1993 CHAPTER 21

The General Council and its committees

1 The General Osteopathic Council and its committees.

- (1) There shall be a body corporate to be known as the General Osteopathic Council (referred to in this Act as “the General Council”).
- (2) It shall be the duty of the General Council to develop <sup>F1</sup>... and regulate the profession of osteopathy.
- (3) The General Council shall have such other functions as are conferred on it by this Act.
- [<sup>F2</sup>(3A) The over-arching objective of the General Council in exercising its functions is the protection of the public.
- (3B) The pursuit by the General Council of its over-arching objective involves the pursuit of the following objectives—
  - (a) to protect, promote and maintain the health, safety and well-being of the public;
  - (b) to promote and maintain public confidence in the profession of osteopathy; and
  - (c) to promote and maintain proper professional standards and conduct for members of that profession.]
  - [<sup>F3</sup>(4) The General Council shall be constituted as provided for by order of the Privy Council, subject to Part 1 of the Schedule (which relates to orders under this subsection and powers of the General Council), which shall have effect.]
  - (5) There shall be four committees of the General Council, to be known as—
    - (a) the Education Committee;
    - (b) the Investigating Committee;
    - (c) the Professional Conduct Committee; and
    - (d) the Health Committee.
  - (6) The four committees are referred to in this Act as “the statutory committees”.

*Changes to legislation: Osteopaths Act 1993 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 February 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. ### Registration of osteopaths

2 The Registrar of Osteopaths.

- (1) The General Council shall appoint a person to be the registrar for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The person appointed shall be known as the Registrar of Osteopaths (referred to in this Act as “the Registrar”) and shall hold office for such period and on such terms as the General Council may determine.
- (3) It shall be the duty of the Registrar to establish and maintain a register of osteopaths in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
- (4) The Registrar shall have such other functions as the General Council may direct.

3 Full registration.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, any person who satisfies the conditions mentioned in subsection (2) shall be entitled to be registered as a fully registered osteopath.
- (2) The conditions are that the application is made in the prescribed form and manner and that the applicant—
  - (a) has paid the prescribed fee;
  - (b) satisfies the Registrar that he is of good character;
  - (c) satisfies the Registrar that he is in good health, both physically and mentally; and
  - <sup>F5</sup>(d) is a person who—
    - (i) has a recognised qualification, or
    - (ii) has a specified state qualification which is not a recognised qualification and has met the requirement specified in relation to the person under section 14A.]
- <sup>F6</sup>(2A) The General Council may require a specified state professional who wishes to be registered under this section to demonstrate that the person possesses the language skills necessary to the practice of a registered osteopath.
- (2B) A language test required by the General Council under subsection (2A) must be proportionate to the level of language skills referred to in that subsection.]
- (3) Where an application for registration is made during the transitional period by a person who was in practice as an osteopath at any time before the opening of the register, he shall be treated as having a recognised qualification if he satisfies the Registrar that for a period of at least five years (which need not be continuous) he has spent a substantial part of his working time in the lawful, safe and competent practice of osteopathy.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), no account shall be taken of any work done by the applicant before the beginning of the period of seven years ending with the opening of the register.

- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3), the question whether the applicant has spent any part of his working time in the lawful, safe and competent practice of osteopathy shall be determined in accordance with such rules (if any) as may be made by the General Council.
- (6) The General Council may by rules provide for treating a person who—
- (a) has obtained a qualification in osteopathy outside the United Kingdom,
  - (b) does not hold a recognised qualification, but
  - (c) satisfies the Registrar that he has reached the required standard of proficiency, as holding a recognised qualification for the purposes of this Act.
- [<sup>F7</sup>(6A) The General Council may by rules provide for treating a person who does not hold a recognised qualification but who, on an application made to the Registrar before 1 January 2011, satisfies the Registrar that the person—
- (a) obtained a qualification in osteopathy in the United Kingdom before 9 May 2000,
  - (b) practised as an osteopath before 9 May 2000,
  - (c) has not practised as an osteopath in the United Kingdom on or after 9 May 2000,
  - (d) has a good reason for not having made a successful application for registration during the transitional period, and
  - (e) is capable of the competent and safe practice of osteopathy, as holding a recognised qualification for the purposes of this Act.]
- (7) In this section “transitional period” means the period of two years beginning with the opening of the register.

