

Representation of the People Act 1989

CHAPTER 28

REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE ACT 1989

Further provisions about enfranchisement of British citizens overseas

- 1 Extension of permitted period of overseas residence.
- 2 Extension to those not previously registered in United Kingdom because of age.
- 3 Provisions supplementary to section 2.
- 4 Abolition of declaration of intent.
- 5 Annual reminders to overseas electors.

Election expenses

- 6 Increase of limits on expenses of candidates at parliamentary by-elections.

General

- 7 Expenses.
- 8 Short title, commencement and extent.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Representation of the People Act 1989.