  - (e) satisfies the Commissioners as to the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) above and that the repayment claimed does not relate to any duty which has been repaid or drawn back prior to the making of the claim.

- (4) A claim for repayment under this section shall take such form and be made in such manner, and shall contain such particulars, as the Commissioners may direct, either generally or in a particular case.
- (5) Except so far as the Commissioners otherwise allow, a person shall not make a claim for a repayment under this section unless—
  - (a) the claim relates to duty paid on liquor used as an ingredient or, as the case may be, converted into vinegar in the course of a period of three months ending not more than one month before the making of the claim; and
  - (b) the amount of the repayment which is claimed is not less than £250.
- (6) The Commissioners may by order made by statutory instrument increase the amount for the time being specified in subsection (5)(b) above; and a statutory instrument containing an order under this subsection shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the House of Commons.
- (7) There may be remitted by the Commissioners any duty charged either—
  - (a) on any dutiable alcoholic liquor imported into the United Kingdom at a time when it is contained as an ingredient in any chocolates or food falling within subsection (2)(b) or (c) above; or
  - (b) on any dutiable alcoholic liquor used as an ingredient in the manufacture or production in an excise warehouse of any such chocolates or food.
- (8) This section shall be construed as one with the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979, and references in this section to chocolates or food do not include references to any beverages.

5 Denatured alcohol

- (1) The liquors on which duty is charged under the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979 shall not include any denatured alcohol; and any duty so charged on liquor which has become denatured alcohol before the requirement to pay the duty takes effect shall be remitted.
- (2) In this section—

“denatured alcohol” means any dutiable alcoholic liquor which has been subjected to the process of being mixed in the prescribed manner with a prescribed substance; and “prescribed” means prescribed by the Commissioners by regulations made by statutory instrument.

- (3) The power of the Commissioners to make regulations defining denatured alcohol for the purposes of this section shall include—
  - (a) power, in prescribing any substance or any manner of mixing a substance with a liquor, to do so by reference to such circumstances or other factors, or to the approval or opinion of such persons (including the authorities of another member State), as they may consider appropriate;
  - (b) power to make different provision for different cases; and
  - (c) power to make such supplemental, incidental, consequential and transitional provision as the Commissioners think fit;and a statutory instrument containing any regulations under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) Sections 14 to 16 of the Finance Act 1994 (review and appeals) shall have effect in relation to any decision which—
- (a) is made under or for the purposes of any regulations under this section, and
  - (b) is a decision given to any person as to whether a manner of mixing any substance with any liquor is to be, or to continue to be, approved in his case, or as to the conditions subject to which it is so approved,
- as if that decision were a decision specified in Schedule 5 to that Act.
- (5) Schedule 2 to this Act (which contains amendments for or in connection with the application to all denatured alcohol of provisions of the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979 relating to methylated spirits and also makes a consequential amendment of the Finance Act 1994) shall have effect.
- (6) This section and Schedule 2 to this Act shall come into force on such day as the Commissioners may by order made by statutory instrument appoint, and different days may be appointed under this subsection for different purposes.
- (7) An order under subsection (6) above may make such transitional provisions and savings as appear to the Commissioners to be appropriate in connection with the bringing into force by such an order of any provision for any purposes.
- (8) This section shall be construed as one with the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979.

16 Assessment of interest on duty

- (1) In Schedule 6 to the Finance Act 1994 (air passenger duty: administration and enforcement) after paragraph 11 there shall be inserted—