- (2) The conditions are that the application is made in the prescribed form and manner during the transitional period and that the applicant—
  - (a) has paid the prescribed fee;
  - (b) satisfies the Registrar that he is of good character;
  - (c) satisfies the Registrar that he is in good health, both physically and mentally;
  - (d) satisfies the Registrar that for a period of at least four years (which need not be continuous) he has spent a substantial part of his working time in the lawful, safe and competent practice of osteopathy;
  - (e) if required to do so by the Registrar in accordance with rules made by the General Council, passes—
    - (i) the prescribed test of competence; or
    - (ii) such part of that test as the Registrar may specify; and
  - (f) gives the required undertaking.
- (3) In the application of subsection (2)(d), in relation to any person, no account shall be taken of any work done by him before the beginning of the period of six years ending with the opening of the register.
- (4) The General Council may by rules provide for the conversion, in prescribed circumstances and subject to the osteopath concerned complying with such conditions (if any) as may be prescribed, of conditional registration into full registration.
- (5) Unless it is converted into full registration in accordance with the rules, any conditional registration shall cease to have effect—
  - (a) at the end of the period of five years beginning with the opening of the register; or
  - (b) where a shorter period has been specified by the Registrar in accordance with subsection (10) in relation to the osteopath in question, at the end of that shorter period.
- (6) In dealing with an application for registration made during the transitional period by a person who—
  - (a) cannot meet the requirement of subsection (2)(d), but
  - (b) has a qualification in osteopathy which, while not being a recognised qualification, has not been refused recognition by the General Council,the Registrar shall refer the matter to the Education Committee.
- (7) Where a reference is made to the Education Committee under subsection (6), it shall be the duty of the Committee to advise the General Council.
- (8) If, after considering the advice of the Education Committee, the General Council is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so, it shall direct the Registrar to disregard subsection (2)(d) in relation to the application in question.
- (9) For the purposes of subsection (2)(d), the question whether the applicant has spent any part of his working time in the lawful, safe and competent practice of osteopathy shall be determined in accordance with such rules (if any) as may be made by the General Council.
- (10) In this section—

“required undertaking” means an undertaking that the person giving it will, before the end of the period of five years beginning with the opening of the

5 Provisional registration.

- (1) The General Council may make rules providing for all applicants for registration who are entitled to be registered with full registration, or all such applicants falling within a prescribed class, to be registered initially with provisional registration.
- (2) No such rules shall be made before the end of the period of two years beginning with the opening of the register.
- (3) Before making any rules under subsection (1), the General Council shall take such steps as are reasonably practicable to consult those who are registered osteopaths.
- (4) The General Council may by rules provide for the conversion, in prescribed circumstances and subject to the osteopath concerned complying with such conditions (if any) as may be prescribed, of provisional registration into full registration.
- (5) Unless it is converted into full registration in accordance with the rules, any provisional registration shall cease to have effect at the end of the period of one year beginning with the date on which it is entered in the register.
- (6) A provisionally registered osteopath shall not practise osteopathy except under the supervision of a fully registered osteopath who is approved by the General Council for the purposes of this subsection.
- (7) The General Council shall maintain a list of those fully registered osteopaths who are for the time being approved by the Council for the purposes of subsection (6).

6 Registration: supplemental provision.

- (1) The register shall show, in relation to each registered osteopath—
  - (a) whether he is registered with full, conditional [<sup>F9</sup>[<sup>F10</sup>or provisional] registration] ; and
  - (b) the address at which he has his practice or principal practice or, if he is not practising, such address as may be prescribed.
- (2) [<sup>F11</sup>[<sup>F12</sup>The] General Council] may make rules in connection with registration and the register and as to the payment of fees.
- (3) The rules may, in particular, make provision as to—
  - (a) the form and keeping of the register;
  - (b) the form and manner in which applications for registration are to be made;
  - (c) the documentary and other evidence which is to accompany applications for registration;
  - (d) the manner in which the Registrar is to satisfy himself as to the good character and competence of any person applying for registration and the procedure for so doing;
  - (e) the manner in which the Registrar is to satisfy himself as to the physical and mental health of any person applying for registration and the procedure for so doing;
  - (f) the description of persons from whom references are to be provided for persons applying for registration;
  - (g) in the case of an application for conditional registration, the conditions or kinds of condition which may be imposed on the osteopath concerned;
  - (h) the making, periodic renewal and removal of entries in the register;
  - (i) the giving of reasons for any removal of, or refusal to renew, an entry in the register;
  - (j) any failure on the part of a registered osteopath to comply with any conditions subject to which his registration has effect, including provision for the Registrar to refuse to renew his registration or for the removal of his name from the register;
  - (k) the issue and form of certificates;
  - (l) the content, assessment and conduct of any test of competence imposed under section 4;
  - (m) the meaning of “principal practice” for the purposes of subsection (1).
- (4) The rules may, in particular, also make provision—
  - (a) prescribing the fee to be charged for making an entry in the register or restoring such an entry;
  - (b) prescribing the fee to be charged in respect of the retention in the register of any entry in any year following the year in which the entry was first made;

