

Severn Bridges Act 1992

1992 CHAPTER 3

An Act to provide for the construction of a new bridge over the Severn Estuary between England and Wales and roads leading to the new bridge and associated works; to make provision for the levying of tolls in respect of use of the existing Severn bridge and the new bridge; to make other provision for and in connection with the operation of the bridges; and for connected purposes. [13th February 1992]

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART I

CONSTRUCTION OF NEW SEVERN BRIDGE

1 Construction of new bridge and other works.

- (1) The Secretary of State may construct the works specified in Part I of Schedule 1 to this Act ("the scheduled works"), being works for the construction of a new bridge over the Severn Estuary between England and Wales and roads leading to the new bridge and associated works.
- (2) Subject to Part II of that Schedule (supplementary provisions relating to the scheduled works, including provisions permitting deviation from the deposited plans and the deposited sections), the scheduled works shall be constructed in the lines or situations shown on those plans and in accordance with the levels shown on those sections.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Severn Bridges Act 1992. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

2 Acquisition and occupation of land.

- (1) The Secretary of State is authorised by this section to acquire compulsorily—
- (a) so much of the land shown on the deposited plans within the limits of deviation for the scheduled works as may be required for or in connection with the works authorised by this Act,
 - (b) so much of the land specified in columns (1) and (2) in Part I of Schedule 2 to this Act, and shown on the deposited plans within the limits of land to be acquired, as may be required for the purpose specified in relation to the land in column (3) in that Part of that Schedule, and
 - (c) so much of the land in the Community of Rogiet in the Borough of Monmouth shown numbered 34, 49, 50, 55, 56, 57 and 59 on the deposited plans as may be required for the relocation of the rifle range in the Community of Caldicot in that Borough in consequence of the acquisition of the land numbered 2 and 2a on those plans.
- (2) Nothing in this section authorises the Secretary of State to acquire compulsorily any of the land in the City of Bristol shown numbered 25, 41 or 42 on the deposited plans.
- (3) Part I of the ^{M1}Compulsory Purchase Act 1965 (except section 4 and paragraph 3(3) of Schedule 3), in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, shall apply to the acquisition of land under this section—
- (a) as it applies to a compulsory purchase to which Schedule 1 to the ^{M2}Acquisition of Land Act 1981 applies, and
 - (b) as if this Act were a compulsory purchase order under that Act.
- (4) A notice to treat under Part I of the Compulsory Purchase Act 1965 for the purpose of acquiring land under this section shall not be served after 31st December 1995.
- (5) The ^{M3}Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 shall not apply to the acquisition of land under this section.
- (6) Schedule 2 to this Act (supplementary provisions as to land acquisition, temporary occupation of land etc.) shall have effect.

PART II

OPERATION OF SEVERN BRIDGES

Introductory

4 Concession agreement.

- (1) Where (either before or after the passing of this Act) the Secretary of State enters into an agreement with a person for the construction by that person of the new bridge (whether or not together with any other of the scheduled works), the agreement may also provide—
- (a) for the power to levy tolls in respect of use of the bridges which is conferred on the Secretary of State by section 5 below to be exercisable by that person in accordance with section 6 below, and
 - (b) for all relevant functions, or so many of them as may be specified in the agreement, to be exercisable by that person in accordance with section 15 below.
- (2) In this Act—
- (a) “the concessionaire” means the person with whom the Secretary of State enters into an agreement making the provision mentioned in subsection (1) above, and
 - (b) “concession agreement” means an agreement making the provision mentioned in subsection (1) above (together with any agreement supplementing it).
- (3) In this Act “relevant functions” means functions of the Secretary of State—
- (a) with respect to the maintenance and improvement of, or other dealing with—
 - (i) the bridges or the highways carried by them, or
 - (ii) the toll plaza areas or the highways within them,
 - (b) with respect to any land which may be acquired by the Secretary of State in exercise of any of his powers under Part XII of the ^{M4}Highways Act 1980 in relation to any highway or other area within paragraph (a) above, and
 - (c) under sections 29 and 30 below,
- other than the power to levy tolls.

