2B Directions by the Keeper of the Registers of Scotland

3 Presumption as to granter’s subscription or date or place of subscription.

(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (7) below, where—
   (a) a [F25 traditional document] bears to have been subscribed by a granter of it;
   (b) the document bears to have been signed by a person as a witness of that granter’s subscription and the document, or the testing clause or its equivalent, bears to state the name and address of the witness; and
   (c) nothing in the document, or in the testing clause or its equivalent, indicates—
       (i) that it was not subscribed by that granter as it bears to have been so subscribed; or
       (ii) that it was not validly witnessed for any reason specified in paragraphs (a) to (e) of subsection (4) below, the document shall be presumed to have been subscribed by that granter.

(2) Where a [F25 traditional document is a testamentary document consisting] of more than one sheet, it shall not be presumed to have been subscribed by a granter as mentioned in subsection (1) above unless, in addition to it bearing to have been subscribed by him and otherwise complying with that subsection, it bears to have been signed by him on every sheet.
(3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) above—
   (a) the name and address of a witness may be added at any time before the document is—
       (i) founded on in legal proceedings; or
       (ii) registered for preservation in the Books of Council and Session or in sheriff court books; and
   (b) the name and address of a witness need not be written by the witness himself.

(4) Where, in any proceedings relating to a [\textsuperscript{3}traditional document\textsuperscript{4}] in which a question arises as to a granter’s subscription, it is established—
   (a) that a signature bearing to be the signature of the witness of that granter’s subscription is not such a signature, whether by reason of forgery or otherwise;
   (b) that the person who signed the document as the witness of that granter’s subscription is a person who is named in the document as a granter of it;
   (c) that the person who signed the document as the witness of that granter’s subscription, at the time of signing—
       (i) did not know the granter;
       (ii) was under the age of 16 years; or
       (iii) was mentally incapable of acting as a witness;
   (d) that the person who signed the document, purporting to be the witness of that granter’s subscription, did not witness such subscription;
   (e) that the person who signed the document as the witness of that granter’s subscription did not sign the document after him or that the granter’s subscription or, as the case may be, acknowledgement of his subscription and the person’s signature as witness of that subscription were not one continuous process;
   (f) that the name or address of the witness of that granter’s subscription was added after the document was founded on or registered as mentioned in subsection (3)(a) above or is erroneous in any material respect; or
   (g) in the case of a testamentary document consisting of more than one sheet, that a signature on any sheet bearing to be the signature of the granter is not such a signature, whether by reason of forgery or otherwise, then, for the purposes of those proceedings, there shall be no presumption that the document has been subscribed by that granter.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4)(c)(i) above, the witness shall be regarded as having known the person whose subscription he has witnessed at the time of witnessing if he had credible information at that time of his identity.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (4)(e) above, where—
   (a) a document is granted by more than one granter; and
   (b) a person is the witness to the subscription of more than one granter, the subscription or acknowledgement of any such granter and the signature of the person witnessing that granter’s subscription shall not be regarded as not being one continuous process by reason only that, between the time of that subscription or acknowledgement and that signature, another granter has subscribed the document or acknowledged his subscription.

(7) For the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this section a person witnesses a granter’s subscription of a document—
(a) if he sees the granter subscribe it; or
(b) if the granter acknowledges his subscription to that person.

(8) Where—
(a) by virtue of subsection (1) above a document to which this subsection applies is presumed to have been subscribed by a granter of it;
(b) the document, or the testing clause or its equivalent, bears to state the date or place of subscription of the document by that granter; and
(c) nothing in the document, or in the testing clause or its equivalent, indicates that that statement as to date or place is incorrect, there shall be a presumption that the document was subscribed by that granter on the date or at the place as stated.

(9) Subsection (8) above applies to any traditional document other than a testamentary document.

(10) Where—
(a) a traditional document is a testamentary document bearing to have been subscribed and the document, or the testing clause or its equivalent, bears to state the date or place of subscription (whether or not it is presumed under subsections (1) to (7) above to have been subscribed by a granter of it); and
(b) nothing in the document, or in the testing clause or its equivalent, indicates that that statement as to date or place is incorrect, there shall be a presumption that the statement as to date or place is correct.