8 Restoration to the register of osteopaths who have been struck off.

- (1) Where a person who has had his entry as a fully registered osteopath removed from the register as the result of an order under section 22(4)(d) wishes to have his entry restored to the register he shall make an application for registration to the Registrar.
- (2) No such application may be made before the end of the period of ten months beginning with the date on which the order under section 22(4)(d) was made.
- (3) Any application for registration in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1) (an “application for restoration”) shall be referred by the Registrar to the Professional Conduct Committee for determination by that Committee.
- (4) For the purposes of determining an application for restoration—
  - (a) the Committee shall exercise the Registrar’s functions under section 3; and
  - (b) subsection (2) of that section shall have effect as if paragraph (d) were omitted.
- (5) The Committee shall not grant an application for restoration unless it is satisfied that the applicant not only satisfies the requirements of section 3 (as modified) but, having regard in particular to the circumstances which led to the making of the order under section 22(4)(d), is also a fit and proper person to practise the profession of osteopathy.
- (6) On granting an application for restoration, the Committee—
  - (a) shall direct the Registrar to register the applicant as a fully registered osteopath; and

Professional education

11 The Education Committee.

- (1) The Education Committee shall have the general duty of promoting high standards of education and training in osteopathy and keeping the provision made for that education and training under review.
- (2) Where it considers it to be necessary in connection with the discharge of its general duty, the Education Committee may itself provide, or arrange for the provision of, education or training.
- (3) The General Council shall consult the Education Committee on matters relating to education, training, examinations or tests of competence.
- (4) It shall be the duty of the Education Committee to give advice to the General Council on the matters mentioned in subsection (3), either on being consulted by the Council or where it considers it appropriate to do so.

12 Visitors.

- (1) The Education Committee may appoint persons to visit any place at which or institution by which or under whose direction—
  - (a) any relevant course of study is, or is proposed to be, given;
  - (b) any examination is, or is proposed to be, held in connection with any such course;
  - (c) any test of competence is, or is proposed to be, conducted in connection with any such course or for any other purpose connected with this Act.
- (2) In subsection (1) “relevant course of study” means any course of study which forms, or is intended to form, part of—
  - (a) the complete course of study required in order to obtain a recognised qualification or a qualification for which recognition is being sought; or
  - (b) any training which a registered osteopath may be required to undergo after registration.
- (3) No person appointed as a visitor may exercise his functions under this section in relation to—
  - (a) any place at which he regularly gives instruction in any subject; or
  - (b) any institution with which he has a significant connection.
- (4) A person shall not be prevented from being appointed as a visitor merely because he is a member of—
  - (a) the General Council; or
  - (b) any of its committees.
- (5) Where a visitor visits any place or institution, in the exercise of his functions under this section, he shall report to the Education Committee—
  - (a) on the nature and quality of the instruction given, or to be given, and the facilities provided or to be provided, at that place or by that institution; and
  - (b) on such other matters (if any) as he was required to report on by the Committee.