Tolls

5 Power of Secretary of State to levy tolls.

- (1) Tolls may be levied by the Secretary of State in respect of vehicles using either of the bridges.
- (2) Subject to section 11 below, tolls may only be levied in respect of vehicles travelling from east to west.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Severn Bridges Act 1992. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The power to levy tolls shall commence—
 - (a) with the appointed day, as respects vehicles using the existing bridge, and
 - (b) with the day on which the new bridge is first open for public use, as respects vehicles using that bridge.
- (4) The power to levy tolls shall terminate at the end of the period of 35 years beginning with the appointed day.
- (5) The Secretary of State may appoint any person to collect tolls as his agent.
- (6) A local authority may enter into an agreement with the Secretary of State (on such terms and subject to such conditions, as to payment or otherwise, as they consider appropriate) to perform such services and provide such facilities as may be specified in the agreement in connection with the collection of tolls; and a local authority may perform services and provide facilities in accordance with such an agreement.
- (7) No agreement entered into under section 17(1) of the ^{M5}Severn Bridge Tolls Act 1965 (agreement between Secretary of State and local authority for performance of services and provision of facilities in connection with tolling) shall have effect on or after the appointed day.

6 Exercise of power to levy tolls by concessionaire.

- (1) Where a concession agreement is subsisting on the appointed day, the power to levy tolls conferred on the Secretary of State by section 5 above shall be exercisable by the concessionaire (instead of by the Secretary of State) during the concession period.
- (2) The power shall be exercised by the concessionaire in accordance with the concession agreement.
- (3) In this Act “the concession period” means the period—
 - (a) beginning with the appointed day, and
 - (b) ending at the time specified in subsection (4) below.
- (4) The time referred to in subsection (3)(b) above is the earliest of—
 - (a) the end of the period of 30 years beginning with the appointed day,
 - (b) any time determined under subsection (5) below as that at which the right of the concessionaire to exercise the power to levy tolls is to end, and
 - (c) any earlier time at which, in accordance with the concession agreement, that right is to end.
- (5) Where it appears to the Secretary of State that the revenue requirement has been met on a day, the right of the concessionaire to exercise the power to levy tolls shall end at such time after that day as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (6) The time determined under subsection (5) above shall not be later than the end of the period of 120 days beginning with the day mentioned in that subsection; but (subject to that) the determination under that subsection shall be made in accordance with the concession agreement.

- (7) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) the revenue requirement is met on a day if the aggregate amount of toll income received by the concessionaire on or before that day is equal to or greater than the amount which he is entitled to receive in accordance with the concession agreement, and
 - (b) “toll income” means tolls and sums received in lieu of tolls which, in accordance with the concession agreement, are to be treated for the purposes of this section in the same way as tolls.
- (8) Subject to the concession agreement—
- (a) in exercising the power to levy tolls in accordance with this section the concessionaire shall not be regarded for any purpose as acting as the agent of the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) in accordance with paragraph (a) above, tolls levied by the concessionaire shall be payable to him and be his property.
- (9) The concessionaire may appoint any person to collect tolls as his agent.
- (10) A local authority may enter into an agreement with the concessionaire (on such terms and subject to such conditions, as to payment or otherwise, as they consider appropriate) to perform such services and provide such facilities as may be specified in the agreement in connection with the collection of tolls; and a local authority may perform services and provide facilities in accordance with such an agreement.

7 Early end of tolling by Secretary of State.

- (1) Where it appears to the Secretary of State that the funding requirement is met on a day on which the power to levy tolls is being exercised by him, no tolls shall be levied by him after that day.
- (2) For the purposes of this section the funding requirement is met on a day if the aggregate of the receipts mentioned in paragraph 1 of Schedule 4 to this Act before that day is equal to or greater than the amount required before that day for the purposes specified in paragraph 2 of that Schedule.

