

Crofters (Scotland) Act 1993

1993 CHAPTER 44

Miscellaneous and General Provisions

55 Service of notices

- (1) Any notice for the purposes of this Act shall be in writing, and any notice or other document required or authorised by or under this Act to be given to or served on any person shall be duly given or served if it is delivered to him or left at his proper address or sent to him by post.

[^{F1}(1A) A notice or other document is sent by post under this section if—

- (a) in the case of an individual, it is sent by registered post or the recorded delivery service, addressed to that person at that person's usual or last known address or, where the person has given an address for service, at the address so given;
- (b) in any other case, by sending it by registered post or the recorded delivery service, addressed to that person at the person's registered or principal office.]
- (2) Where any notice or other document is to be given to or served on a person as being the person having any interest in land and it is not practicable after reasonable inquiry to ascertain his name or address, the notice or document may be given or served by addressing it to him by the description of the person having that interest in the land (naming it) and delivering the notice or document to some responsible person on the land or by affixing it, or a copy of it, to some conspicuous object on the land.

- (2) A notice is in appropriate form if—
- (a) its form and content comply, or do so as far as is reasonably practicable, with the form and content specified by the Commission for an application of that type (or as the case may be for regulations under section 49(2)(g) of this Act); and
 - (b) it specifies—
 - (i) the purpose of the application to which it relates (or in the case of regulations the matters which are required to be set out in it by virtue of section 50B(4)(a)(i) of this Act);
 - (ii) a description of the croft land or, as the case may be, common grazing to which the application relates (or regulations relate); and
 - (iii) in the case of an application, the period during which, and manner in which, objections may be made.
- (3) Where, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, a person giving public notification is also required to serve notice on a landlord, tenant or occupier of croft land to which the application relates or, if applicable, on the owner of, or a crofter sharing in, the common grazing, such notice shall be in the form required by subsection (2) above.]

58 Provisions as to representations.

- (1) Any enactment in this Act providing, in relation to the taking of any action by the Secretary of State, for his taking the action after affording to a person an opportunity of making representations to the Secretary of State shall be construed as a provision that the Secretary of State shall comply with the following requirements.
- (2) The Secretary of State shall give notice to the said person specifying the matter under consideration and informing him of the effect of subsection (3) below.
- (3) A person to whom notice is given as aforesaid may within the time specified in the notice make representations to the Secretary of State in writing, and, whether or not representations are made to the Secretary of State in writing, may within the time so specified require that an opportunity be afforded to him of being heard by a person appointed by the Secretary of State for the purpose; and, if he so requires, such an opportunity shall be afforded to him and, on the same occasion, to any other person to whom under the enactment referred to in subsection (1) above the Secretary of State is required to afford such an opportunity, and the Secretary of State shall not take action in relation to the matter until he has considered any representations made as aforesaid.

- (4) Where any enactment in this Act provides in relation to the taking of any action by the Commission for their taking the action after affording to a person an opportunity of making representations to them, the provisions of this section shall have effect in relation thereto with the substitution for references to the Secretary of State of references to the Commission.

[^{F4}58A Obtaining Commission approval or consent

- (1) Any requirement, under or by virtue of this Act, to obtain the approval or consent of the Commission, shall (subject to any express provision made by this Act in respect of any category of case) be complied with as follows.
- (2) The application for approval or consent must—
- (a) be in such form; and
 - (b) be accompanied by such documents and fee,
- as the Commission shall specify; and the Commission may make different provision for different categories of case.
- (3) [^{F5}Subject to subsection (5B),] The person making the application shall—
- (a) forthwith give public notification of it; and
 - (b) if he is not the landlord (or, where the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, a common grazing, not the owner) give written notification of it to the landlord (or to the owner).
- (4) Within 28 days after public notification of an application made in compliance with subsection (2) above—
- (a) the landlord (or where the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, a common grazing, the owner);
 - (b) any member of the crofting community in the locality of that land (including, where that land is, or is part of, a common grazing, the grazings committee or any crofter who shares in the grazing); ^{F6}...
 - (c) any other person if he is identified for the purposes of this subsection by the provision which imposes the requirement mentioned in subsection (1) above^{F7}; or
 - (d) any other person the Commission consider has a relevant interest in the application,]
- may submit to the Commission an objection as regards the application, being an objection of the description given in subsection (16) below.
- (5) The 28 days mentioned in subsection (4) above include the day on which the notification in question is given.

[Despite subsection (4), the Commission may accept an objection submitted after the ^{F8}(5A) end of the 28-day period if they consider there is a good reason why the objection is late.

- (5B) Where the application is an application for consent to divide a croft under section 9 made by an executor under section 10(4A)—
- (a) subsections (3) to (5A);
 - (b) in subsection (6), the words “When those 28 days have elapsed”;

 - (d) subsections (16) and (17),
- do not apply.]

(6) When those 28 days have elapsed the Commission [^{F9}must, subject to subsection (6A), decide the application by] —

- [^{F10}(a) granting it;
- (b) granting it subject to conditions; or
- (c) refusing it.]

[Where—

- ^{F11}(6A) (a) the application for consent to divide the croft is made by an executor under section 10(4A); and
- (b) it relates to a bequest of the tenancy of the part of the croft comprising the site of the dwelling-house on or pertaining to the croft to one natural person and the tenancy of the remaining part to one other such person,
- the Commission must grant the application (whether or not subject to conditions).]

^{F12}(7) In considering their decision on the application, the Commission must have regard to the following—

- (a) in the case of an application relating to a croft—
 - (i) whether any person is or will be ordinarily resident on, or within 32 kilometres of, the croft;
 - (ii) whether the croft is being or will be cultivated or put to such other purposeful use as is consented to under section 5C(4);
- (b) the interests of the estate which comprises the land to which the application relates;
- (c) the interests of the crofting community in the locality of that land;
- (d) the sustainable development of that crofting community;
- (e) the interests of the public at large;
- (f) any objections received under subsection (4) or (5A);
- (g) any plan of the Commission approved and published under section 2C;
- (h) any other matter which the Commission consider relevant.

^{F12}(8)

^{F12}(9)

^{F12}(10)

(11) Subject to any other provision of this Act as to procedure, the Commission may determine by such procedure and arrangements (including arrangements as to delegation and the powers and duties of persons delegated) as they consider appropriate whether or not to grant the approval or consent applied for [^{F13}or grant it subject to conditions] .

(12) Where the Commission grant the approval or consent applied for they shall enter the proposal or the matter consented to (and if and in so far as they think fit any information obtained by them by virtue of subsection (2) above and pertaining to that proposal or matter) in the Register of Crofts ^{F14}....

[The Commission must, before the expiry of the period of 21 days beginning with the ^{F15}(12A) day on which the decision under subsection (6) is taken, give notice of that decision—

- (a) to the applicant;
- (b) to any person who objected under subsection (4) or (5A); and
- (c) where appropriate and in so far as not already given notice under paragraph (a) or (b), to—
 - (i) the crofter;
 - (ii) the owner-occupier crofter;
 - (iii) the landlord; and
 - (iv) as the case may be, the grazings committee.]

^{F16}(13)

^{F16}(14)

^{F16}(15)

(16) The description is that the objection is made in writing or in another form which, by reason of its having some permanency, is capable of being used for subsequent reference (as, for example, a recording made on audio or video tape).

(17) For the purposes of subsection (16) above (and without prejudice to the generality of that subsection), an objection is to be treated as made in writing where it is—

- (a) transmitted by electronic means;
- (b) received in legible form; and
- (c) capable of being used for subsequent reference.]