- (6) Requirements of the kind mentioned in subsection (5)(b) may be imposed by the Education Committee—
  - (a) generally in relation to all visits;
  - (b) generally in relation to all visits made to a specified kind of place or institution; or
  - (c) specifically in relation to a particular visit.
- (7) Where a visitor reports to the Education Committee under subsection (5), the Committee shall on receipt of the report—
  - (a) send a copy of it to the institution concerned; and
  - (b) notify that institution of the period within which it may make observations on, or raise objections to, the report.
- (8) The period specified by the Committee in a notice given under subsection (7)(b) shall not be less than one month beginning with the date on which a copy of the report is sent to the institution under subsection (7)(a).
- (9) The Education Committee shall not take any steps in the light of any report made under subsection (5) before the end of the specified period.
- (10) The General Council may—
  - (a) pay fees, allowances and expenses to persons appointed as visitors; or
  - (b) treat any such person, for the purposes of paragraph 15(2)(c) to (e) of the Schedule, as a member of its staff.
- (11) In the case of a visitor who is also such a member as is mentioned in subsection (4), any payment made to him in his capacity as a visitor shall be in addition to any to which he is entitled as such a member.

13 The standard of proficiency.

- (1) The General Council shall from time to time determine the standard of proficiency which, in its opinion, is required for the competent and safe practice of osteopathy.
- (2) The Council shall publish a statement of the standard of proficiency determined by it under this section.
- (3) If the Council at any time varies the standard so determined it shall publish <sup>F29</sup>. . . a statement of the revised [<sup>F30</sup>standard, accompanied by] a statement of the differences between that standard and the standard as it was immediately before the revision.
- (4) No variation of the standard shall have effect before the end of the period of one year beginning with the date on which the Council publishes the [<sup>F31</sup>statements] required by subsection (3) in connection with that variation.

14 Recognition of qualifications.

(1) For the purposes of this Act, a qualification is a “recognised qualification” if it is recognised by the General Council under this section.

(2) Where the General Council is satisfied that—

- (a) a qualification granted by an institution in the United Kingdom is evidence of having reached the required standard of proficiency, or
- (b) a qualification which such an institution proposes to grant will be evidence of having reached that standard, it may, with the approval of the Privy Council, recognise that qualification for the purposes of this Act.

[<sup>F32</sup>(2A) A qualification that—

- (a) was granted by an institution in a relevant European State, and
- (b) is, in the opinion of the General Council, evidence of having reached a standard of proficiency comparable to that evidenced by a qualification recognised under subsection (2), is to be treated for the purposes of this Act as if it were so recognised.]

[<sup>F33</sup>(2B) The General Council may determine that a specified state qualification is not evidence of having reached a standard of proficiency comparable to that evidenced by a qualification recognised under subsection (2) only where one or more of Conditions 1 to 3 are met.

(2C) Condition 1 is met where there exists a substantial difference between the standard of proficiency evidenced by the specified state qualification and the required standard of proficiency.

(2D) Condition 2 is met where the professional activities to which a recognised qualification relates include one or more professional activities that cover substantially different matters from those covered by the specified state qualification.

(2E) Condition 3 is met where requiring a person who holds the specified state qualification to pass an aptitude test or successfully to complete an adaptation period, or to do both, would amount to requiring the person to acquire a recognised qualification.]

(3) Where the General Council is satisfied that a qualification [<sup>F34</sup>(not being one to which subsection (2A) applies)] granted by an institution outside the United Kingdom is evidence of having reached the required standard of proficiency, or of reaching a comparable standard, it may, with the approval of the Privy Council, recognise that qualification for the purposes of this Act.

(4) The General Council may by rules—

- (a) impose additional conditions for registration, or
- (b) provide for any provision made by this Act in relation to conditions for registration to have effect subject to prescribed modifications, in the case of any application for registration based on a person’s holding a qualification which is recognised under subsection (3).

(5) The General Council shall maintain and publish a list of the qualifications which are for the time being recognised under this section.

(6) Before deciding whether or not to recognise a qualification under this section, the General Council shall consult the Education Committee.

- (7) When requesting the approval of the Privy Council for the purposes of subsection (2) or (3), the General Council shall make available to the Privy Council—
  - (a) the information provided to it by the Education Committee; or
  - (b) where the Privy Council considers it appropriate, a summary of that information.
- (8) The Privy Council shall have regard to the information made available to it under subsection (7) before deciding whether or not to give its approval.
- (9) The General Council may by rules make provision requiring the Education Committee to publish a statement indicating—
  - (a) matters on which the Committee will wish to be satisfied before advising the General Council to recognise a qualification under subsection (2); and
  - (b) matters which may cause the Committee to advise the General Council not to recognise a qualification under subsection (2).