8 Vehicles subject to tolls.

- (1) Tolls may be levied in respect of the following descriptions of vehicles (and no others)
- (a) motor cars and motor caravans (category 1 vehicles),
 - (b) small goods vehicles and small buses (category 2 vehicles), and
 - (c) other goods vehicles and buses (category 3 vehicles);
- and where a vehicle would otherwise fall within more than one category it shall be taken for the purposes of this Act to fall only within that with the lower or lowest number.
- (2) In this section—

9 Level of tolls.

- (1) Subject to section 11(3) below, the toll leviable in respect of a vehicle of a category shall be that fixed for the time being in respect of vehicles of that category by an order made by the Secretary of State under subsection (2) below.
- (2) The Secretary of State shall—
 - (a) before the appointed day make an order to come into force on that day, and
 - (b) in each month of December beginning after that day make an order to come into force at the beginning of the year commencing immediately after the end of that month.
- (3) Subject to the following provisions of this section and sections 10 and 11 below, the amount of the toll to be fixed by an order under subsection (2) above in respect of each of the categories of vehicles specified in section 8(1) above shall be—
 - (a) in the case of an order under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) above, the amount specified in the table below with respect to the category for the year in which the appointed day falls, as adjusted in accordance with subsection (4) below, and
 - (b) in the case of an order under paragraph (b) of that subsection, the amount so specified for the year at the beginning of which the order is to come into force, as so adjusted.

2	£4.70	£5.02	£5.35	£5.71
3	£7.05	£7.52	£8.03	£8.56

- (4) The adjustment in the amounts specified in the table in subsection (3) above which is referred to in that subsection is an adjustment by the same percentage as the percentage difference between the retail prices index for March 1989 and the retail prices index for the month of September immediately preceding the making of the order.
- (5) Where a change in any amount specified in the provisions of the concession agreement corresponding to the table in subsection (3) above is made in response to the occurrence of any of the particular circumstances in which the agreement authorises the making of such a change, the Secretary of State may by order provide for the same change to be made in that table.
- (6) An amount which falls in accordance with subsections (3) to (5) above to be fixed by an order under subsection (2) above—
- (a) if it is neither a multiple of ten pence nor an amount which on division by ten produces a remainder of five pence, shall be rounded to the nearest ten pence, and
 - (b) if it is an amount which on division by ten produces a remainder of five pence, shall be increased by five pence.

10 Level of tolls: supplementary.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below—
- (a) an order under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 9 above may fix tolls at an amount less than that arrived at in accordance with that section, and
 - (b) where the amount of a toll which, in accordance with that section, falls to be fixed by an order under paragraph (b) of that subsection in respect of a category of vehicles exceeds that in force under the last order made under that subsection, the new order may fix an amount which does not implement the increase or implements it only in part.
- (2) If it appears to the Secretary of State that at the time when an order under section 9(2) above is to come into force the power to levy tolls will be exercisable by the concessionaire, the order shall not fix tolls in accordance with subsection (1) above except with the concessionaire's consent.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, the references in section 9(4) above to the retail prices index are references to the general index of retail prices (for all items) published by the Central Statistical Office of the Chancellor of the Exchequer.
- (4) If that index is not published for any month those references are references to any other index, or substitute for an index, for that month which the Secretary of State may by order prescribe; and in determining which index or substitute to prescribe the Secretary of State shall have regard to any relevant provisions of the concession agreement.

11 Two-way tolling.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order provide for tolls to be leviable in respect of vehicles travelling from west to east (as well as in respect of vehicles travelling from east to west).
- (2) Where at the time of the making of an order under subsection (2) of section 9 above it appears to the Secretary of State that on its coming into force tolls will be leviable in respect of vehicles travelling from west to east (as well as vehicles travelling from east to west), the amount of the tolls to be fixed by the order shall be determined as if the amounts specified in the table in subsection (3) of that section were one-half of the amounts actually so specified.
- (3) Where an order under subsection (1) above comes into force on a day which is neither the appointed day nor the first day of a year, the toll leviable in respect of a vehicle of a category on and after the day on which it comes into force until the end of the year in which that day falls shall be that fixed in respect of vehicles of that category by that order.
- (4) The amounts of the tolls to be fixed by such an order—
 - (a) subject to paragraph (b) below, shall be determined as they would have been for the purposes of the order fixing the amounts of the tolls leviable immediately before it comes into force (“the current order”) in accordance with subsection (2) above, and
 - (b) where it revokes an earlier order providing for the levying of tolls in respect of vehicles travelling from west to east (as well as in respect of vehicles travelling from east to west), shall be determined as they would have been determined for the purposes of the current order but for that subsection.

