of six months beginning with the day on which the application was received by the Bank or, where the Bank has under section 8 above required additional information or documents in connection with the application, before the end of whichever of the following first expires—
- (a) the period of six months beginning with the day on which the additional information or documents are provided;
 - (b) the period of twelve months beginning with the day on which the application was received.
- (7) The Bank may omit from the copy given to a person under subsection (3) above and from a notice given to him under subsection (5) above any matter which does not relate to him.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (a) it appears to the Bank that the institution's principal place of business is or may be outside the United Kingdom;
 - (b) it appears to the Bank that the institution has carried on in the United Kingdom or elsewhere a listed activity (other than the acceptance of deposits from the public) without having given prior notice to the Bank of its intention to do so;
 - (c) the Bank is informed by The Securities and Investments Board, or a connected UK authority having regulatory functions in relation to the provision of financial services, that the institution—
 - (i) has contravened any provision of the Financial Services Act 1986 or any rules or regulations made under it;
 - (ii) in purported compliance with any such provision, has furnished that Board or authority with false, misleading or inaccurate information;
 - (iii) has contravened any prohibition or requirement imposed under that Act; or
 - (iv) has failed to comply with any statement of principle issued under that Act;
 - (d) the Bank is informed by the Director General of Fair Trading that the institution, or any of the institution's employees, agents or associates (whether past or present) or, where the institution is a body corporate, any controller of the institution or an associate of any such controller, has done any of the things specified in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 25(2) of the Consumer Credit Act 1974;
 - (e) it appears to the Bank that the institution has failed to comply with any obligation imposed on it by the Banking Coordination (Second Council Directive) Regulations 1992; or
 - (f) the Bank is informed by a supervisory authority in another member State that the institution has failed to comply with any obligation imposed on it by or under any rule of law in force in that State for purposes connected with the implementation of the Second Council Directive.]
- (2) The Bank may revoke the authorisation of an institution if it appears to the Bank that the institution—
- (a) has not accepted a deposit in the United Kingdom in the course of carrying on a deposit-taking business (whether there or elsewhere) within the period of twelve months beginning with the day on which it was authorised; or
 - (b) having accepted a deposit or deposits as aforesaid, has subsequently not done so for any period of more than six months.
- (3) If in the case of an authorised institution whose principal place of business is in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom it appears to the Bank that the relevant supervisory authority in that country or territory has withdrawn from the institution an authorisation corresponding to that conferred by the Bank under this Part of this Act, the Bank may revoke the authorisation and shall do so if that country or territory is a member State.
- [^{F5}(3A) In relation to a credit institution incorporated in or formed under the law of any part of the United Kingdom, subsection (3) above shall have effect as if the words “ and shall do so if that country or territory is a member State ” were omitted.]
- (4) In the case of an authorised institution which is an authorised person under the ^{M1}Financial Services Act 1986 or holds a consumer credit licence under the ^{M2}Consumer Credit Act 1974 the Bank may revoke the authorisation if it appears to the Bank that the institution has ceased to be an authorised person under the said Act of 1986 (otherwise than at the request or with the consent of the institution) or that the licence under the said Act of 1974 has been revoked.

- (5) The Treasury may after consultation with the Bank by order make provision corresponding to subsection (4) above in relation to any authorisation or licence granted under such other enactments as may appear to the Treasury to be appropriate; but any such order shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (6) If in the case of an authorised institution wherever incorporated it appears to the Bank that—
- (a) a winding-up order has been made against it in the United Kingdom; or
 - (b) a resolution for its voluntary winding up in the United Kingdom has been passed, the Bank shall revoke the authorisation; and the Bank may revoke the authorisation of any authorised institution incorporated outside the United Kingdom if it appears to the Bank that an event has occurred in respect of it outside the United Kingdom which corresponds as nearly as may be to either of those mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) above.

- (7) The Bank may revoke the authorisation of an authorised institution incorporated in the United Kingdom if it appears to the Bank that—
- (a) a composition or arrangement with creditors has been made in respect of the institution;
 - (b) a receiver or manager of the institution's undertaking has been appointed; or
 - (c) possession has been taken, by or on behalf of the holders of any debenture secured by a charge, of any property of the institution comprised in or subject to the charge; or, in the case of an authorised institution incorporated elsewhere, that an event has occurred in respect of it which corresponds as nearly as may be to any of those mentioned in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) above.

- (8) The Bank may revoke the authorisation of an authorised institution if it appears to the Bank that an administration order has been made in relation to the institution under section 8 of the ^{M3}Insolvency Act 1986 [^{F6}or under Article 21 of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989].
- (9) The Bank shall revoke the authorisation of an unincorporated institution if it appears to the Bank that a winding-up order has been made against it in the United Kingdom and may revoke the authorisation of such an institution if it appears to the Bank that—
- (a) the institution has been dissolved; or
 - (b) a bankruptcy order, an award of sequestration, an order of adjudication of bankruptcy or a composition or arrangement with creditors has been made or a trust deed for creditors granted in respect of that institution or any of its members; or
 - (c) any event corresponding as nearly as may be to any of those mentioned in paragraph (b) above or in subsection (6)(a) or (b) or (7)(b) or (c) above has occurred in respect of that institution or any of its members; or
 - (d) the whole of the assets available to the institution have passed into the ownership of a single individual.

12 Restriction of authorisation.

- (1) Where it appears to the Bank—
- that there are grounds on which the Bank’s power to revoke an institution’s authorisation are exercisable; but
 - that the circumstances are not such as to justify revocation, the Bank may restrict the authorisation instead of revoking it.
- (2) An authorisation may be restricted—
- by imposing such limit on its duration as the Bank thinks fit;
 - by imposing such conditions as it thinks desirable for the protection of the institution’s depositors or potential depositors; or
 - by the imposition both of such a limit and of such conditions.
- (3) A limit on the duration of an authorisation shall not be such as to allow the authorisation to continue in force for more than three years from the date on which it is imposed; and such a limit may, in particular, be imposed in a case in which the Bank considers that an institution should be allowed time to repay its depositors in an orderly manner.
- (4) The conditions imposed under this section may in particular—
- require the institution to take certain steps or to refrain from adopting or pursuing a particular course of action or to restrict the scope of its business in a particular way;
 - impose limitations on the acceptance of deposits, the granting of credit or the making of investments;
 - prohibit the institution from soliciting deposits, either generally or from persons who are not already depositors;
 - prohibit it from entering into any other transaction or class of transactions;
 - require the removal of any director, controller or manager;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (f) specify requirements to be fulfilled otherwise than by action taken by the institution.
- (5) Any condition imposed under this section may be varied or withdrawn by the Bank; and any limit imposed under this section on the duration of an authorisation may be varied but not so as to allow the authorisation to continue in force for longer than the period mentioned in subsection (3) above from the date on which the limit was first imposed.
- (6) An institution which fails to comply with any requirement or contravenes any prohibition imposed on it by a condition under this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable—
- (a) on conviction on indictment, to a fine;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum.
- (7) The fact that a condition imposed under this section has not been complied with (whether or not constituting an offence under subsection (6) above) shall be a ground for the revocation of the authorisation in question but shall not invalidate any transaction.
- (8) An institution whose authorisation is restricted by the imposition of a limit on its duration may apply under section 8 above for a new authorisation and, if that authorisation is granted, the restricted authorisation shall cease to have effect.

[^{F8}12A Revocation or restriction on information from supervisory authority.

- (1) This section applies where, in the case of an authorised institution which is a credit institution incorporated in or formed under the law of any part of the United Kingdom, the Bank is informed by a supervisory authority in another member State that the institution is failing to comply with an obligation imposed by or under any rule of law in force in that State for purposes connected with the implementation of the Second Council Directive.
- (2) The Bank shall as soon as practicable send a copy of the information received by it to every other authority which it knows is a connected UK authority.
- (3) The Bank shall also—
- (a) consider whether to exercise its powers under section 11 or 12 above; and
 - (b) notify its decision, and any action which it has taken or intends to take, to the supervisory authority and to every other authority which it knows is a connected UK authority.]

13 Notice of revocation or restriction.

- (1) Subject to section 14 below where the Bank proposes—
- (a) to revoke an authorisation; or
 - (b) to restrict an authorisation; or
 - (c) to vary the restrictions imposed on an authorisation otherwise than with the agreement of the institution concerned,
- the Bank shall give to the institution concerned written notice of its intention to do so.

- (2) If the proposed action is within paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (1) above the notice under that subsection shall specify the proposed restrictions or, as the case may be, the proposed variation.

- (3) A notice under subsection (1) above shall state the grounds on which the Bank proposes to act and give particulars of the institution's rights under subsection (5) below.

[^{F9}(3A) Where the Bank gives a notice under subsection (1) above to a credit institution incorporated in or formed under the law of any part of the United Kingdom, it shall give a copy of that notice to every other authority which the Bank knows is—

- (a) a connected UK authority; or
- (b) a supervisory authority in another member State in which the institution is carrying on a listed activity.]

- (4) Where—

- (a) the ground or a ground for a proposed revocation or for a proposal to impose or vary a restriction is that it appears to the Bank that the criterion in paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 to this Act is not or has not been fulfilled, or may not be or may not have been fulfilled, in the case of any person; or
- (b) a proposed restriction consists of or includes a condition requiring the removal of any person as director, controller or manager, the Bank shall give that person a copy of the notice mentioned in subsection (1) above, together with a statement of his rights under subsection (5) below.

- (5) An institution which is given a notice under subsection (1) above and a person who is given a copy of it under subsection (4) above may within the period of fourteen days beginning with the day on which the notice was given make representations to the Bank.

- (6) After giving a notice under subsection (1) above and taking into account any representations made under subsection (5) above the Bank shall decide whether—

- (a) to proceed with the action proposed in the notice;
- (b) to take no further action;
- (c) if the proposed action was to revoke the institution's authorisation, to restrict its authorisation instead;
- (d) if the proposed action was to restrict the institution's authorisation or to vary the restrictions on an authorisation, to restrict it or to vary the restrictions in a different manner.

- (7) The Bank shall give the institution and any such person as is mentioned in subsection (4) above written notice of its decision and, except where the decision is to take no further action, the notice shall state the reasons for the decision and give particulars of the rights conferred by subsection (9) and section 27 below.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (8) A notice under subsection (7) above of a decision to revoke or restrict an authorisation or to vary the restrictions on an authorisation shall, subject to section 27(4) below, have the effect of revoking the authorisation or, as the case may be, restricting the authorisation or varying the restrictions in the manner specified in the notice.
- (9) Where the decision notified under subsection (7) above is to restrict the authorisation or to vary the restrictions on an authorisation otherwise than as stated in the notice given under subsection (1) above the institution may within the period of seven days beginning with the day on which the notice was given under subsection (7) above make written representations to the Bank with respect to the restrictions and the Bank may, after taking those representations into account, alter the restrictions.
- (10) A notice under subsection (7) above shall be given within the period of twenty-eight days beginning with the day on which the notice under subsection (1) above was given; and if no notice under subsection (7) is given within that period the Bank shall be treated as having at the end of that period given a notice under that subsection to the effect that no further action is to be taken.
- (11) Where the Bank varies a restriction on an institution's authorisation with its agreement or withdraws a restriction consisting of a condition the variation or withdrawal shall be effected by written notice to the institution.
- (12) The Bank may omit from the copy given to a person under subsection (4) above and from a notice given to him under subsection (7) above any matter which does not relate to him.

14 Mandatory revocation and restriction in cases of urgency.

- (1) No notice need be given under section 13 above in respect of—
- (a) the revocation of an institution's authorisation in any case in which revocation is mandatory under section 11 above; or
 - (b) the imposition or variation of a restriction on an institution's authorisation in any case in which the Bank considers that the restriction should be imposed or varied as a matter of urgency.
- (2) In any such case the Bank may by written notice to the institution revoke the authorisation or impose or vary the restriction.
- (3) Any such notice shall state the reasons for which the Bank has acted and, in the case of a notice imposing or varying a restriction, particulars of the rights conferred by subsection (5) and by section 27 below.
- (4) Subsection (4) of section 13 above shall apply to a notice under subsection (2) above imposing or varying a restriction as it applies to a notice under subsection (1) of that section in respect of a proposal to impose or vary a restriction; but the Bank may omit from a copy given to a person by virtue of this subsection any matter which does not relate to him.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (5) An institution to which a notice is given under this section of the imposition or variation of a restriction and a person who is given a copy of it by virtue of subsection (4) above may within the period of fourteen days beginning with the day on which the notice was given make representations to the Bank.
- (6) After giving a notice under subsection (2) above imposing or varying a restriction and taking into account any representations made in accordance with subsection (5) above the Bank shall decide whether—
 - (a) to confirm or rescind its original decision; or
 - (b) to impose a different restriction or to vary the restriction in a different manner.
- (7) The Bank shall within the period of twenty-eight days beginning with the day on which the notice was given under subsection (2) above give the institution concerned written notice of its decision under subsection (6) above and, except where the decision is to rescind the original decision, the notice shall state the reasons for the decision.
- (8) Where the notice under subsection (7) above is of a decision to take the action specified in subsection (6) (b) above the notice under subsection (7) shall have the effect of imposing the restriction or making the variation specified in the notice and with effect from the date on which it is given.
- (9) Where a notice of the proposed revocation of an institution's authorisation under section 13 above is followed by a notice revoking its authorisation under this section the latter notice shall have the effect of terminating any right to make representations in respect of the proposed revocation and any pending appeal proceedings in respect of a decision implementing that proposal.

