

Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 1990

1990 CHAPTER 37

Principal terms used

1 Meaning of “embryo”, “gamete” and associated expressions.

- (1) In this Act, except where otherwise stated—
  - (a) embryo means a live human embryo where fertilisation is complete, and
  - (b) references to an embryo include an egg in the process of fertilisation, and, for this purpose, fertilisation is not complete until the appearance of a two cell zygote.
- (2) This Act, so far as it governs bringing about the creation of an embryo, applies only to bringing about the creation of an embryo outside the human body; and in this Act—
  - (a) references to embryos the creation of which was brought about in vitro (in their application to those where fertilisation is complete) are to those where fertilisation began outside the human body whether or not it was completed there, and
  - (b) references to embryos taken from a woman do not include embryos whose creation was brought about in vitro.
- (3) This Act, so far as it governs the keeping or use of an embryo, applies only to keeping or using an embryo outside the human body.
- (4) References in this Act to gametes, eggs or sperm, except where otherwise stated, are to live human gametes, eggs or sperm but references below in this Act to gametes or eggs do not include eggs in the process of fertilisation.

Third party agreements

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a “third party agreement” is an agreement in writing between a person who holds a licence and another person which is made in accordance with any licence conditions imposed by the Authority for the purpose of securing compliance with the requirements of Article 24 of the first Directive (relations between tissue establishments and third parties) and under which the other person—
  - (a) procures, tests or processes gametes or embryos (or both), on behalf of the holder of the licence, or
  - (b) supplies to the holder of the licence any goods or services (including distribution services) which may affect the quality or safety of gametes or embryos.
- (2) In this Act—

“relevant third party premises”, in relation to a licence, means any premises (other than premises to which the licence relates)—

  - (a) on which a third party procures, tests, processes or distributes gametes or embryos on behalf of any person in connection with activities carried out by that person under a licence, or
  - (b) from which a third party provides any goods or services which may affect the quality or safety of gametes or embryos to any person in connection with activities carried out by that person under a licence;

“third party” means a person with whom a person who holds a licence has a third party agreement.
- (3) References in this Act to the persons to whom a third party agreement applies are to—
  - (a) the third party,
  - (b) any person designated in the third party agreement as a person to whom the agreement applies, and