12 Temporary suspension of tolls.

- (1) Tolls may be suspended—
 - (a) by the concessionaire for any period during which the power of the Secretary of State to levy tolls is exercisable by him, and
 - (b) by the Secretary of State for any other period.
- (2) A suspension under this section may relate—
 - (a) to all vehicles,
 - (b) only to vehicles using the existing bridge or only to vehicles using the new bridge, or
 - (c) (when there is in force an order under section 11(1) above providing for tolls to be leviable in respect of vehicles travelling from west to east as well as in respect of vehicles travelling from east to west) only to vehicles travelling in one direction.

13 Pre-payment of tolls.

- (1) The Secretary of State, or (if the power to levy tolls is exercisable by the concessionaire) the concessionaire, may enter into agreements under which persons make payments in advance, on such terms as may be agreed, with respect to tolls for use of the bridges by them, by other persons or by any vehicles.

- (2) Agreements may relate to use on an agreed number of occasions or during an agreed period.
- (3) Prepaid vouchers issued in accordance with an order under section 2(3) of the ^{M9}Severn Bridge Tolls Act 1965 shall not be valid on or after the appointed day; but where—
- (a) any such vouchers have not been used before that day, and
 - (b) the person to whom they were issued makes an application to the Secretary of State within such period beginning with the appointed day as the Secretary of State may direct, the Secretary of State may make to him in respect of the unused vouchers a payment of such amount as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.

14 Payment regulations and offences.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
- (a) designate places within the toll plaza areas at which tolls (other than tolls with respect to which a pre-payment has been made) are to be paid,
 - (b) make provision as to the persons by whom, and the manner in which, such tolls are to be paid,
 - (c) make provision for securing that vehicles in respect of which tolls are leviable do not use either of the bridges without payment of the tolls, and
 - (d) make provision for preventing a vehicle which, having used one of the bridges, has arrived at the place at which a toll is payable in respect of it from proceeding beyond that place without the toll having been paid.
- (2) Regulations made under this section shall provide for a notice, specifying—
- (a) the categories of vehicles in respect of which tolls are leviable,
 - (b) the amount of the tolls in respect of each category, and
 - (c) other provisions in accordance with which tolls are leviable,
- to be displayed at each place designated in accordance with subsection (1)(a) above.
- (3) Regulations under this section may include provisions modifying the general provisions of the regulations in the case of vehicles in relation to which a pre-payment of tolls has been made.
- (4) A person who without reasonable excuse—
- (a) refuses or fails to pay a toll for which he is liable, or
 - (b) attempts to evade payment of such a toll,
- shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

Management of bridges etc.

15 Exercise of relevant functions by concessionaire.

- (1) Where a concession agreement is subsisting on the appointed day, all relevant functions, or so many of them as are specified in the concession agreement, shall be exercisable by the concessionaire (instead of by the Secretary of State) during the concession period.
- (2) The functions concerned shall be exercised by the concessionaire in accordance with the concession agreement.
- (3) In exercising a function in accordance with this section the concessionaire shall not be regarded for any purpose as acting as the agent of the Secretary of State.
- (4) The concessionaire may enter into and carry into effect agreements with any person for any purpose connected with the exercise of any relevant function.
- (5) Nothing in this section or in the concession agreement shall prevent the Secretary of State from exercising a relevant function if he considers that it is in the public interest for him to do so.
- (6) Where a concession agreement is subsisting on the appointed day, no agreement made before that day under section 6 of the ^{M10}Highways Act 1980 (agreement between Secretary of State and council for delegation of functions to council) shall have effect on or after that day in so far as it relates to—
- (a) the existing bridge or the highway carried by it, or
 - (b) the existing toll plaza area or the highway within it.