15 Surrender of authorisation.

- (1) An authorised institution may surrender its authorisation by written notice to the Bank.
- (2) A surrender shall take effect on the giving of the notice or, if a later date is specified in it, on that date; and where a later date is specified in the notice the institution may by a further written notice to the Bank substitute an earlier date, not being earlier than that on which the first notice was given.
- (3) The surrender of an authorisation shall be irrevocable unless it is expressed to take effect on a later date and before that date the Bank by notice in writing to the institution allows it to be withdrawn.
- [^{F10}(4) Where the Bank receives a notice of surrender under subsection (1) above from a credit institution incorporated in or formed under the law of any part of the United Kingdom, it shall give a copy of that notice to every other authority which the Bank knows is—
 - (a) a connected UK authority; or
 - (b) a supervisory authority in another member State in which the institution is carrying on a listed activity.]

Directions

19 Directions to institutions.

- (1) The Bank may give an institution directions under this section—
 - (a) when giving it notice that the Bank proposes to revoke its authorisation;
 - (b) at any time after such a notice has been given to the institution (whether before or after its authorisation is revoked);
 - (c) when giving the institution a notice of revocation under section 14(2) above by virtue of section 11(6)(b) above in the case of a members' voluntary winding up;
 - (d) at any time after the institution has served a notice surrendering its authorisation, whether with immediate effect or with effect from a later date specified in the notice;
 - (e) at or at any time after the expiry (otherwise than by virtue of section 12(8) above) of a restricted authorisation of the institution;
 - (f) at any time after a disqualification notice has been served on the institution under section 183 of the ^{M4}Financial Services Act 1986.
- (2) Directions under this section shall be such as appear to the Bank to be desirable in the interests of the institution's depositors or potential depositors, whether for the purpose of safeguarding its assets or otherwise, and may in particular—
 - (a) require the institution to take certain steps or to refrain from adopting or pursuing a particular course of action or to restrict the scope of its business in a particular way;
 - (b) impose limitations on the acceptance of deposits, the granting of credit or the making of investments;
 - (c) prohibit the institution from soliciting deposits either generally or from persons who are not already depositors;
 - (d) prohibit it from entering into any other transaction or class of transactions;
 - (e) require the removal of any director, controller or manager.
- (3) No direction shall be given by virtue of paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) above, and any direction given by virtue of either of those paragraphs shall cease to have effect, if the Bank gives the institution notice that it is not proposing to take any further action pursuant to the notice mentioned in that paragraph or if the Bank's decision to revoke the institution's authorisation is reversed on appeal.
- (4) No direction shall be given by virtue of paragraph (d) of subsection (1) above, and any direction given by virtue of that paragraph shall cease to have effect, if the Bank allows the institution to withdraw the surrender of its authorisation.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (5) No direction shall be given to an institution under this section after it has ceased to have any liability in respect of deposits for which it had a liability at a time when it was authorised; and any such direction which is in force with respect to an institution shall cease to have effect when the institution ceases to have any such liability.
- (6) An institution which fails to comply with any requirement or contravenes any prohibition imposed on it by a direction under this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to a fine;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum.
- (7) A contravention of a prohibition imposed under this section shall not invalidate any transaction.

20 Notification and confirmation of directions.

- (1) A direction under section 19 above shall be given by notice in writing and may be varied by a further direction; and a direction may be revoked by the Bank by a notice in writing to the institution concerned.
- (2) A direction under that section, except one varying a previous direction with the agreement of the institution concerned—
 - (a) shall state the reasons for which it is given and give particulars of the institution's rights under subsection (4) and section 27 below; and
 - (b) without prejudice to section 19(3), (4) and (5) above, shall cease to have effect at the end of the period of twenty-eight days beginning with the day in which it is given unless before the end of that period it is confirmed by a further written notice given by the Bank to the institution concerned.
- (3) Where a direction requires the removal of a person as director, controller or manager of an institution the Bank shall give that person a copy of the direction (together with a statement of his rights under subsection (4) below) and, if the direction is confirmed, a copy of the notice mentioned in subsection (2)(b) above.
- (4) An institution to which a direction is given which requires confirmation under subsection (2) above and a person who is given a copy of it under subsection (3) above may, within the period of fourteen days beginning with the day on which the direction is given, make written representations to the Bank; and the Bank shall take any such representations into account in deciding whether to confirm the direction.
- (5) The Bank may omit from the copies given to a person under subsection (3) above any matter which does not relate to him.

Objections to controllers

21 Notification of new or increased control.

- (1) [^{F11}No person shall become a minority, 10 per cent., 20 per cent., 33 per cent., majority or principle shareholder controller, a parent controller or an indirect controller of an authorised institution unless]—
 - (a) he has served on the Bank a written notice stating that he intends to become such a controller of the institution; and
 - (b) either the Bank has, before the end of the period of three months beginning with the date of service of that notice, notified him in writing that there is no objection to his becoming such a controller of the institution or that period has elapsed without the Bank having served on him under section 22 or 23 below a written notice of objection to his becoming such a controller of the institution.
- (2) Subsection (1) above applies also in relation to a person becoming a partner in an authorised institution which is a partnership formed under the law of any part of the United Kingdom.
- (3) A notice under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) above shall contain such information as the Bank may direct and the Bank may, after receiving such a notice from any person, by notice in writing require him to provide such additional information or documents as the Bank may reasonably require for deciding whether to serve a notice of objection.
- (4) Where additional information or documents are required from any person by a notice under subsection (3) above the time between the giving of the notice and the receipt of the information or documents shall be added to the period mentioned in subsection (1) (b) above.
- (5) A notice served by a person under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) above shall not be regarded as a compliance with that paragraph except as respects his becoming a controller of the institution in question within the period of one year beginning—
 - (a) in a case where the Bank has notified him that there is no objection to his becoming such a controller, with the date of that notification;
 - (b) in a case where the period mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection has elapsed without any such notification and without his having been served with a written notice of objection, with the expiration of that period;
 - (c) in a case in which he has been served with a notice of objection which has been quashed on appeal, with the date on which it is quashed.

- (b) that the interests of depositors and potential depositors of the institution would not be in any other manner threatened by that person becoming a controller of that description of the institution; and
 - (c) without prejudice to paragraphs (a) and (b) above, that, having regard to that person's likely influence on the institution as a controller of the description in question the criteria in Schedule 3 to this Act would continue to be fulfilled in the case of the institution or, if any of those criteria is not fulfilled, that that person is likely to undertake adequate remedial action.
- [^{F12}(1A) Before deciding whether or not to serve a notice of objection under this section in any case where—
- (a) the person concerned is, or is a parent controller of, a credit institution which is for the time being authorised to act as such an institution by the relevant supervisory authority in another member State; and
 - (b) the notice under section 21 above stated an intention to become a parent controller,
- the Bank shall consult that authority.]
- (2) Before serving a notice of objection under this section the Bank shall serve the person concerned with a preliminary written notice stating that the Bank is considering the service on that person of a notice of objection; and that notice—
 - (a) shall specify which of the matters mentioned in subsection (1) above the Bank is not satisfied about and, subject to subsection (5) below, the reasons for which it is not satisfied; and
 - (b) shall give particulars of the rights conferred by subsection (3) below.
 - (3) A person served with a notice under subsection (2) above may, within the period of one month beginning with the day on which the notice is served, make written representations to the Bank; and where such representations are made the Bank shall take them into account in deciding whether to serve a notice of objection.
 - (4) A notice of objection under this section shall—
 - (a) specify which of the matters mentioned in subsection (1) above the Bank is not satisfied about and, subject to subsection (5) below, the reasons for which it is not satisfied; and
 - (b) give particulars of the rights conferred by section 27 below.
 - (5) Subsections (2)(a) and (4)(a) above shall not require the Bank to specify any reason which would in its opinion involve the disclosure of confidential information the disclosure of which would be prejudicial to a third party.
 - (6) Where a person required to give a notice under section 21 above in relation to his becoming a controller of any description becomes a controller of that description without having given the notice the Bank may serve him with a notice of objection under this section at any time within three months after becoming aware of his having done so and may, for the purpose of deciding whether to serve him with such a notice, require him by notice in writing to provide such information or documents as the Bank may reasonably require.
 - (7) The period mentioned in section 21(1)(b) above (with any extension under subsection (4) of that section) and the period mentioned in subsection (6) above shall not expire, if it would otherwise do so, until fourteen days after the end of the period within which representations can be made under subsection (3) above.

representations to the Bank; and where such representations are made the Bank shall take them into account in deciding whether to serve a notice of objection.

- (4) A notice of objection under this section shall—
- (a) subject to subsection (5) below, specify the reasons for which it appears to the Bank that the person in question is not or is no longer a fit and proper person as mentioned in subsection (1) above; and
 - (b) give particulars of the rights conferred by section 27 below.
- (5) Subsections (2)(a) and (4)(a) above shall not require the Bank to specify any reason which would in its opinion involve the disclosure of confidential information the disclosure of which would be prejudicial to a third party.

25 Contraventions by controller.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, any person who contravenes section 21 above by—
- (a) failing to give the notice required by paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of that section; or
 - (b) becoming a controller of any description to which that section applies before the end of the period mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection in a case where the Bank has not served him with a preliminary notice under section 22(2) above,
- shall be guilty of an offence.
- (2) A person shall not be guilty of an offence under subsection (1) above if he shows that he did not know of the acts or circumstances by virtue of which he became a controller of the relevant description; but where any person becomes a controller of any such description without such know-ledge and subsequently becomes aware of the fact that he has become such a controller he shall be guilty of an offence unless he gives the Bank written notice of the fact that he has become such a controller within fourteen days of becoming aware of that fact.
- (3) Any person who—
- (a) before the end of the period mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 21 above becomes a controller of any description to which that subsection applies after being served with a preliminary notice under section 22(2) above;
 - (b) contravenes section 21 above by becoming a controller of any description after being served with a notice of objection to his becoming a controller of that description; or
 - (c) having become a controller of any description in contravention of that section (whether before or after being served with such a notice of objection) continues to be such a controller after such a notice has been served on him,
- shall be guilty of an offence.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) or (2) above shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the fifth level on the standard scale.
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (3) above shall be liable—
- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum and, in respect of an offence under paragraph (c) of that subsection, to a fine not

26 Restrictions on and sale of shares.

- (1) The powers conferred by this section shall be exercisable where a person—
 - (a) has contravened section 21 above by becoming a shareholder controller of any description after being served with a notice of objection to his becoming a controller of that description; or
 - (b) having become a shareholder controller of any description in contravention of that section continues to be one after such a notice has been served on him; or
 - (c) continues to be a shareholder controller of any description after being served under section 24 above with a notice of objection to his being a controller of that description.
- (2) The Bank may by notice in writing served on the person concerned direct that any specified shares to which this section applies shall, until further notice, be subject to one or more of the following restrictions—
 - (a) any transfer of, or agreement to transfer, those shares or, in the case of unissued shares, any transfer of or agreement to transfer the right to be issued with them shall be void;
 - (b) no voting rights shall be exercisable in respect of the shares;
 - (c) no further shares shall be issued in right of them or in pursuance of any offer made to their holder;
 - (d) except in a liquidation, no payment shall be made of any sums due from the institution on the shares, whether in respect of capital or otherwise.
- (3) The court may, on the application of the Bank, order the sale of any specified shares to which this section applies and, if they are for the time being subject to any restrictions under subsection (2) above, that they shall cease to be subject to those restrictions.
- (4) No order shall be made under subsection (3) above in a case where the notice of objection was served under section 22 or 24 above—
 - (a) until the end of the period within which an appeal can be brought against the notice of objection; and
 - (b) if such an appeal is brought, until it has been determined or withdrawn.
- (5) Where an order has been made under subsection (3) above the court may, on the application of the Bank, make such further order relating to the sale or transfer of the shares as it thinks fit.
- (6) Where shares are sold in pursuance of an order under this section the proceeds of sale, less the costs of the sale, shall be paid into court for the benefit of the persons beneficially interested in them; and any such person may apply to the court for the whole or part of the proceeds to be paid to him.
- (7) This section applies—
 - (a) to all the shares in the institution of which the person in question is a controller of the relevant description which are held by him or any associate of his and were not so held immediately before he became such a controller of the institution; and
 - (b) where the person in question became a controller of the relevant description of an institution as a result of the acquisition by him or any associate of his of shares in another company, to all the shares in that company which are held by him or any associate of his and were not so held before he became such a controller of that institution.