16 Withdrawal of recognition.

- (1) Where, as a result of any visitor's report or other information acquired by the Education Committee, the Committee is of the opinion—
- (a) that a recognised qualification is no longer, or will no longer be, evidence of having reached the required standard of proficiency,
  - (b) that a proposed qualification which has yet to be granted, but which was recognised by virtue of section 14(2)(b), will not be evidence of having reached that standard, or
  - (c) that a condition for the continued recognition of a qualification (imposed under section 15(4)) has not been complied with,
- it shall refer the matter to the General Council.
- (2) If the General Council is satisfied that the circumstances of the case are as mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c) it may, with the approval of the Privy Council, direct that the qualification is no longer to be a recognised qualification for the purposes of this Act.
- (3) A direction under subsection (2) shall have effect from the date of the direction or from such later date as may be specified in the direction.
- (4) In considering any matter referred to it under subsection (1), the General Council shall have regard to the information on which the Education Committee formed its opinion together with any other relevant information which the Council may have.
- (5) When requesting the approval of the Privy Council for the purposes of subsection (2), the General Council shall make available to the Privy Council the information to which it had regard under subsection (4).
- (6) The Privy Council shall have regard to the information made available to it under subsection (5) before deciding whether or not to give its approval.
- (7) Where the recognition of any qualification is withdrawn under this section, the General Council shall use its best endeavours to secure that any person who is studying for that qualification at any place, at the time when recognition is withdrawn, is given the opportunity to study at that or any other place for a qualification which is recognised.
- (8) The withdrawal under this section of recognition from any qualification shall not affect the entitlement of any person to be registered by reference to an award of that qualification made to him before the date on which the direction withdrawing recognition had effect.

Professional conduct and fitness to practise

19 The Code of Practice.

- (1) The General Council shall prepare and from time to time publish a Code of Practice—
- (a) laying down standards of conduct and practice expected of registered osteopaths; and
  - (b) giving advice in relation to the practice of osteopathy.
- (2) It shall be the duty of the General Council to keep the Code under review and to vary its provisions whenever the Council considers it appropriate to do so.
- (3) Before issuing the Code or varying it, the General Council shall consult such representatives of practising osteopaths as it considers appropriate.
- (4) Where any person is alleged to have failed to comply with any provision of the Code, that failure—
- (a) shall not be taken, of itself, to constitute unacceptable professional conduct on his part; but
  - (b) shall be taken into account in any proceedings against him under this Act.
- (5) Any person who asks the General Council for a copy of the Code shall be entitled to have one on payment of such reasonable fee as the Council may determine.
- (6) Subsection (5) is not to be taken as preventing the General Council from providing copies of the Code free of charge whenever it considers it appropriate.

[<sup>F43</sup>19A Information to be made available to specified state professionals

- (1) The General Council must make information about the following matters available to specified state professionals—
- (a) the relevant laws to be applied regarding disciplinary action, financial responsibility or liability and other relevant matters;
  - (b) the principles of discipline and enforcement of professional standards, including disciplinary jurisdiction and consequential effects on practising professional activities;
  - (c) the processes and procedures for the ongoing verification of competence;

20 Professional conduct and fitness to practise.

- (1) This section applies where any allegation is made against a registered osteopath to the effect that—
- (a) he has been guilty of conduct which falls short of the standard required of a registered osteopath;
  - (b) he has been guilty of professional incompetence;
  - (c) he has been convicted (at any time) in the United Kingdom of a criminal offence; or
  - (d) his ability to practise as an osteopath is seriously impaired because of his physical or mental condition.
- (2) In this Act conduct which falls short of the standard required of a registered osteopath is referred to as “unacceptable professional conduct”.
- (3) Where an allegation is made to the General Council, or to any of its committees (other than the Investigating Committee), it shall be the duty of the Council or committee to refer the allegation to the Investigating Committee.
- (4) The General Council may make rules requiring any allegation which is made or referred to the Investigating Committee to be referred for preliminary consideration to a person appointed by the Council in accordance with the rules.
- (5) Any rules made under subsection (4)—
- (a) may allow for the appointment of persons who are members of the General Council; but
  - (b) may not allow for the appointment of the Registrar.
- (6) Any person to whom an allegation is referred by the Investigating Committee in accordance with rules made under subsection (4) shall—
- (a) consider the allegation with a view to establishing whether, in his opinion, power is given by this Act to deal with it if it proves to be well founded; and
  - (b) if he considers that such power is given, give the Investigating Committee a report of the result of his consideration.