4 Presumption as to granter’s subscription or date or place of subscription when established in court proceedings.

(1) Where a [F31 traditional document] bears to have been subscribed by a granter of it, but there is no presumption under section 3 of this Act that the document has been subscribed by that granter, then, if the court, on an application being made to it by any person who has an interest in the document, is satisfied that the document was subscribed by that granter, it shall—
   (a) cause the document to be endorsed with a certificate to that effect; or
   (b) where the document has already been registered in the Books of Council and Session or in sheriff court books, grant decree to that effect.

(2) Where a [F32 traditional document] bears to have been subscribed by a granter of it, but there is no presumption under section 3 of this Act as to the date or place of subscription, then, if the court, on an application being made to it by any person who has an interest in the document, is satisfied as to the date or place of subscription, it shall—
   (a) cause the document to be endorsed with a certificate to that effect; or
   (b) where the document has already been registered in the Books of Council and Session or in sheriff court books, grant decree to that effect.

(3) On an application under subsection (1) or (2) above evidence shall, unless the court otherwise directs, be given by affidavit.

5 Alterations to [F33] traditional documents: formal validity and presumptions.

(1) An alteration made to a [F34] traditional document required by section 1(2) of this Act—
   (a) before the document is subscribed by the granter or, if there is more than one granter, by the granter first subscribing it, shall form part of the document as so subscribed;
   (b) after the document is so subscribed shall, if the alteration has been signed by the granter or (as the case may be) by all the granters, have effect as a formally valid alteration of the document as so subscribed,

(4) Where a [F36] traditional document bears to have been subscribed by the granter or, if there is more than one granter, by all the granters of it, then, if subsection (5) or (6) below applies, an alteration made to the document shall be presumed to have been made before the document was subscribed by the granter or, if there is more than one granter, by the granter first subscribing it, and to form part of the document as so subscribed.

(5) This subsection applies where—
   (a) the document is presumed under section 3 of this Act to have been subscribed by the granter or granters (as the case may be);
   (b) it is stated in the document, or in the testing clause or its equivalent, that the alteration was made before the document was subscribed; and
   (c) nothing in the document, or in the testing clause or its equivalent, indicates that the alteration was made after the document was subscribed.

(6) This subsection applies where subsection (5) above does not apply, but the court is satisfied, on an application being made to it, that the alteration was made before the document was subscribed by the granter or, if there is more than one granter, by the granter first subscribing it, and causes the document to be endorsed with a certificate to that effect or, where the document has already been registered in the Books of Council and Session or in sheriff court books, grants decree to that effect.

(7) Subsections (3), (4) and (6) of section 4 of this Act shall apply in relation to an application under subsection (6) above as they apply in relation to an application under subsection (1) of that section.

(8) Where an alteration is made to a \[F37\]traditional document after the document has been subscribed by a granter, Schedule 1 to this Act (presumptions as to granter’s signature and date of signing in relation to such alterations) shall have effect.

PART 3

Annotations:

Amendments (Textual)
F63 Pt. 3 inserted (22.3.2014 for specified purposes, 11.5.2014 for specified purposes) by Land Registration etc. (Scotland) Act 2012 (asp 5), ss. 97(2), 122, 123 (with s. 121, Sch. 4 paras. 13, 16); S.S.I. 2014/41, art. 2(1)(a)(b)(2), Sch. Pts. 1, 2 (with arts. 3, 4)

9A Application of Part 3

This Part applies to documents which, rather than being written on paper, parchment or some similar tangible surface are created in electronic form ("electronic documents").

9B Validity of electronic documents

(1) No electronic document required by section 1(2) is valid in respect of the formalities of execution unless—
   (a) it is authenticated by the granter, or if there is more than one granter by each granter, in accordance with subsection (2), and
   (b) it meets such other requirements (if any) as may be prescribed by the Scottish Ministers in regulations.

(2) An electronic document is authenticated by a person if the electronic signature of that person—
   (a) is incorporated into, or logically associated with, the electronic document,
   (b) was created by the person by whom it purports to have been created, and
(c) is of such type, and satisfies such requirements (if any), as may be prescribed by the Scottish Ministers in regulations.

(3) A contract mentioned in section 1(2)(a) may be regarded as constituted or varied (as the case may be) if—
   (a) the offer is contained in one or more electronic documents,
   (b) the acceptance is contained in another electronic document or in other such documents, and
   (c) each of the documents is authenticated by its granter or granters.