16 Delegation of relevant functions.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by an agreement under this section delegate any relevant function which is not for the time being exercisable by the concessionaire to any person (other than a council to which it may be delegated under section 6(1) of the Highways Act 1980).
- (2) Functions delegated by an agreement under this section shall be exercised in accordance with such conditions as the Secretary of State may attach to the delegation; and the delegation shall end in accordance with the agreement.
- (3) In exercising a function delegated by an agreement under this section the person to whom it is delegated shall act as agent for the Secretary of State.

17 Grant to concessionaire of interests in land.

- (1) The Secretary of State may grant to the concessionaire a lease or other interest in or right over any land if it appears to the Secretary of State expedient to do so for the purpose of or in connection with the exercise by the concessionaire of the functions conferred or imposed on him under the concession agreement or under or by virtue of this Act.
- (2) No enactment or rule of law regulating the rights and obligations of landlords and tenants shall prejudice the operation of an agreement between the Secretary of State and the concessionaire as to the terms on which land which is the subject of a lease granted in pursuance of this section is to be provided for his use.
- (3) Accordingly, no such enactment or rule of law shall apply in relation to the rights and obligations of the parties to a lease granted in pursuance of this section—
 - (a) so as to exclude or in any respect modify any of the rights and obligations of those parties under the terms of the lease, whether with respect to the termination of the tenancy or any other matter,
 - (b) so as to confer or impose on either party a right or obligation arising out of or connected with anything done or omitted on or in relation to land which is the subject of the lease, in addition to such a right or obligation provided for by the terms of the lease, or
 - (c) so as to restrict the enforcement (whether by action for damages or otherwise) by either party to the lease of an obligation of the other party under the lease.

- (5) Subject to subsection (1) above, property vested in the Secretary of State under section 19 above shall be held by him subject to all covenants, conditions and restrictions subject to which the property was held by the concessionaire.
- (6) A dispute between the Secretary of State and the concessionaire as to the property, rights or liabilities transferred under or by virtue of section 19 above shall be determined in accordance with the concession agreement.
- (7) A dispute between the Secretary of State and any person other than the concessionaire as to any such matter shall be determined by arbitration; and the arbitration shall be conducted by a single arbitrator agreed between the parties or, in default of agreement, appointed on the application of either party (after notice in writing to the other) by the President of the Law Society.
- (8) Subject to the concession agreement and to subsection (1) above, all agreements and other transactions entered into or effected by the concessionaire and subsisting immediately before the termination, in so far as they relate to property, rights or liabilities transferred to the Secretary of State under or by virtue of section 19 above, shall have effect with the substitution of the Secretary of State for the concessionaire.
- (9) Accordingly—
- (a) such an agreement or transaction may be enforced by or against the Secretary of State, and
- (b) references to the concessionaire in an agreement (whether or not in writing) and in a deed, bond, instrument or other document, so far as relating to property, rights or liabilities so transferred, shall be taken after the termination as referring to the Secretary of State.
- (10) Subject to the concession agreement, all legal and other proceedings begun before the termination and relating to property, rights or liabilities transferred to the Secretary of State under or by virtue of section 19 above, other than proceedings for enforcing a security from which such property is released by virtue of subsection (1) above, may be carried on with the substitution of the Secretary of State for the concessionaire; and such proceedings may be amended in such manner as may be necessary for that purpose.

PART III

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Interference with river Severn