- (7) Where there are rules in force under subsection (4), the Investigating Committee shall investigate any allegation with respect to which it is given a report by a person appointed under the rules.
- (8) Where there are no such rules in force, the Investigating Committee shall investigate any allegation which is made or referred to it.
- (9) Where the Investigating Committee is required to investigate any allegation, it shall—
  - (a) notify the registered osteopath concerned of the allegation and invite him to give it his observations before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which notice of the allegation is sent to him;
  - (b) take such steps as are reasonably practicable to obtain as much information as possible about the case; and
  - (c) consider, in the light of the information which it has been able to obtain and any observations duly made to it by the registered osteopath concerned, whether in its opinion there is a case to answer.
- (10) The General Council [<sup>F44</sup>shall] by rules make provision as to the procedure to be followed by the Investigating Committee in any investigation carried out by it under this section.
- (11) In the case of an allegation of a kind mentioned in subsection (1)(c), the Investigating Committee may conclude that there is no case to answer if it considers that the criminal offence in question has no material relevance to the fitness of the osteopath concerned to practise osteopathy.
- (12) Where the Investigating Committee concludes that there is a case to answer, it shall—
  - (a) notify both the osteopath concerned and the person making the allegation of its conclusion; and
  - (b) refer the allegation, as formulated by the Investigating Committee—
    - (i) to the Health Committee, in the case of an allegation of a kind mentioned in subsection (1)(d); or
    - (ii) to the Professional Conduct Committee, in the case of an allegation of any other kind.
- (13) Where the Investigating Committee concludes that there is no case to answer, it shall notify both the osteopath concerned and the person making the allegation.
- (14) In this section “allegation” means an allegation of a kind mentioned in subsection (1).

- (3) The order shall specify the period of the suspension, which shall not exceed two months beginning with the date on which the order is made.
- (4) The Committee shall not—
  - (a) make an order in any case after it has referred the allegation in question to the Professional Conduct Committee or the Health Committee; or
  - (b) make more than one order in respect of the same allegation.
- (5) Before making an order, the Investigating Committee shall give the osteopath concerned an opportunity to appear before it and to argue his case against the making of the proposed order.
- (6) At any such hearing the osteopath shall be entitled to be legally represented.

22 Consideration of allegations by the Professional Conduct Committee.

- (1) Where an allegation has been referred to the Professional Conduct Committee under section 20 or by virtue of any rule made under section 26(2)(a), it shall be the duty of the Committee to consider the allegation.
- (2) If, having considered it, the Committee is satisfied that the allegation is well founded it shall proceed as follows.
- (3) If the allegation is of a kind mentioned in section 20(1)(c), the Committee may take no further action if it considers that the criminal offence in question has no material relevance to the fitness of the osteopath concerned to practise osteopathy.
- (4) Otherwise, the Committee shall take one of the following steps—
  - (a) admonish the osteopath;
  - (b) make an order imposing conditions with which he must comply while practising as an osteopath (a “conditions of practice order”);
  - (c) order the Registrar to suspend the osteopath’s registration for such period as may be specified in the order (a “suspension order”); or
  - (d) order the Registrar to remove the osteopath’s name from the register.

[<sup>F45</sup>(4A) A conditions of practice order must specify one or both of the following—

- (a) the period for which the order is to have effect;
- (b) a test of competence which must be taken by the osteopath.]
- (5) A conditions of practice order shall cease to have effect—
  - (a) if a period is specified in the order <sup>F46</sup>. . . , when that period ends;
  - (b) if no such period is specified but a test of competence is so specified, when the osteopath concerned passes the test; or
  - (c) if both a period and a test are so specified, when the period ends or when the osteopath concerned passes the test, whichever is the later to occur.
- (6) At any time while a conditions of practice order is in force under this section or by virtue of a [<sup>F47</sup>decision of a court on an appeal under section 31] , the Committee may (whether or not of its own motion)—
  - (a) extend, or further extend, the period for which the order has effect;
  - (b) revoke or vary any of the conditions;
  - (c) require the osteopath concerned to pass a test of competence specified by the Committee;