(4) Where a person grants an electronic document in more than one capacity, authentication by the person of the document, in accordance with subsection (3), is sufficient to bind the person in all such capacities.

(5) Nothing in this section prevents an electronic document which has not been authenticated by the granter or granters of it from being used as evidence in relation to any right or obligation to which the document relates.

(6) Regulations under subsection (1)(b) or (2)(c) are subject to the negative procedure.

9C Presumption as to authentication of electronic documents

(1) Where—
   (a) an electronic document bears to have been authenticated by the granter,
   (b) nothing in the document or in the authentication indicates that it was not so authenticated, and
   (c) the conditions set out in subsection (2) are satisfied, the document is to be presumed to have been authenticated by the granter.

(2) The conditions are that the electronic signature incorporated into, or logically associated with, the document—
   (a) is of such type and satisfies such requirements as may be prescribed by the Scottish Ministers in regulations, and
   (b) (either or both)—
      (i) is used in such circumstances as may be so prescribed,
      (ii) bears to be certified, and that if the electronic signature bears to be certified (and does not conform with paragraph (b)(i)) the certification is of such type and satisfies such requirements as may be so prescribed.

(3) Regulations under subsection (2) are subject to the negative procedure.

9D Presumptions as to granter’s authentication etc. when established in court proceedings

(1) Where—
   (a) an electronic document bears to have been authenticated by a granter of it, and
   (b) there is no presumption under section 9C that the document has been authenticated by that granter, the court must, on an application being made to it by any person who has an interest in the document, if satisfied that the document was authenticated by that granter, grant decree to that effect.
(2) Where—
   (a) an electronic document bears to have been authenticated by a granter of it, and
   (b) there is no presumption by virtue of section 9E(1) as to the time, date or place of authentication,

       the court must, on an application being made to it by any person who has an interest in the document, if satisfied as to that time, date or place, grant decree to that effect.

(3) On an application under subsection (1) or (2), evidence is, unless the court otherwise directs, to be given by affidavit.

(4) An application under subsection (1) or (2) may be made either as a summary application or as incidental to, and in the course of, other proceedings.

(5) The effect of a decree—
   (a) under subsection (1), is to establish a presumption that the document has been authenticated by the granter concerned, or (b) under subsection (2), is to establish a presumption that the statement in the decree as to time, date or place is correct.

(6) In this section, “ the court ” means—
   (a) in the case of a summary application—
       (i) the sheriff in whose sheriffdom the applicant resides, or
       (ii) if the applicant does not reside in Scotland, the sheriff at Edinburgh, or
   (b) in the case of an application made in the course of other proceedings, the court before which those proceedings are pending.

9E Further provision by Scottish Ministers about electronic documents

(1) The Scottish Ministers may, in regulations, make provision as to the effectiveness or formal validity of, or presumptions to be made with regard to (a) any alteration made, whether before or after authentication, to an electronic document,
    (b) the authentication, by or on behalf of the granter, of such a document,
    (c) the authentication, by or on behalf of a person with a disability, of such a document, or
    (d) any annexation to such a document, (including, without prejudice to the generality of this subsection, presumptions to be made with regard to the time, date and place of authentication of such a document).

(2) Regulations under subsection (1) may make such incidental, supplemental, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision as the Scottish Ministers consider necessary or expedient for the purposes of, or in consequence of the regulations.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), regulations under subsection (1) are subject to the negative procedure.

(4) Regulations which—
    (a) make provision of the kind mentioned in subsection (1)(b), or
    (b) add to, replace or omit any part of an Act (including this Act), are subject to the affirmative procedure.
9F Delivery of electronic documents

(1) An electronic document may be delivered electronically or by such other means as are reasonably practicable.

(2) But such a document must be in a form, and such delivery must be by a means—
   (a) the intended recipient has agreed to accept, or
   (b) which it is reasonable in all the circumstances for the intended recipient to accept.

9G Registration and recording of electronic documents

(1) Subject to subsection (6), it is not competent—
   (a) to record an electronic document in the Register of Sasines,
   (b) to register such a document in the Land Register of Scotland,
   (c) to register such a document for execution or preservation in the Books of Council and Session, or
   (d) to record or register such a document in any other register under the management and control of the Keeper of the Registers of Scotland, unless both subsection (2) and subsection (3) apply in relation to the document.