- (8) A copy of the notice served on the person concerned under subsection (2) above shall be served on the institution or company to whose shares it relates and, if it relates to shares held by an associate of that person, on that associate.
- (9) The jurisdiction conferred by this section shall be exercisable by the High Court and the Court of Session.

Appeals

27 Rights of appeal.

- (1) An institution which is aggrieved by a decision of the Bank—
- (a) to refuse an application by the institution for authorisation [^{F14}otherwise than in a case in which the refusal is in pursuance of a direction under section 26A above] ;
 - (b) to revoke its authorisation otherwise than in a case in which revocation is mandatory under section 11 above;
 - (c) to restrict its authorisation, to restrict it in a particular manner or to vary any restrictions of its authorisation; or
 - (d) to give it a direction under section 19 above or to vary a direction given to it under that section, may appeal against the decision to a tribunal constituted in accordance with section 28 below.

- (2) Where—
- (a) the ground or a ground for a decision within paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1) above is that mentioned in section 10(3) or 13(4)(a) above; or
 - (b) the effect of a decision within paragraph (c) or (d) of that subsection is to require the removal of a person as director, controller or manager of an institution, the person to whom the ground relates or whose removal is required may appeal to a tribunal constituted as aforesaid against the finding that there is such a ground for the decision or, as the case may be, against the decision to require his removal.

- (3) Any person on whom a notice of objection is served under section 22 or 24 above may appeal to a tribunal constituted as aforesaid against the decision of the Bank to serve the notice; but this subsection does not apply to a person in any case in which he has failed to give a notice or become or continued to be a controller in circumstances in which his doing so constitutes an offence under section 25(1), (2) or (3) above.
- (4) The revocation of an institution's authorisation pursuant to a decision against which there is a right of appeal under this section shall not have effect—
- (a) until the end of the period within which an appeal can be brought; and
 - (b) if such an appeal is brought, until it is determined or withdrawn.
- (5) The Tribunal may suspend the operation of a restriction or direction or a variation of a restriction or direction pending the determination of an appeal in respect of the decision imposing or varying the restriction or giving or varying the direction.

29 Determination of appeals.

- (1) On an appeal under section 27(1) or (3) above the question for the determination of the tribunal shall be whether, for the reasons adduced by the appellant, the decision was unlawful or not justified by the evidence on which it was based.
- (2) On any such appeal the tribunal may confirm or reverse the decision which is the subject of the appeal but shall not have power to vary it except that—
 - (a) where the decision was to revoke an authorisation the tribunal may direct the Bank to restrict it instead;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) where the decision was to impose or vary any restrictions the tribunal may direct the Bank to impose different restrictions or to vary them in a different way; or
 - (c) where the decision was to give or vary a direction the tribunal may direct the Bank to give a different direction or to vary it in a different way.
- (3) Where the tribunal gives a direction to the Bank under subsection (2)(a), (b) or (c) above it shall be for the Bank to decide what restrictions should be imposed or how they should be varied or, as the case may be, what direction should be given or how a direction should be varied; and—
- (a) the Bank shall by notice in writing to the institution concerned impose the restrictions, give the direction or make the variation on which it has decided;
 - (b) the institution may appeal to the tribunal against the Bank's decision,
- and on any such appeal the tribunal may confirm the decision or give a further direction under paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (2) above and, if it gives such a further direction, this subsection shall continue to apply until the Bank's decision is confirmed by the tribunal or accepted by the institution.
- (4) Where the tribunal reverses a decision of the Bank to refuse an application for authorisation it shall direct the Bank to grant it.
- (5) On an appeal under section 27(2)(a) above the question for the determination of the tribunal shall be whether, for the reasons adduced by the appellant, the finding of the Bank was not justified by the evidence on which it was based; and on an appeal under section 27(2)(b) above the question for the determination of the tribunal shall be whether, for the reasons adduced by the appellant, the decision requiring the appellant's removal was unlawful or not justified by the evidence on which it was based.
- (6) A decision by the tribunal on an appeal under section 27(2)(a) above that a finding in respect of the appellant was not justified shall not affect any refusal, revocation or restriction wholly or partly based on that finding; but on an appeal under section 27(2)(b) above the tribunal may confirm or reverse the decision to require the removal of the appellant.
- (7) Notice of a tribunal's determination, together with a statement of its reasons, shall be given to the appellant and to the Bank; and, unless the tribunal otherwise directs, the determination shall come into operation when the notice is given to the appellant and to the Bank.
- (8) Notice of a tribunal's determination of an appeal under section 27(2) above shall also be given to the institution concerned and, where the determination is to reverse a decision to require the removal of the appellant as director, controller or manager of an institution, the determination shall not come into operation until notice of the determination has been given to that institution.

31 Further appeals on points of law.

- (1) An institution or other person who has appealed to a tribunal may appeal to the court on any question of law arising from the decision of the appeal by the tribunal and an appeal on any such question shall also lie at the instance of the Bank; and if the court is of opinion that the decision was erroneous in point of law, it shall remit the matter to the tribunal for re-hearing and determination by it.
- (2) In subsection (1) above “the court” means the High Court, the Court of Session or the High Court in Northern Ireland according to whether—
 - (a) if the institution concerned is a company registered in the United Kingdom, it is registered in England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland;
 - (b) in the case of any other institution, its principal or prospective principal place of business in the United Kingdom is situated in England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland.
- (3) No appeal to the Court of Appeal or to the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland shall be brought from a decision under subsection (1) above except with the leave of that court or of the court or judge from whose decision the appeal is brought.
- (4) An appeal shall lie, with the leave of the Court of Session or the House of Lords, from any decision of the Court of Session under this section, and such leave may be given on such terms as to costs, expenses or otherwise as the Court of Session or the House of Lords may determine.

Invitations to make deposits

32 Advertisement regulations.

- (1) The Treasury may after consultation with the Bank and the Building Societies Commission make regulations for regulating the issue, form and content of deposit advertisements.
- (2) Regulations under this section may make different provision for different cases and, without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, may in particular—
 - (a) prohibit the issue of advertisements of any description (whether by reference to their contents, to the persons by whom they are issued or otherwise);

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) make provision with respect to matters which must be, as well as matters which may not be, included in advertisements;
 - (c) provide for exemptions from any prohibition or requirement imposed by the regulations, including exemptions by reference to a person's membership of a class whose membership is determined otherwise than by the Treasury.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, any person who issues or causes to be issued in the United Kingdom an advertisement the issue of which is prohibited by regulations under this section or which does not comply with any requirements imposed by those regulations shall be guilty of an offence and liable—
- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both.
- (4) A person whose business it is to publish or arrange for the publication of advertisements shall not be guilty of an offence under this section if he proves that he received the advertisement for publication in the ordinary course of his business, that the matters contained in the advertisement were not (wholly or in part) devised or selected by him or by any person under his direction or control and that he did not know and had no reason for believing that publication of the advertisement would constitute an offence.
- (5) In this section “a deposit advertisement” means any advertisement containing—
- (a) an invitation to make a deposit; or
 - (b) information which is intended or might reasonably be presumed to be intended to lead directly or indirectly to the making of a deposit;
- and for the purposes of this section an advertisement includes any means of bringing such an invitation or such information to the notice of the person or persons to whom it is addressed and references to the issue of an advertisement shall be construed accordingly.
- (6) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) an advertisement issued or caused to be issued by any person by way of display or exhibition in a public place shall be treated as issued or caused to be issued by him on every day on which he causes or permits it to be displayed or exhibited;
 - (b) an advertisement inviting deposits with a person specified in the advertisement shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, to have been issued to the order of that person.
- (7) For the purposes of this section an advertisement issued outside the United Kingdom shall be treated as issued in the United Kingdom if it is directed to persons in the United Kingdom or is made available to them otherwise than in a newspaper, journal, magazine or other periodical publication published and circulating principally outside the United Kingdom or in a sound or television broadcast transmitted principally for reception outside the United Kingdom.
- (8) Regulations under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

33 Advertisement directions.

- (1) If the Bank considers that any deposit advertisement issued or proposed to be issued by or on behalf of an authorised institution is misleading, the Bank may by notice in writing give the institution a direction under this section.
- (2) A direction under this section may contain all or any of the following prohibitions or requirements—
 - (a) a prohibition on the issue of advertisements of a specified kind;
 - (b) a requirement that advertisements of a particular description shall be modified in a specified manner;
 - (c) a prohibition on the issue of any advertisements which are, wholly or substantially, repetitions of an advertisement which has been issued and which is identified in the direction;
 - (d) a requirement to take all practical steps to withdraw from display in any place any advertisements or any advertisements of a particular description specified in the direction.
- (3) Not less than seven days before giving a direction under this section the Bank shall give the institution concerned notice in writing of its intention to give the direction stating the reasons for the proposed direction and giving particulars of the rights conferred by subsection (4) below.
- (4) An institution to which a notice is given under subsection (3) above may within the period of seven days beginning with the day on which the notice was given make written representations to the Bank; and the Bank shall take any such representation into account in deciding whether to give the direction.
- (5) A direction under this section may be varied by a further direction; and a direction may be revoked by the Bank by a notice in writing to the institution concerned.
- (6) Any person who issues or causes to be issued an advertisement the issue of which is prohibited by a direction under this section or which does not comply with any requirements imposed by such a direction shall be guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both.
- (7) In this section “deposit advertisement” has the same meaning as in section 32 above and subsections (4) and (6) of that section shall apply also for the purposes of this section.

with a view to procuring the making of deposits.

- (2) Regulations under this section may make different provision for different cases and, without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, may in particular—
 - (a) prohibit the soliciting of deposits from, and the making of agreements with a view to the acceptance of deposits from, persons on whom unsolicited calls are made and prohibit the procuring of such persons to make deposits or to enter into such agreements;
 - (b) specify persons by whom or circumstances in which unsolicited calls may be made;
 - (c) require specified information to be disclosed to persons on whom unsolicited calls are made.
- (3) Any person who contravenes regulations made under this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both.
- (4) In this section “unsolicited call” means a personal visit or oral communication made without express invitation.
- (5) Regulations under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

35 Fraudulent inducement to make a deposit.

- (1) Any person who—
 - (a) makes a statement, promise or forecast which he knows to be misleading, false or deceptive, or dishonestly conceals any material facts; or
 - (b) recklessly makes (dishonestly or otherwise) a statement, promise or forecast which is misleading, false or deceptive,is guilty of an offence if he makes the statement, promise or forecast or conceals the facts for the purpose of inducing, or is reckless as to whether it may induce, another person (whether or not the person to whom the statement, promise or forecast is made or from whom the facts are concealed)—
 - (i) to make, or refrain from making, a deposit with him or any other person; or
 - (ii) to enter, or refrain from entering, into an agreement for the purpose of making such a deposit.
- (2) This section does not apply unless—
 - (a) the statement, promise or forecast is made in or from, or the facts are concealed in or from, the United Kingdom or arrangements are made in or from the United Kingdom for the statement, promise or forecast to be made or the facts to be concealed;
 - (b) the person on whom the inducement is intended to or may have effect is in the United Kingdom; or
 - (c) the deposit is or would be made, or the agreement is or would be entered into, in the United Kingdom.
- (3) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to a fine or to both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both.
- (4) For the purposes of this section the definition of deposit in section 5 above shall be treated as including any sum that would be otherwise excluded by subsection (3) of that section.

Information

36 Notification of change of director, controller or manager.

- (1) Subject to subsection (3) below, an authorised institution shall give written notice to the Bank of the fact that any person has become or ceased to be a director, controller or manager of the institution.
- (2) A notice required to be given under subsection (1) above shall be given before the end of the period of fourteen days beginning with the day on which the institution becomes aware of the relevant facts.
- (3) The Bank may by a notice in writing wholly or partly dispense from the obligation imposed by subsection (1) above any authorised institution whose principal place of business is outside the United Kingdom.
- (4) An institution which fails to give a notice required by this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the fifth level on the standard scale.

37 Notification of acquisition of significant shareholding.

- (1) A person who becomes a significant shareholder in relation to an authorised institution incorporated in the United Kingdom shall within seven days give written notice of that fact to the Bank.
- [^{F17}(2) For the purposes of this section “a significant shareholder”, in relation to an institution, means a person who is not a shareholder controller but who, either alone or with any associate or associates—
- (a) holds 5 per cent. or more of the shares in the institution or another institution of which it is a subsidiary undertaking; or
 - (b) is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, 5 per cent. or more of the voting power at any general meeting of the institution or of another institution of which it is such an undertaking;
- and in this subsection “share” has the same meaning as in Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 or Part VIII of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986.]
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, any person who contravenes subsection (1) above shall be guilty of an offence.
 - (4) A person shall not be guilty of an offence under subsection (3) above if he shows that he did not know of the acts or circumstances by virtue of which he became a significant shareholder in relation to the institution; but where any person becomes such a shareholder without such knowledge and subsequently becomes aware of the fact that he has become such a shareholder he shall be guilty of an offence unless he gives the Bank written notice of the fact that he has become such a shareholder within fourteen days of becoming aware of that fact.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

- (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the fifth level on the standard scale.

