

Gaming (Amendment) Act 1990

1990 CHAPTER 26

An Act to amend the provisions of the Gaming Act 1968 relating to premises licensed or registered under Part II of that Act. [13th July 1990]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Amendments of Gaming Act 1968.

Part II of the ^{M1}Gaming Act 1968 and Schedules 2 to 4 to that Act shall have effect with the amendments specified in the Schedule to this Act, being amendments the principal purpose of which is—

- (a) to make new provision with respect to the keeping and production of records in connection with club premises licensed under that Part;
- (b) to require the payment of fees when certificates of consent under Schedule 2 are applied for;
- (c) to require an application for the continuance of a certificate of consent to be made where the certificate is held by a body corporate and there is a change in a controller of that body; and
- (d) to require a public company which is the holder of a licence to notify changes in the holding of its shares.

Application for continuance of consent certificate

5 After paragraph 35 of Schedule 2 there shall be inserted—

“ Application for continuance of certificate following change of controller of body corporate.

- 35A (1) Where the holder of a certificate of consent to his applying for the grant of a licence under this Act (other than a certificate limited to a bingo club licence) is a body corporate and at any time while the certificate is in force any person becomes a controller of the holder—
- (a) the holder shall make an application to the Board for the continuance of the certificate in accordance with this paragraph; and
 - (b) on such an application the Board shall continue the certificate in force unless they determine to revoke it under the subsequent provisions of this paragraph.
- (2) An application under this paragraph shall contain such particulars as the holder of the certificate can reasonably provide of the controller in question and of the nature and extent of his interest in the holder of the certificate and in any body corporate of which the holder is a subsidiary.
- (3) An application under this paragraph shall be made within five weeks of the time when the person in question becomes a controller of the holder of the certificate but the Board may, in any particular case, entertain an application made later if—
- (a) they are satisfied that the failure to make it before the end of that period was due to inadvertence; and
 - (b) the application is made before the end of such extended period as the Board may in that case allow.
- (4) The Board may on an application under this paragraph revoke the certificate to which the application relates if it appears to them that, if the holder were then applying for such a certificate under paragraph 4 of this Schedule, they would in accordance with sub-paragraphs (5) and (6) of that paragraph determine not to issue it; and the Board may also revoke a certificate if the holder fails to make an application in respect of it in accordance with this paragraph in a case in which this paragraph requires him to do so.
- (5) Where a licence (other than a bingo club licence) is transferred to a body corporate and—
- (a) a person has become a controller of that body corporate at any time between the issuing of a certificate consenting to the application for the transfer and the transfer of the licence; or
 - (b) a person becomes a controller of that body corporate at any subsequent time, sub-paragraphs (1) to (4) above shall apply to that body corporate as they apply to the holder of the certificate by virtue of which the application for the licence was originally made except that the period of five weeks mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) shall, in a case within paragraph (a) above, run from the date on which the licence was transferred.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1997.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Gaming (Amendment) Act 1990 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Where on an application under this paragraph the Board continue a certificate in force they shall serve on the applicant a notice stating that they have done so; and sub-paragraphs (4), (5) and (6) of paragraph 35 of this Schedule shall have effect in relation to the revocation of a certificate by virtue of this paragraph as they have effect in relation to the revocation of a certificate by virtue of that paragraph.
- (7) In this paragraph “controller”, in relation to a body corporate, means a person who, either alone or with any associate or associates, is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, 15 per cent. or more of the voting power at any general meeting of the body corporate or of another body corporate of which it is a subsidiary.
- (8) In sub-paragraph (7) above “associate”, in relation to a person entitled to exercise or control the exercise of voting power in relation to a body corporate means—
- (a) the wife or husband or son or daughter of that person;
 - (b) any company of which that person is a director;
 - (c) any person who is an employee or partner of that person;
 - (d) if that person is a company—
 - (i) any director of that company;
 - (ii) any subsidiary of that company; and
 - (iii) any director or employee of any subsidiary; and
 - (e) if that person has with any other person an agreement or arrangement with respect to the acquisition, holding or disposal of shares or other interests in that body corporate or under which they undertake to act together in exercising their voting power in relation to it, that other person.
- (9) In this paragraph “subsidiary” has the same meaning as in the Companies Act 1985.”

Notification of change in shareholding in public company

6 After paragraph 64 of Schedule 2 there shall be inserted—

“ Notification of change in shareholding in public company

- 64A (1) Where the holder of a licence under this Act (other than a bingo club licence) is a public company, then, if at any time the company receives any notification under Part VI of the Companies Act 1985, the company shall send a copy of the notification to the Board as soon as reasonably practicable after that time.
- (2) A company which fails to comply with sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.
- (3) In this paragraph “public company” has the meaning given by section 1(3) of the said Act of 1985.”

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/1997.