(2) This subsection applies where—
   (a) the document is presumed under section 9C or 9D or by virtue of section 9E(1) to have been authenticated by the granter, or
   (b) if there is more than one granter, the document is presumed by virtue of any of those provisions to have been authenticated by at least one of the granters.

(3) This subsection applies where—
   (a) the document,
   (b) the electronic signature authenticating it, and
   (c) if the document bears to be certified, the certification, are in such form and of such type as are prescribed by the Scottish Ministers in regulations.

(4) Before making regulations under subsection (3), the Scottish Ministers must consult with—
   (a) the Keeper of the Registers of Scotland,
   (b) the Keeper of the Records of Scotland, and
   (c) the Lord President of the Court of Session.

(5) Regulations under subsection (3)—
   (a) may make different provision for different cases or classes of case, and
   (b) are subject to the negative procedure.

(6) Subsection (1) above does not apply in relation to—
   (a) a document's—
      (i) being recorded in the Register of Sasines,
      (ii) being registered in the Land Register of Scotland or in the Books of Council and Session, or
      (iii) being recorded or registered in any other register under the management and control of the Keeper of the Registers of Scotland, if an enactment requires or expressly permits such recording or registration notwithstanding that the document is not presumed to have been authenticated by the granter or by at least one of the granter,

(b) the recording of a court decree in the Register of Sasines or the registering of such a decree in the Land Register of Scotland,

(c) the registering in the Books of Council and Session of—
   (i) a document registration of which is directed by the Court of Session,
   (ii) a document the formal validity of which is governed by a law other than Scots law, provided that the Keeper of the Registers of Scotland is satisfied that the document is formally valid according to that other law,

Presumption as to granter’s signature or date or place of signing

1 (1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) to (7) below, where—
   (a) an alteration to a [F87 traditional document] bears to have been signed by a granter of the document;
   (b) the alteration bears to have been signed by a person as a witness of that granter’s signature and the alteration, or the testing clause or its equivalent, bears to state the name and address of the witness; and
   (c) nothing in the document or alteration, or in the testing clause or its equivalent, indicates—
      (i) that the alteration was not signed by that granter as it bears to have been so signed; or
      (ii) that it was not validly witnessed for any reason specified in paragraphs (a) to (e) of sub-paragraph (4) below, the alteration shall be presumed to have been signed by that granter.

(2) Where an alteration to a testamentary document consists of more than one sheet, the alteration shall not be presumed to have been signed by a granter as mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) above unless, in addition to it bearing to have been signed by him on the last sheet and otherwise complying with that sub-paragraph, it bears to have been signed by him on every other sheet.

(3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(b) above—
   (a) the name and address of a witness may be added at any time before the alteration is—
      (i) founded on in legal proceedings; or
      (ii) registered for preservation in the Books of Council and Session or in sheriff court books; and
   (b) the name and address of a witness need not be written by the witness himself.

(4) Where, in any proceedings relating to an alteration to a document in which a question arises as to a granter’s signature, it is established—
(a) that a signature bearing to be the signature of the witness of that granter’s signature is not such a signature, whether by reason of forgery or otherwise;

(b) that the person who signed the alteration as the witness of that granter’s signature is a person who is named in the document as a granter of the document;

   (b) a person is the witness to the signature of more than one granter, the signing of the alteration by any such granter or the acknowledgement of his signature and the signing by the person witnessing that granter’s signature shall not be regarded as not being one continuous process by reason only that, between the time of signing or acknowledgement by that granter and of signing by that witness, another granter has signed the alteration or acknowledged his signature.

(7) For the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph a person witnesses a granter’s signature of an alteration—

   (a) if he sees the granter sign it; or

   (b) if the granter acknowledges his signature to that person.

(c) nothing in the document or alteration, or in the testing clause or its equivalent, indicates that that statement as to date or place is incorrect, there shall be a presumption that the alteration was signed by that granter on the date or at the place as stated.

(10) Where—
(a) an alteration to a testamentary document bears to have been signed and the alteration, or the testing clause or its equivalent, bears to state the date or place of signing (whether or not it is presumed under sub-paragraphs (1) to (7) above to have been signed by a granter of the document); and