Textual Amendments

F17 S. 37(2) substituted (1.1.1993) by S.I. 1992/3218, reg.34(with savings in reg. 46(a)).

38 Reports of large exposures.

- (1) An authorised institution, other than one whose principal place of business is outside the United Kingdom, shall make a report to the Bank if—
- (a) it has entered into a transaction or transactions relating to any one person as a result of which it is exposed to the risk of incurring losses in excess of 10 per cent. of its available capital resources; or
 - (b) it proposes to enter into a transaction or transactions relating to any one person which, either alone or together with a previous transaction or previous transactions entered into by it in relation to that person, would result in its being exposed to the risk of incurring losses in excess of 25 per cent. of those resources.
- (2) Subsection (1) above applies also where the transaction or transactions relate to different persons if they are connected in such a way that the financial soundness of any of them may affect the financial soundness of the other or others or the same factors may affect the financial soundness of both or all of them.
- (3) If an authorised institution to which subsection (1) above applies has one or more subsidiaries which are not authorised institutions the Bank may by notice in writing to that institution direct that that subsection shall apply to it as if the transactions and available capital resources of the subsidiary or subsidiaries, or such of them as are specified in the notice, were included in those of the institution.
- (4) The reports required to be made by an institution under subsection (1) above shall be made, in a case within paragraph (a) of that subsection, in respect of such period or periods and, in a case within paragraph (b) of that subsection, at such time before the transaction or transactions are entered into, as may be specified by notice in writing given to the institution by the Bank; and those reports shall be in such form and contain such particulars as the Bank may reasonably require.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a transaction entered into by an institution relates to a person if it is—
- (a) a transaction under which that person incurs an obligation to the institution or as a result of which he may incur such an obligation;
 - (b) a transaction under which the institution will incur, or as a result of which it may incur, an obligation in the event of that person defaulting on an obligation to a third party; or
 - (c) a transaction under which the institution acquires or incurs an obligation to acquire, or as a result of which it may incur an obligation to acquire, an asset the value of which depends wholly or mainly on that person performing his obligations or otherwise on his financial soundness;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details) and the risk of loss attributable to a transaction is, in a case within paragraph (a) or (b) above, the risk of the person concerned defaulting on the obligation there mentioned and, in a case within paragraph (c) above, the risk of the person concerned defaulting on the obligations there mentioned or of a deterioration in his financial soundness.

- (6) Any question whether an institution is or would be exposed to risk as mentioned in subsection (1) above (or in that subsection as extended by subsection (2)) shall be determined in accordance with principles published by the Bank or notified by it to the institution concerned; and those principles may in particular make provision for determining the amount at risk in particular circumstances or the extent to which any such amount is to be taken into account for the purposes of this section.
- (7) For the purposes of this section the available capital resources of an institution (or, in a case within subsection (3) above, of an institution and its relevant subsidiary or subsidiaries) and the value of those resources at any time shall be determined by the Bank and notified by it to the institution by notice in writing; and any such determination, which may be varied from time to time, shall be made by the Bank after consultation with the institution concerned and in accordance with principles published by the Bank.
- (8) The principles referred to in subsections (6) and (7) above may make different provision for different cases and those referred to in subsection (6) may, in particular, exclude from consideration, either wholly or in part, risks resulting from transactions of a particular description or entered into in particular circumstances or with persons of particular descriptions.
- (9) An institution which fails to make a report as required by this section shall be guilty of an offence; but where an institution shows that at the time when the report was required to be made it did not know that the facts were such as to require the making of the report it shall not be guilty of an offence by reason of its failure to make a report at that time but shall be guilty of an offence unless it makes the report within seven days of becoming aware of those facts.
- (10) An institution guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the fifth level on the standard scale.
- (11) The Treasury may after consultation with the Bank by order—
- (a) amend subsection (1) above so as to substitute for either of the percentages for the time being specified in that subsection such other percentage as may be specified in the order;
 - (b) make provision, whether by amending subsection (5) above or otherwise, with respect to the transactions and risks to be taken into account for the purposes of this section,
- but any such order shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (12) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that references in this section to “one person” include references to a partnership.

39 Power to obtain information and require production of documents.

- (1) The Bank may by notice in writing served on an authorised institution—
- (a) require the institution to provide the Bank, at such time or times or at such intervals or in respect of such period or periods as may be specified in the

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

- notice, with such information as the Bank may reasonably require for the performance of its functions under this Act;
- (b) require the institution to provide the Bank with a report by an accountant or other person with relevant professional skill on, or on any aspect of, any matter about which the Bank has required or could require the institution to provide information under paragraph (a) above.
- (2) The accountant or other person appointed by an institution to make any report required under subsection (1)(b) above shall be a person nominated or approved by the Bank; and the Bank may require his report to be in such form as is specified in the notice.
- (3) The Bank may—
- (a) by notice in writing served on an authorised institution require it to produce, within such time and at such place as may be specified in the notice, such document or documents of such description as may be so specified;
- (b) authorise an officer, servant or agent of the Bank, on producing evidence of his authority, to require any such institution to provide him forthwith with such information, or to produce to him forthwith such documents, as he may specify,
- being such information or documents as the Bank may reasonably require for the performance of its functions under this Act.
- (4) Where, by virtue of subsection (3) above, the Bank or any officer, servant or agent of the Bank has power to require the production of any documents from an authorised institution, the Bank or that officer, servant or agent shall have the like power to require the production of those documents from any person who appears to be in possession of them; but where any person from whom such production is required claims a lien on documents produced by him, the production shall be without prejudice to the lien.
- (5) The power under this section to require an institution or other person to produce any documents includes power—
- (a) if the documents are produced, to take copies of them or extracts from them and to require that institution or person, or any other person who is a present or past director, controller or manager of, or is or was at any time employed by or acting as an employee of, the institution in question, to provide an explanation of any of them; and
- (b) if the documents are not produced, to require the person who was required to produce them to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where they are.
- [^{F18}(6) If it appears to the Bank to be desirable in the interests of the depositors or potential depositors of an authorised institution to do so, it may also exercise the powers conferred by subsections (1) and (3) above in relation to any undertaking which is or has at any relevant time been—
- (a) a parent undertaking, subsidiary undertaking or related company of that institution;
- (b) a subsidiary undertaking of a parent undertaking of that institution;
- (c) a parent undertaking of a subsidiary undertaking of that institution; or
- (d) an undertaking in the case of which a shareholder controller of that institution, either alone or with any associate or associates, holds 50 per cent. or more of the shares or is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, more than 50 per cent. of the voting power at a general meeting; or in relation to any partnership of which that institution is or has at any relevant time been a member.

^{F18}(7) If it appears to the Bank to be desirable to do so in the interests of the depositors or potential depositors of an authorised institution which is a partnership ('the authorised partnership'), it may also exercise the powers conferred by subsections (1) and (3) above in relation to—

- (a) any other partnership having a member in common with the authorised partnership;
- (b) any undertaking which is or has at any time been a member of the authorised partnership;
- (c) any undertaking in the case of which the partners in the authorised partnership, either alone or with any associate or associates, hold 20 per cent. or more of the shares or are entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, more than 50 per cent. of the voting power at a general meeting; or
- (d) any subsidiary undertaking or parent undertaking of any such undertaking as is mentioned in paragraph (b) or (c) above or any parent undertaking of any such subsidiary undertaking.

^{F18}(7A) In subsections (6) and (7) above 'share' has the same meaning as in Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 or Part VIII of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986.]

- (8) The foregoing provisions of this section shall apply to a former authorised institution as they apply to an authorised institution.
- (9) The Bank may by notice in writing served on any person who is or is to be a director, controller or manager of an authorised institution require him to provide the Bank, within such time as may be specified in the notice, with such information or documents as the Bank may reasonably require for determining whether he is a fit and proper person to hold the particular position which he holds or is to hold.
- (10) The Bank may exercise the powers conferred by subsections (1) and (3) above in relation to any person who is a significant shareholder of an authorised institution within the meaning of section 37 above if the Bank considers that the exercise of those powers is desirable in the interests of the depositors or potential depositors of that institution.
- (11) Any person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with a requirement imposed on him under this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the fifth level on the standard scale or to both.
- (12) A statement made by a person in compliance with a requirement imposed by virtue of this section may be used in evidence against him.
- (13) Nothing in this section shall compel the production by a barrister, advocate or solicitor of a document containing a privileged communication made by him or to him in that capacity.

42 Investigation of suspected contraventions.

- (1) Where the Bank has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a person is guilty of contravening section 3 or 35 above the Bank or any duly authorised officer, servant or agent of the Bank may by notice in writing require that or any other person—
- (a) to provide, at such place as may be specified in the notice and either forthwith or at such time as may be so specified, such information as the Bank may reasonably require for the purpose of investigating the suspected contravention;
 - (b) to produce, at such place as may be specified in the notice and either forthwith or at such time as may be so specified, such documents, or documents of such description, as may be specified, being documents the production of which may be reasonably required by the Bank for that purpose;
 - (c) to attend at such place and time as may be specified in the notice and answer questions relevant for determining whether such a contravention has occurred.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The Bank or a duly authorised officer, servant or agent of the Bank may take copies of or extracts from any documents produced under this section.
- (3) Any officer, servant or agent of the Bank may, on producing if required evidence of his authority, enter any premises occupied by a person on whom a notice has been served under subsection (1) above for the purpose of obtaining there the information or documents required by the notice, putting the questions referred to in paragraph (c) of that subsection or exercising the powers conferred by subsection (2) above.
- (4) Any person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with a requirement imposed on him under this section or intentionally obstructs a person in the exercise of the rights conferred by subsection (3) above shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the fifth level on the standard scale or to both.
- (5) A statement made by a person in compliance with a requirement imposed by virtue of this section may be used in evidence against him.
- (6) Nothing in this section shall compel the production by a barrister, advocate or solicitor of a document containing a privileged communication made by him or to him in that capacity.

43 Powers of entry in cases of suspected contraventions.

- (1) A justice of the peace may issue a warrant under this section if satisfied on information on oath laid by an officer or servant of the Bank or laid under the Bank's authority that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a person is guilty of such a contravention as is mentioned in section 42 above and—
 - (a) that that person has failed to comply with a notice served on him under that section; or
 - (b) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting the completeness of any information provided or documents produced by him in response to such a notice; or
 - (c) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that if a notice were served on him under that section it would not be complied with or that any documents to which it would relate would be removed, tampered with or destroyed.
- (2) A warrant under this section shall authorise any constable, together with any other person named in the warrant and any other constables—
 - (a) to enter any premises occupied by the person mentioned in subsection (1) above which are specified in the warrant, using such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose;
 - (b) to search the premises and take possession of any documents appearing to be such documents as are mentioned in subsection (1)(c) above or to take, in relation to any such documents, any other steps which may appear to be necessary for preserving them or preventing interference with them;
 - (c) to take copies of or extracts from any such documents;
 - (d) to require any person named in the warrant to answer questions relevant for determining whether that person is guilty of any such contravention as is mentioned in section 42 above.
- (3) A warrant under this section shall continue in force until the end of the period of one month beginning with the day on which it is issued.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Any documents of which possession is taken under this section may be retained—
 - (a) for a period of three months; or
 - (b) if within that period proceedings to which the documents are relevant are commenced against any person for any such contravention as is mentioned in section 42 above, until the conclusion of those proceedings.
- (5) Any person who intentionally obstructs the exercise of any right conferred by a warrant issued under this section or fails without reasonable excuse to comply with any requirement imposed in accordance with subsection (2)(d) above shall be guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both.
- (6) A statement made by a person in compliance with a requirement imposed by virtue of this section may be used in evidence against him.
- (7) In the application of subsection (1) above to Scotland, the reference to a justice of the peace includes a reference to a sheriff and for the reference to information on oath there shall be substituted a reference to evidence on oath; and in the application of that subsection to Northern Ireland for the reference to laying an information on oath there shall be substituted a reference to making a complaint on oath.

44 Obstruction of investigations.

- (1) A person who knows or suspects that an investigation is being or is likely to be carried out—
 - (a) under section 41 above; or
 - (b) into a suspected contravention of section 3 or 35 above,shall be guilty of an offence if he falsifies, conceals, destroys or otherwise disposes of, or causes or permits the falsification, concealment, destruction or disposal of, documents which he knows or suspects are or would be relevant to such an investigation unless he proves that he had no intention of concealing facts disclosed by the documents from persons carrying out such an investigation.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both.

Accounts and auditors

45 Audited accounts to be open to inspection.

- (1) An authorised institution shall at each of its offices in the United Kingdom at which it holds itself out as accepting deposits—
 - (a) keep a copy of its most recent audited accounts; and
 - (b) during normal business hours make that copy available for inspection by any person on request.