29 Works affecting river Severn.

- (1) For the purpose of, or in connection with, the construction, maintenance or improvement of the new bridge, the Secretary of State may—
- (a) temporarily interfere with the river Severn and, at any point in the river within the limits of land to be acquired, construct and maintain such temporary structures, and do such works, as he may consider necessary or expedient,
 - (b) temporarily moor or anchor barges or other vessels or craft in the river, or
 - (c) temporarily close the river, or a part of it, to navigation.
- (2) The power conferred by subsection (1) above shall not be exercised in relation to any part of the river which is—
- (a) outside the limits within which the Gloucester Harbour Trustees have authority at the passing of this Act, or
 - (b) upstream of the relevant inward limit.
- (3) The Gloucester Harbour Trustees shall be consulted before the power conferred by subsection (1) above is exercised.
- (4) The power conferred by subsection (1)(c) above shall be exercised in a way which secures—
- (a) that no more of the river is closed to navigation at any time than is at that time necessary in the circumstances, and
 - (b) that, if complete closure of the river to navigation becomes necessary, all reasonable steps are taken to secure that the minimum obstruction, delay or interference is caused to vessels or craft which may be using or intending to use the river.
- (5) No liability in respect of any loss suffered, or costs or expenses sustained, as a direct or indirect result of the exercise of the power conferred by subsection (1) above shall be incurred by the person by whom the power is exercised.

30 Dredging etc.

- (1) For the purpose of the construction, maintenance or improvement of the new bridge, the Secretary of State may deepen, widen, dredge, scour, cleanse, alter or improve the bed of the river Severn or blast any rock in it.
- (2) The power conferred by subsection (1) above shall not be exercised in relation to any part of the river which is—
 - (a) outside the limits within which the Gloucester Harbour Trustees have authority at the passing of this Act, or
 - (b) upstream of the relevant inward limit.
- (3) The Secretary of State shall not exercise the power conferred by subsection (1) above
 - (a) within the area bounded by planes passing vertically along the length of lines drawn forty metres laterally distant from the longitudinal centre line of the Severn Tunnel, or
 - (b) by blasting within the area bounded by planes passing vertically along the length of lines drawn one hundred metres laterally distant from that centre line,without the consent of the British Railways Board; and where the Secretary of State requests the consent of the Board for the purposes of this subsection it shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
- (4) The Secretary of State may use, appropriate or sell or otherwise dispose of anything removed in exercise of the power conferred by subsection (1) above.

31 Protection of new bridge.

- (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations for the purpose of protecting the new bridge (both during construction and once it is completed) from damage which may be caused to it by vessels or craft using the river Severn.
- (2) Regulations under this section shall not be made so as to apply to the use of any part of the river which is—
 - (a) outside the limits within which the Gloucester Harbour Trustees have authority at the passing of this Act, or
 - (b) upstream of the relevant inward limit.
- (3) Before making regulations under this section the Secretary of State shall consult the Gloucester Harbour Trustees.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred by subsection (1) above, regulations under this section may—
 - (a) prohibit vessels or craft of descriptions prescribed by the regulations from passing under the new bridge,
 - (b) prohibit vessels or craft of other descriptions so prescribed from passing under the new bridge without the consent of the Secretary of State, and
 - (c) provide for the granting of such consent subject to conditions which appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate.
- (5) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of regulations under this section, or a condition imposed under such a provision, shall be guilty of an offence and liable—

- (b) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum.

Miscellaneous

32 Toll plaza areas and vehicle pounds.

- (1) The Secretary of State may—
- (a) maintain, improve and extend the toll plaza areas by carrying out such works as may be expedient for the purpose of or in connection with the collection of tolls, and
 - (b) provide, maintain and improve areas for accommodating vehicles removed in accordance with regulations under section 21(1)(e) above.
- (2) Any work done or to be done in pursuance of the power conferred by subsection (1) above—
- (a) if it is done or to be done by virtue of paragraph (a), shall be treated as an improvement of a special road under Part V of the ^{M25}Highways Act 1980, and
 - (b) if it is done or to be done by virtue of paragraph (b), shall be treated as the provision, maintenance or improvement of a service station for use in connection with a special road;
- and section 239(3) and (4)(c) of that Act (power to acquire land) shall apply accordingly.