- (d) reduce the period for which the order has effect; or
  - (e) revoke the order.
- (7) Where the period for which a conditions of practice order has effect is extended or reduced under subsection (6), or a test of competence is specified under that subsection, subsection (5) shall have effect as if—
- (a) the period specified in the conditions of practice order was the extended or reduced period; and
  - (b) the test of competence was specified in that order.
- (8) At any time while a suspension order is in force with respect to an osteopath under this section or by virtue of a <sup>F48</sup>decision of a court on an appeal under section 31], the Committee may (whether or not of its own motion)—
- (a) extend, or further extend, the period of suspension; and
  - (b) make a conditions of practice order with which the osteopath must comply if he resumes the practice of osteopathy after the end of his period of suspension.
- (9) The period specified in a conditions of practice order or in a suspension order under this section, and any extension of a specified period under subsection (6) or (8), shall not in each case exceed three years.
- (10) Before exercising its powers under subsection (4), (6) or (8), the Committee shall give the osteopath concerned an opportunity to appear before it and to argue his case.
- (11) At any such hearing the osteopath shall be entitled to be legally represented.
- (12) In exercising its powers under subsection (6) or (8), the Committee shall ensure that the conditions imposed on the osteopath concerned are, or the period of suspension imposed on him is, the minimum which it considers necessary for the protection of members of the public.
- (13) The Committee shall, before the end of the period of twelve months beginning with the commencement of this section, and at least once in every succeeding period of twelve months, publish a report setting out—
- (a) the names of those osteopaths in respect of whom it has investigated allegations under this section and found the allegations to be well founded;
  - (b) the nature of those allegations; and
  - (c) the steps (if any) taken by the Committee in respect of the osteopaths so named.
- (14) Where the Committee has investigated any allegation against an osteopath under this section and has not been satisfied that the allegation was well founded, it shall include in its report for the year in question a statement of that fact if the osteopath so requests.

24 Interim suspension powers of the Professional Conduct Committee and the Health Committee.

- (1) This section applies where—
  - (a) an allegation against a registered osteopath has been referred under section 20, or by virtue of any rule made under section 26(2)(a), to the Professional Conduct Committee or the Health Committee and the Committee has not reached a decision on the matter; or
  - (b) the Professional Conduct Committee or the Health Committee reaches a relevant decision on any such allegation.
- (2) The Committee concerned may, if it is satisfied that it is necessary to do so in order to protect members of the public, order the Registrar to suspend the registration of the osteopath concerned.
- (3) An order under subsection (2) (an “interim suspension order”) shall cease to have effect—
  - (a) in a case falling within subsection (1)(a), when the Committee reaches a decision in respect of the allegation in question; and
  - (b) in a case falling within subsection (1)(b)—
    - (i) if there is no appeal against the decision, when the period for appealing expires; or
    - (ii) if there is an appeal against the decision, when the appeal is withdrawn or otherwise disposed of.
- (4) Before making an interim suspension order, the Committee shall give the osteopath in question an opportunity to appear before it and to argue his case against the making of the proposed order.
- (5) At any such hearing the osteopath shall be entitled to be legally represented.
- (6) Where an interim suspension order has been made, the osteopath concerned may appeal against it to the appropriate court.
- (7) Any such appeal must be brought before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the order appealed against is made.
- (8) On an appeal under subsection (6) the court may terminate the suspension.

- (9) On such an appeal the decision of the court shall be final.
- (10) In this section—
- “the appropriate court” means—
- (a) in the case of an osteopath whose registered address is in Scotland, the Court of Session;
  - (b) in the case of an osteopath whose registered address is in Northern Ireland, the High Court of Justice in Northern Ireland; and
  - (c) in any other case, the High Court of Justice in England and Wales;
- “relevant decision” means an order under section 22(4)(c) or (d), or an order under section 23(2)(b).