- (d) any other money required by any provision of this Part of this Act to be credited to the Fund or received by the Board and directed by it to be so credited.
- (2) The money constituting the Fund shall be placed by the Board in an account with the Bank.
- (3) As far as possible, the Bank shall invest money placed with it under subsection (2) above in Treasury bills; and any income from money so invested shall be credited to the Fund.
- (4) There shall be chargeable to the Fund—
 - (a) repayments of special contributions under section 55(2) below;
 - (b) payments under section 58 below;
 - (c) money required for the repayment of, and the payment of interest on, money borrowed by the Board; and
 - (d) the administrative and other necessary or incidental expenses incurred by the Board.

Contributions to the Fund

52 Contributory institutions and general provisions as to contributions.

- (1) All authorised institutions shall be liable to contribute to the Fund and are in this Part of this Act referred to as “contributory institutions”.
- (2) Contributions to the Fund shall be levied on a contributory institution by the Board by the service on the institution of a notice specifying the amount due, which shall be paid by the institution not later than twenty-one days after the date on which the notice is served.
- (3) Subject to section 56 below, on each occasion on which contributions are to be levied from contributory institutions (other than the occasion of the levy of an initial contribution from a particular institution under section 53 below)—
 - (a) a contribution shall be levied from each of the contributory institutions; and
 - (b) the amount of the contribution of each institution shall be ascertained by applying to the institution’s deposit base the percentage determined by the Board for the purpose of the contribution levied on that occasion.
- (4) Subject to section 57 below, the deposit base of an institution in relation to any contribution is the amount which the Board determines as representing the average, over such period preceding the levying of the contribution as appears to the Board to be appropriate, of sterling deposits with the United Kingdom offices of that institution other than—
 - (a) secured deposits;
 - (b) deposits which had an original term to maturity of more than five years; and
 - (c) deposits in respect of which the institution has in the United Kingdom issued a sterling certificate of deposit.
- (5) In its application to this section, section 5(3) above shall have effect with the omission of paragraphs (b) and (c).

C24 S. 52 amended (1.1.1993) by S.I. 1992/3218, reg. 47, Sch. 8 para.14.

53 Initial contributions.

- (1) Subject to subsection (4) below, where an institution becomes a contributory institution after the coming into force of this Part of this Act the Board shall levy from it, on or as soon as possible after the day on which it becomes a contributory institution, an initial contribution of an amount determined in accordance with subsection (2) or (3) below.
- (2) Where the institution concerned has a deposit base, then, subject to section 56(1) below, the amount of an initial contribution levied under this section shall be such percentage of the deposit base as the Board considers appropriate to put the institution on a basis of equality with the other contributory institutions, having regard to—
 - (a) the initial contributions previously levied under this section or under section 24(1) of the ^{M8}Banking Act 1979; and
 - (b) so far as they are attributable to an increase in the size of the Fund resulting from an order under subsection (2) of section 54 below or subsection (2) of section 25 of that Act, further contributions levied under either of those sections.
- (3) Where the institution concerned has no deposit base the amount of an initial contribution levied under this section shall be the minimum amount for the time being provided for in section 56(1) below.
- (4) The Board may waive an initial contribution under this section if it appears to it that the institution concerned is to carry on substantially the same business as that previously carried on by one or more institutions which are or were contributory institutions.

54 Further contributions.

- (1) If at the end of any financial year of the Board the amount standing to the credit of the Fund is less than £3 million the Board may, with the approval of the Treasury, levy further contributions from contributory institutions so as to restore the amount standing to the credit of the Fund to a minimum of £5 million and a maximum of £6 million.
- (2) If at any time it appears to the Treasury to be desirable in the interests of depositors to increase the size of the Fund, the Treasury may, after consultation with the Board, by order amend subsection (1) above so as to substitute for the sums for the time being specified in that subsection such larger sums as may be specified in the order; but no such order shall be made unless a draft of it has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (3) An order under subsection (2) above may authorise the Board forthwith to levy further contributions from contributory institutions so as to raise the amount standing to the 55 Special contributions.

- (1) If it appears to the Board that payments under section 58 below are likely to exhaust the Fund, the Board may, with the approval of the Treasury, levy special contributions from contributory institutions to meet the Fund's commitments under that section.
- (2) Where at the end of any financial year of the Board there is money in the Fund which represents special contributions and will not in the opinion of the Board be required for making payments under section 58 below in consequence of institutions having become insolvent or subject to administration orders before repayments are made under this subsection the Board—
 - (a) shall repay to the institutions from which it was levied so much (if any) of that money as can be repaid without reducing the amount standing to the credit of the Fund below the maximum amount for the time being specified in subsection (1) of section 54 above; and
 - (b) may repay to those institutions so much (if any) of that money as can be repaid without reducing the amount standing to the credit of the Fund below the minimum amount for the time being specified in that subsection.
- (3) Repayments to institutions under this section shall be made pro rata according to the amount of the special contribution made by each of them but the Board may withhold the whole or part of any repayment due to an institution that has become insolvent and, in the case of an institution that has ceased to be a contributory institution, may either withhold its repayment or make it to any other contributory institution which, in the opinion of the Board, is its successor.

57 Deposit base of transferee institutions.

- (1) This section applies where the liabilities in respect of deposits of a person specified in Schedule 2 to this Act (an “exempted person”) are transferred to an institution which is not such a person (a “transferee institution”).
- (2) If the transferee institution becomes a contributory institution on the occasion of the transfer or immediately thereafter it shall be treated for the purposes of section 53 above as having such deposit base as it would have if—
 - (a) sterling deposits with the United Kingdom offices of the exempted person at any time had at that time been sterling deposits with the United Kingdom offices of the transferee institution; and
 - (b) sterling certificates of deposit issued by the exempted person had been issued by the transferee institution.
- (3) If the transferee institution is already a contributory institution at the time of the transfer, the Board shall levy from it, as soon as possible after the transfer, a further initial contribution of an amount equal to the initial contribution which it would have been liable to make if—
 - (a) it had become a contributory institution on the date of the transfer;
 - (b) its deposit base were calculated by reference (and by reference only) to the sterling deposits with the United Kingdom offices of the exempted person, taking sterling certificates of deposit issued by the exempted person as having been issued by the transferee institution; and
 - (c) the amount specified in section 56(2) above were reduced by the amount of any initial contribution which the transferee institution has already made.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Whether or not the transferee institution is already a contributory institution at the time of the transfer it shall be treated for the purposes of the levying from it of any further or special contribution as having such deposit base as it would have if the sterling deposits with its United Kingdom offices and the sterling certificates of deposit issued by it included respectively sterling deposits with the United Kingdom offices of the exempted person and sterling certificates of deposit issued by that person.
- (5) In its application to this section, section 5(3) above shall have effect with the omission of paragraphs (b) and (c).

Payments out of the Fund

58 Compensation payments to depositors.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, if at any time an institution becomes insolvent and at that time—
- (a) it is an authorised institution; or
 - (b) it is a former authorised institution (not being a recognised bank or licensed institution excluded by an order under section 23(2) of the ^{M9}Banking Act 1979),
- the Board shall as soon as practicable pay out of the Fund to each depositor who has a protected deposit with that institution an amount equal to three-quarters of his protected deposit.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this section, if at any time an administration order is made under section 8 of the ^{M10}Insolvency Act 1986 [^{F26}or under Article 21 of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989] in relation to an institution and at that time it is such an institution as is mentioned in subsection (1) above the Board shall pay out of the Fund to each depositor who has a protected deposit with that institution an amount equal to three-quarters of his protected deposit; and that payment shall be made as soon as practicable after the deposit is or becomes due and payable under the terms on which it was made or, if later, the approval of the administrator's proposals under section 24 of that Act [^{F27}or, as the case may be, under Article 36 of that Order].
- (3) Where the Board is satisfied that a payment has been or will be made to a depositor in respect of his protected deposit under any scheme for protecting depositors or investors which is comparable to that for which provision is made by this Part of this Act or under a guarantee given by a government or other authority the Board may—
- (a) deduct an amount equal to the whole or part of that payment from the payment that would otherwise be made to him under subsection (1) or (2) above; or
 - (b) in pursuance of an agreement made by the Board with the authority responsible for the scheme or by which the guarantee was given, make in full the payment required by that subsection and recoup from that authority such contribution to it as may be specified in or determined under the agreement.
- (4) Where the Board makes such a deduction as is mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) above it may agree with the authority responsible for the scheme or by which the guarantee was given to reimburse that authority to the extent of the deduction or any lesser amount.
- (5) The Board may decline to make any payment under subsection (1) or (2) above to a person who, in the opinion of the Board, has any responsibility for, or may have profited directly or indirectly from, the circumstances giving rise to the institution's financial difficulties.

- (6) There shall be deducted from any payment to be made by the Board in respect of a deposit under subsection (2) above any payment in respect of that deposit already made by the administrator; and where an institution becomes insolvent after an administration order has been in force in relation to it the payments to be made by the Board under subsections (1) and (2) above, taken together, in respect of a depositor's protected deposits with the institution shall not exceed an amount equal to three-quarters of those deposits.
- (7) The Treasury may, after consultation with the Board, by order amend subsections (1), (2) and (6) above so as to substitute for the fraction for the time being specified in those subsections such other fraction as may be specified in the order; but no such order shall be made unless a draft of it has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (8) Notwithstanding that the Board may not yet have made or become liable to make a payment under subsection (1) above in relation to an institution falling within that subsection—
 - (a) the Board shall at all times be entitled to receive any notice or other document required to be sent to a creditor of the institution whose debt has been proved; and
 - (b) a duly authorised representative of the Board shall be entitled—
 - (i) to attend any meeting of creditors of the institution and to make representations as to any matter for decision at that meeting;
 - (ii) to be a member of any committee established under section 301 of the ^{M11}Insolvency Act 1986;
 - (iii) to be a commissioner under section 30 of the ^{M12}Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985; and
 - (iv) to be a member of a committee established for the purposes of Part IV or V of the ^{M13}Insolvency Act 1986 under section 101 of that Act or under section 141 or 142 of that Act ^{F28}
 - [^{F29}(v) to be a member of any committee established under Article 274 of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989; and
 - (vi) to be a member of a committee established for the purposes of Part V or VI of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 under Article 87 of that Order or under Article 120 of that Order.]
- (9) Where a representative of the Board exercises his right to be a member of such a committee as is mentioned in paragraph (b)(ii) or (iv) of subsection (8) above or to be a commissioner by virtue of paragraph (b)(iii) of that subsection he may not be removed except with the consent of the Board and his appointment under that subsection shall be disregarded for the purposes of any provision made by or under any enactment which specifies a minimum or maximum number of members of such a committee or commission.
- (10) Notwithstanding that the Board may not yet have made or become liable to make a payment under subsection (2) above in relation to an institution falling within that subsection—
 - (a) the Board shall at all times be entitled to receive any notice or other document required to be sent to a creditor of the institution under Part II of the Insolvency

60 Protected deposits.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, in relation to an institution in respect of which a payment falls to be made under section 58(1) above any reference in this Act to a depositor's protected deposit is a reference to the total liability of the institution to him immediately before the time when it becomes insolvent, limited to a maximum of £20,000, in respect of the principal amounts of and accrued interest on sterling deposits made with United Kingdom offices of the institution.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this section, in relation to an institution in respect of which a payment falls to be made under section 58(2) above any reference in this Act to a depositor's protected deposit is a reference to the liability of the institution to him in respect of—
- (a) the principal amount of each sterling deposit which was made by him with a United Kingdom office of the institution before the making of the administration order and which under the terms on which it was made is or becomes due or payable while the order is in force; and

- (b) accrued interest on any such deposit up to the time when it is or becomes due and payable as aforesaid;
- but so that the total liability of the institution to him in respect of such deposits does not exceed £20,000.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) above no account shall be taken of any liability unless—
- (a) proof of the debt which gives rise to it has been lodged with the liquidator of the insolvent institution; or
 - (b) in the case of an institution formed under the law of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom, an act has been done which appears to the Board to correspond as nearly as may be to the lodging of such a proof with the liquidator of the institution.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2) above no account shall be taken of any liability unless a claim for repayment of the deposit which gives rise to it has been lodged with the administrator.
- (5) The Treasury may, after consultation with the Board, by order amend subsections (1) and (2) above so as to substitute for the sum for the time being specified in those subsections such larger sum as may be specified in the order; but no such order shall be made unless a draft of it has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (6) In determining the total liability of an institution to a depositor for the purposes of subsection (1) above, or the liability or total liability of an institution to a depositor for the purposes of subsection (2) above, no account shall be taken of any liability in respect of a deposit if—
- (a) it is a secured deposit; or
 - (b) it is a deposit which had an original term to maturity of more than five years; or
 - (c) the institution is a former authorised institution and the deposit was made after it ceased to be an authorised institution or a recognised bank or licensed institution under the ^{M15}Banking Act 1979 unless, at the time the deposit was made, the depositor did not know and could not reasonably be expected to have known that it had ceased to be an authorised institution, recognised bank or licensed institution.
- (7) Unless the Board otherwise directs in any particular case, in determining the total liability of an institution to a depositor for the purposes of subsection (1) or (2) above there shall be deducted the amount of any liability of the depositor to the institution—
- (a) in respect of which a right of set-off existed immediately before the institution became insolvent or, as the case may be, subject to the administration order against any such sterling deposit as is referred to in subsection (1) or (2) above; or
 - (b) in respect of which such right would then have existed if the deposit in question had been repayable on demand and the liability in question had fallen due.
- (8) Where an institution becomes insolvent after an administration order has been in force in relation to it the maximum applying under subsection (1) above to a depositor's protected deposit with the institution shall be reduced by the amount of his protected deposit or deposits with the institution taken into account for the purposes of subsection (2) above.