PART IV

CORRECTION OF DEPOSITED PLANS

- 8 (1) If the deposited plans or the book of reference to those plans are inaccurate in their description of any land, or in their statement or description of the ownership or occupation of any land, the Secretary of State, after giving not less than ten days' notice to the owner and occupier of the land in question, may apply to two justices having jurisdiction in the place where the land is situated for the correction of the plans or book of reference.
- (2) If on such an application it appears to the justices that the misstatement or wrong description arose from mistake or inadvertence, the justices shall certify accordingly and shall in their certificate state in what respect a matter is misstated or wrongly described.
- (3) The certificate shall be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments and a copy of it in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons and at the principal offices of Avon County Council, Gwent County Council, Bristol City Council, Northavon District Council and [^{F7}Monmouthshire County Council]; and the deposited plans or the book of reference shall be deemed to be corrected according to the certificate and it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State, in accordance with the certificate, to proceed under this Act as if the deposited plans or the book of reference had always been in the corrected form.
- (4) A person with whom a copy of the certificate is deposited under this paragraph shall keep it with the documents to which it relates.
- (5) In this paragraph "book of reference" means the book deposited in November 1990 in connection with the Severn Bridges Bill in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments and the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

PART II

HIGHWAYS TO BE STOPPED UP AND NEW HIGHWAYS SUBSTITUTED FOR THEM

- 0 (4) No part of a highway shall be stopped up under this paragraph unless the condition specified in sub-paragraph (5) below is satisfied in relation to all land abutting on any side of that part of the highway.
- (5) The condition referred to in sub-paragraph (4) above is that—
- (a) the Secretary of State is in possession of the land, or
 - (b) there is no right of access to the land from the part of the highway concerned, or
 - (c) the Secretary of State is satisfied that there is reasonably convenient access to the land otherwise than from the part of the highway concerned, or
 - (d) the owners and occupiers of the land have agreed to the stopping up.
- (6) A person who suffers loss by the extinguishment of a private right under this paragraph shall be entitled to compensation to be determined, in case of dispute, under and in accordance with Part I of the ^{M40}Land Compensation Act 1961.

Temporary interference with highways

- 2 (1) The Secretary of State may, for the purpose of constructing the works authorised by this Act, temporarily stop up, open, break up or interfere with, or alter or divert, the whole or a part of a highway within—
- (a) the limits of deviation for the scheduled works,
 - (b) the limits of land to be acquired, or
 - (c) the limits of land for temporary occupation,
- and may carry out all necessary works for, or in connection with, doing so.
- (2) The Secretary of State shall provide reasonable access for all persons, with or without vehicles, going to or returning from premises abutting on a highway affected by the exercise of the powers conferred by this paragraph if there would otherwise be no such access.

Provision of new trunk and special roads

- 3 (1) On the day on which this Act is passed the new highways forming or forming part of Works Nos. 2, 2A, 2B, 3, 4, 4A, 4C, 5, 6, 6A, 6B, 6C, 6D and 6E shall become trunk roads and special roads for the exclusive use of traffic of Classes I and II of the classes of traffic specified in Schedule 4 to the ^{M41}Highways Act 1980.
- (2) The highways which become special roads by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) above shall be treated as provided by the Secretary of State (by means of the construction of new highways under section 24(1) of the Highways Act 1980) under a scheme made by him under section 16 of that Act—

SCHEDULE 4

Section 7.

EARLY END OF TOLLING BY SECRETARY OF STATE

Receipts

- 1 (1) The receipts referred to in section 7 of this Act are relevant receipts and assumed interest receipts.
- (2) In this Schedule “relevant receipts” means—
- (a) tolls collected by or on behalf of the Secretary of State,
 - (b) other sums received by the Secretary of State—
 - (i) under or by virtue of this Act, or
 - (ii) in connection with the exercise of relevant functions by him or on his behalf,
 - (c) capital sums and interest paid to the Secretary of State by the concessionaire in accordance with the concession agreement in respect of the existing deficit,
 - (d) any sums received by the Secretary of State in consequence of or in connection with the termination of the concession agreement or in pursuance of a right transferred to him under or by virtue of section 19 of this Act on the termination, and
 - (e) any other receipts of the Secretary of State which he may specify as relevant receipts.
- (3) In this Schedule “assumed interest receipts” means interest assumed to accrue on any daily surplus of relevant receipts over the amounts treated as applied for the purposes mentioned in paragraph 2 below.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Severn Bridges Act 1992. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Purposes

