

Prisons (Scotland) Act 1989

1989 CHAPTER 45

Confinement and treatment of prisoners

10 Place of confinement of prisoners

Prisoners shall be committed to such prison as may be appointed by rules under this Act, and a convicted criminal prisoner may be removed by the Secretary of State from any one prison to any other prison for the purpose of undergoing any part of his sentence.