- (9) For the purposes of this section and sections 61 and 62 below the definition of deposit in section 5 above—
- (a) shall be treated as including—
 - (i) any sum that would otherwise be excluded by paragraph (a), (d) or (e) of subsection (3) of that section if the sum is paid as trustee for a person not falling within any of those paragraphs;
 - (ii) any sum that would otherwise be excluded by paragraph (b) or (c) of that subsection;
 - (b) subject to subsections (10) and (11) below, shall be treated as excluding any sum paid by a trustee for a person falling within paragraph (e) of subsection (3) of that section; and
 - (c) shall be treated as including any sum the right to repayment of which is evidenced by a transferable certificate of deposit or other transferable instrument and which would be a deposit within the meaning of section 5 as extended by paragraph (a) and restricted by paragraph (b) above if it had been paid by the person who is entitled to it at the time when the institution in question becomes insolvent.
- (10) Where the trustee referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (9) above is not a bare trustee and there are two or more beneficiaries that paragraph applies only if all the beneficiaries fall within section 5(3)(e) above.
- (11) Subsection (10) above does not extend to Scotland and, in Scotland, where there are two or more beneficiaries of a trust the trustee of which is referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (9) above that paragraph applies only if all the beneficiaries fall within section 5(3)(e) above.

M15 1979 c. 37.

61 Trustee deposits, joint deposits etc.

- (1) In the cases to which this section applies sections 58 and 60 above shall have effect with the following modifications.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this section, where any persons are entitled to a deposit as trustees they shall be treated as a single and continuing body of persons distinct from the persons who may from time to time be the trustees, and if the same persons are entitled as trustees to different deposits under different trusts they shall be treated as a separate and distinct body with respect to each of those trusts.
- (3) Where a deposit is held for any person or for two or more persons jointly by a bare trustee, that person or, as the case may be, those persons jointly shall be treated as entitled to the deposit without the intervention of any trust.
- (4) Subsection (3) above does not extend to Scotland and, in Scotland, where a deposit is held by a person as nominee for another person or for two or more other persons jointly, that other person or, as the case may be, those other persons jointly shall be treated as entitled to the deposit.

- (5) A deposit to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a partnership (whether or not in equal shares) shall be treated as a single deposit.
- (6) Subject to subsection (5) above, where two or more persons are jointly entitled to a deposit and subsection (2) above does not apply each of them shall be treated as having a separate deposit of an amount produced by dividing the amount of the deposit to which they are jointly entitled by the number of persons who are so entitled.
- (7) Where a person is entitled (whether as trustee or otherwise) to a deposit made out of a clients' or other similar account containing money to which one or more other persons are entitled, that other person or, as the case may be, each of those other persons shall be treated (to the exclusion of the first-mentioned person) as entitled to so much of the deposit as corresponds to the proportion of the money in the account to which he is entitled.
- (8) Where an authorised institution is entitled as trustee to a sum which would be a deposit apart from section 5(3)(a) above and represents deposits made with the institution, each of the persons who made those deposits shall be treated as having made a deposit equal to so much of that sum as represents the deposit made by him.
- (9) The Board may decline to make any payment under section 58 above in respect of a deposit until the person claiming to be entitled to it informs the Board of the capacity in which he is entitled to the deposit and provides sufficient information to enable the Board to determine what payment (if any) should be made under that section and to whom.
- (10) In this section "jointly entitled" means—
 - (a) in England and Wales and in Northern Ireland, beneficially entitled as joint tenants, tenants in common or coparceners;
 - (b) in Scotland, beneficially entitled as joint owners or owners in common.

C34 S. 61 amended (31.07.1991) by S.I. 1991/1776, art. 2(1)(2)

62 Liability of institution in respect of compensation payments.

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) an institution becomes insolvent or an administration order is in force in relation to it; and
 - (b) the Board has made, or is under a liability to make, a payment under section 58 above by virtue of the institution becoming insolvent or of the making of that order; and in the following provisions of this section a payment falling within paragraph (b) above, less any amount which the Board is entitled to recoup by virtue of any such agreement as is mentioned in subsection (3)(b) of that section, is referred to as "a compensation payment" and the person to whom such a payment has been or is to be made is referred to as "the depositor".

- (2) Where this section applies in respect of an institution that is insolvent—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the institution shall become liable to the Board, as in respect of a contractual debt incurred immediately before the institution became insolvent, for an amount equal to the compensation payment;
 - (b) the liability of the institution to the depositor in respect of any deposit or deposits of his (“the liability to the depositor”) shall be reduced by an amount equal to the compensation payment made or to be made to him by the Board; and
 - (c) the duty of the liquidator of the insolvent institution to make payments to the Board on account of the liability referred to in paragraph (a) above (“the liability to the Board”) and to the depositor on account of the liability to him (after taking account of paragraph (b) above) shall be varied in accordance with subsection (3) below.
- (3) The variation referred to in subsection (2)(c) above is as follows—
 - (a) in the first instance the liquidator shall pay to the Board instead of to the depositor any amount which, apart from this section, would be payable on account of the liability to the depositor except in so far as that liability relates to any such deposit as is mentioned in section 60(6) above; and
 - (b) if at any time the total amount paid to the Board by virtue of paragraph (a) above and in respect of the liability to the Board equals the amount of the compensation payment made to the depositor, the liquidator shall thereafter pay to the depositor instead of to the Board any amount which, apart from this paragraph, would be payable to the Board in respect of the liability to the Board.
- (4) Where this section applies in respect of an institution in relation to which an administration order is in force—
 - (a) the institution shall, at the time when the compensation payment in respect of a deposit falls to be made by the Board, become liable to the Board for an amount equal to that payment; and
 - (b) the liability of the institution to the depositor in respect of that deposit shall be reduced by an amount equal to that payment.
- (5) Where an institution becomes insolvent after an administration order has been in force in relation to it subsections (2) and (3) above shall not apply to any compensation payment to the extent to which the Board has received a payment in respect of it by virtue of subsection (4)(a) above.
- (6) Where by virtue of section 61 above the compensation payment is or is to be made by the Board to a person other than the person to whom the institution is liable in respect of the deposit any reference in the foregoing provisions of this section to the liability to the depositor shall be construed as a reference to the liability of the institution to the person to whom that payment would fall to be made by the Board apart from that section.
- (7) Where the Board makes a payment under section 58(4) above in respect of an amount deducted from a payment due to a depositor this section shall have effect as if the amount had been paid to the depositor.
- (8) Rules may be made—
 - (a) for England and Wales, under sections 411 and 412 of the ^{M16}Insolvency Act 1986;
 - (b) for Scotland—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

- (i) under the said section 411; and
- (ii) in relation to an institution whose estate may be sequestrated under the ^{M17}Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985, by the Secretary of State under this subsection; and
- (c) for Northern Ireland, under [^{F36}Article 359 of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989] and section 65 of the ^{M18}Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978, for the purpose of integrating the procedure provided for in this section into the general procedure on a winding-up, bankruptcy or sequestration or under Part II of the ^{M19}Insolvency Act 1986 [^{F37}or Part III of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989].

Repayments in respect of contributions

63 Repayments in respect of contributions.

- (1) Any money received by the Board under section 62 above (“recovered money”) shall not form part of the Fund but, for the remainder of the financial year of the Board in which it is received, shall be placed by the Board in an account with the Bank which shall as far as possible invest the money in Treasury bills; and any income arising from the money so invested during the remainder of the year shall be credited to the Fund.
- (2) The Board shall prepare a scheme for the making out of recovered money of repayments to institutions in respect of—
 - (a) special contributions; and
 - (b) so far as they are not attributable to an increase in the size of the Fund resulting from an order under subsection (2) of section 54 above, further contributions levied under that section, which have been made in the financial year of the Board in which the money was received or in any previous such financial year.
- (3) A scheme under subsection (2) above—
 - (a) shall provide for the making of repayments first in respect of special contributions and then, if those contributions can be repaid in full (taking into

- account any previous repayments under this section and under section 55(2) above) in respect of further contributions;
- (b) may make provision for repayments in respect of contributions made by an institution which has ceased to be a contributory institution to be made to a contributory institution which, in the opinion of the Board, is its successor; and
- (c) subject to paragraph (b) above, may exclude from the scheme further contributions levied from institutions which have ceased to be contributory institutions.
- (4) Except where special or further contributions can be repaid in full, repayments to institutions under this section shall be made pro rata according to the amount of the special or further contribution made by each of them.
- (5) If at the end of a financial year of the Board in which recovered money is received by it—
- (a) that money; and
- (b) the amount standing to the credit of the Fund, after any repayments made under section 55 above,
- exceeds the maximum amount for the time being specified in section 54 (1) above the Board shall as soon as practicable make out of the recovered money, up to an amount not greater than the excess, the repayments required by the scheme under subsection (2) above and may out of the recovered money make such further repayments required by the scheme as will not reduce the amounts mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) above below the minimum amount for the time being specified in section 54(1) above.
- (6) If in any financial year of the Board—
- (a) any of the recovered money is not applied in making payments in accordance with subsection (5) above; or
- (b) the payments made in accordance with that subsection are sufficient to provide for the repayment in full of all the contributions to which the scheme relates, any balance of that money shall be credited to the Fund.

PART III

BANKING NAMES AND DESCRIPTIONS

67 Restriction on use of banking names.

- (1) Subject to section 68 below, no person carrying on any business in the United Kingdom shall use any name which indicates or may reasonably be understood to indicate (whether in English or any other language) that he is a bank or banker or is carrying on a banking business unless he is an authorised institution to which this section applies.
- (2) This section applies to an authorised institution which—
 - (a) is a company incorporated in the United Kingdom which has—
 - (i) an issued share capital in respect of which the amount paid up is not less than £5 million (or an amount of equivalent value denominated wholly or partly otherwise than in sterling); or
 - (ii) undistributable reserves falling within paragraph (a), (b) or (d) of section 264 (3) of the ^{M21}Companies Act 1985 or Article 272(3)(a), (b) or (d) of the ^{M22}Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 of not less than that sum (or such an equivalent amount); or
 - (iii) such undistributable reserves of an amount which together with the amount paid up in respect of its issued share capital equals not less than that sum (or such an equivalent amount); or
 - (b) is a partnership formed under the law of any part of the United Kingdom in respect of which one or more designated fixed capital accounts are maintained to which there has been credited not less than £5 million (or such an equivalent amount).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a) above “share capital” does not include share capital which under the terms on which it is issued is to be, or may at the option of the shareholder be, redeemed by the company.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b) above “designated fixed capital account”, in relation to a partnership, means an account—

- (a) which is prepared and designated as such under the terms of the partnership agreement;
 - (b) which shows capital contributed by the partners; and
 - (c) from which under the terms of that agreement an amount representing capital may only be withdrawn by a partner if—
 - (i) he ceases to be a partner and an equal amount is transferred to a designated fixed capital account by his former partners or any person replacing him as their partner; or
 - (ii) the partnership is otherwise dissolved or wound up.
- (5) An authorised institution to which subsection (2) above applies whose issued share capital, undistributable reserves or designated fixed capital account is denominated wholly or partly otherwise than in sterling shall not be regarded as ceasing to be such an institution by reason only of a fluctuation in the rate of exchange of sterling unless and until it has ceased to satisfy any of the conditions in that subsection for a continuous period of three months.
- (6) The Treasury may from time to time after consultation with the Bank by order amend subsection (2)(a) and (b) above so as to substitute for the sum for the time being specified in that subsection such other sum as may be specified in the order; but an order under this subsection shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

68 Exemptions from s. 67.

- (1) Section 67 above does not prohibit the use of a name by a relevant savings bank, a municipal bank or a school bank if the name contains an indication that the bank or body is a savings bank, municipal bank or, as the case may be, a school bank.
- (2) In subsection (1) above—
 “relevant savings bank” means—
 (i) the National Savings Bank; and
 (ii) any penny savings bank;
 “school bank” means a body of persons certified as a school bank by the National Savings Bank or an authorised institution.
- (3) Section 67 above does not prohibit the use by an authorised institution which is a company incorporated under the law of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom or is formed under the law of a member State other than the United Kingdom of a name under which it carries on business in that country or territory or State (or an approximate translation in English of that name).
- (4) Section 67 above does not prohibit the use by—

- (a) an authorised institution which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of an authorised institution to which that section or subsection (3) above applies; or
 - (b) a company which has a wholly-owned subsidiary which is an authorised institution to which that section or subsection applies, of a name which includes the name of the authorised institution to which that section or subsection applies for the purpose of indicating the connection between the two companies.
- (5) Section 67 above does not prohibit the use by an overseas institution (within the meaning of Part IV of this Act) which has its principal place of business in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom and a representative office in the United Kingdom of the name under which it carries on business in that country or territory (or an approximate translation in English of that name) if—
- (a) the name is used in immediate conjunction with the description “representative office”; and
 - (b) where the name appears in writing, that description is at least as prominent as the name;
- and in this subsection “representative office” has the same meaning as in Part IV of this Act.
- (6) Section 67 above does not apply to—
- (a) the Bank;
 - (b) the central bank of a member State other than the United Kingdom;
 - (c) the European Investment Bank;
 - (d) the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development;
 - (e) the African Development Bank;
 - (f) the Asian Development Bank;
 - (g) the Caribbean Development Bank;
 - (h) the Inter-American Development Bank.
- (7) The Treasury may, after consultation with the Bank, by order provide—
- (a) that the prohibition in section 67 above shall not apply to any person or class of persons; or
 - (b) that that prohibition shall apply to a person mentioned in any of paragraphs (c) to (h) of subsection (6) above or a person previously exempted from it by virtue of an order under paragraph (a) above.
- (8) An order under paragraph (a) of subsection (7) above shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament; and no order shall be made under paragraph (b) of that subsection unless a draft of it has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (9) Nothing in section 67 above shall prevent an institution which ceases to be an authorised institution to which that section or subsection (4) above applies or ceases to be exempted from the prohibition in that section by virtue of subsection (1) above from continuing to use any name it was previously permitted to use by virtue of that provision during the period of six months beginning with the day when it ceases to be such an institution.

