

Representation of the People Act 1991

1991 CHAPTER 11

1 Charges for returning officers' services and expenses.

- (1) Section 29 of the <sup>M1</sup> Representation of the People Act 1983 (payments by and to returning officers) shall be amended as follows.
- (2) For subsections (3) and (4) there shall be substituted—
  - “(3) A returning officer shall be entitled to recover his charges in respect of services properly rendered, or expenses properly incurred, for or in connection with a parliamentary election if—
    - (a) the services or expenses are of a kind specified in an order made by the Treasury; and
    - (b) the charges are reasonable.
  - (4) In any order made under subsection (3) above the Treasury may specify a maximum recoverable amount for services or expenses of any specified description and, subject to subsection (4A) below, the returning officer may not recover more than that amount in respect of any such services or expenses.
  - (4A) The Treasury may, in a particular case, authorise the payment of more than the specified maximum amount for any specified services or expenses if satisfied—
    - (a) that it was reasonable for the returning officer concerned to render the services or incur the expenses; and
    - (b) that the charges in question are reasonable.
  - (4B) Any order under subsection (3) above which specifies a maximum amount for services or expenses of a particular description may—
    - (a) provide for that amount to increase at prescribed dates, or after prescribed periods, by reference to such formula or other method of determination as may be specified in the order; and
    - (b) make such transitional provision in connection with any such increase as the Treasury consider appropriate.
