

Football Spectators Act 1989

1989 CHAPTER 37

[^{F1}PART II

REGULATED FOOTBALL MATCHES]

[^{F1}Banning orders]

^{F1}[14E Banning orders: general.

- (1) On making a banning order, a court must in ordinary language explain its effect to the person subject to the order.
- (2) A banning order must require the person subject to the order to report initially at a police station ^{F2}... specified in the order within the period of five days beginning with the day on which the order is made.

[A banning order must require the person subject to the order to give notification of ^{F3}(2A) the events mentioned in subsection (2B) to the enforcing authority.

(2B) The events are—

- (a) a change of any of his names;
- (b) the first use by him after the making of the order of a name for himself that was not disclosed by him at the time of the making of the order;
- (c) a change of his home address;
- (d) his acquisition of a temporary address;
- (e) a change of his temporary address or his ceasing to have one;
- (f) his becoming aware of the loss of his [^{F4}passport] ;
- (g) receipt by him of a new [^{F4}passport] ;
- (h) an appeal made by him in relation to the order;
- (i) an application made by him under section 14H(2) for termination of the order;
- (j) an appeal made by him under section 23(3) against the making of a declaration of relevance in respect of an offence of which he has been convicted.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Football Spectators Act 1989, Section 14E. (See end of Document for details)

- (2C) A notification required by a banning order by virtue of subsection (2A) must be given before the end of the period of seven days beginning with the day on which the event in question occurs and—
 - (a) in the case of a change of a name or address or the acquisition of a temporary address, must specify the new name or address;
 - (b) in the case of a first use of a previously undisclosed name, must specify that name; and
 - (c) in the case of a receipt of a new [^{F4}passport], must give details of that [^{F4}passport] .]
- (3) A banning order must ^{F5}... impose a requirement as to the surrender in accordance with this Part, in connection with regulated football matches outside the United Kingdom, of the [^{F4}passport] of the person subject to the order.
- ^{F6}(4)
- (5) In the case of a person detained in legal custody—
 - (a) the requirement under this section to report at a police station, and
 - (b) any requirement imposed under section 19 below, is suspended until his release from custody.
- (6) If—
 - (a) he is released from custody more than five days before the expiry of the period for which the order has effect, and
 - (b) he was precluded by his being in custody from reporting initially, the order is to have effect as if it required him to report initially at the police station specified in the order within the period of five days beginning with the date of his release.]
- ^{F7}(7)
- [^{F8}(8) In this section—
 - “declaration of relevance” has the same meaning as in section 23;
 - “home address”, in relation to any person, means the address of his sole or main residence;
 - “loss” includes theft or destruction;
 - “new” includes replacement;
 - “temporary address”, in relation to any person, means the address (other than his home address) of a place at which he intends to reside, or has resided, for a period of at least four weeks.]