“Assessment of interest

- 11A (1) Where by virtue of paragraph 7 above duty due from any person for an accounting period carries interest, the Commissioners may assess that person to an amount of interest in accordance with this paragraph.
- (2) Notice of the assessment shall be given to the person liable for the interest or a representative of his.
- (3) The amount of the interest shall be calculated by reference to a period ending on a date (“the due date”) no later than the date of the notice.
- (4) The notice shall specify—
- (a) the amount of the duty which carries the interest assessed (“the specified duty”);
  - (b) the amount of the interest assessed (“the specified interest”);
  - (c) the due date; and
  - (d) a date by which that amount is required to be paid (“the payment date”).
- (5) Sub-paragraphs (6) and (7) below apply where the specified duty or any part of it is unpaid on the date of the notice.
- (6) If the unpaid amount or any part of it is paid by the payment date, the payment shall be treated for the purposes of paragraph 7 above as made on the due date.
- (7) To the extent that the unpaid amount is not paid by the payment date, an assessment may be made under this paragraph in respect of any interest on the unpaid amount which accrues after the due date.
- (8) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (6) and (7) above, a payment—
- (a) which purports to be a payment of the unpaid amount or any part of it, but
  - (b) which is insufficient to discharge both the liability to pay the unpaid amount and the liability to pay the specified interest,
- shall be treated as made in discharge (or partial discharge) of the liability to pay the specified interest before it is treated as discharging to any extent the liability to pay the unpaid amount.
- (9) A notice of interest assessed under this paragraph may be combined in one document with notification of an assessment under section 12 of this Act which relates to the specified duty.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (10) A notice which is so combined must comply with the requirements of this paragraph which relate to a notice which is not so combined.
- (11) The specified interest shall be recoverable as if it were duty due from the person assessed to that interest.
- (12) For the purposes of this paragraph a person is a representative of another if—
- (a) he is that other's personal representative;
  - (b) he is that other's trustee in bankruptcy or is a receiver or liquidator appointed in relation to that other or in relation to any of his property; or
  - (c) he is a person acting in some other representative capacity in relation to that other."
- (2) In Schedule 5 to the 1994 Act (decisions subject to review and appeal) in paragraph 9 (decisions under Chapter IV of Part I of that Act) the word "and" immediately preceding sub-paragraph (d) shall be omitted and after that sub-paragraph there shall be inserted—
- “(e) any decision with respect to the amount of any interest specified in an assessment under paragraph 11A of Schedule 6;”.
- (3) In section 16 of the 1994 Act (appeals to a tribunal) at the beginning of subsection (8) (meaning of “ancillary matter” for the purposes of that section) there shall be inserted “Subject to subsection (9) below” and after that subsection there shall be inserted—
- “(9) References in this section to a decision as to an ancillary matter do not include a reference to a decision of a description specified in paragraph 9(e) of Schedule 5 to this Act.
- (10) Nothing in this section shall be taken to confer on an appeal tribunal any power to vary an amount of interest specified in an assessment under paragraph 11A of Schedule 6 to this Act except in so far as it is necessary to reduce it to the amount which is appropriate under paragraph 7 of that Schedule.”
- (4) This section shall apply in relation to accounting periods ending on or after 1st January 1995.

17 Preferential debts

In section 386(1) of the Insolvency Act 1986 (categories of preferential debts) and in Article 346(1) of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (equivalent provision for Northern Ireland) after “lottery duty” there shall be inserted “, air passenger duty”.

- (1) Schedule 1 to the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (annual rates of duty) shall be amended as follows.
- (2) In paragraph 1(b) (rate for vehicle constructed after 1946 and for which no other rate is specified) for “£130” there shall be substituted “£135”.

- (3) In paragraph 3(1)(a) (rate for hackney carriage with seating capacity under nine) for “£130” there shall be substituted “£135”.
- (4) In paragraph 10 (trailer supplement)—
  - (a) in sub-paragraph (2) for “£130” there shall be substituted “£135”;
  - (b) in sub-paragraph (3) for “£360” there shall be substituted “£370”.
- (5) This section shall apply in relation to licences taken out on or after 30th November 1994.

19 Vehicle excise and registration: other provisions

Schedule 4 to this Act (which contains other provisions relating to vehicle excise and registration) shall have effect.

Recovery of overpaid duty

20 Recovery of overpaid excise duty

- (1) In Part X of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979, after section 137 (recovery of duties, &c.) insert—

“137A Recovery of overpaid excise duty

- (1) Where a person pays to the Commissioners an amount by way of excise duty which is not due to them, the Commissioners are liable to repay that amount.
  - (2) The Commissioners shall not be required to make any such repayment unless a claim is made to them in such form, and supported by such documentary evidence, as may be prescribed by them by regulations; and regulations under this subsection may make different provision for different cases.
  - (3) It is a defence to a claim for repayment that the repayment would unjustly enrich the claimant.
  - (4) No claim for repayment may be made after the expiry of the period of six years beginning with the date of the payment or, if later, the date on which the claimant (or, where the right to repayment has been assigned or otherwise transmitted, any predecessor in title of his) discovered, or could with reasonable diligence have discovered, that the amount was not due.
  - (5) Except as provided by this section the Commissioners are not liable to repay an amount paid to them by way of excise duty by reason of the fact that it was not due to them.”
- (2) In section 17(5) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979, after paragraph (b) (restriction on repayment of sums overpaid in error) insert—

  - (3) Section 29 of the Finance Act 1989 (recovery of overpaid excise duty and car tax) shall cease to have effect so far as it relates to excise duty.

---

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) In section 14(1) of the Finance Act 1994 (decisions subject to review and appeal), after paragraph (b) insert—
- “(bb) any decision of the Commissioners on a claim under section 137A of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 for repayment of excise duty;”.
- (5) The provisions of this section have effect in relation to payments made on or after such date as the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may appoint by order made by statutory instrument.