- 2 The purposes referred to in section 7 of this Act and this Schedule are—
- (a) meeting with interest the existing deficit,
 - (b) reimbursement with interest of any expenditure properly chargeable to capital account and incurred by the Secretary of State in respect of—
 - (i) the construction of the new bridge or the toll plaza forming part of Work No. 2, or
 - (ii) the making safe, dismantling or reconstruction of that bridge or toll plaza if partly constructed otherwise than at the expense of the Secretary of State,
 - (c) reimbursement with interest of all expenditure (not falling within subparagraph (b) above) properly chargeable to capital account and incurred by the Secretary of State in making (whether to the concessionaire or to any other person) any payment in consequence of or in connection with the termination of, or otherwise under, the concession agreement,
 - (d) reimbursement with interest of any expenditure properly chargeable to capital account and incurred by the Secretary of State—
 - (i) under or by virtue of this Act, or
 - (ii) in connection with the exercise of relevant functions by him or on his behalf,before the end of the period during which tolls may be levied,
 - (e) meeting all expenditure (including administrative expenses) properly chargeable to revenue account and so incurred,
 - (f) making any provision which the Secretary of State may consider appropriate for defraying the expenditure properly chargeable to revenue account and likely to be incurred by the Secretary of State as mentioned in sub-paragraph (d)(i) and (ii) above after the end of the period during which tolls may be levied,
 - (g) making such provision as in the opinion of the Secretary of State is required for making payments to or in respect of persons employed by him or by a person appointed to collect tolls as his agent whose contracts of employment are terminated in consequence of tolls ceasing to be leviable,
 - (h) making such provision as in the opinion of the Secretary of State is equivalent to that which would be required—
 - (i) for keeping the bridges and toll plaza areas insured against damage not amounting to complete destruction throughout the period during which tolls may be levied,
 - (ii) for insuring against liabilities arising in that period from the Secretary of State's ownership or occupation of the bridges and toll plaza areas, or from anything done or omitted in the course of the exercise by or on behalf of the Secretary of State of relevant functions or the power to levy tolls,if the bridges and toll plaza areas were owned and maintained, and those functions were exercisable, by a commercial undertaking,
 - (i) meeting any other expenditure (not falling within any of the preceding subparagraphs) which is incurred by the Secretary of State in consequence of this Act and which is specified by him as falling within this paragraph,

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Severn Bridges Act 1992. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (j) making provision for interest assumed to be due on any daily deficiency of relevant receipts as against the amounts treated as applied for the purposes mentioned in this paragraph, and
- (k) meeting with interest the aggregate of any annual deficiencies of relevant receipts and assumed interest receipts as against the amounts treated as applied for any of the purposes mentioned in the preceding sub-paragraphs.

Supplementary

- 3 For the purpose of determining the amount of relevant receipts and assumed interest receipts or the amounts from time to time required for the purposes mentioned in paragraph 2 above, such assumptions shall be followed by the Secretary of State as to—
- (a) the manner in which those receipts are to be treated as applied for those purposes,
 - (b) the times at which payments would be made in respect of expenditure, interest and other amounts referred to in any sub-paragraph of that paragraph, and
 - (c) the amounts of such payments,
- as the Treasury may direct; and such a direction may require different assumptions to be followed in relation to different times and in relation to, or to interest on, different expenditure or other amounts referred to in any sub-paragraph of that paragraph.
- 4 A reference in this Schedule to interest is a reference to interest at such rate as may be determined to be appropriate in accordance with directions given by the Treasury; and different rates may be so determined in relation to—
- (a) different times,
 - (b) different descriptions of relevant receipts, and
 - (c) different sub-paragraphs of paragraph 2 above, and different expenditure or other amounts referred to in any of those sub-paragraphs.
- 5 In this Schedule “the existing deficit” means the amount shown in the statement of accounts prepared under section 28(1)(a) of this Act as the amount of the debt to the Consolidated Fund immediately before the appointed day, adjusted if necessary to take account of any amounts so shown as stores or owed by debtors, or as due to creditors.
