

Railways Act 1993

1993 CHAPTER 43

PART I

THE PROVISION OF RAILWAY SERVICES

^{F1} Directions to provide, improve or develop railway facilities

^{F1}16C Making of applications for directions.

- (1) An application for a direction under section 16A above must be made to [^{F2}the Office of Rail and Road] in writing.
- (2) The application must—
 - (a) specify the person to whom the direction would be given;
 - (b) state what it would require him to do; and
 - (c) give the applicant's reasons for considering that person to be an appropriate person to do what the direction would require him to do.
- (3) The applicant may at any time vary what the direction would require that person to do by giving to [^{F2}the Office of Rail and Road] notice in writing of the variation; but if the applicant is a person other than the [^{F3}appropriate facilities authority] such a notice may only be given with the consent of the Authority.
- (4) The application or notice of a variation may be accompanied by any written representations which the applicant wishes to make in relation to the direction.
