

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 4

COMMUNITY CHARGES: ENFORCEMENT

PART II

CHARGES: SOLE LIABILITY

Relationship between remedies

- 12 As regards a case where a magistrates' court has made a liability order, regulations under this Schedule may include provision that—
- (a) attachment of earnings may be resorted to more than once;
  - (b) deductions from income support may be resorted to more than once;
  - (c) distress may be resorted to more than once;
  - (d) attachment of earnings, deductions from income support and distress (or any two of them) may be resorted to in any order or alternately (or both);
  - (e) steps by way of attachment, deduction, distress, commitment, bankruptcy, winding up or charging may not be taken while steps by way of another of those methods are being taken;
  - (f) where a warrant of commitment is issued against (or a term of imprisonment is fixed in the case of) the person concerned no steps, or no further steps, by way of attachment, deduction, distress, bankruptcy or charging may be taken.