69 Restriction on use of banking descriptions.

- (1) No person carrying on any business in the United Kingdom shall so describe himself or hold himself out as to indicate or reasonably be understood to indicate (whether in English or in any other language) that he is a bank or banker or is carrying on a banking business unless he is an authorised institution or is exempted from the requirements of this subsection under the following provisions of this section.
- (2) Subsection (1) above shall not be taken to authorise the use by an authorised institution to which the prohibition in section 67 above applies of any description of itself as a bank or banker or as carrying on a banking business which is in such immediate conjunction with the name of the institution that the description might reasonably be thought to be part of it.
- (3) Subsection (1) above does not prohibit the use by a building society authorised under the ^{M23}Building Societies Act 1986 of any description of itself as providing banking services unless the description is in such immediate conjunction with its name that it might reasonably be thought to be part of it.
- (4) Subsection (1) above does not prohibit a person from using the expression “bank” or “banker” (or a similar expression) where it is necessary for him to do so in order to be able to assert that he is complying with, or entitled to take advantage of, any enactment, any instrument made under an enactment, any international agreement, any rule of law or any commercial usage or practice which applies to a person by virtue of his being a bank or banker.
- (5) Subsection (1) above does not prohibit the use of a description by a relevant savings bank, a municipal bank or a school bank if the description is accompanied by a statement that the bank or body is a savings bank, a municipal bank or, as the case may be, a school bank; and for the purposes of this subsection “relevant savings bank” and “school bank” have the same meanings as in section 68 above.
- (6) Subsection (1) above does not apply to—
 - (a) the Bank;
 - (b) the central bank of a member State other than the United Kingdom;
 - (c) the European Investment Bank;
 - (d) the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development;
 - (e) the International Finance Corporation;
 - (f) the African Development Bank;
 - (g) the Asian Development Bank;
 - (h) the Caribbean Development Bank;
 - (i) the Inter-American Development Bank.

70 Power to object to institution's names.

- (1) Where an institution applies for authorisation under this Act it shall give notice to the Bank of any name it is using or proposes to use for the purposes of or in connection with any business carried on by it and the Bank may give the institution notice in writing—
- (a) that it objects to the notified name; or
- (b) in the case of an institution which is or will be obliged to disclose any name in connection with any business carried on by it by virtue of section 4 of the ^{M24}Business Names Act 1985 or Article 6 of the ^{M25}Business Names (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, that it objects to that name.
- (2) Where an authorised institution proposes to change any name it uses for the purposes of or in connection with any business carried on by it or, in the case of such an institution as is mentioned in subsection (1)(b) above, any such name as is there mentioned, it shall give notice to the Bank of the proposed name and the Bank may within the period of two months beginning with the day on which it receives the notification give notice to the institution in writing that it objects to the proposed name.
- (3) The Bank shall not give notice objecting to a name under subsection (1) or (2) above unless it considers that the name is misleading to the public or otherwise undesirable and, in the case of the use of a name by an authorised institution to which section 67 above applies—
- (a) the whole of the name shall be taken into account in considering whether it is misleading or undesirable; but
- (b) no objection may be made to so much of the name as it is entitled to use by virtue of that section.
- (4) Where as a result of a material change in circumstances since the time when notice was given to the Bank under subsection (1) or (2) above or as a result of further information becoming available to the Bank since that time, it appears to the Bank that a name to which it might have objected under that subsection gives so misleading an indication of the nature of the institution's activities as to be likely to cause harm to the public, the Bank may give notice in writing to the institution objecting to the name.

- (1) Where the Bank has given notice to an authorised institution under section 70 above the institution shall not use the name to which the Bank has objected for the purposes of or in connection with any business carried on in the United Kingdom after the objection has taken effect; and for the purposes of this subsection the disclosure of a name in connection with such a business by virtue of section 4 of the ^{M26}Business Names Act 1985 or Article 6 of the Business Names (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 shall be treated (if it would not otherwise be) as use for the purposes of that business.
- (2) For the purposes of this section an objection under section 70(1) or (2) above takes effect when the institution receives the notice of objection.
- (3) An institution to which a notice of objection is given under section 70(1) or (2) above may within the period of three weeks beginning with the day on which it receives the notice apply to the court to set aside the objection and on such an application the court may set it aside or confirm it (but without prejudice to its operation before that time).
- (4) For the purposes of this section an objection under section 70(4) above takes effect—
- in a case where no application is made under subsection (5) below, at the expiry of the period of two months beginning with the day on which the institution receives the notice of objection or such longer period as the notice may specify; or
 - where an application is made under subsection (5) below and the court confirms the objection, after such period as the court may specify.
- (5) An institution to which a notice of objection is given under section 70(4) above may within the period of three weeks beginning with the day on which it receives the notice apply to the court to set aside the objection.
- (6) In this section “the court” means the High Court, the Court of Session or the High Court in Northern Ireland according to whether—
- if the institution concerned is a company registered in the United Kingdom, it is registered in England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland; and
 - in the case of any other institution, its principal or prospective principal place of business in the United Kingdom is situated in England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland.

72 Registration of substitute corporate name by oversea company.

- (1) Where the Bank gives notice under section 70 above objecting to the corporate name of a company incorporated outside the United Kingdom, subsection (4) of section 694 of the Companies Act 1985 or, in Northern Ireland, paragraph (4) of Article 644 of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 shall apply, subject to subsection (2) below, as it applies where a notice is served on a company under subsection (1) or (2) of that section or, as the case may be, paragraph (1) or (2) of that Article.
- (2) No statement or further statement may be delivered under subsection (4) of section 694 or paragraph (4) of Article 644 by virtue of subsection (1) above unless the Bank has signified that it does not object to the name specified in the statement.
- (3) Section 70(2) above shall not apply to a proposed change of a name which has been registered under section 694(4) of the Companies Act 1985 or Article 644(4) of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 by virtue of subsection (1) above.

73 Offences under Part III.

A person who contravenes any provision in this Part of this Act shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the fifth level on the standard scale or to both and, where the contravention involves a public display or exhibition of any name or description, there shall be a fresh contravention on each day on which the person causes or permits the display or exhibition to continue.

PART IV

OVERSEAS INSTITUTIONS WITH REPRESENTATIVE OFFICES

74 Meaning of “overseas institution” and “representative office”.

- (1) In this Part of this Act “overseas institution” means a person (other than an authorised institution or any person for the time being specified in Schedule 2 to this Act) who—
 - (a) is a body corporate incorporated in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom or a partnership or other unincorporated association formed under the law of such a country or territory; or
 - (b) has his principal place of business in such a country or territory,being, in either case, a person who satisfies one of the conditions mentioned in subsection (2) below.
- (2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1) above are—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (a) that the person's principal place of business is outside the United Kingdom and the person is authorised by the relevant supervisory authority in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom;
 - (b) that the person describes himself or holds himself out as being authorised by such an authority in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom;
 - (c) that the person uses any name or in any other way so describes himself or holds himself out as to indicate or reasonably be understood to indicate (whether in English or any other language), that he is a bank or banker or is carrying on a banking business (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere).
- (3) In this Part of this Act “representative office”, in relation to any overseas institution, means premises from which the deposit-taking, lending or other financial or banking activities of the overseas institution are promoted or assisted in any way; and “establishment”, in relation to such an office, includes the making of any arrangements by virtue of which such activities are promoted or assisted from it.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C48 S. 74 amended (1.1.1993) by S.I. 1992/3218, reg. 47, Sch. 8 para.21.

75 Notice of establishment of representative office.

- (1) An overseas institution shall not establish a representative office in the United Kingdom unless it has given not less than two months' notice to the Bank that it proposes to establish such an office and a notice under this subsection shall specify—
- (a) any name the institution proposes to use in relation to activities conducted by it in the United Kingdom after the establishment of that office; and
 - (b) in the case of an institution which will be obliged to disclose any name in connection with those activities by virtue of section 4 of the Business Names Act 1985 or Article 6 of the Business Names (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, that name.
- (2) Where an overseas institution has established a representative office in the United Kingdom before the date on which this Part of this Act comes into force and has not given notice of that fact to the Bank under section 40 of the Banking Act 1979 it shall give notice in writing to the Bank of the continued existence of that office within the period of two months beginning with that date; and the obligation of an overseas institution to give notice under this subsection in respect of the establishment of an office established within the period of one month ending with that date shall supersede any obligation to give notice in respect of that matter under that section.
- (3) A notice under this section shall be given in such manner and form as the Bank may specify.

76 Power to object to names of overseas institutions.

- (1) An overseas institution which has established a representative office in the United Kingdom shall not change any name used by it in relation to activities conducted by it in the United Kingdom or, in the case of an institution which is obliged to disclose any name in connection with those activities as mentioned in section 75(1) above, that name unless it has given not less than two months' notice to the Bank of the proposed name.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Where notice of a name is given to the Bank by an overseas institution under section 75(1) or subsection (1) above and it appears to the Bank that the name is misleading to the public or otherwise undesirable it may, within the period of two months beginning with the day on which that notice was given, give notice in writing to the institution that it objects to that name.
- (3) Where it appears to the Bank that an overseas institution which has established a representative office in the United Kingdom before the date on which this Part of this Act comes into force is using a name in relation to activities conducted by it in the United Kingdom which is misleading to the public or otherwise undesirable, the Bank may give notice in writing to the institution that it objects to the name—
 - (a) in a case where the Bank was notified of the establishment of the representative office before that date, within the period of six months beginning with that date; and
 - (b) otherwise, within the period of six months beginning with the date on which the establishment of the representative office comes to the Bank's knowledge.
- (4) Where, as a result of a material change in circumstances since the time when notice of a name was given to the Bank under section 75(1) or subsection (1) above or as a result of further information becoming available to the Bank since that time, it appears to the Bank that the name is so misleading as to be likely to cause harm to the public, the Bank may give notice in writing to the overseas institution in question that it objects to the name.

77 Effect of notices under s. 76 and appeals.

- (1) Where the Bank has given notice under section 76 above to an overseas institution the institution shall not use the name to which the Bank has objected in relation to activities conducted by it in the United Kingdom after the objection has taken effect; and for the purposes of this subsection the disclosure of a name in connection with those activities as mentioned in section 75(1)(b) above shall be treated (if it would not otherwise be) as use of that name in relation to those activities.
- (2) For the purposes of this section an objection under section 76(2) above takes effect when the institution receives the notice of objection.
- (3) An institution to which a notice of objection is given under section 76(2) above may within the period of three weeks beginning with the day on which it receives the notice apply to the court to set aside the objection and on such an application the court may set it aside or confirm it (but without prejudice to its operation before that time).
- (4) For the purposes of this section an objection under section 76(3) or (4) above takes effect—
 - (a) in a case where no application is made under subsection (5) below, at the expiry of the period of two months beginning with the day on which the institution receives the notice of objection or such longer period as the notice may specify; or
 - (b) where an application is made under subsection (5) below and the court confirms the objection, after such period as the court may specify.
- (5) An institution to which a notice of objection is given under section 76(3) or (4) above may within the period of three weeks beginning with the day on which it receives the notice apply to the court to set aside the objection.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (6) In this section “the court” means the High Court, the Court of Session or the High Court in Northern Ireland according to whether the representative office of the institution in question is situated in England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland.