25 Revocation of interim suspension orders.

- (1) On an application made by the osteopath concerned, in a case falling within section 24(1)(a), an interim suspension order may be revoked by the Committee which made it on the ground that a change in the circumstances of the case has made the order unnecessary.
- (2) Where an osteopath has made an application under subsection (1) which has been refused, he may appeal to the appropriate court against the refusal.
- (3) Where, in relation to an interim suspension order—
  - (a) an appeal has been made under section 24(6) against the making of the order, or
  - (b) a further application for the order to be revoked has been made after an unsuccessful appeal under this section against the refusal of an earlier application, leave of the appropriate court shall be required for any appeal under subsection (2) in relation to that order.
- (4) Except in a case falling within subsection (5), no application under subsection (1) shall be entertained by the Committee concerned if it is made before the end of the period of six months beginning—
  - (a) with the date on which the order was imposed; or
  - (b) where an unsuccessful appeal against the order has been made under section 24(6), the date on which the appeal was dismissed.
- (5) Where a previous application has been made under subsection (1) in relation to an interim suspension order, no further such application shall be entertained by the Committee concerned if it is made before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which the previous application was finally disposed of.
- (6) Any appeal under subsection (2) must be brought before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which notice of the refusal is sent to the osteopath.
- (7) On an appeal under subsection (2) the court may terminate the suspension.
- (8) On such an appeal the decision of the court shall be final.
- (9) In this section “the appropriate court” has the same meaning as in section 24.

26 Investigation of allegations: procedural rules.

- (1) The General Council shall make rules as to the procedure to be followed by the Professional Conduct Committee or the Health Committee in considering any allegation under section 22 or 23.
- (2) The rules shall, in particular, include provision—
  - (a) empowering each Committee to refer to the other any allegation which it considers would be better dealt with by that other Committee;
  - (b) requiring the osteopath to whom the allegation relates to be given notice of the allegation;
  - (c) giving the osteopath an opportunity to put his case at a hearing if—
    - (i) before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which notice of the allegation is sent to him, he asks for a hearing; or
    - (ii) the Committee considers that a hearing is desirable;
  - (d) entitling the osteopath to be legally represented at any hearing in respect of the allegation;
  - (e) securing that—
    - (i) any hearing before the Professional Conduct Committee is held in public unless the Committee decides that it is in the interests of the person making the allegation, or of any person giving evidence or of any patient, to hold the hearing or any part of it in private; and
    - (ii) any hearing before the Health Committee is held in private unless the Committee considers that it is appropriate to hold the hearing or any part of it in public;
  - (f) requiring the osteopath to be notified by the Committee of its decision, its reasons for reaching that decision and of his right of appeal;
  - (g) requiring the person by whom the allegation was made to be notified by the Committee of its decision and of its reasons for reaching that decision;

(1) A registered osteopath who practises as such must have in force in relation to him an indemnity arrangement which provides appropriate cover for practising as such.

<sup>F81</sup>(2) .....

(3) For the purposes of this section, an “indemnity arrangement” may comprise—

- (a) a policy of insurance;
- (b) an arrangement made for the purposes of indemnifying a person;
- (c) a combination of the two.

(4) For the purposes of this section, “appropriate cover”, in relation to practice as a registered osteopath, means cover against liabilities that may be incurred in practising as such which is appropriate, having regard to the nature and extent of the risks of practising as such.

(5) The General Council may by rules make provision in connection with the types of indemnity arrangement required and the information to be provided to the Registrar—

- (a) by or in respect of any person seeking to be entered in the register as a registered osteopath (including on an application for restoration) for the purposes of determining whether, if that person is so entered, there will be in force in relation to him by the time he begins to practise an indemnity arrangement which provides appropriate cover;
- (b) by or in respect of a registered osteopath for the purposes of determining whether at any time, there is in force in relation to him an indemnity arrangement which provides appropriate cover.

(6) Rules under subsection (5)(b) may require information to be provided—

- (a) at the request of the Registrar; or
- (b) on such dates or at such intervals as the Registrar may determine, either generally or in relation to individual registered osteopaths or registered osteopaths of a particular description.

(7) The General Council may also make rules requiring a registered osteopath to inform the Registrar if there ceases to be in force in relation to him an indemnity arrangement which provides appropriate cover.

(8) The General Council may also make rules requiring a registered osteopath to inform the Registrar if there is in force in relation to him appropriate cover provided under an indemnity arrangement by an employer.

- (9) Where there is a failure to comply with the rules under subsection (5) by or in respect of a person who is entered or is seeking to be entered in the register, the Registrar may refuse to enter the person in, or to restore the person's entry to, the register.
- (10) If a registered osteopath is in breach of subsection (1), or fails to comply with rules under subsection (5)(b), (7) or (8), or there is a failure to comply with rules under subsection (5)(b) in respect of a registered osteopath—
- (a) the Registrar may remove that person's entry from the register; or
  - (b) the breach or failure may be treated as unacceptable professional conduct and the Registrar may notify the Council .]
