

Brunei (Appeals) Act 1989

1989 CHAPTER 36

U.K.

An Act to make provision with respect to the reference of appeals from the Supreme Court of Brunei Darussalam to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council. [16th November 1989]

Whereas arrangements, intended to be recorded in an Exchange of Notes, are being made between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Government of Brunei Darussalam for the reference of appeals from the Supreme Court of Brunei Darussalam to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Appeals from Supreme Court of Brunei Darussalam. U.K.

- (1) In this Act “arrangements” means arrangements made (whether before or after the passing of this Act) between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Government of Brunei Darussalam with respect to the reference of appeals from the Supreme Court of Brunei Darussalam to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.
- (2) Her Majesty may by Order in Council confer on the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council such jurisdiction in respect of appeals from the Supreme Court of Brunei Darussalam as appears to Her to be appropriate for giving effect to any arrangements.
- (3) An Order under subsection (2) above may, in particular—
 - (a) determine—
 - (i) the classes of case in which, and the conditions as to leave and otherwise subject to which, any such appeal may be entertained by the Committee; and
 - (ii) the practice and procedure to be followed on any such appeal; and