78 Registration of substitute corporate name by overseas institution.

- (1) Where the Bank gives notice under section 76 above objecting to the corporate name of an overseas institution, subsection (4) of section 694 of the Companies Act 1985 or, in Northern Ireland, paragraph (4) of Article 644 of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 shall apply, subject to subsection (2) below, as it applies where a notice is served on a company under subsection (1) or (2) of that section or, as the case may be, paragraph (1) or (2) of that Article.
- (2) No statement or further statement may be delivered under subsection (4) of section 694 or paragraph (4) of Article 644 by virtue of subsection (1) above unless the Bank has signified that it does not object to the name specified in the statement.
- (3) Section 76(1) above shall not apply to a change of a name which has been registered under section 694(4) of the Companies Act 1985 or Article 644(4) of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 by virtue of subsection (1) above.

79 Duty to provide information and documents. E+W+S

- (1) The Bank may by notice in writing require any overseas institution which has established a representative office in the United Kingdom or has given notice to the Bank under section 75(1) above of its intention to establish such an office to provide the Bank with such information or documents as the Bank may reasonably require.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, the Bank may by notice in writing require such an overseas institution to deliver to the Bank—
- (a) in the case of an overseas institution which is a company incorporated in the United Kingdom, copies of the documents which the company is required to send to the registrar of companies under section 10 of the Companies Act 1985 or Article 21 of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986;

[^{F40}(aa) in the case of an overseas institution to which section 690A of that Act applies, copies of the documents which it is required to deliver for registration in accordance with paragraph 1(1) or (2) of Schedule 21A of that Act;]
 - (b) in the case of an overseas institution to which section 691(1) of that Act or Article 641(1) of that Order applies, copies of the document which it is required to deliver for registration in accordance with that section or Article;
 - (c) in the case of any other overseas institution (other than an individual), information corresponding to that which would be contained in the documents which it would be required to deliver as mentioned in paragraph (b) above if it were a company to which section 691(1) applied;
 - (d) in the case of an overseas institution which is authorised to take deposits or conduct banking business in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom by the relevant supervisory authority in that country or territory, a certified copy of any certificate from that authority conferring such authorisation on it.
- (3) An overseas institution to which a notice is given under subsection (1) or (2) above shall comply with the notice—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (a) in the case of an institution which has established a representative office in the United Kingdom, before the end of such period as is specified in the notice; and
 - (b) in the case of an institution which has given notice under section 75(1) above of its intention to establish such an office, before it establishes the office.
- (4) If at any time an overseas institution which has been required to deliver information or documents to the Bank under subsection (2) above is required to deliver any document or give notice to the registrar of companies under section 18 or 288(2) of the said Act of 1985 or Article 29 or 296(2) of the said Order of 1986, it shall no later than the time by which it must have complied with that requirement deliver a copy of that document or give notice to the Bank.
- (5) If at any time an overseas institution is required to furnish any document or give notice to the registrar of companies under [F41]section 692, 695A(3) or 696 of, or paragraph 7 or 8 of Schedule 21A to,] the said Act of 1985 or Article 642 or 646 of the said Order of 1986 (or would be so required if it were a company to which [F42]that section, paragraph or Article applied)], it shall no later than the time by which it must have complied with that requirement deliver a copy of that document to the Bank.
- (6) If at any time a certificate of authorisation of which a copy was required to be delivered to the Bank under subsection (2)(d) above is amended or the authorisation is withdrawn, the overseas institution shall no later than one month after the amendment or withdrawal deliver a copy of the amended certificate or, as the case may be, a notice stating that the authorisation has been withdrawn to the Bank.
- (7) The Treasury may after consultation with the Bank by order provide that sections 39 and 40 above shall apply in relation to overseas institutions as they apply in relation to authorised institutions; but no order shall be made under this section unless a draft of it has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

80 Regulations imposing requirements on overseas-based banks.

- (1) The Treasury may, after consultation with the Bank, by regulations impose on overseas institutions which have established or propose to establish representative offices in the United Kingdom such requirements as the Treasury consider appropriate in connection with those offices and the activities conducted from them.
- (2) Regulations under this section may in particular require the establishment or continued existence of a representative office to be authorised by the Bank and such regulations may make provision for—
 - (a) the granting and revocation of such authorisations;
 - (b) the imposition of conditions in connection with the grant or retention of such authorisations; and
 - (c) appeals against the refusal or withdrawal of such authorisations or the imposition of such conditions.
- (3) No regulations shall be made under this section unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

81 Offences under Part IV.

A person who contravenes any provision in this Part of this Act or any requirement imposed under it shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the fifth level on the standard scale or to both and, where the contravention involves a public display or exhibition of any name or description, there shall be a fresh contravention on each day on which the person causes or permits the display or exhibition to continue.

82 Restricted information.

- (1) Except as provided by the subsequent provisions of this Part of this Act—
- (a) no person who under or for the purposes of this Act receives information relating to the business or other affairs of any person; and
 - (b) no person who obtains any such information directly or indirectly from a person who has received it as aforesaid,
- shall disclose the information without the consent of the person to whom it relates and (if different) the person from whom it was received as aforesaid.
- (2) This section does not apply to information which at the time of the disclosure is or has already been made available to the public from other sources or to information in the form of a summary or collection of information so framed as not to enable information relating to any particular person to be ascertained from it.
- (3) Any person who discloses information in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable—
- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both.

83 Disclosure for facilitating discharge of functions by the Bank.

- (1) Section 82 above does not preclude the disclosure of information in any case in which disclosure is for the purpose of enabling or assisting the Bank to discharge.
- [^{F43}(a) its function as a monetary authority; or
(b) its functions as a monetary authority; or
(c) its functions as a supervisor of money market and gilt market institutions]
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, that section does not preclude the disclosure of information by the Bank to the auditor of an authorised institution or former authorised institution if it appears to the Bank that disclosing the information would enable or assist the Bank to discharge the functions mentioned in that subsection or would otherwise be in the interests of depositors.
- (3) If, in order to enable or assist the Bank properly to discharge any of its functions under this Act, the Bank considers it necessary to seek advice from any qualified person on any matter of law, accountancy, valuation or other matter requiring the exercise of professional skill, section 82 above does not preclude the disclosure by the Bank to that person of such information as appears to the Bank to be necessary to ensure that he is properly informed with respect to the matters on which his advice is sought.

- (2) The Treasury may after consultation with the Bank by order amend the Table in subsection (1) above by—
- adding any person exercising regulatory functions and specifying functions in relation to that person;
 - moving any person for the time being specified in the Table; or
 - altering the functions for the time being specified in the Table in relation to any person;
- and the Treasury may also after consultation with the Bank by order restrict the circumstances in which, or impose conditions subject to which, disclosure is permitted in the case of any person for the time being specified in the Table.
- (3) An order under subsection (2) above shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (4) Section 82 above does not preclude the disclosure by any person specified in the first column of the Table in subsection (1) above of information obtained by him by virtue of that subsection if he makes the disclosure with the consent of the Bank and for the purpose of enabling or assisting him to discharge any functions specified in relation to him in the second column of that Table; and before deciding whether to give its consent to such a disclosure by any person the Bank shall take account of such representations made by him as to the desirability of or the necessity for the disclosure.
- F62 Section 82 above does not preclude the disclosure by the Bank of information to the Treasury if disclosure appears to the Bank to be—
- desirable or expedient in the interests of depositors; or
 - in the public interest,
- and (in either case) in accordance with article 12(7) of the First Council Directive ^{F63}.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Banking Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (5A) Section 82 above does not preclude the disclosure by the Bank of information to the Secretary of State for purposes other than those specified in relation to him in subsection (1) above if the disclosure is made with the consent of the Treasury and—
- (a) the information relates to an authorised institution or former authorised institution and does not enable the financial affairs of any other identifiable person to be ascertained and disclosure appears to the Bank to be necessary in the interests of depositors or in the public interest; or
 - (b) in any other case, disclosure appears to the Bank to be necessary in the interests of depositors;
- and (in either case) disclosure appears to the Bank to be in accordance with article 12(7) of the First Council Directive.]
- (6) Section 82 above does not preclude the disclosure of information for the purpose of enabling or assisting an authority in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom to exercise—
- (a) functions corresponding to those of—
 - (i) the Bank under this Act [^{F64}or the Banking Coordination (Second Council Directive) Regulations 1992];
 - (ii) the Secretary of State [^{F65}or the Treasury] under the ^{M33}Insurance Companies Act 1982, Part XIII of the ^{M34}Insolvency Act 1986 or the ^{M35}Financial Services Act 1986; or
 - (iii) the competent authority under Part IV of the Financial Services Act 1986;
 - (b) functions in connection with rules of law corresponding to any of the provisions of [^{F66}Part V of the Criminal Justice Act 1993 (insider dealing)] or Part VII of the ^{M36}Financial Services Act 1986; or
 - (c) supervisory functions in respect of bodies carrying on business corresponding to that of building societies.
- [^{F67}(7) Subsection (6) above does not apply in relation to disclosures to an authority which is not a supervisory authority in another member State unless the Bank is satisfied that the authority is subject to restrictions on further disclosures at least equivalent to those imposed by this Part of this Act.
- (8) Information which is disclosed to a person in pursuance of subsection (1), (4) or (6) above shall not be used otherwise than for the purpose mentioned in that subsection.
- (9) Any person who uses information in contravention of subsection (8) above shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding the fifth level on the standard scale or to both.
- (10) Any reference in this section to enabling or assisting any person to discharge or exercise any functions is a reference to enabling or assisting that person to discharge or exercise those functions in relation to—
- (a) a financial market; or
 - (b) persons carrying on the business of banking or insurance, Consumer Credit Act businesses or the business of providing other financial services;
- and in this subsection 'Consumer Credit Act business' has the same meaning as in the Banking Coordination (Second Council Directive) Regulations 1992.]

For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that a notice under section 183 of the Financial Services Act 1986 (disqualification or restriction of persons connected with overseas countries which do not afford reciprocal facilities for financial business) may be served on any person connected with the country in question who is carrying on or appears to the Secretary of State or the Treasury to intend to carry on in, or in relation to, the United Kingdom business of any of the descriptions specified in subsection (1) of that section whether or not it is of the same description as that affected by the less favourable terms which are the occasion for the service of the notice.

92 Winding up on petition from the Bank.

(1) On a petition presented by the Bank by virtue of this section the court having jurisdiction under the ^{M44}Insolvency Act 1986 may wind up an authorised institution or former authorised institution if—

- (a) the institution is unable to pay its debts within the meaning of section 123 or, as the case may be, section 221 of that Act; or
- (b) the court is of the opinion that it is just and equitable that the institution should be wound up;

and for the purposes of such a petition an institution which defaults in an obligation to pay any sum due and payable in respect of a deposit shall be deemed to be unable to pay its debts as mentioned in paragraph (a) above.

(2) Where a petition is presented under subsection (1) above for the winding up of a partnership on the ground mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection or, in Scotland, on the ground mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of that subsection, the court shall have jurisdiction and the ^{M45}Insolvency Act 1986 shall have effect as if the partnership were an unregistered company within the meaning of section 220 of that Act.

(3) On a petition presented by the Bank by virtue of this section the High Court in Northern Ireland may wind up an authorised institution if—

- (a) the institution is unable to pay its debts within the meaning of [^{F77}Article 103 or, as the case may be, Article 185 of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989]; or
- (b) the court is of the opinion that it is just and equitable that the institution should be wound up;

and for the purposes of such a petition an institution which defaults in an obligation to pay any sum due and payable in respect of a deposit shall be deemed to be unable to pay its debts as mentioned in paragraph (a) above.

(4) Where a petition is presented under subsection (3) above for the winding up of a partnership on the ground mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection, the court shall have jurisdiction and the said Order of [^{F78}1989] shall have effect as if the partnership were an unregistered company within the meaning of [^{F78}Article 184] of that Order.

(5) For the purposes of this section the definition of deposit in section 5 above shall be treated as including any sum that would otherwise be excluded by subsection (3)(a), (b) or (c) of that section.

- (4) Section 4(3)(b) (spent conviction not to be ground for excluding person from office, occupation etc.) shall not—
- (a) prevent the Bank from refusing to grant or revoking an authorisation on the ground that an individual is not a fit and proper person to be a director, controller or manager of the institution in question or from imposing a restriction or giving a direction requiring the removal of an individual as director, controller or manager of an institution; or
- (b) prevent an authorised institution, a former authorised institution or an institution which has made an application for authorisation which has not yet been disposed of from dismissing or excluding an individual from being a director, controller or manager of the institution,
- by reason, or partly by reason, of a spent conviction of that individual for such an offence as is mentioned in subsection (1) above or any circumstances ancillary to such a conviction or of a failure (whether or not by that individual) to disclose such a conviction or any such circumstances.
- (5) For the purposes of subsections (3) and (4) above an application by an institution is not disposed of until the decision of the Bank on the application is communicated to the institution.
- (6) This section shall apply to Northern Ireland with the substitution for the references to the said Act of 1974 and section 4(1), (2) and (3)(b) of that Act of references to the Rehabilitation of Offenders (Northern Ireland) Order 1978 and Article 5(1), (2) and (3)(b) of that Order.
