

Criminal Procedure (Consequential Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1995

1995 CHAPTER 40

1 Interpretation.

In this Act—

“the consolidating Acts” means the Principal Act, the ^{M1}Proceeds of Crime (Scotland) Act 1995, the ^{M2}Criminal Law (Consolidation) (Scotland) Act 1995 and, so far as it reproduces the effect of the repealed enactments, this Act;

“the Principal Act” means the ^{M3}Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995; and

“the repealed enactments” means the enactments repealed by this Act.

2 Continuity of the law.

- (1) The substitution of the consolidating Acts for the repealed enactments does not affect the continuity of the law.
- (2) Anything done or having effect as if done under or for the purposes of a provision of the repealed enactments has effect, if it could have been done under or for the purposes of the corresponding provision of the consolidating Acts, as if done under or for the purposes of that provision.
- (3) Any reference, whether express or implied, in any enactment, instrument or document to a provision of the consolidating Acts shall, so far as the context permits, be construed as including, in relation to the times, circumstances and purposes in relation to which the corresponding provision of the repealed enactments has effect, a reference to that corresponding provision.

Status: Point in time view as at 19/02/2001.

Changes to legislation: Criminal Procedure (Consequential Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1995 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 22 August 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Any reference, whether express or implied, in any enactment, instrument or document to a provision of the repealed enactments shall be construed, so far as is required for continuing its effect, as including a reference to the corresponding provision of the consolidating Acts.

3 Rationalisation of penalties.

- (1) Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect for the purpose of setting or altering or enabling the Secretary of State to set or alter the penalties or maximum penalties in respect of certain offences or classes or descriptions of offences.
- (2) Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect for the purpose of amending the enactments there specified for the purposes of and in accordance with the provisions of the said Schedule 1.

4 Transitional, transitory and savings.

The transitional provisions, transitory modifications and savings contained in Schedule 3 to this Act shall have effect.

Extent Information

E1 For extent of Sch. 3, see s. 7(3)(4)

5 Minor and consequential amendments.

The enactments mentioned in Schedule 4 to this Act shall have effect subject to the amendments there specified being amendments consequential on this Act.
